

Terms--$1.25 Per Year.

NO. 40

A Big Stock.

You are invited to call and see it.

Hardware, Tools,
Furniture,
Carpets, Mattings.

HARRY MCD. LITTLE.

About Clocks.

Dresden Clocks, 8-day, $6.50 and $8.50.
Black-Enameled, 8-day strike, $6.50.
Eight-day Oak Mantle, $8.50.
One-day Nickel Alarms, $1.
One day "Bee" time, $1.

Clocks Repaired Promptly.

Robert Steel, Hammonton Jeweler.

We Lead,

Others follow. Stop and look at our Meats and Vegetables.

SATISFACTION,

That's what you get here, every time.

Now is the time you want Pickles, Chow Chow,
Horse Radish. Keystone brand is the best.

At H. L. MCINTYRE'S

Meat Market.

We still have those ne Watermelons.

Hoyt & Sons, Printers,
Solicit your Orders
And guarantee full
satisfaction

George M. Bowles'

Handy Meat Market

is kept stocked with

Fresh and Salt Meats

and

Everything in Season

HIS WAGONS RUN EVERYWHERE.

The Republican.

[Entered as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, OCT. 3, 1896.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
Wm. McKinley.
For Vice-President,
Garret A. Hobart.
For Congressman,
Hon. J. J. Gardner.

Straws show from whence comes the wind. So close buying among business men shows how little confidence there is in the future. The Baltimore American, in conversing with business men, says: "There is a disposition on the part of wholesalers and jobbers to dole out except absolutely necessary purchases until the result of the present campaign is known. 'If Bryan should be elected,' said the head of a leading Haver Street house, 'we will at once change all our plans for the future. While we do not believe Bryan will be elected, yet as prudent business men, we are compelled to move slowly and cautiously until this remarkable agitation is ended.'"

A number of large firms are for the first time receiving invoices made payable in gold. These are principally from importing firms in the North. Import invoices are nearly always payable in gold, but such invoices from New York and other Northern importing establishments that distribute goods over the country are new. They say they must protect themselves against all possibilities of disaster. One of these recent bills, exhibited by a Hopkins Place firm yesterday, had stamped across its face in red ink: "Payable in gold coin of the present standard and weight." As a formality, such invoices have always borne the printed words: "Payable in gold or its equivalent." Now the words "or its equivalent" are marked out of the sentence, leaving only "Payable in gold."

Out of 150 firms only about a half dozen are Republicans, and yet of the entire lot all except about ten will vote against Bryan this year. Confidence in the basis of business and when confidence weakens business suffers. Another firm says: "We believe McKinley will be elected, and that his election will restore confidence and result in better prices." A number of other leading firms made similar reports as to stock and buying. It was stated that a prominent manufacturer and dealer in druggists' supplies and other specialties, who annually contracts for advertising in about four thousand newspapers, has this season inserted in all contracts the clause: "Void in the event of Bryan's election." "Business will be ruined in that event," he explains, "and there will be no use to advertising."

After the caucus, Monday eve., the subject of a campaign club was introduced, the committee appointed several weeks ago increased to five and instructed to call a meeting at an early date, for organization. Thirty or more names were then recorded, as desiring to unite with an "Honest Money Club."

Following are the newly elected officers of the Volunteer Fire Company: President, David Cunningham. Vice President, L. W. Purdy. Secretary, C. W. Austin. Treasurer, W. H. Barnhouse. Trustees, J. M. Austin, Wayland De-Puy, Maudie Austin. Fire Marshal, S. E. Brown. Foreman, F. A. Lehman. Asst. Foreman, Chas. P. Myers. Reps. to Relief Ass'n, J. M. Austin, J. W. Logan, Samuel Anderson.

The Republican Caucus met on Monday evening last, in the Council Room, an unusually large number of voters being present. Orville E. Hoyt was chosen chairman; Frank E. Roberts, secretary. The following were chosen delegates to the County Convention: Dr. H. E. Bowles, John C. Anderson, Hon. George E. Bowles, Charles F. Caldwell, J. Murray Bassett, Clayton H. Scullin, David Cottrell, Dr. Charles Cunningham. These delegates were, by vote, made the Town Executive Committee for one year.

List of uncollected letters in the Hammonton Post-Office, on Saturday, Oct. 3, 1896:

Shiraz De Marco
Mrs. H. Hagan
Mrs. Ella Loveland
Editor Mirror
Mr. David Warner
Messrs.
Gonzalo Ballantine
Valeria Petrella
Philippe de Lorenzo
Maria Matteo
Hana Vento

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

JOHN T. FRENCH, P. M.

George McIntyre and wife, and John Hoyle, of Philada., with their wheels, spent Sunday with relatives, at Mr. Hewitt's.

Some malicious person meddled with the balyards on the Central's flag pole, Thursday night, and, as a result, considerable time and work will be required to put things in order again. This is the second time this has been done, and Mr. Shoups offers five dollars for information that will lead to arrest of the offender.

