

So-damp-a weather, this.
Robert Cook left this week to enter Lehigh University.

Chas. H. Sparks, of Delanco, is visiting here at his son's.

Ernest M. Jackson and family visited his parents this week.

Adjourned tax sale at two o'clock this afternoon, at Town Hall.

Miss Mae Currie, of Atlantic City, was in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Veit, of Philadelphia, spent several days in Hammonton.

Volunteer Fire Company are to have a little exercise next Monday evening.

Rev. O. P. Eaches, from Haddonfield, occupied the Baptist pulpit last Sunday.

Leon Mart will return to Youngstown, Ohio, where he is employed, in a few days.

John A. Hoyle has sold out his plumbing business to John D. Carver, of Elwood.

D. W. C. Russell has been on the sick list for ten days,—a bad cold and lagrippe.

Mrs. J. D. Countermine and lady friend, from Philadelphia, were Thursday visitors.

It is rumored that a light frost, on Sunday morning, injured some varieties of dahlias.

The Baptist Sunday School is to observe Rally Day, Oct. 5th, with appropriate exercises.

Miss Maude Leonard is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Leonard.

The W. P. U. expect to have Mrs. Reynolds, State Organizer, speak in Hammonton in the near future.

Women's Political Union meeting Thursday, Sept. 25th, eight o'clock, at the home of Miss Mary Conkey.

The Hammonton Trust Company have bought from the Trowbridge estate the building which they occupy.

Little Ha-Ha invites its friends to a cake, doughnut, and apron sale this afternoon, at Klingenberg's news room.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Mohr, from Weehawken, N. J., spent with his aunt, Mrs. Camp, at "The Bellevue."

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Gaynor, also Jesse Miller, of Salem, were in Hammonton and Nesco on Wednesday and Thursday.

There was a run-away on Second Street and Bellevue, Tuesday; but there were too many men about, and he didn't go far.

A friend called to see George E. Strosus on Tuesday, and another on Thursday, at German Hospital, and bring the pleasing word that our townsman is in a fair way to recovery.

But one session daily is held in the suburban schools, during this month, because of the very light enrollment, caused by the need of children's help on the farms and cranberry bogs.

There was an alarm of fire on Monday, at eleven o'clock. The firemen responded, but found the fire was playing havoc with a hay-stack on the Sasso place, Liberty Street. Of course, nothing could be done, the men returned, and the Town will pay five dollars for horse-hire, owing to the folly of the party who sent in the alarm.

Married, on Thursday, Sept. 18, 1913, at 12.30, noon, by the Rev. Alfred Wagg, at the M. E. parsonage, Collingswood, N. J., Paul A. Seely, of Hammonton, and Miss Metta Saxton, of Collingswood. After a short tour they will reside in West Philadelphia. They have the good wishes of many friends in this community.

Mrs. Ann P. Miller, widow of Comrade A. H. Miller, died on Saturday, Sept. 13th, aged nearly 75 years. The family have lived in Hammonton for thirty years or more. Mrs. Miller was a Christian, a faithful wife and mother, a good friend. She had been in failing health for several years. Funeral service were held on Wednesday afternoon, at the family home, on Vine Street, conducted by Pastor H. P. Hoskins. Four daughters, one son, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren survive her.

We are told that Jas. Fungaroli, the new tailor, has bought Frank Lenden's business, and will move into his store.

Mr. Asher F. Pay, of Huron, South Dakota, with his wife, visited their niece, Mrs. A. B. Davis, this week,—his first visit for twenty years.

Many of our streets are lined with terra cotta pipes, for sewers. Everybody thinks they seem very small for the work they are intended to do.

St. Mark's Church. St. Matthew's Day. Morning Prayer at 7 o'clock; Holy Communion at 7.30 and 10.30; Sunday School 11.45; Evening Prayer at 7.30.

The twenty-sixth annual Convention of the W. C. T. U. of Atlantic County will be held in the M. E. Church, Absecon, on Tuesday, Sept. 23rd—three sessions.

If boils are worth five dollars per, Hammonton people should have plenty of spending money. At least two-hundred persons are, or have, been recently, nursing the pets on necks and arms.

M. E. Church. Class meeting at 9.30 a. m. Sermon at 10.30; subject, "Work of the Church." Sunday School at 12. Epworth League at 6.45. Sermon at 7.30. "The grace of the graces." Prayer service Thursday eve at 7.30.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the New Jersey Christian Endeavor Union will be held in Camden, from Wednesday, Oct. 1st, to Friday, the 3rd. Being so close to Hammonton, local societies will probably be well represented.

