SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1871.

FOR GOVERNOR,
Cornelius Walsh.

Special Notice!

With this number we commence the issue of the REPUBLICAN twice a week, for the campaign. Once a week is not sufficient for us to pay our respects to our numerous readers (including "Bombast Johnny," the Reform Committee, "Let us have Peace," and the Democratic party.) If, after the close of the campaign, our patrons desire its continuance as a semi-weekly, and the requisite support is tendered, we shall take pleasure in continuing our visits twice a week. Otherwise, we shall resume our weekly visitation.

[Special to the Atlantic Journal, by the White Wire Clothes Line.]
Joel Parker was nominated for Governor by the Democratic Convention on Wednesday.

The New York Times says: "The Ring organs, led by the World, are trying to hide the raceability of the Ring by raising a side issue about the 'national debt.' Why will they not tell their readers that under Ring management the debt of the city is over one hundred and twenty-five million, or $132.66 for every man, woman, and child of the population in this city, while the national debt is but $59.22 per head of the entire population of the United States?"

The New York Times very pertinently remarks:
Mr. Walsh's political opponents have found only two reasons why he should not be elected Governor of New Jersey. One is that he is a church member, and the other that he has acquired a considerable fortune by his own labor. From the one they infer that he is a hypocrite, and from the other that he is a miser. Their inferences, however, are more injurious to them than to him, and unless they can bring some more substantial charges against him than these, they "do but spend good breath in railing at" him.

The chance of the South receiving any indemnity for the loss of their slaves is exceedingly small. A Baltimore paper says, nevertheless, that "many Maryland democrats favor demanding from the government pay for their emancipated slaves, as suggested by the Richmond Whig." But have these Maryland democrats taken the "new departure?" If so, they will find on reading the fourteenth amendment or article of the constitution, when they have endorsed, that it ties them up, and that, in any event, the supreme law now is that "neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave." Maryland democrats, this is your "new departure," and you can't back out.

The editor of the New York Tribune having been called upon to exercise his gift of prophecy with reference to the Tammany Ring, makes this announcement:

"Tammany will be hung on the first day that the legal voters of this city and State are allowed to record their judgment on her iniquities, in defiance of fraudulent naturalizations, twenty-barrel repeaters, bribed miscreants, and ballot-stuffers generally. The Tammany domination is founded in wholesale fraud at the polls, and with such fraud it will end."

The Administration has given another evidence of its determination to crush out the spirit of insubordination which has prevailed in many parts of the South since the close of the war. Government troops will be continued in the disaffected districts, and companies already stationed there will be filled to their maximum number, thus largely increasing their efficiency. The larger portion of the infantry will be assigned to duty in the South, leaving the frontier to cavalry defence. In the presence of this formidable force little trouble need be feared from secret political organizations. Bullies and bayonets are too much for even masked marauders. The latter will lift their disguises and become peaceable citizens, and, for a time at least, the public will hear of no more Ku Klux outrages.

The First Gun.

Great Republican Demonstration in Jersey City—The Nomination of Cornelius Walsh Ratified.

An immense Republican meeting, upon four hours' notice, was held on Friday, of last week, in the large hall of the Catholic Institute, Jersey City, to ratify the nomination of Cornelius Walsh for Governor. Before the time for opening, the hall was packed to its utmost capacity with a highly respectable audience, including many ladies, and over 1,000 people were unable to gain admittance.

The nominee, Mr. Walsh, and Gen. Kilpatrick, his opponent in the Convention, were present, and were greeted with the utmost enthusiasm.

Ex-Mayor Goppsil presided, and introduced Mr. Walsh, who was received with rounds of cheers.

Mr. Walsh expressed his thanks at this hearty welcome, and was overwhelmed to see so immense a gathering so few hours after the meeting of the nominating convention, and said that it augured success in the coming contest. Work was to be the motto for the next two months, and he for one should work with heart and hand until the close of the contest. He thanked them for this demonstration, which would thrill all Republicans throughout the State.

