

HEALTH NOTICE.

Since our last bulletin, one case of typhoid and one of diphtheria have been reported. The case of paralysis is making good recovery, and only one side of the patient's face will be permanently affected. The State Board of Health sends out a weekly health bulletin, which can be had by sending to Board, at Trenton. This week the bulletin was devoted entirely to typhoid, while a recent number was on paralysis.

Our Inspector is not issuing certificates to youthful travelers. We advise them to stay at home. It has been demonstrated that five per cent of the people who have had typhoid are permanent carriers of the disease. We advise constant care in preparing both cooked and raw food. Normal cooking will not kill typhoid germs.

We believe that all danger from paralysis is about over, but we must look for typhoid for a month more. The only way to prevent this disease is to become clean, keep clean, and preach cleanliness.

A. H. BIRDSALL.
MRS. WM. A. JOHNSON.
JOHN A. BIRDSALL.
DOROTHY BIRDSALL.

Chas. S. King writes his father, Aug. 29th, that he had returned from Tom's River, and had a good time on the water. On Sunday he rescued five people from drowning on the bay, when their sailboat upset and threw them all into the water. He has a fine motor-boat which he keeps at Tom's River, for use when visiting his son Arthur, who lives there.

Mrs. A. H. Birdsall died on Monday evening, Aug. 28th, at her home in Hammonton, after prolonged illness. Funeral service was held at the house on Thursday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. J. Cusworth; burial at Pleasant Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Birdsall have resided here many years, and with their children were universally esteemed. Mrs. Birdsall was a Christian woman, retiring in disposition, a faithful wife and mother.

Man Missing—Body Found.

George N. Cleer, aged sixty, for many years a resident of Hammonton, an employe of H. K. Spear, left his home at Seventh Street and Second Road at nine o'clock last Sunday morning, gun in hand, and his nude body was found on Thursday afternoon, by a searching party, with a gunshot wound in his head.

He started out for a walk in the woods, to "shoot pike" in a nearby creek, as he told his wife. At eleven o'clock neighbors heard a gunshot, but did not connect it with his disappearance. Becoming alarmed by his long absence, Mrs. Cleer notified her neighbors, and they searched carefully, without success. On Thursday morning, a party went to the house and made inquiries in that section, securing what information they could, then organized a volunteer force, who scoured the woods and swamp for miles south of his place. Separating from the others, Messrs. W. J. Vernier, D. E. Ballard, and Carl Orloff came upon the dead body between Seventh and Eighth St., near the Pennepot. Coroner Chas. Cunningham was soon notified, and took charge of the remains. County Prosecutor Moore had been notified and sent Detective J. V. Baker to the scene at once. Mrs. Cleer had offered a reward for the finding of her husband, but of course no one would accept it.

It is supposed that Mr. Cleer was temporarily insane, the result of an injury to his head some years ago, which rendered him unconscious for hours, and was not responsible for his act of self-destruction.

A wife, son and daughter (both married) have sincere sympathy in this sad hour.

FLEETING PROSPERITY IS FOOL'S PARADISE

Don't Let Smoke From Munition Factories Cloud Your Brain With Belief It's Abiding.

PROTECTION OUR BULWARK.

Forget Not the Dire Conditions Which Depressed This Country Under the Democratic Free Trade Tariff Prior to the War—They Will Return to Plague and Hunger Unless the Republicans Are Restored to Power.

"When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions," says Mr.
Hughes, "we see that we are living in a fool's paradise." This is the condition to which the administration and its supporters have deliberately closed their eyes. When the war cloud broke over Europe this country was experiencing the most serious depression it had known since 1863, when the Democratic tariff policy was in full control of the United States.

Suddenly there came from over the sea a demand for munitions of war, shells, food, supplies, everything needed by vast armies and by countries whose sons were taken from the field and the workshop, never to return.

As a result our exports and the balance of trade in our favor have reached figures not surpassed any other before known. Temporarily, especially in the east, there is no lack of work at high wages. For Europe, much as we desire to see it prosper, this is not the condition to which we are to return. For here it is a "fool's paradise," because not clouded by the smoke from munitions factories, have fully felt and fully appreciated.

What the Republican candidate for president says about it the Democrats know to be true.

