PRIMARY ELECTION.

The election came off on Tuesday.
There were 221 votes in first precinct, 163 in second,—292 Republican and 92

Of course, Mr. Seely's name will be on both, as will Messrs. Baker, Dilger, Monfort, Berry, Strickland, Edward and George Bernshouse, and perhaps others whose Democratic vote we did not obtain.

Wm. C. Kind, a new communicated Bellevue Hall for Wednesday evening, and advertised a public meeting, announcing that he would address the audience upon "Topics of Town, County, State and National Affairs." For some reason, the public did not respond, the speaker did not speak, and the hall was closed early. The fact is, people are not craving instruction upon civil affairs by one who is not yet a citizen, and his not impressed any one with his ability to teach.

Mr. Philip J. Fitting died at his home, on Pine Road, Monday, Sept.
21st, at the age of sixty-three, after an illness of eight months. Mr. Fitting came to Hammononton about forty years ago, and took up farming. He was one of the most practical and successful growers of small fruit and vegetables in this section. Though he never held public office, he was identified with the growth of the Town from the first. He was a leading spirit in establishing the Hammononton Park, and was an executive officer in the old Fruit Growers Union. Besides a host of friends and relatives, he leaves a widow, one son and a daughter, to mourn his death.
Interment was held Thursday afternoon at Oak Grove Cemetery—the service conducted by Rev. D. O. Stewart.

Two Fires!

There was an alarm about 1.15 last Saturday afternoon, coming from the hills of Pleasant Hill. That was the first Saturday that the men had not taken a half holiday, and they were just at work when some one notified them that their roof was on fire. Foreman Manly Austin and R. E. Thomas made their way to the roof of the engine room, where the hose was passed to them; the water turned on, and in two minutes a lively little blaze was extinguished. The mill is supplied with four-inch water pipes and many feet of heavy hose, and it was well that this was the case. The fire was probably caused by a smoker from their own smoke-stack alighting on the unusually dry shingles.

Fire number two occurred on Wednesday—the alarm being given at 8.14 a. m. It was Joe S. Martin's big two-story barn, on Washington Street. But cousins of firemen were over on the ground, and with a plentiful supply of water, and heavy pressure, confined the fire mostly to the upper part, though the flames had a good start, evidently, before discovery, and were leaping high in the air when help arrived.

The sad part of this story was the death of Mr. and Mrs. Martin's lovely fourteen-year-old daughter Myra. No one knows the particulars; but after the firemen had been at work some time, it was told them that the little one was missing, and was believed to have been in the barn. Three streams of water were directed into the still burning hay mow until it was safe for a man to enter, and soon the child's charred remains were found where she had happily hidden in the hay.

Kind hands carried the remains to the undertaker's office, and tear-choked voices conveyed the sad message to the afflicted parents. It was a heart-rending scene, and our entire community felt the saddest of it.

There were several stories concerning the fire and the tragedy, but the simple facts are that no one knows how it originated, or why little Myra met her death. The probabilities are that she was playing in the hay mow, and remained unconscious by dense smoke before the flames reached her. Fire Chief Lenn made a thorough investigation, and believes that the fire started in the stable, and rapidly spread through the hay-sheds to the mow overhead. We will never know; but we all have heartfelt sympathy for those who are mourning in sudden sorrow. Funeral service was held at the house on Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. H. Payton.

bytery, at Elmer meeting, Rev. Drs.
Oggs, Ewing, Tryon, Silver, and Bruce came to the Italian Church in Vineland on Sept. 21st, to ordain Rev. Achille Cremoneza, D. D., pastor of the Italian Evangelical Church, and Rev. Diadore Grasie, pastor of Vineland Church.

Rev. A. Pirazzini, D. D., preached the sermon, and Rev. A. Stasia delivered the charge to both candidates. The Presbyterian choir sang an anthem and the Italian choir rendered a selection.
A very large crowd was present, and all praised the Italian ladies who served a splendid luncheon after services.

M. N. Dullos.

The firemen are grateful to the many able-bodied men who, not members of the organization, volunteered, and rendered good service in extinguishing the fire, on Wednesday. The burned barn was one of a group standing close together, and on first view none expected to see any of them saved from destruction. This was the first real test of our water system, and it proved decisively satisfactory, though not really well pressure was used, our tall pumping capacity employed. The lower part of Martin's barn still stands, and nothing else damaged, although Capt. Love-land's barn is scarcely ten feet removed.
Happily, too, there was very little wind.