Major Pangborn introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Jersey City welcome the contest in which they are now summoned to enter against their old enemy, the Democratic party, which they have so often defeated, but which defeat neither chastens, purifies, nor reforms.

Resolved, That we have no "new departure" to make, but adhering to the well-known and well-tried principles of pure Republicanism, freedom, justice and equal rights for all men, and appealing confidentially to the record of the good works of our party in the nation and State, we ask the people of the State of New Jersey to sustain us by their suffrages.

Resolved, That in Cornelius Walsh, the candidate for Governor, we have a citizen of the highest character, of integrity and record unimpeachable; a Republican whose fidelity has been proved by long and faithful service; a man who deserves and possesses the confidence of the people, and who, as Governor of this ancient Commonwealth, will guard well her interests, and will reflect honor on those who honor him with high public trust.

Resolved, That, united and determined to win, we will win in this contest, and that is the line on which we mean to fight it out, and no other.

The resolutions were adopted amid great enthusiasm, without a dissenting voice.

Gen. Kilpatrick being introduced, was received with hearty applause. He said that he rejoiced to see congregated on so short a notice so vast an assemblage. After sleeping over yesterday's proceedings at Trenton, he had resolved to come into New Jersey to work for the cause. They had assembled there to proclaim to the people of New Jersey, both Democrats and Republicans, that his friends who had followed him would now go further, and do more to make Cornelius Walsh Governor of New Jersey (cheers) than if he had been their first choice. Let me say to you, (said General Kilpatrick, turning to Mr. Walsh,) if I had known that you were to be a candidate, I should not have been a candidate against you. You have been unwavering in your fidelity to the cause of Republicanism, and if elected it will only be a glorious reward for your unwavering devotion to the cause. The General spoke on national affairs, and scouted the idea of centralization of power. He was frequently applauded.

Major Z. K. Pangborn, of the Evening Journal, next addressed the assemblage, speaking eloquently, and holding the audience in close attention. His remarks were telling, and frequently applauded. The meeting broke up with nine cheers.

The following dispatch was yesterday received by Mr. Walsh from Gen. Kilpatrick:

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 8, 1871.
HON. CORNELIUS WALSH, Newark N. J.
Yesterday's excitement has passed away. My friends will be your friends. We will rally from Carpenter's Point to Cape May, and there shall be no Democratic triumph in New Jersey this Fall. We begin the battle here for you to-night. Come and see the reception we will give you.

Yours firmly, J. KILPATRICK.

A dispatch from Washington says that Mr. Boutwell has not withdrawn any portion of the new loan, and that his instructions to the various agents throughout the country were intended to suspend the offer of the four and a half and four per cents until he should have disposed of the first instalment of five per cents. This done, he will offer the balance of the five per cents only in connection with the four and a half and four per cents.

MAINE.

A SWEEPING REPUBLICAN VICTORY—THE LEGISLATURE ALL RIGHT.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 12.—Upon the fairest calculations, based on all returns thus far received, Gov. Perham's majority will be between 10,000 and 11,000. We think we have carried every county but one. Have elected 29 out of 31 Senators, and more than three-fourths of the House of Representatives. The three largest cities of the State, Portland, Bangor and Augusta, elected nine anti-Republican Representatives last year. We have carried them all this year and have reclaimed Lincoln County, which the Democrats have carried for several years. The aggregate vote in the State will be considerably larger than last year, and Gov. Perham's majority will be nearly 3,000 greater.

THE KU-KLUX.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 11.—In Russell Co. Kentucky, on the night of the 7th, Deputy United States Marshal Jackson and a party of soldiers made a raid on a Ku-Klux camp. A soldier named Crusoe was killed and Sergeant Strader wounded. A man named Caffrey was arrested as the murderer of Crusoe, and another named Jones arrested as a member of the same Ku-Klux gang. Both were brought to this city to-day and placed in jail.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Monday, Sept. 11, 1871.
The evacuation by the German troops of the four departments contiguous to Paris will be completed on the 13th inst. Negotiations have commenced in relation to the evacuation of the whole of France. It is decided that the evacuation shall commence at Fort Charenton, which will be first delivered up to the French by the German Commander.

