Mrs. Blank. "Do you use lard made from diseased hogs?"
Mrs. Dash. "No."
Mrs. B. "How do you know that you do not?"
Mrs. D. "Because I use Jackson's lard. I know it is pure, because he tries it all out himself."

We have several hundred pounds left yet of our own Lard.

It requires "hard pushing" to dispose of poor wares. All sorts of schemes are devised to "pull off" inferior clothing onto the unwary.

At Yates', corner Thirteenth and Chestnut Streets, schemes are not in vogue—the goods sell then selves. They are gotten up with great care, are superior in every way, and still are sold at moderate prices.

LESSON ANALYSIS.

I. THE BLIND MAN MET.

1. The Present Saviour.
As he passed by, he saw a man (1). God is... a very present help in trouble (Ps. 124: 4).

There am I in the midst of them (Matt. 18: 20).

Lo, I am with you always (Matt. 28: 20).

He is the Afflicted Man.

Who did sin... that he should be born blind? (2).

Affliction cometh not forth of the dust (Job 34: 27).

Many are the afflictions of the righteous (Ps. 34: 19).

This sickness is... for the glory of God (John 11: 4).

Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth (Heb. 12: 6).

The opportunity for Work.

My meat is... while it is day (4).

Wist ye not that I must be in my Father's house? (John 8: 56).

My meat is... to accomplish his work (John 4: 34).

The words... given me to accomplish (John 11: 9).

1. As he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth (1).

2. The life-long affliction (3).

3. The gracious Helper (4).

4. Blessing needed (2).

5. That the works of God should be made manifest in him (1).

6. A blind subject (2).

7. A world-wide manifestation (3).

8. "I am the light of the world" (1).

9. The world's darkness (2).

10. The Light (3).

11. THE BLIND MAN WAS HEALED.

1. The Lord's Commands.

Go wash in the pool of Siloam (7).

Whatever he saith unto you, do it (John 13: 20).

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love (John 14: 20).

His commandments are not grievous (1 John 5: 3).

These three years I come seeking fruit

(Luke 13: 7).

The Son of man came to seek and to save (Luke 19: 10).

II. The Vital Question:

Doth thou believe on the Son of God? (36).

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved (Mark 16: 16).

He that believeth on the Son shall have eternal life (John 3: 36).

Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved (Acts 16: 31).

With the heart man believeth unto righteousness (Rom. 10: 10).

III. The Saving Response:

He said, Lord, I believe (38).

I believe: help thou mine unbelief (Mark 9: 24).

I have believed that thou art the Christ (John 11: 27).

We believe that thou camest forth from God (John 16: 30).

We believe that we shall be saved through... Jesus (Acts 15: 11).

1. "Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and flouting him, he said: (1) Jesus knows (2) Jesus cures; (3) Jesus saves. (4) Cast out by men; (5) Taken up by the Lord. (6) Rejection of man; (7) Acceptance of Jesus."

2. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

3. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

4. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

5. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

6. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

7. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

8. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

9. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

10. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

11. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

12. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

13. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

14. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

15. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

16. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

17. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

18. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

19. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

20. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

21. "Doth thou believe on the Son of God?" (36).

"You don't approve of matrimony?"

"Indeed I do—for young people, who can grow up together and adapt their tastes and fancies one to the other's. But for old folks, never! I don't see how a self-reliant spinster could ever get on in her way of life to an equally cranky old bachelor, or a widower who would be for ever trying to make his wife the dear departed, my predecessor!"

"Then nothing would persuade you to marry?"

"Nothing!" I answered fervently. "I devoutly hope I shall never be afflicted with softening of the brain, for in that case I might be daft enough to think I would be better off if married."

Had I suspected that she was thinking of herself I might have spoken differently; at that time I fancied that she was doing so, and my friends, who were present, to do, pitying me because of my state of celibacy.

Pity, indeed! They should rather congratulate me that I am able to take care of myself.

And my golden birthday is a thing of the past! What a prophetic name! Each of my invited guests brought me a gold-colored gift, most of them were the precious metal itself; even dear mamma put her work and presented me with a bracelet made of tiny gold half-dollars, issued from the San Francisco mint some years ago.

But my most precious and certain gift was the old seal ring which temporarily adorns the third finger of my left hand, and to it I have a strange tale.

Mrs. Lyford evidently did not know of Alice's mischievous plan until the girl and I, well-entitled and presented friends with her this evening. The friend of the sterner sex, but I was so much occupied in trying to suppress the little witch's love of joking at her expense that I forgot that I would not ask even his name.

"Dear Miss Copithorne," Alice had entered my parlor, she had seen the red velvet coverlet and said, "I shall take it as an immense favor if you will permit me to bring a most charming gentleman with me to your birthday party. No, you will be looking so quizzical, he is not 'veal,' but a man of mature years."

I had long ago alluded to some of the old-fashioned customs of my family, and she had said, "I have heard that you were a very good girl, and I am sure you will be a very good mother."

"Pray what are you doing with a matron?" I asked her. "I had a very good girl, and I am sure you will be a very good mother."

"I am doing what I can to make a good girl of you," she said. "I am sure you will be a very good mother."

"I am doing what I can to make a good girl of you," she said. "I am sure you will be a very good mother."

WOMAN'S WEAR.

BY MARY W. GLEASON.

Say, do women join the army? For women are so frail! To make the things would fall! But I say a woman needs a day by day within her home. And I say a woman needs a day by day within her home. And I say a woman needs a day by day within her home.

They say that we are altogether bad. (Forgive me, but I am not a saint.) And I say a woman needs a day by day within her home. And I say a woman needs a day by day within her home. And I say a woman needs a day by day within her home.
