From Wm. Rutherford.

NEWBRUNSWICK, Canada, September 24, 1887.

FRIEND HOYT:—I've seen more of this people already than had I remained at home all my life. They are a warm-hearted people, in fact I have never met their equal in the "States." It has been too cold here to suit me, for the past thirty days; but as I've been free from hay-fever, I can rise up and call it blessed.

The sentiment of the people—on the outside—is British all over; but when they look "across the border" at our "flesh pots" their loyalty to the "cruel cross of England" wavers; and although we don't ask them to "come and help us," they come over just the same, and there are now in our happy country some one million of the muscle and brain of the British Americans. Splendid mill sites, and farm houses, and churches, are abandoned. Farm wages are $15 per month and board. Carpenters (when they can be had at all) get the enormous sum of $1.50 per day. Best hard wood $4 per cord—eight feet long, four feet in length and five feet high. Groceries, provisions, etc., from ten to thirty per cent higher than with us. Woollens are lower; Dry goods, thirty per cent higher. The young men and women are pouring into the States, leaving only the older people and old maids, with the children, to run the country.

The most of the offices are held for life, and it creates, as in great Britain, a peculiar cheap pomposity. A common justice of the peace is, like Grant's door keeper "a bigger man than old Grant." He is "Magistrate to the Queen." D'ye moind that now? The poor people here pay over $121,000 annually for an English milkmaid—Lord Lansdown—and his flunkies to rule over them, while the people of the great State of New York with the greater wealth, greater numbers of cities and population, pay but a trifle to its rulers. The speck on the Dominion's horizon is already not only bigger than a man's hand, but is as big as an elephant, and growing larger at that.

St. John is a solid little city on the bluff. Its harbor is called the "Liverpool of America," and it well deserves it. But I am informed that it needs several first class funerals before the beautiful city can prosper as it deserves. The harbor—on the Bay of Fundy—could float the navies of the world in safety it is so land locked, and the water is so deep. The tide frequently rises thirty feet, but the dead men who are walking around to save funeral expenses, retard its development wholly. I'm told they invest at three per cent, rather than invest their money for the development of the commerce of their own famous city.

There are in this province (which has 423,000 square miles) about 100,000 Romanists; the other 200,000 being Irish, Scotch, and English—Irish predominating. I frequently see some real North Americans—Indians—there being a camp of them some twenty miles up the railroad.

There is one thing here (it originated in Bangor)—a wagon called a "Sloven," a slovenly looking thing. The axles are shaped something like the letter U, only with square corners. The floor is but four to six inches from the ground, making it easy to load and unload from. "Cork" is full of them. They would be just right for Hammonton.

I haven't seen an apple orchard, a plum or cherry tree, nor a blackberry, yet I believe the proper kind of apple would flourish here like a green bay horse. Hay and stock are the principal products; one keeps the other, and both enrich the land. I saw 100 acres, the other day, that were sold for six dollars per acre, and that within seventeen miles of St. John. Taxes are about one per cent, on full valuation.

The young ladies here are gifted, as well as beautiful, and though a gray-headed old soldier, I can't help but admire their many excellent qualities. Of course, all do not go to the States, but many do.

I am told they have, practically, seven months the winter, and that many wear snow-shoes. The cold hangs right on.

Yours truly,
WM. RUTHERFORD.

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. J. C. BRADLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."
Dr. W. N. WATKINS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

Newspaper Decisions.
Any person who takes a paper regularly from the office—whether directed to his name or not—must pay for it. If he is not subscribed, or if he is not a subscriber, he is not responsible for the payment.
If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.
The courts have decided that, in relation to take newspapers and periodicals from the postoffice or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of fraud.

SATURDAY, OCT. 1, 1887.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Post meeting to-night.
Remember October 7th, and the 15 cents.

Mr. A. W. Cochran and family are with relatives in York State.
An abundance of rain this week, with a decided rise in temperature.

Mrs. Charles Woodcutt and her daughter are visiting in Bridgeton.

Don't forget the entertainment at Union Hall, next Friday evening.

Mr. H. C. Moody, of Elm, has returned, after an absence of several months.

Mr. Frank S. Hastings, of Mount Holly, Vermont, was in town this week, on business.

New and attractive features at the Japanese Tea, Friday evening next, October 7th.

Miss Hattie Bowdoin is again busily occupied with her classes in instrumental music.

Mr. David Field has bought one of those "Eureka" windmills, for which Mr. Stockwell is agent.

Mr. Moses DePay accompanied his son, James W., and wife, to their home in Virginia, intending to remain two or three months.