THE CHOLERA.

LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 12, 1871.
It is denied that the cholera is abating in Russia, and stated that there is still an average of 150 deaths per day in Kiev. The American ship Lovello, from Hamburg, has arrived at Cardiff, with four of her crew dead from cholera. The vessel has, of course, been detained at quarantine.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS THINK OF OUR NOMINEE.

We take the following from the New York and Phila. papers of Friday, 8th inst. [From the New York Tribune.]
The Convention which met in Trenton yesterday was a remarkable one, not only in number but in its composition. It was composed, to a greater extent than is usual in nominating conventions, of citizens distinguished for honesty, intelligence, and determination. It chose for a standard-bearer during the coming campaign a gentleman whose name bears special weight among the solid men of the State. Cornelius Walsh is the architect of his own fortunes, a substantial manufacturer of Newark, a public spirited and Christian citizen. He will make a worthy successor of that excellent and independent Chief Magistrate, Gov. Randolph. We assume that this is a nomination made to win, and though it will require serious work and thorough organization, victory is now within the reach of our friends of New Jersey. Their opponents will probably make blunders. But it is not safe to count upon them. Let our friends imitate the example of the Republicans in the States which have already voted and they will reap the same results which have been so creditably garnered in Connecticut, North Carolina, and California. The Convention yesterday had only the embarrassment of riches in their candidates. We are sure that all those whose names have been mentioned for the post of leadership will now go heartily into the campaign, determined upon a victory which shall insure the position of New Jersey in the future as a Republican State.

[From the Philadelphia Bulletin.]
The Republicans of New Jersey elected Mr. Cornelius Walsh as their candidate for Governor, and so gave to their party a promise of victory. Mr. Walsh is well known in the State as a gentleman, an honest man and a sturdy Republican. During the war he was at the head of the Sanitary Commission of New Jersey, and in that position he did good and valiant service to the soldiers, using with liberality that large wealth which has been lavished since upon every worthy charity in the State. He is a popular man, and as he has been placed upon a platform which commands itself to every man who believes in the righteousness of pure Republican principles, there can be little doubt that he will be elected by a handsome majority. The New Jersey Republicans recognized and acted upon the fact that victory can be achieved in a respectable community only by the nomination of men for whom the people can have respect. If we had proper recognition of the same truth on this side of the river we should enter the campaign with such enthusiasm that success would be certain. It is worth while, perhaps, in this connection, to commend Mr. Boval for his early withdrawal from the contest. The loss was performed with a grace which atones, in some measure, for the folly which assumed that such a nomination could have been possible under any circumstances.

Why They Don't Like Him.

The last issue of Harper's Weekly contains an excellent political cartoon, under the boys' caption in which President Grant is represented in the course of the page calm and serene, in the consciousness of duty performed, the law enforced and obeyed. Around the picture of the President, and forming a sort of frame work, are a series of lesser sketches, seven in number, illustrating the title of the whole copied above. First of all is the picture of the audacious editor, with a huge pen in one hand, which he drives into the President's ink bottle in the other, from which he deduces him all over, and his newspaper, "The Daily Calumniator," pinned to his back, with the single sentence accusing him for his opposition—"He won't give me all the best offices."

This is a palpable hit at Charles A. Dana, who followed the President with the most toothsome flattery until he was refused the collectorship of the port of New York. Another cut represents the Wall Street bull, his horns laden down with bags labeled "U. S. gold," with the motto, accounting for his opposition, "He won't let me sell gold." Then there is the southern Ku-Klux, with the motto "He won't let me hang the niggers;" the politician, with the exclamation, "He won't let me steal;" the distiller, objecting that "he makes him pay his taxes." The most effective of all is probably the cut which we have left to the last, wherein the President is represented with his strong hand clutched around the throats of two politicians, representing the North and the South, who are tearing the Constitution, with the terse words of explanation, "He won't let us destroy the Union." Underneath all is the summing of the work of the Administration: "The debt has been diminished, taxation reduced, the Union restored, foreign difficulty settled and the Government was never so respected nor so strong."