It is a little early for local politics yet, but to introduce the subject, we wonder if Wm. Cunningham wants another term. He has many friends in town. And how would Robert Steel and Brother Hann look in the Councilmanic chair. We don't think there would be any dozing around the big table.

Sixteen Baptist Churches were represented by about twenty delegates at the Council held in the Hammonton Church on Tuesday, for the ordination of Rev. John D. Killian. The proceedings were full of interest, and the ordination services, at four o'clock, were witnessed by a large congregation. Mr. K. will begin work in his new field, Mahanoy City, Penna., to-morrow.

For the Christian Endeavor State Convention, to be held at Plainfield, Oct. 7 to 9, the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. will sell excursion tickets through Plainfield and return, from all stations on its lines in New Jersey twenty-five miles or more distant from Plainfield, at a single fare for the round trip. The tickets will be sold from Oct. 5 to 9, and will be good for return passage until Oct. 12, inclusive.

If Town Council insists that all bills against the Town shall be presented three days before Council meeting, as they voted at last meeting, we suggest that the Clerk advertise a place and time when he will receive such bills. At present he is employed out of town, leaves early in the morning, and returns at night, and his residence is not a convenient place for the many claimants to present their accounts.

Willie, the eight year old son of H. M. Phillips, narrowly escaped being torn to death by a large bear hog. He was in the hog yard picking up peas when the animal, hitherto deemed harmless, suddenly rushed up behind the boy, and with his tusks ripped open the thick part of the leg for several inches, leaving him the mangled. By quick work, a young brother, helped the injured lad out of the fence and a surgeon was summoned.

On Wednesday, the Board of Freeholders met, pursuant to adjournment, for the special purpose of inspecting the new County road. The members were decidedly pleased with the road, so far as completed—from Absecon to Egg Harbor City. It is a good, dry, nearly straight road, thirty feet wide, most of it already hard and firm. There are sixteen miles of it perfectly straight—four miles of the almost perfectly level. What a bicycle track this will prove, next Summer! Gravel was then being put on about two miles this side of Elwood. The contractor is planning to complete the road before the Board's next meeting, in November. Quick work, and well done, so say the Freeholders.

Considerable talk and some excitement has been caused by the mysterious conduct of Rev. G. D. Coleman, of this place. There are many strange rumors, but the truth appears to be that Mr. Coleman started on Monday of last week, on his bicycle, intending to stop at Elm and Blue Anchor on his way to Philadelphia, there to procure desired pension papers; then to spend a few days at the Mount Holly Fair; this week to visit the Interstate Fair at Trenton. Since he left home, up to yesterday morning, no letter or message has been received from him, and his wife and other friends are naturally very anxious to know his whereabouts. He may be following the original programme, but it seems unlikely that a husband and father would remain away so long without communicating with his family, especially after Philadelphia and New York papers have published an account of his disappearance. Again, we learn that Mr. Coleman told two of our prominent citizens, on Thursday, that his husband left home on the day named, to deliver an electric bell at Elm, intending to return in two hours; that he took but two dollars with him, leaving other money and important papers at home; hence could not have intended to go far or to stay long. Altogether, the affair is very mysterious.

Fruit Growers' Union

And Co-Operative Soc'y, Inc.

Bargains

Bargains
Bargains

Even the United States Government is resounding the echo, — theirs in the way of fifty cent dollars.

But ours

in the way of one Dollar's worth for Fifty Cents.

Picture Frames in great variety for just half their value, and to show them we have McKinley and Hobart in the gold ones.

The Tariff

has not been put on wool yet, so we offer several pieces— all wool Novelty Dress Goods for 35 c. per yd., worth 50.

Window Shade Brackets, $1 ones for 50 cents, 65 cent ones for 32 1/2 c., finished in oak.

Do not miss these golden opportunities.

Coffee

has taken a tumble. We can sell you a good Coffee in a 3-pint tin pail for 24 cents per pound.

Oil Stoves

This is just the weather for one of those best of all Bonner Oil Heaters.

OATS,

We have a carload of fine old Oats, probably the last car of old oats this season. Ask the price.

Coal.

Now is the time to fill your bins. Prices may advance.

Fruit Growers' Union

P. RANIERE'S

Hammonton Steam

Macaroni Works

(Established in 1889)

Macaroni, Vermicelli, and Fancy Paste, The best made in the United States. Sold Wholesale and Retail.

Dealer in Imported & Domestic

GROCERIES.

Imported Olive Oil.

HARNESS.

A full assortment of hand and machine made,—for work or driving.

Trunks, Valises, Whips, Riding Saddles, Nets, etc.

L. W. COGLEY, Hammonton, N. J.

Chas. Cunningham, M.D. Physician and Surgeon.

100 1/2 Block, Hammonton. Office hours, 7:30 to 10:00 a.m., 1:30 to 3:30 and 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, OCT. 3, 1896.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Motto: A dollar's worth of dollar for a dollar's worth of work.

G. A. R. Post meeting to-night. Have you visited Fiedler's new store?

Mr. Albird has a new milk wagon.

