Our National Calamity.

While our Nation is shuddering in horror and bowed with sorrow for the calamity that has visited us, thoughtful minds are dazed by the questions of life and death. In pain and grief we seek to learn the lesson of the hour. What means this bolt out of a clear sky? What means this hideous thing that overtook the Nation's head in an hour of peace, in the midst of his friends, smiting the smile from his lips, and turning the sunshine of a bright day into midnight gloom? The life of a nation is within the limits of time. God speaks to peoples by events. What, then, is the dread and solemn word he is saying to America in this hour?

Of the seven regularly elected Presidents in the last thirty-six years, three have been the victims of the assassin's hand. "What is God saying? That is a strange word of David's." "Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee." Has the Giver of Life, then, appointed us and our Chief Executive to wrath? How can such deeds tend to praise? God has not appointed us to wrath. His appointments are to righteousness and peace. It was human hate that sped these shots. It was a sudden—we had almost said inevitable—meeting of forces of wrong that threaten to undermine our government, and those nobler forces that have put us in a place alone among the nations of the earth.

Oh, that we might hear and heed, and strive to interpret what the God of nations has to say to his people.

The Nation's Loss.

As we stated last week, President McKinley had a relapse. All encouraging symptoms disappeared, and the noble patient slowly sank until in an unconscious stupor, and quietly passed away at 2:15 on Saturday morning, Sept. 14th.

The universal grief manifested reminded one of the scenes on that memorable April day, in 1865, when President Lincoln died, the victim of an assassin's bullet; only this time, a fully united country, realizing the great loss, mourned together the death of a Chief Magistrate whom all esteemed, and of a man whom all classes had reason to love.

Arrangements were soon made. The cherished remains were taken to a public hall in Buffalo, where they were viewed by the thousands who desired to pay their last tribute of respect. Monday, a special train took the beautiful casket to Washington, where the body remained in the White House until Tuesday morning, when it was taken to the Capitol, where funeral ceremonies were held, and then the doors opened, permitting the waiting multitude to pass hurriedly by and view the face of the dead.

Tuesday evening, a special train took the funeral party directly to the President's old home, Canton, Ohio, where the public were allowed a view, and on Thursday afternoon the last sad rites were performed, and all that remained of the beloved President placed in a vault, there to lie until a suitable resting place has been provided.

Words are weak to express the sense of loss which this nation feels. A brave soldier—risen from a private to the rank of Major by personal merit; holding various offices of trust,—Governor of his State, Member of Congress, President of the United States, Mr. McKinley's sole motive seemed to be the performance of his duty. As a man, an outspoken Christian, a tender, loving husband, a steadfast friend, he was worthy of the admiration of all, of the love of those nearest to him.

His call came suddenly, but found him ready. His great work for the Nation had been well done, and the machinery of his government was so well in hand that there has been no halting or stoppage of its wheels. While we sorrow at the death of the man, the President, we know that with him it is well.

Mrs. McKinley, frail at best, has borne her affliction surprisingly well; but there are indications that when the excitement is over, in the quiet of her home, the reaction will come, and the "silver cord be loosed."

A Night of Terror.

"A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Mechanics, Mo., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but who begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat and lung diseases. Only 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Crowell's drug store.

Josh Wainwater, of Logansport, Ind., is a poor man, but he says that he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this Balm for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains, and rheumatic and muscular pain. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Crowell.

Base-Ball.

For the second time this season, the Penn Treaty Club, of Philadelphia, met defeat at the hands of our ball tossers, on Saturday last.

The game was not particularly interesting from a spectator's point of view, as the visitors never had a chance to score, owing to the fine battery work of P. Jefferson and Al. Angelow. The playing of the home team was very gratifying, the fielding and batting being of the kind that is not usually seen in amateur circles.

The contest was a Waterloo for Eddie Gruff, the speedy Pennegrove pitcher, who had boasted of what he would do with the Hammonton batters. His temper got the better of him when he saw his choicest assortment of curves flying to all parts of the field, and his baby actions made him a favorite mark for the ever ready rooter.