Mass Convention!

Pursuant to authority conferred on me, I do hereby call the Republican Mass Convention of Atlantic County, to meet at
RETEL'S HALL, EGG HARBOR CITY,
Saturday, Sept. 30th, 1871,
at TWO o'clock, p. m., to nominate candidates for Senator, Assemblyman, Sheriff, and other officers to be supported at the coming election.
WM. H. BOLTE,
Sept. 1871. Chairman of last Convention.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

TOWN.

Mr. E. J. WOOLEY has the REPUBLICAN for sale at his news stand. Persons wishing extra copies can obtain them of him at the same price as at our office—single copies 5 cts. or 6 copies for 15 cts.

THE CHAMPION.—Mr. J. O. Ransom, left at our office on Tuesday, a Duchess pear weighing 22 ounces, and measuring 14 inches around.

There will be no service at the Episcopal Church, on Sundays, Sept. 17th and 24th. After that, there will be services as usual.

Rev. W. S. McCowan, will preach upon "The Existence and Offices of Spiritual Intelligence," on Sabbath, tomorrow, evening at the Hamonton M. E. Church. Service at 7 1/2 P. M.

E. R. McKean has our thanks for photographic views of the Elwood Bind and the operatives of Irving & Cordery's Shoe Factory. McKean will be in town but two weeks more. Those wishing pictures should call at once.

The Seely boys have our thanks for a mammoth pumpkin, 4 1/2 feet in circumference. An exchange notices one so large that eight men can stand around it. We can put twelve men around ours and not crowd them, either.

There will be an election of officers for Atlantic Council, O. U. A. M., on Tuesday evening next, at their place of meeting, Mechanic's Hall. A full attendance is desired. There will also be a "Degree Meeting" on Thursday evening.

We neglected to inform the Journal that the man who was expected to fall, fell in front of our office last week. The fall damaged the wagon however, more than the man. After repairing damages, the horse ran away again. After another visit to the repair shop we believe Mr. Vincent got home without "lenting" another vehicle.

Mr. J. B. Holt, a few days ago, was assisting a neighbor to clean his well. While at the bottom of the well, the pulley used for hoisting, gave way, and falling, struck him upon the neck and shoulders. Had the iron pulley struck him upon the head, there is little doubt he would have been killed. His escape from almost certain death is rendered more miraculous, when we consider that the sand and water taken from the well, had been taken up in a large bucket, requiring two persons to raise it to the surface. Had the pulley given way while this was being raised, the consequence can well be imagined. We learn that Mr. Holt, although severely bruised, is doing well.

The May's Landing and Egg Harbor City Railroad Company, sold on Thursday afternoon, at May's Landing, the contracts for the building of the bridge over Babcock's stream, and lumber for depot.

Thos. G. Rohrbach, editor of the Egg Harbor "Pilot," has been appointed to serve as Grand Juror in the United States Court, which will be in session at Trenton on Tuesday next.

The ladies fair, connected with the Presbyterian church at May's Landing, this week, netted them over one hundred dollars. The proceeds are to be donated to pay expenses for the repairs of the church.

The editor of the Journal, unable to answer our sallies, gets down from his dignity (?) and takes to dirty stories. We thought the fellow had more brains, but it is evident we were mistaken. We have not the space to waste upon him now. We shall, however, soon pay him proper attention.

The Sunday School Teacher's Institute will be held in the M. E. Church at May's Landing on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, commencing on Tuesday evening. The pastors, superintendents and teachers of the Sunday Schools are earnestly requested to be present and take part in the exercises. Among the addresses we notice the following: "The Work of the Sabbath School—its object and importance," by Rev. F. Stringer; "The work of the Teacher," by Rev. Mr. Dobbins; "The Superintendent—his duties and influence," by O. E. P. Mayhew; "The use of the Blackboard in the Sabbath School," by Rev. N. McConaughy; M. Stites, of Camden, will be present.