Democratic County Convention next Saturday.

KEY FOUND. Call at this office for it, and bring a dime with you.

Samuel Drake, of Chicago, is visiting in town.

Who is to be our next Sheriff? Ask us this evening.

Mrs. H. T. Thayer, of Philada., was in town this week.

Mr. C. A. Wood and family have returned to Philadelphia.

CHEAP Box Writing Paper, at Laver & Davis.

Capt. Crowley Loveland spent a few days at home, this week.

Irons is ironing up a new coal wagon for W. H. Barnhouse.

Workingmen's Loan Association meeting next Monday evening.

Harry Roberts, of Atlantic City, spent Sunday with his parents.

HOUSE to rent—seven rooms. Apply to Mrs. LIEBE MILLER.

Mr. Renaut, at the Lake, has moved to Philadelphia for the winter.

The Parkdale School opens next Monday, with Chas. Kilian in charge.

Woman's Relief Corps regular meeting this evening, in Masonic Hall.

Miss Lottie Westcott, of Bridgeton, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. B. Seely.

DAILY PAPERS at Jacobs'.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Beverage, of Philadelphia, visited his parents this week.

Miss Fanny M. Ramsey spent part of the week with Hammonton friends.

Robert Ingersoll, Recorder of Atlantic City, was in town Wednesday evening.

ALL of the magazines are out for October, and for sale at Jacobs'.

Miss Rebecca Mack, of West Philadelphia, was in town last week Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Coles, of Philadelphia, visited her sister, Mrs. Morrill, on Tuesday.

Mrs. William M. Galbraith and sons, of Haddonfield, visited her parents over Sunday.

DANCING. Mrs. DeJoy will reopen her dancing school on Friday, Oct. 3rd, at 10 o'clock a.m., in Fiedler's Hall.

Judson A. Whittier, of Atlantic City, spent several days with his family, in Hammonton.

Mr. G. F. Saxton and family returned on Thursday from a Summer's visit in Vermont.

Mrs. Lida Miller and family have moved into the Fairchild house, on Egg Harbor Road.

THE Ladies Home Journal is now for sale at Jacobs'.

Chas. P. Myers is building a house next to his own residence, on Pleasant Street, for rent.

Chas. Austin and wife returned, Tuesday, from a two weeks' visit among relatives near "the shore."

Herman Fiedler, the tobacconist, moved, on Thursday, into his handsome new store, on Bellevue Ave.

YOUNG FOWLS, are waiting for sale, my own raising. Leave orders at my home opposite Universalist Church.

Miss Bertha Miller has a very pleasant situation in an establishment on Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harry Monfort and little daughter spent the week with her cousin Mrs. W. A. Fausch, in Atlantic.

Democratic caucus to-night. Republican County Convention to-day.

Don't forget that town meeting next Saturday.

WORK WANTED.—washing at your home or house cleaning. Call on Mrs. FIEDLER, EVANS, in Mrs. Fiedler's house, Bellevue Ave. was in town this week.

OLD PAPERS—10 cents per 100, at Jacobs.

Melvin R. Morse and wife, of May's Landing, attended the races last Saturday.

HOUSE WORK wanted by young German woman who wishes to do house cleaning. Address HERMAN SCHROEDER, First Road, Hammonton.

Mrs. Wm. Rutherford is attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Levett, at New Britain, Pa.

Mrs. Wm. Crawford and sister, Miss Lulu Austin, are spending a fortnight at Long Branch.

If you want a suitable dress that will color an even brown or black, and will please and satisfy you every time, use Buckingham Dye for the Whites.

Osgood & Co.'s shoe factory was silent for a few days this week. A new boiler goes in to-day.

The Winslow brick works are laying off their extra men, the dull winter season being at hand.

$10 REWARD will be paid for evidence that will lead to the recovery of Hammer Bicycle No. 1833, which was stolen from near Hammonton Station on Sunday evening, Sept. 27th. It is 32 model, had drop handle, the clips, saddle in forward position, chain 24 links, and New Departure bell on the head of wheel. The above reward will be paid by L. H. FAIRCHILD.

Mr. Stephen Cloud and family of Philadelphia, are intending to make Hammonton their home this winter.

The Sons of Veterans will hold no drill next week, but are in hopes of being in their new room the week after.

NOTICE. There cannot be a legal sale of any property of J. D. Fairchild until there is provision made for the support of his wife.

MRS. J. D. FAIRCHILD.

Capt. Crowley, of New Groton, was in Hammonton this week, returning home with a newly purchased horse and surrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, and Mrs. L. B. Corson, of May's Landing, spent Thursday with their sister, Mrs. H. R. Randall.

57 ACRES of land for sale, near Barnard's station, between Seventh Street and Weymouth Road, to be sold to the G. O. Railroad Co. Will be sold very cheap, at a small price. In addition, on Seventh St., adjoining above, will be sold with it or separate. For particulars, see N. E. ARKONSON, 12th and Grand Streets, Hammonton.

Mr. Thomas Ferry and family, who have spent the Summer in Hammonton, expect to return to the city in a few days.