A CARD.—We wish to express sincere thanks for all kindnesses, especially to those who brightened the life of our mother (Mrs. A. H. Miller), through her long weary illness, by their visits and flowers.

THE CHILDREN.
The time is coming soon for the annual Fairs. Gibbsboro will have hers on the 26th and 27th of this month; Trenton, from the 29th to Oct. 3rd; Mt. Holly, Oct. 7th to 10th; Woman's Civic Club, Nov. 13th, 14th, and 15th.

The fourth annual show of the Hammonton Poultry Raisers Association will be held December 2nd, 3rd and 4th, in Bellevue Hall. These exhibitions have been successful for three years, and it is up to breeders to make it still better this year.

Aaron Bassett was operated upon at Hahnemann Hospital, last week Friday, and the bullet removed from his body, also a piece of his overalls which had been carried into the wound, causing irritation and pain, and threatening blood-poisoning. He is now recovering.

The A. J. Barnard house, two miles down the Reading Railroad, was burned about one o'clock on Monday. There was no telephone near, and by the time word reached town the building was in ruins. There was a still alarm, the chemical engine was started, but did not go down.

The long anticipated Civic Club "Dollar Social" will be held Friday evening, Sept. 26th, at 8 o'clock, in Odd Fellows' Hall. Much amusement is expected over the disclosures of the difficulties and efforts the members experienced while earning "their dollar."

Spend a Sabbath at the Presbyterian Church, Bellevue Avenue and School Park. Live, helpful services. Good music. Morning worship at 10.30; theme, "The safety and helpfulness of faith." Bible study at noon, with class for each age. Evening worship at 7.30; the theme, "In the angels' charge." Prayer service Thursday at 7.30 p. m. If you love God you'll delight to worship him.

Plans are progressing for the "Missionary Week," Sept. 29th to Oct. 3rd, inclusive. The Presbyterian, Baptist and M. E. Churches will provide out-of-town speakers for the first three evenings, and the Home and Foreign Missionary Boards of North America will have four hustlers here for the other two days—all day on Friday. An invitation is extended to those interested living in neighboring towns. Watch for program next week.

Hemingway's Schubert PIANO Ware-rooms

Does $100 Look Good to You?

I will save you that much and more if you are looking for a piano or player piano. What's the use of buying a second-hand piano when you can have a new one of better grade at the same price. What's the use of buying cheaper quality, when you can have the best direct from the factory at the same cost, or less?

Don't be old-fashioned and say, "I can't see how it can be done." Look into my proposition and see for yourself. Just because pianos have never been sold here before on this plan and at such low prices, is no reason they cannot be. I save you the middleman's profit.

Misrepresentation.

Isn't it strange, the way some people see things, and the way other folks tell about them. We heard on the street, this week, that opponents of Councilman Piez, chairman of Highway Committee, say that he used his authority to have Walmer Avenue, adjoining his property, graded and graveled at Town expense; and this is being used to influence votes against Mr. Piez's re-election.

Walmer Avenue was in bad shape,—hills and hollows,—with no outlet for drainage from Central Avenue, the water standing near Wm.
H. Bernhouse's big stable until it evaporated or was absorbed. Two or three weeks ago, while Overseer Combe was using the road scraper on Vine Street, he, by Chairman Piez's directions, scraped Walmer Ave., sufficiently to open gutters and drain the surplus water into a ditch already open. It cost the Town four dollars, and benefited others beside the chairman. And he didn't give the order until after he had consulted the Mayor and others. We believe in "a square deal."

Hallow'en comes on Friday, October 31st. Last year an effort was made, too late in the day, evidently, for a successful parade. This year, plans are already being laid, and possibly prizes will be awarded for the most fantastic make-ups. It is a harmless frolic, which every one enjoys seeing; and we suggest that all who can be on the street that night do so, and make preparations now as to their costume, etc.

The firemen were not very well pleased, Monday, to find Central Avenue cut off, near Broadway, by the contractors. Supposing there was a fire below that point: how would the firemen ever get there?

Very few of the old pavements, in the business centre, are up to the standard. People have to walk very carefully, these rainy days, or get wet feet. Treat all property owners alike.

For Honest Elections.

The law-makers are doing all in their power to prevent frauds at elections. According to their manifesto, "An Act to Regulate Elections," the following are listed among finable offences:

To receive any consideration in return for one's vote.
To vote more than once, in same or different booths.
To impersonate another voter.
Any violation is unlawful.
To make threats, or to otherwise affect the voting of any person.
No pay envelopes shall bear political expressions.
Posting notices or hand-bills affecting elections, in factories.

Note of Appreciation.