The Elwood Loan and Building Association, promises much for the advancement of this place. The constitution of the Association allows any citizen of Atlantic County to take stock and participate in all the privileges afforded by the association for the safe and profitable investment of money. Building associations have been the means of providing homes for thousands of working men. The payment of small amounts at stated times, tends to form habits of saving. In no other way yet discovered has the working man such opportunities of acquiring a home for himself and family, and to secure a reliable resource in sickness or in old age. The first loan of the Association amounting to $200, was sold on the last Monday of August, at a premium of 15 per cent. The following are the officers of the association: Thomas Irving, President; J. H. Atchison, Vice-President; Rev. C. H. Smith, Sec'y; Geo. W. Rich, Treasurer; C. B. Thomson, Solicitor. Board of directors, Rev. N. McConaughy, G. W. Rich, Rev. C. H. Smith, J. B. Filer, Thos. Irving, Michael Begon, J. H. Atchison, J. H. Wilson, John B. Mick, James W. Adams, Chas. B. Whitney, J. H. Curl and John Langham.

The Courts.

The Grand Jury found but five bills out of twenty-six cases. No civil cases were tried—all postponed until the December term.

State vs. Jos. Holmes; assault and battery. Plead guilty—fined $5.00 and costs.

State vs. John Lawrence; assault and battery. Plead guilty—fined $100. and costs.

State vs. A. Hardwick; assault and battery. Plead guilty—fined $50.00 and costs.

State vs. Job Brooks; attempt at prison breach. Sentenced to ten days in jail.

State vs. Andrew Jeffries; assault and battery. Convicted—fined $10.00 and cost.

Appeal, John Abbott, appelle, vs. J. V. Vroom. Judgement of $18.00 for appelle.

Application for a road from the intersection of Camden and Atlantic road and Hamburg Avenue in Mullica Township, passing through Egg Harbor City and ending at Cabin Road in Galloway Township, was granted and surveyors ordered to be appointed.

The application for a road in Galloway Township, pending for some time, was granted.

License granted to Margaret Gaudy to keep a Hotel at Tuckahoe and to Charles J. Clark at Emmellville.

Naturalizations granted to George Merrih, Theodore Croll and Randolph Sturtevant.

Col. Wm. E. Potter, of Bridgeton, noted as Prosecutor of the Pleas, being appointed by the Court last term.

ORPHANS' COURT.—The following sales of land were confirmed: Alonso Potter adm'r &c. of Nancy Sutherland, dec'd; Charles Specht ex'r of Henry Fantock, dec'd; Dorothea Geiger adm'r of George Geiger dec'd; Joseph T. Townsend adm'r of Samuel Loveland, dec'd. A slight accident happened to the excursion train on Thursday morning at White Horse, where it takes the switch for another train. The switchman misunderstood the signal and let the train run "head on," which headed into the cars on the siding and made kindling wood out of some of them. The engine and one car of the train were rendered useless. No one was hurt. The excursion was taken down by the mail train.

Woman's Department.

The next regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be on Tuesday evening, September 19th, at the new club room at Ellis' Hall, Bellevue Avenue. As soon as the arrangements can be completed the club reading room will be opened at that place. All who are interested in the Suffrage and in the Labor questions are invited to co-operate with the club. The New York dailies and other papers will be there on file, also our club correspondence. Many documents, books and articles touching the great questions of the day, will be at the disposal of all visitors. By a change in our constitution, gentlemen can become members, and those interested in our work are invited to do so. At the special meeting last Tuesday, the club decided to purchase a first class sewing machine for the benefit of the members, and a committee was appointed to select one and report at the next meeting. A motion was made to change the name of the club, for certain political reasons connected with the coming presidential campaign. Much discussion of a very animated character followed, and the motion will be taken up again next Tuesday. Two gentlemen signed our constitution and pledge, being the first male citizens who have become members.