G. W. Pressey and daughters, Misses Emma and Anna, are visiting Mrs. Burt and Jean Pressey at Newport, N. J., Va.

STENCIL MARKING PLATES of all sizes and designs, at the lowest prices, at the shortest notice.

L. J. PATTERSON, At Barnhouse's Bicycle Store.

Miss Blanche Jones filled the vacancy at Central School, yesterday, one of the teachers, Miss Walther, being in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Zietz will hereafter make her home with her son Harry, on Maple Street, Miss Lina, her daughter, removing to Philadelphia.

TO RENT. My roomy and convenient residence, a fine house, in for rent. Apply to Mrs. Corley, next door.

Mrs. E. M. FAIRCHILD.

Will Farrell, who was employed in a large market in Atlantic City during the summer, is now with the same firm in Philadelphia.

The Board of Registration will begin their annual tour of the town next Tuesday, Oct. 6th, for the purpose of registering all legal voters.

FOR SALE. A fine brick residence in Hammonton, eight rooms, heater, brand new, with nearly five acres of cultivated land. Will include horse, carriage, wagon, and farming tools. Immediate possession. Best cash. Inquire at Herald's office.

Rev. J. C. Gillan, Edw. E. L. Tico and wife, and Miss Georgianna Hewitt expect to attend the G. E. Convention at Plainfield, next week.

At the Baptist Church to-morrow. Morning, preaching by the Pastor, and communion. Evening topic, "Doppel in a Cistle,"—second sermon of the series.

THE ECUMENICAL APPLIANCE of Prof. Fuller are receiving the most favorable notice. Rev. G. E. Coleman of Hammonton has been asked for the rights, and will furnish any desired information, or will call upon those desiring to hear more of them.

Louis Nicolai, an old Hammonton boy, now proprietor of a large fruit stand on north-west corner of Third and Market Streets, Philadelphia, expects to be in town for a few days.

As Mr. Shoumaker, of Winslow, was driving past Union Hall, Friday evening, last week, his horse was taken with the colic, and died in a short time. Mr. Gittinger removed the carcass.

Inquire with A. H. Phillips & Co., 323 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

REPAIRING, cleaning and dyeing done at my residence, the brick house on upper Bellevue Ave. Good suits to suit—good stock of cloth on hand.

JOHN STEELMAN, Tailor.

Democratic caucus to-night.

Republican County Convention to-day.

Don't forget that town meeting next Saturday.

Pastor Randall, of the Presbyterian Church, will preach the third of his sermons to young men on Sunday eve., entitled "The Shifting Grounds of Unbelief."

R. R. Jones, M. D., has been appointed assistant surgeon in the local and department of Jefferson-Hose. He will make Hammonton his home, with an office on Railroad Ave.

FOR SALE. An undrained one half interest in lot and store on the north-west corner of Bellevue Avenue, now occupied by Mrs. Anita. Price low. Inquire of JOHN C. ARKONSON.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benjamin, of Philadelphia, will move here to-day, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crealey, and grandfather, Mr. John Verner. They will reside on West Orchard St.

While playing on Central Ave., last Saturday, Joe Naylor was struck in the eye by a small missile, probably thrown by some careless person. It is badly bruised, but the sight will probably be saved.

PURE OLD CIDER VINEGAR for sale at 25 cents per gallon. Clear Taste and Great Stakes for sale at the above price. JOHN SCULLIN.

The Sons of Veterans expect to leave the second floor of Mrs. Blum's new building for a camp room. The G. A. R. Post and Woman's Relief Corps will probably make this their headquarters.

Grand excursion to Epworth League District Convention at Atlantic City, Thursday, Oct. 8. Train leaves Hammonton at 8:55 a.m., returning leave Atlantic City at 9:45 p.m. Fare, adults $1.00, children 50 cents.

360 ACRES of good land for sale, mostly 360 with between Seventh Street and Weymouth Road, to be sold to the G. O. Railroad Co. Will be sold very cheap, at a small price. In addition, on Seventh St., adjoining above, will be sold with it or separate. For particulars, see N. E. ARKONSON, 12th and Grand Streets, Hammonton.

Benj. Crawley, Sr., father of Mrs. H. M. Phillips, died very suddenly last Sunday evening, at his home at Paoli, Pa. Funeral services were held on Wednesday evening. Mr. Crawley was for a long time resident in Hammonton.

M. E. Church to-morrow, 10:30 a.m., and 9:30 p.m., preaching by Rev. Mr. Gwin. Sunday School at 12:30. Epworth League grand rally at 6:30. Topic for October, "The Friends of Christ," for Oct. 4th, "The Outer Circle."

M. S. Whittier, the popular manager of the Postal Telegraph office, has resigned, and will leave early next week for Williamsport, Pa. He intends to continue the study of shorthand at Post's School, and fit himself for court reporting.

All brother Red Men are requested to meet at the wigwag of Shannanville Tribe, No. 57, I. O. O. F. M. Sunday, Oct. 4th, at 12:30 P. M., for the purpose of attending the funeral of our deceased brother Fritz Blank. Funeral to take place at Winslow.