A letter from Secretary Dye, of the State Board of Agriculture, to A. J. Rider, says:

"We had a very enjoyable day with you last Wednesday, and one long to be remembered; for the information derived, and the pleasant social time you gave us. I am sure we all thank you for your kindness."

A CARD. The undersigned wish to thank the friends and neighbors of our father, the late Edward L.
Titus, and the Exempt Firemen's Association, for the thoughtfulness, sympathy and kindness extended us in our recent bereavement.

THE CHILDREN.
A Church paper says that Dr.
H. Marshall Thurlow, formerly of Hammon-
ton, pastor in Athens, O., beginning with his family on a vacation-trip, was surprised by receiving a check for $140, from men of his church, with a message, "For a merry outing." During the six years of his pastorate there, the church has had splendid growth along all lines.

The Sellersville, Pa., "Herald," gives an extended account of a recent botanical excursion to Hammon-ton and vicinity, by Dr. Frey, President of the Sellersville Bank.
Prof. W. Reiff Nauman, of Sellers-ville; Frank H. Stokus and Walter M. Bauner, of Telford. They took in the Pennypot-district, 36 species were collected, one of them proving to be unlisted in the State catalogues and botanies for this section. The party were guests of George W. Bassett.

Complicating the situation, the

Time to Wake Up.

MR. EDITOR:—My "Wake-up" article of last week seems to have been cordially received by the people of Hammonton and surrounding country, and this encourages me to hope that the Rip Van Winkle sleep of some of our citizens is nearly at its end. The general impression seems to be that Hammonton had better "get a move" on itself, and in dead earnest go after the Trolley Car, the new manufacturing plants with their big pay-rolls, the Chautaquas, the State Normal Schools, the new and desirable citizenship, and at least a hundred and one other things that enter into the make-up of a modern, enterprising, wide-awake town. Hammonton is one of the finest towns on the map, in most respects. It has the finest location; the finest water supply, the finest train service, the finest climate, finest shipping facilities, the finest "everything else" of any town in all of South Jersey. It is altogether too fine a town to stand at the tail end of the towns of South Jersey. But those who are awake to the drift of things in Hammonton are free to predict that it will go to tail end, very soon, unless the business men of the town wake up and go to work to put it at the head of the list, where it rightfully belongs.
Absolutely, it will not be safe to allow the best things to slip through our fingers any longer.

Chesilhurst has a wide-awake thoroughly organized, and liberal-minded Board of Trade to look after its interests. Mayor Brearly, of that little town, is also about as wide-awake as they very often make them,—as full of enthusiasm for his town as a White Leghorn egg is of meat. During the week, the Chesilhurst Board sent the Mayor to Hammonton for a talk, with the undersigned. Mr. Brearly assures me that the way is now open for Hammonton and other towns up the line to get two things,—1st, additional and very much more desirable train service; and 2nd, the extension of the Trolley to Ham-monton, if this and other towns will co-operate with Chesilhurst Board of Trade to bring it about. At the instance of his Board, Mr. Brearly has visited the managers, both of the roads and the trolley, and knows what he is talking about. He tells me that even the railroads will not oppose the trolley, for the reason that their profit comes largely from through traffic. The only thing in the way of getting these improvments is the fact that our bank presidents, our Boards of Directors of our Banks and Building and Loan Associations are not awake to the best interest either of the town or of themselves as property holders.
They are doing nothing at all to boom Hammonton. I feel almost ashamed not that little Chesilhurst is organized and looking out for its own interest, but that great, big, beautiful Hammonton is not organized at all, but is dead asleep in regard to these matters.

A whole lot of good things have been coming to me lately in regard to these matters, which I will tell you later if the Editor does not sit down on me. Will those who feel as I do in regard to these matters write me a letter and leave it to my judgment what I will do with it.

Vice-President Thos. R. Marshall will deliver the annual address before the Atlantic County Bible Society of New Jersey, in the First Presbyterian Church, Atlantic City, on Sunday, Sept. 21, at 3.30 p. m.
This is one of the oldest Societies in the state, and has for many years exerted a mighty influence for good. Its officers are: Pres't, Rev. Minot S. Morgan, Elwood; Treasurer, John S. Weaver, Pleasantville; Sec'y, H. C. Thomas, of Pleasantville. Mr. Marshall will be entertained at the Chalfonte Hotel.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.
To Amanda Mayor:
By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a certain cause wherein Charles Mayor is petitioner, and you are defendant, you are required to appear and plead, answer or demur to petitioner's petition on or before the 15th day of November next, or in default thereof, such decree will be taken against you as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.
The object of said suit is to obtain a decree of divorce, dissolving the marriage between you and said petitioner.