The uncertainty of base-ball was again demonstrated in this game, as the Penn Treaty team was strengthened in nearly every position, with the expectation of getting even for their first defeat; then to be beaten and shut-out by such a score, their feelings can be better imagined than described.

Only one of the Philadelphia men reached third corner, and then with two out, while the home boys were gathering a pair of tallies about every other inning.

A Communication.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 17th, 1901.
EDITOR H. J. REPUBLICAN,

Dear Sir: I have received a very important business letter from some unknown person who has forgotten to sign their name. It was postmarked "Hammonton, Sept. 16, 4 p.m." I am much gratified to receive the letter, and hope the writer will write again and more fully, and not forget to sign name. I shall certainly acknowledge the friendly spirit therein displayed, and attend to the matter as soon as possible.

Yours truly,
FRANK MIDDLETON,

A Shocking Calamity
"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Reillett, of Wilford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklin's Arnica Balm quickly cured him. It is simply wonderful for burns, boils, piles, and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25 cents. Sold by Crowell."

"It hath been said of the son of the desert 'Lo! he hath said.' But what availeth a whole Sahara, and no sugar to blend therewith? Or, who that hath a river before his door, and never a cow in his barn, shall grow rich in the milk business?"
—Wisdom of Shacabae.

I might add: Who that readeth these entertaining ads and respondeth not shall possess an Angle Lamp that giveth such perfect satisfaction?

It fits the pocket-book, because it saves its price in oil in a short time. Ask those who use it.

Memorial Services.

Hammonton's business houses and churches and private residences were quite generally draped in mourning from Saturday. Flags were kept at half-mast, or draped with mourning goods. Pictures of our late President, framed with black drapery, were seen in many places. In the Baptist Church, a beautiful bouquet of white lilies was placed just in front of the picture—sorrow and hope.

On Thursday afternoon, by agreement, all places of business, and the schools, were closed, and memorial services held in the M. E. Church, the programme being as follows:

President Roosevelt's Proclamation
Read by Rev. R. T. Folk
Singing the late President's dying words, "Nearer my God to Thee," Choir and Congregation
Scripture and Prayer.

Rev. W. K. McKinney
Address: Rev. H. F. Lewis
Singing the late President's hymn,
"Lead Kindly Light," Male Quartet
Address: Prof. N. C. Hollidge
Address: Dr. H. E. Davies
Singing, "When the mist have rolled away"

Opening Exercises—Open to All
Closing Words—Rev. F. L. Lewis
Singing—"My Country, 'Tis of thee"
Benediction—Rev. H. T. Taylor

The church was crowded at this service, the Sunday School room also filled, and extra chairs placed in open space. The main room was tastefully draped, and large bouquets of golden rods were on the platform, lined with black ribbons. The published programme was followed. Mr. C. F. Osgood was called upon, and responded to a short address, eulogizing Mr. McKinley from a business man's standpoint. Rev. H. T. Taylor, Mr. John T. Ash, and Mrs. McAdams also spoke briefly.

It was a solemn occasion, a worthy tribute of love and esteem for the departed Chief Magistrate.

President Roosevelt.

On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14th, about thirteen hours after President Wm. McKinley's death, Vice President Theodore Roosevelt took the prescribed oath of office in Buffalo, N. Y., by request of the Cabinet, and became President of the United States.

Mr. Roosevelt has made a very excellent record, as Police Commissioner of New York City, as Governor of New York, as Vice-President. During the trying grief, he bore himself well, sharing the grief of all. Since becoming President, he has justified the hopes of his friends, and publicly announced that he will not depart from the known policy of Mr. McKinley, but will endeavor to carry out these intentions in letter and in spirit.

There were rumors of various changes to be made in the Cabinet; but on Tuesday the President summoned the members for a consultation, and there announced that he should issue to each a re-appointment to his present position, and should insist that all accept, that the present harmony and prosperity of the country might be continued without interruption. "Why," it is said, "all the Cabinet have agreed."

Figures on Taxation.