Special Town Meeting.

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of the Town of Hammonton, that a Special Town Meeting will be held in Union Hall, on Saturday, Oct. 10th, '96.

At two o'clock p.m., to receive and consider a proposition to establish and maintain an Electric Light plant in the Town of Hammonton.

J. L. O'DONNELL, Town Clerk. Sept. 30, 1896.

HONEST MONEY CLUB.

All voters who favor the election of McKinley and Hobart, and young men over eighteen years old who favor honest money, are invited to meet in Jackson's Hall, Hammonton, on Monday Eve, Oct. 6th,

At eight o'clock, to unite in forming a campaign club. By order of

COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

The Democratic voters of the Town of Hammonton are requested to meet in Freeman's Hall on Saturday Eve, Oct. 3rd,

At 8 o'clock, to choose four delegates to the County Convention to be held next Tuesday, Oct. 6th, at 11 o'clock a.m., in Egg Harbor City. By order of

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

NEW STORE

and a most reliable line of all the popular brands of Tobacco, and my own make

CIGARS

In what I call the attention of my old friends, and new friends. Also, well selected line of sporting goods.

FIEDLER'S.

At Black's Store.

New Buckwheat,—self-raising and the old-fashioned kind. Also Maple Syrup to eat on the buckwheat cakes.

A Baked Bean,—two and one-half pound cans, either plain or in tomato sauce, only 8 cents per can.

A very desirable Olive at 10 cents per bottle.

A word to wood-choppers. Axes of good make, 55 cents.

Pure Malt Vinegar (white), for pickling purposes; also, a cheaper white vinegar, retailed as low as cider vinegar.

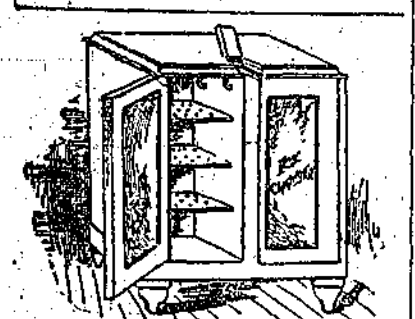

Floor Oil Cloths of all widths. Also, Linoleum. Stove Mats in desirable patterns. Floor oil cloth as low as 19 cts. per square yard.

A very desirable Bed Quilt at $1.25. Soft sateen covering filled with a good quality of cotton.

FOR HOT WEATHER.

Attachment for Refrigerators and Table Sherbet Freezer.

There is now to be had a novel and wonderfully compact little ice box which is a perfect refrigerator in the house. The case is made of galvanized steel, and is so constructed that the ice, or the frozen contents, can be taken out of the box, or can be put in the form of a handsome walnut chest.

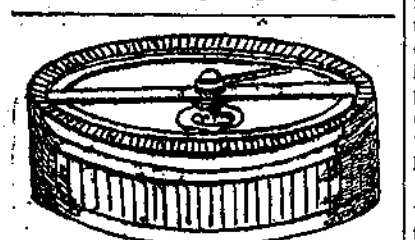

A FREEZER IN THE REFRIGERATOR.

For the purpose of ornamenting a dining room, one side is divided into a zinc-lined recess, showing three women wearing the ice compartment hangs a freezer that will hold one quart of liquid.

When the day's allowance of ice is stored the freezer must be filled, and when the refrigerator top is closed only a tiny knob and crank protrude at the top. Just a few minutes before the freezer's contents are to be served this crank is given a few rapid turns and the cream or jelly will be found beautifully firm. The larger the ice, the greater, of course, the capacity of the freezer.

On many a luncheon table this summer will be noticed at the hostess' right a dainty sherbet freezer that turns water into ice in just three minutes. This small machine is usually made of fine polished bits of choice woods bound in circular form by hoops of silver. The top and handle are of silver and the minute ice machine stands about four inches high, featuring twenty-four inches in circumference. It looks quite like a lovely round bonbonniere, but really holds snowy sherbet of some flavor with which it is now the custom at luncheons to keep the guests' glasses filled.

DINNER TABLE SHERBET FREEZER.

At intervals the hostess gives the freezer handle a few turns, and then the maid, lifting off the top, goes about filling the glasses, often with water ice flavored with mint.

BIRTHPLACE OF BLAINE.

The Old House at West Brattleboro, Vt., Town of West.

The old house in which James G. Blaine was born at West Brattleboro, Vt., in 1820, has been torn down, because it was falling to pieces. It was nearly a century old, having been built by his maternal grandfather, Mr. Neal Gillespie, late in the last century, and was known as the stone mansion of the Indian Hill farm—as famous in the region for hospitality as any of the mansions of Virginia. The Gillespie were liberal brevers, hard riders, and gentle hosts, and their house was that of country gentlemen. Here Maria Gillespie reigned more than a local belle, for she was noted for her remarkable beauty and extensive for her intellectual, social and spiritual gifts. Mr. Albert Gallatin was said to have been one of her suitors, but she fell in love and married Mr. Ephraim L. Blaine.