"Our opponents promised to reduce the cost of living. This they have failed to do, but did reduce the opportunity of making a living. Let us not forget the conditions that existed in this country under the new tariff prior to the war. Production had decreased, business was languishing, new enterprises were not undertaken, instead of expansion there was contraction, and our streets were filled with the unemployed."

The suspension of these conditions is not nation wide, only sectional, and depends upon the character of the war.
Those who think otherwise are indeed living in a fool's paradise—Portland

Those who are concerned to know what Mr. Hughes would have done had he been in Mr. Wilson's place must not assume he would not have done as Mr. Wilson has. And that is answer enough.

Mr. Hughes is not only going direct to the public, but the public is going direct to him. A genuine American city-dweller.

President Wilson's alarm clock is ringing at 10 o'clock this morning.
He can reach out and beat him at the morning of March 5.

Postmaster General Burleson is too foxy a politician to adopt for his department the McAdoo rule forbidding any correspondence with parties appearing in politics. Mr. Burleson resists that postmaster is entitled to some exercise for his money.

There are no strings or mental restraints to the public pledges of administrative reform given by Charles E. Hughes. He means to do it. He of New York guarantees the fulfillment of every promise.

Democrats are now convinced that Charles Evans Hughes is a warm proposition.

It is gratifying, indeed, to find that Mr. Wilson still stands on the suffrage question where he stood at the beginning of his administration. He has changed on about everything else—Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

Mr. Hughes says there should be no drilling in Mexican affairs. Maybe, but we have had enough of the arm of Wilson, Carranza & Co.

According to the week's latest work of fiction, the Democratic campaign looked like the worst of the country received during the Wilson administration $10,000,000 more than they received under Taft. And all it cost them to keep something like the dinner bill was $10,000,000 more.

"What is the president's policy—does any one know? Has the executive ever had a policy for more than six months on the Mexican question?"

"If I elected president I will go to it that American rights in Mexico are protected."

"There is no man who could sincerely present to an American community a plan to that an American citizen's right stop at the coast line."

"We will not get through with this old office between the United States and labor. We are not laborers and not citizens in this country. We are fellow citizens."

"All that the workmen want is a square deal."

"The Republican party stands for a prosperity produced by sound American policies."

tuted others to satisfy partisan obligations. This must stop." pork comes home to roost on their but government by deeds is always on masterpiece, and was found it at last in the log lying by his fireplace:

dogging for them that love him, that the humblest occupation is not far from the kingdom of God, and that even a common field may be a temple not made with hands, in the order of the prophet—Jesus Himself testified his own country.

Farmers Not Awake to Present Day Opportunities.

Every industry has a method of advertisement; furthermore, conferences and conventions are held by business men for the purpose of learning new and more efficient methods.

Field meetings and exhibits serve the same purpose to the farmers who attend them. Not only do they become acquainted with other farmers, and learn new methods, but also learn from the exhibits the changing demands of the markets.
Those who exhibit are advertising the merits of their goods to those outside of their own community.

The Hammonton Field Day Committee has arranged the Field Day on Saturday next, September 9th, at the Park, for the fulfillment of these purposes, and all awards will be made there on a basis of fancy products.

Over $100 will be given, in cash and merchandise, as prizes for the best exhibits of farm products and household arts.

The fruit division affords opportunity to exhibit all varieties of peaches, apples, pears, grapes and berries.

The poultry division consists of eggs, and tricos of live birds, 1916 hatch, in breeds raised in Atlantic County.

The truck division comprises all of the principal vegetables that are raised in the county.

The flower show will consist of set exhibits.

In the household arts class will be shown crocheting, tatting, embroidery, jellies, canned goods, cake, cookies, biscuits, bread, rolls.

A silver loving cup will be donated by the Atlantic City Chamber of Commerce for best exhibit of marketable fruit. Special prizes will be awarded in each class.

Send your exhibits, prepaid, to the committee, so as to arrive on September 8th. All exhibits will be returned if so desired.

For further information, consult your nearest Vocational School Instructor or Farm Demonstrator.

Not "How low priced?" but "How good a brand of Paint" shall I buy for the painting? The only answer can be Atlas Paint, manufactured by Geo. T. Wetherill.
Paint is the only insurance to be had on lumber; why use a cheap brand of Paint? It will cost you as much for labor.