As we told you last week, the tax rate in Hammonton, for 1901 will be $1.80 on each $100 of valuation—a reduction of 30 cents from last year's rate. The valuation figures are as follows:

Real Estate valuation.....$121,750
Personal property.....16,925
Total.....$138,675

The various amounts to be raised this year, as given us by the Chairman of the Board of Assessors are:

State school tax.....$122.74
County tax.....297.18
Highways.....200.00
Mills and lights.....300.00
Fire department.....200.00
School bond and interest.....180.00
District school tax.....$1,512.92

The appropriation for the Poor, 1901, will be paid from poll taxes collected, which are not otherwise appropriated.

No assessment is made for "Town Purposes," no town meeting by vote transferred $1050 of Hammonton money to that fund, which, with the balance from last year, and other items, footed up a little over $1300.

The compulsory rate—
Churches, schools, etc.....$1,500
Holders and Farmers.....49,000
Total.....$50,500

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

At their meeting on Tuesday evening, the Board of Education voted to enforce the State law in regard to the employment of children under fifteen years of age, and compulsory attendance at school of all children between seven and twelve years old. In fact, the law compels the Board to do this, and their resolution only sets the legal machinery in motion. An attorney will be employed, legal notices sent to employers, and parents who violate the law, and prosecutions follow whenever necessary. As the amount of State money received now depends upon the number of children in school, and the number of days they attend, our next year's tax-rate will be increased or lessened according to the attendance this year.

ELWOOD NOTES.

That does respect might be shown to the deceased President, the school, post office, and general stores were closed on Thursday. ### A Communication.

Mr. Editor:—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at night. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely cured me.—W. S. Brookman, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Crowell.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

P. Sheridan-Pressey, Executor of Jason St. John, deceased, by direction of the Surrogate of the County of Atlantic, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Jason St. John to bring in their debts, demands, and claims against the estate of the said deceased, under oath, within nine months from this date, or they will be forever barred of any action therefor against the said Executor.
Dated September 5th, 1901.
P. SHERIDAN-PRESSEY, Executor.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias, to me directed, issued out of the New Jersey Court of Chancery, will be sold at public vendue, on Saturday, Oct. 12th, 1901

at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the hotel of Louis Kuehne, corner of Atlantic and South Carolina Avenues, in the City of Atlantic City, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, all that certain lot or tract of land and premises, situate, lying, and being in the Town of Hammononton, County of Atlantic, and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at point on the southeasterly side of Orchard St., one hundred and forty-four feet from the southerly corner of Orchard Street and Second or Fay Street; thence extending (1) southwesterly along the line of Orchard Street twenty-seven feet to a point on corner of lot formerly owned by Thomas Pasco; thence (2) south-easterly along the line of said Pasco lot and lot formerly owned by one Geo. W. Fay one hundred and thirty-four feet to a point on said Fay lot; thence (3) north-easterly on a line parallel to Orchard Street and along the line of lot of one G. W. Pressey twenty-seven feet to a point; thence (4) north-westerly on a line parallel with second course one hundred and thirty-four feet to place of beginning.

Being a part of the same lot of land that Walter C. Horton and wife and W. Oscar Horton and wife, by deed dated July 1st, 1876, recorded in the Clerk's office at May's Landing, New Jersey, in Book No. 54 of Deeds, page 282, etc., granted and conveyed unto the said Eliza Nestor in fee.

Seized as the property of Eliza Nestor et al, and taken in execution at the suit of Hammononton Loan and Building Association, and to be sold by SMITH E. JOHNSON, Sheriff.

Dated September 14th, 1901.
HENRY E. STOCKWELL, Solicitor.
Pr. fee, $4.00.

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was entirely cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malarial, kills disease germs, and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney-troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 60 c. at Crowell's Pharmacy.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Leesville 'Messenger,' suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run-down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Crowell, druggist.

EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH

Better than a Piano, Organ, or Music Box, for it sings and talks as well as plays, and don't cost as much. It reproduces the music of any instrument—band or orchestra—tells stories and sings—the old familiar hymns as well as the popular songs—it is always ready. See that Mr. Edison's signature is on every machine. Catalogues of all dealers, or NATIONAL PHONOGRAPH CO., 435 Fifth Ave., New York.