JAMES G. BLAINE'S BIRTHPLACE.

For her remarkable beauty and extensive for her intellectual, social and spiritual gifts. Mr. Albert Gallatin was said to have been one of her suitors, but she fell in love and married Mr. Ephraim L. Blaine.

THE VANILLA BEAN.

The so-called vanilla bean is not a bean at all, but the fruit of a climbing orchid, the capsule or pod of which is about three-eighths of an inch in diameter and from six to ten inches long and has a certain resemblance to the so-called catappa bean. The plant in its native home, in Mexico and tropical America, climbs over trees and shrubs by means of slender rootlets sent out from the joints of its stem. In its wild state it climbs to a height of twenty feet, but in cultivation it is kept within bounds, so that the unripe pods are gathered in Mexico the plant is propagated by cuttings and then trained over some sort of back trellis work in garden shade.

Verbalizing Day.

"Have you been to the exhibition of paintings?"

"I have, and you?"

"I haven't been, either."

"What shall we do to keep up our reputation in the club as being leading lights in the matter of art criticism?"

"Oh, that is easy enough. I never go myself but say every year: 'The salon is vastly inferior to that of former years' and that endless."—Leitungs.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

Story About General Booth from a Former Resident of London.

The present trouble in the Salvation Army has recalled some incidents showing how the inflexible, not to say cruel, discipline in the rank and file of the army, and the extreme hardships undergone, especially by the new members. Not many of these stories get into print, for the new converts are silent. A bright woman who has lived several years in New York, but is of English birth and training, told the other day of an incident of twelve or thirteen years ago, which occurred while she was a resident of Guy's hospital at London. She was then an indoor medical student attending clinics, and also for treatment for spinal trouble, her brother being one of the resident doctors of the hospital.

"During a severe spell of cold weather," she said, "three of the patients brought to the hospital were members of the Salvation Army in uniform—two women and a man. All three had collapsed from weakness and exposure while out in the bitter cold performing the work imposed by their superiors. I believe they were begging—or at least one was. That is, as I understood it, each was furnished with a list of names and addresses of people to whom subscriptions were to be solicited, each list representing a day's work of the hardest sort. It was said that if they did not do a satisfactory day's work they only got bread and water for supper."

"The man was found to be dangerously ill of pneumonia. The house doctor said that one of the chief causes of his illness was insufficient clothing. The man had on only a thin cotton shirt, the thinnest material undergarment of the Salvation Army. The doctor said that to go out with such clothing in such weather was simply suicidal, and that the people who imposed such tasks ought to be in jail. In fact, all the attendants in the ward were indignant, and it was almost the sole subject of our conversation at the time. The man said that there were all the clothes he had and he had no means of getting more. They had a trifling allowance, I believe he said, of 8 or 4 shillings a week, and they had to account literally for every halfpenny of it. If they spent what was considered an unnecessary penny it was deducted from the next week's allowance."

"I don't know so much about the women patients, but we understood they were also very low. They too, had the scantiest clothing. It is a rule in Guy's, as in other hospitals, that patients who can afford to pay for treatment ought to do so after a while in this case the hospital authorities sent a bill to General Booth for the treatment of these three patients. The general answered, declining to pay; he said neither he nor the army could be responsible for the medical bills of the members. He also said, and this was the outrageous part of it, that when a soldier ceased to work he ceased to belong to the army. The hospital people wrote again and insisted that as these people became ill while performing unreasonable duties imposed by the army, the army ought to pay the bills."

"I don't remember how that controversy ended—probably I never heard—but I know the hospital officials were angry enough to make trouble for the general if he did not pay. Some part of the story eventually got into the papers, and a radical weekly took it up. This paper hunted up the people that General Booth dealt with for his supplies and published long articles showing that he received in the cheapest prices in the market and lived like a regular mob. They said he bought strawberries in winter, the best in Covent garden, at half a guinea a box, and that he bought the finest expensive wines and had a cook at £45 a year, which was a very big salary over there for a cook."

It has already been noted that the general has always kept the control of the army, which included the sole handling of the funds, among the members of his own family.

The Vanilla Bean.

The so-called vanilla bean is not a bean at all, but the fruit of a climbing orchid, the capsule or pod of which is about three-eighths of an inch in diameter and from six to ten inches long and has a certain resemblance to the so-called catappa bean. The plant in its native home, in Mexico and tropical America, climbs over trees and shrubs by means of slender rootlets sent out from the joints of its stem. In its wild state it climbs to a height of twenty feet, but in cultivation it is kept within bounds, so that the unripe pods are gathered in Mexico the plant is propagated by cuttings and then trained over some sort of back trellis work in garden shade.

Verbalizing Day.

"Have you been to the exhibition of paintings?"

"I have, and you?"

"I haven't been, either."

"What shall we do to keep up our reputation in the club as being leading lights in the matter of art criticism?"

"Oh, that is easy enough. I never go myself but say every year: 'The salon is vastly inferior to that of former years' and that endless."—Leitungs.