Loan Associations meet next week.—Workingmen's on Monday evening, in Jackson's office; Hammonton on Thursday eve, in Town Hall.

The "Boston Stars" are thought worthy of a place in the "Star Course," Philadelphia, being advertised for a concert in the Academy of Music, Oct. 10.

The pigeon and poultry show at the Mount Holly Fair will be the largest and finest ever held in the state. It will be worth one hundred miles of travel to see.

I will open my photograph gallery October 1st, for a short time,—a week, perhaps two, possibly three. All work done reasonably. Eighteen "gems" for twenty-five cents.

Please notice the per centage of attendance of pupils in the report published this week. It is a very creditable showing. In fact, our schools already give promise of an unusually successful year.

The regular meeting of the Poultry Association is on Tuesday evening next, in their room in the Pressey building. It is hoped there will be a good attendance, as important business is to be considered.

We desire to call your particular attention to the fact that our "Star Course" consists of strictly first class talent,—equally as good as you might be privileged to hear in the large cities.
Don't miss any of it.

We have a copy of "Professor Hazzard's Grand March," composed by Mrs. Nellie Fay Fairchild, of Hammonton, published by F. A. North & Co., and for sale by E. J. Woolley. It is very pretty, yet not difficult.

Don't put off sitting for your photograph until a day or two before you want them; come early, and give us plenty of time. Call and see the new "peller" pictures which we are introducing with so much success. PAGE.

The sale of tickets for the Star Course is unprecedented. Without any advertising, and early in the season as it is, about one hundred tickets have already been sold. This indicates that the efforts of the managers to give us a series of first class entertainments are appreciated.

Tuesday night, Mr. Theodore Walt (or some one in the family) put fresh coal in the stove, closed the pipe damper, and left the door open. In the morning, the family were all in the doctor's care, having narrowly escaped death from asphyxia. We believe they have all recovered.

Prof. Estabrook, who has been visiting his parents here, is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, is a successful teacher of vocal and instrumental music, has had considerable experience in conducting musical conventions, and is the composer of quite a number of pieces of music. He informs us that a few weeks ago he had the pleasure of hearing the Boston Stars in Elmira, where he resides. He considers them one of the finest combinations of literary and musical talent that he ever heard, and thinks that the people of this little town may consider themselves fortunate in being permitted to hear them.

A fine evening's entertainment at an insignificant cost, at Union Hall next Friday evening.

Dog, Bicycle, and Athletic performances each day on platform front of Grand Stand, Mount Holly Fair, Oct.
10th to 15th.

The managers of our Star Course have been obliged to stop the sale of single reserved seat tickets for the "Boston Stars," in order to give the holders of season tickets a first choice of seats.

No more single reserved seats will be sold until Friday, Oct. 7th. Holders of reserved seat tickets are requested to select seats early.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Post Office at Hammonton, N. J., Saturday, Oct. 1st, 1887:

E. J. Taylor,
Miss Lizzie Smith,
Miss E. Rosedale,
Mr. Michele Massare.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

CYRUS F. OSGOOD, P. M.

Meeting of the Hammonton Loan and Building Association next Thursday evening, Oct. 6th, in the Council Room.
There will be some five or six thousand dollars for sale. By comparison with other associations, as shown by report of the Bureau of Statistics of New Jersey, this Association is maturing its series in less time—that is, its shareholders have to make a smaller number of monthly payments—than any other Association in the state; a fact worthy of the consideration of borrowers.

Regular meeting of Town Council, last Saturday evening. Members all present.

A petition was received, signed by citizens, asking that all non-resident peddlars be required to pay a license fee before being permitted to sell in the town.

Referred to Ordinance Committee, with instructions to report an ordinance covering such cases at next meeting.

Messrs. Henry F. Deith, a special officer of the Penna. R. R. Co., and Shaw, Jailer in Camden, were present to advocate their claims to the reward offered for the Trowbridge burglars.

The case is almost hopelessly mixed, and after considerable discussion it was voted to postpone action until the next meeting, hoping that the Courts would straighten out the snarl by that time.

The following bills were read and ordered paid:

O. E. Hoyt, costs on delinquent taxes returned to Council, $14.34 H. B. Hoyt, care of post, $8.00
Highway bills, $22.50

The Collector returned nineteen delinquent taxes. Voted, that they take the legal course to sale of the property.

The Treasurer presented a copy of his annual report of school money received and paid out. Ordered filed.

George Elvins granted permission to lay pipes under Main Road, to drain his cellar.

On motion, Mr. Woodcutt appointed committee to procure a stove and fuel for the Council room.

Adjourned.
