Post-Office Bars Cigarettes.

At a conference of the Chicago Post-office authorities it was decided to hereafter employ no boy who smoked cigarettes, or who is known to have once been addicted to the habit. Heretofore, there has been a rule in force that boys employed by the office could not smoke while working, but believing that smoking has a demoralizing effect, and because of the need of the most intelligent and active boys, it is thought wise to make closer restrictions.

An examination is soon to be held, when seven hundred youths will enter into competition for positions in the post-office, and the new order will have no small effect upon so large a number of applicants. The clause relating to cigarettes says: "No small-boys will be allowed to participate in the examination, since only the best equipped boys, mentally and physically, are wanted in this service; and under no circumstances will a boy who smokes cigarettes be employed." The service referred to is that of special delivery messengers, for which appointments are made from this examination.—Union Signal.

Assounded the Editor.

Editor B. A. Brown, of Bonnetville, S. O., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength nor vigor, and suffered great distress from her stomach; but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well—can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50 c., at Crowell's.

DYSPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kellor, Philadelphia. "We tried many physicians and numerous remedies, but with no results until I heard of Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. We bought six boxes, and the results far surpassed our expectations. She now eats and sleeps well, is gaining in flesh, and her color, which had got to be yellow and sickly, is now as fresh as when we were first married, and I feel her living Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."

Important School Law.
The new State School Law, enacted this year, has several provisions which should be more generally known. One, providing for the admission of new pupils, reads as follows: [P. L. 1900, Sec. 125, p. 231.] Children who have never attended any public or private school may be admitted to a public school during the ten days immediately following the opening of the school for the fall term, during the first five days in January and April respectively, and at no other time except by a majority vote of all the members of the board of education of the school district in which such school shall be situated.
Parents are compelled to send their children to school every day, the law reading thus:
[P. L. 1900, Sec. 154, p. 241.] Every parent, guardian or other person having control of a child between the ages of twelve and fourteen years, shall send such child to public day school each day while such school shall be in session, unless such child shall be excused by the board of education of the school district in which such parent or guardian shall reside, upon his being shown to the satisfaction of said board that the child is such as to prevent his or her attendance at school, or that such child is being taught in a private school or at home in such branches as are usually taught in public schools to children of his or her age, or for other good cause.

Yes, Hammonton is prospering.
One evidence is the large number of property improvements going on and in progress. Carpenters are busy. One of our contractors has fifteen such jobs now on his hands.

the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for election of officers will be held

Atlantic City. Mr. J. S. Taylor will carry a large stock of Mr. French's paints after the closing of the factory.
Some local base-ball enthusiasts are taking the proper course to kill the sport in the estimation of the best people.
We mean, to state it plainly, that heavy betting on the game was indulged in last Monday, and the Pleasantville boys were credited with taking home "a pile of Hammonton money." Better stop that at once. It was gratifying that spelled the old-time hamless horse and ruined many a man, financially and morally, and brought the sport into disrepute. It will kill base-ball, if continued. Play a good, strong, honest game, boys, that all may enjoy without scruple, and insist that your friends drop the gambling venture.

Married.
CHAS. MILLER. At the M. E. parsonage, Hammonton, N. J., Sunday, Sept. 2nd, 1900, by the Rev. W. N.
Chester, Mr. Chas. Miller, of New York, and Miss Cora Miller, of Bato.
They Struck it Rich.
It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising house as the Crownell Pharmacy entered the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the wonderful remedy that has started the world by its marvellous cures. The lure of enthusiasm over it has become a bit tiresome, and the demand for it is immense. They give free trial bottles to customers, and positively guarantee it to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. A trial proves its merit. Price, 50 c. and $1.

Base-Ball.

It was a surprise to many to learn, after the game last Saturday, that we had been playing the St. Johns, instead of the Victor A. A. But we defeated that strong team with the close score of 4 to 3. Black pitched a good game, striking out five in four innings, when he was relieved by P. Jefferson. Only eight of the visitors reached first on three hits, two runs, and two errors. A specimen of Black's pitching—in the third, with three on base, none out, the visitors scored one run, Black assisting to put out one and struck out two.

The two games with Pleasantville, on Labor Day, were the two most exciting games, most hotly contested, ever played here, this season at least. At the end of the fourth, the score stood 3 to 3, and neither side tallied until the end of the eleventh. Conley hit out, stole second, moved up on Watson's out, and tallied the winning run on Herbert's hit. The score:

In the afternoon, neither side could get a man in until the tenth, when a life, a couple of well-placed hits tallied three runs for the "off shores." It looked like a shut-out for Hammonton, when, with two out, Morganwick (who batted for Scull) was hit by a pitched ball, Tell went out to center, and Cordery advanced them one base; Jefferson popped up a little fly, which E. Long obligingly muffed. Morganwick tallied, and Tell, in attempting to make home, was retired. Score:

We think the management should insist on stopping all bets offered publicly in the grand stand, thus putting this alluring and dangerous temptation in the way of the young boys who are too weak to resist.