HOUSEHOLD AFFAIRS.

EVERYBODY'S WATERMELON RECIPE.

For the purpose of making a sharp knife that will take the green skin off the fruit, and also every trace of the pink flesh of the fruit, because it is too juicy to make a firm, crisp pickle. Then cut the strips of rind into small pieces two to three inches long and three inches wide in a large earthen dish, sprinkle them lightly and evenly with salt. Cover the dish and let it stand overnight. In the morning drain off the water that will have formed, rinse the rinds in cold water, and cook them in a steamer until a broom splint will readily pierce them. Cooking the rinds by steam is an easy method, so they are less liable to burn than when cooked in the spiced vinegar. When the rinds are tender, take them out carefully with a skimmer, and put them into a stone jar.

Take good older vinegar for the basis of the pickle. Allow a pound of sugar to a pint of vinegar, and add also half an ounce of salt cinnamon broken into inch pieces, and a half-teaspoonful each of whole cloves and black pepper. The whole amount of vinegar, sugar and spices used must of course depend on the quantity of rinds to be pickled, but the recipe for a medium-sized melon. Boil the vinegar, sugar and spices together vigorously half an hour, skimming off the froth, and pour the pickle in a large hot over the rinds. Press the rinds down under the pickle by means of an earthen plate or saucer, fasten the cover on, and tie a cloth over the whole. These pickles will be ready for use in two weeks.—Harper's Bazar.

TOMATOES RIFE AND RED.

It is not so very many years since tomatoes, or "love apples," as they were then called, might be seen ranged along the country marketplace, divided into whole dozens and dozens of small ones. The whole amount of vinegar, sugar and spices used must of course depend on the quantity of rinds to be pickled, but the recipe for a medium-sized melon. Boil the vinegar, sugar and spices together vigorously half an hour, skimming off the froth, and pour the pickle in a large hot over the rinds. Press the rinds down under the pickle by means of an earthen plate or saucer, fasten the cover on, and tie a cloth over the whole. These pickles will be ready for use in two weeks.—Harper's Bazar.

They were considered then as rank poison, unfit for the proud position they now occupy on the table. Even the chief of vegetables, and new ways of preparing them, have been constantly devised by knowing cooks.

To make "tomato eggs" out of three or four good sized and not too ripe tomatoes into halves. Cut out a little of the inside, lay them in a pan containing two ounces of heated butter, and fry them lightly; when nearly done carefully draw a raw egg from the pan, dip it into the tomato, and lay it on a slice of buttered toast to the side of the fruit. Dust over them a little of the black pepper, and sprinkle a little finely ground ham or the white of an egg. Serve on a hot dish, and garnish with the leaves of the tomato.

Here is another way of making a dish that is as delicious as it is well as to the palate. It is a delicious dish of six ripe tomatoes make a whole of sufficient size to hold a diced piece of butter that has been dipped in pepper, salt, and ground nutmeg (mixed). Place them in a cup-shaped mushroom, previously soaked in heated butter and slightly dusted with pepper. Arrange them on a well-oiled dish and set them in a hot oven to cook. Take them out when the tomatoes are cooked, remove them from the oven and place a row on each one. Round the whole upon a grill of hot coals.

To make tomato fritters, boil, peel and cut the tomatoes into halves. Beat this pulp up with the yolks of four and the whites of two eggs, four tablespoonsful of cream; season with a little salt and nutmeg and a dash of cinnamon. Beat the whole till the batter is very light, then divide it into small fritters, and fry quickly in a pan of heated butter. Drain on hickory paper and serve with the following sauce: Melt an ounce of butter in a clean saucepan, skin it well, add the juice from two lemons and a table-spoonful of each sugar. When all is thoroughly heated pour the sauce into a tureen.—New York Sun.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

MARK HANNA'S MOTHER.

Who Has the Utmost Faith in Her Son's Ability to Succeed.

There are two interesting old ladies who are brought into greater prominence by the present campaign, Mrs. William McKinley, Sr., and Mrs. M. Hanna. One is the mother of the Republican nominee for the presidency, while the son of the other is Mark Hanna, who is managing the campaign for McKinley. Mrs. McKinley, perhaps, bears the burden of her 87 years more lightly than does Mrs. Hanna, that of the 82 years which have passed over her head, but such a thing could not have been truthfully said two years ago, when Mrs. Hanna's health became robust. But despite the fact that she is a physical sufferer she does not look a woman more than 60 years of age.

Her home is with her daughter, Miss Lillian Hanna, in Cleveland. She is by birth a New Englander. Her father was Col. Israel Converse, a distinguished soldier of the revolution. She was born in Vermont and in 1824 removed to Ohio, traveling the entire distance in a carriage. After her marriage to Mr. Hanna she resided in New Lisbon until 1852, when they removed to Cleveland. There Mr. Hanna engaged in business and there their six children were educated. "Am I interested in politics?" repeated Mrs. Hanna when the question was asked her the other day. "Yes, and always have been. My husband was a strong Whig. He stump-ed the State with Tom Corwin, Tom Lewis, and men of that class. National enough I became interested in the politics of the day. Every morning after breakfast Mrs. Hanna takes her papers, and does not lay them aside until she knows what is going on both at home and abroad in political, secular and religious circles. Old as she is, she requires no glasses to read with, nor has she ever. Her features are delicate and her hair skin is almost unwhitened. She has blue eyes and wears her snowy hair in smooth waves.