NOTICE. The Town Clerk will

Tuesday was Miss Elizabeth Harley's birthday, and friends planned a party shower for her. We don't know how many she received, but one store sold sixty-two for the purpose. It is pleasant to be remembered.

Daniel Webster Flour

Costs more than other flours, but the 'value received' more than equals the higher cost. You will obtain greater returns in many ways. Your bakings will bear eloquent testimony of this. Your bread will be more nutritious, will have a finer flavor, will remain sweet and fresh for a longer period; that annoying dryness will be absent, for your great relief; your bakings will be materially easier and fewer in number; and a loaf or two more may be made each time without the fear that they will become stales.

Daniel Webster flour will make considerably more bread than an equal quantity of any other flour. It will do all this, and there is no need of further arguments. It will plaud its own case as eloquently as did the renowned man whose name it bears.

Don't forget the name Daniel Webster.
"Once known, never forgotten." Sold by

NAMES HIM POLITICAL HEIR

I have naturally a peculiar interest in the success of Mr. Taft and in seeing him backed by a majority in both houses of Congress which will heartily support his policies. For the last ten years, while I have been governor of New York and president, I have been thrown into the closest intimacy with him and he and I have on every pertinent point stood in a heartiest agreement, shoulder to shoulder. We have the same views as to what is de-ation to reduce them when the reductions of the wages of the workers of railroad men. A fair wage is the basis of the life of the people of the several states, and a wage that rates shall not be reduced in wages of railroad men in wages of railroad men. It is the duty of the government to maintain the wages of the railroad men at a level which will allow them to live decently and to be able to support their families. The government should not allow the wages of the railroad men to be reduced to a level which would make it impossible for them to live decently and to be able to support their families. The government should not allow the wages of the railroad men to be reduced to a level which would make it impossible for them to live decently and to be able to support their families.

MR. TAFT DOES THINGS

—Clyde Pfitch has introduced a new one to the motoring class. It is naming the car, which it is to be hoped will safely carry the owner on his way. Mr. Pfitch calls one of his own automobiles "auline" and another "Izzie."

Theme: Shame of Detection.

and condemn, and are ashamed but anything like exposure of There is a keen enough sensibility disgrace, but not for the thing itself which is the disgrace. Men will things with a certain curiosity which they would be ashamed they were found out. Our mo standard of judgment is so much that of the community. Our evidence is largely that of the community, not individual and personally vital, but imposed upon us society, a code of manners and rules which we must not transgress. If no exaggeration to say that we took up their last morsel of food and cleared their bills on a napkin of tough, then on the top twig they sang one song of praise. I know they were sweeter for it.

 Oh, that might sing every evening, and sing, and let none touch us all the way through! Oh, that we could put none under our burden!
 Oh, that we could extract the poison of sorrow by song! Then, sad things would not poison so much.
 When trouble come, go at them with song. When griefs arise, sing them down. Lift the voice of praise against cares. Praise God by singing, that will lift you above trials of typos, but will also include of the older and more conservative. Some of the latter, although they have seen their hour, will sell to a very fair extent, especially with the more popular

The increase in the more serious depression in view of the known depression in the business in the latter part of the year. The explanation appeared to be found in the excessive activity in the new lumber operations in the south, which was followed by a general closing down in the lumber concern of the autumn. What will most concern the general reader is the information that the destruction of the forests is still going on with the vigor, in hard times, as in the boom, for work for the construction of the new house is more important than for the more important.

TOPIC FOR SEPTEMBER 27, 1908.

Satin waists will be very much favored. A new idea will be to choose the same waists to match in color the dress with which they are worn. Full length, tight sleeves will prevail. The fashionable tailored waist is highly regarded.

Potash

Getting a full crop from a fertilizer with too little Potash, is like getting well by the doctor's prescription with its most important drug left out. Most commercial fertilizers need more Potash to get all the crop profit you are entitled to.

Use a brand with at least 6 per cent. of Potash, but if your dealer does not keep it, then mix 15 pounds of Muriate of Potash with each 100 pounds of your fertilizer. That will raise wheat! Set clover, too!

The proof will come next year in bigger crop, more profit. Potash is profit. Buy the Potash first.

Send for pamphlets containing facts about soil, crops, manures and fertilizers. Mailed free.
