SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

I wish to announce to the people of Hammonton that I have taken the management of Palace Theatre, and have made arrangements with the best Film dealers, to supply me with the best American Films.

I wish to say regarding our new machine, that we have the same kind that is used throughout the country; and if you doubt my word, it is open for inspection. Come and see for yourself. Our machine gives the clearest, steadiest, and most flickerless, compared to any other machine made. No long waits. No sore eyes. Come and make the Palace Theatre your home of amusement,—you will always enjoy a good clean show of refined quality.

Watch for further announcements and come and see our big special show on our opening night,—to-night, Sept. 19th.

Matinee for children, 3 p. m. See the great four-reel feature picture, "The Prisoner of the Awe Gang," a very sensational picture, full of exciting and thrilling scenes. All welcome.

Remember our opening,—this evening, Sept. 19th.

Respectfully yours,
WESLEY VAUGHN.

Mr. William M. Maxwell, one of Hammonton's well known residents died on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 17th, after long illness, aged 74 years. Resolutions of Esteem

On Tuesday evening, August 25th, Shaumunkin Tribe, No. 87, Imp. O. R. M., adopted the following:

Whereas, the Great Spirit of the Universe, in his infinite wisdom, removed from the hunting ground of his fathers one of our worthy and esteemed brothers, Capt. C. D. Loveland; and

Whereas, the long and intimate relations held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in his Tribe, makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him; therefore

Resolved, That the wisdom and ability which he has exercised in the aid of our Tribe, by service, contribution and counsel, will be held in grateful remembrance;

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from among us leaves a vacancy and shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members of this Tribe, and will prove a serious loss to the public;

Resolved, That in deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well;

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the records of the Tribe, a copy printed in the local paper, and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.