Explicit Instructions.

"What you want to do," said the old politician to the young man who had countered to do missionary work among the voters in the remote section of the country, "is to make yourself personally popular. If you can make people like you they're almost sure to vote your way."

"Yes, I suppose so. You mean that I should talk as if I were a native of the country? I don't cultivate an unaffected style of speaking and that I am to use small words and put my arguments into homely phrase wherever it is possible to do so, and to avoid any high sounding, other in the matter of my language or in the manner of my delivery, which may be beyond the comprehension of my audience, or which may possibly excite a prejudice against me on the ground of affectation."

The old-time politician dropped into the chair and looked weary.

"No," he said emphatically, "that is not it at all."

"Have I misinterpreted your instructions?"

"You have. What I mean is, that whenever a woman holds a baby up at you you have to chuck it under the chin and kiss it, and whenever you see a man with a dog you have to stop and tell the owner that it's one of the finest thoroughbred specimens you ever laid your eyes on. That's what I mean."

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Mark Hanna's Mother.

Who Has the Utmost Faith in Her Son's Ability to Succeed.

There are two interesting old ladies who are brought into greater prominence by the present campaign, Mrs. William McKinley, Sr., and Mrs. M. Hanna. One is the mother of the Republican nominee for the presidency, while the son of the other is Mark Hanna, who is managing the campaign for McKinley. Mrs. McKinley, perhaps, bears the burden of her 87 years more lightly than does Mrs. Hanna, that of the 82 years which have passed over her head, but such a thing could not have been truthfully said two years ago, when Mrs. Hanna's health became robust. But despite the fact that she is a physical sufferer she does not look a woman more than 60 years of age.

Explicit Instructions.

"What you want to do," said the old politician to the young man who had countered to do missionary work among the voters in the remote section of the country, "is to make yourself personally popular. If you can make people like you they're almost sure to vote your way."

"Yes, I suppose so. You mean that I should talk as if I were a native of the country? I don't cultivate an unaffected style of speaking and that I am to use small words and put my arguments into homely phrase wherever it is possible to do so, and to avoid any high sounding, other in the matter of my language or in the manner of my delivery, which may be beyond the comprehension of my audience, or which may possibly excite a prejudice against me on the ground of affectation."

The old-time politician dropped into the chair and looked weary.

"No," he said emphatically, "that is not it at all."

"Have I misinterpreted your instructions?"

"You have. What I mean is, that whenever a woman holds a baby up at you you have to chuck it under the chin and kiss it, and whenever you see a man with a dog you have to stop and tell the owner that it's one of the finest thoroughbred specimens you ever laid your eyes on. That's what I mean."

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Mark Hanna's Mother.

Who Has the Utmost Faith in Her Son's Ability to Succeed.

There are two interesting old ladies who are brought into greater prominence by the present campaign, Mrs. William McKinley, Sr., and Mrs. M. Hanna. One is the mother of the Republican nominee for the presidency, while the son of the other is Mark Hanna, who is managing the campaign for McKinley. Mrs. McKinley, perhaps, bears the burden of her 87 years more lightly than does Mrs. Hanna, that of the 82 years which have passed over her head, but such a thing could not have been truthfully said two years ago, when Mrs. Hanna's health became robust. But despite the fact that she is a physical sufferer she does not look a woman more than 60 years of age.

Explicit Instructions.

"What you want to do," said the old politician to the young man who had countered to do missionary work among the voters in the remote section of the country, "is to make yourself personally popular. If you can make people like you they're almost sure to vote your way."

"Yes, I suppose so. You mean that I should talk as if I were a native of the country? I don't cultivate an unaffected style of speaking and that I am to use small words and put my arguments into homely phrase wherever it is possible to do so, and to avoid any high sounding, other in the matter of my language or in the manner of my delivery, which may be beyond the comprehension of my audience, or which may possibly excite a prejudice against me on the ground of affectation."

The old-time politician dropped into the chair and looked weary.

"No," he said emphatically, "that is not it at all."

"Have I misinterpreted your instructions?"

"You have. What I mean is, that whenever a woman holds a baby up at you you have to chuck it under the chin and kiss it, and whenever you see a man with a dog you have to stop and tell the owner that it's one of the finest thoroughbred specimens you ever laid your eyes on. That's what I mean."

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Mark Hanna's Mother.

Who Has the Utmost Faith in Her Son's Ability to Succeed.

There are two interesting old ladies who are brought into greater prominence by the present campaign, Mrs. William McKinley, Sr., and Mrs. M. Hanna. One is the mother of the Republican nominee for the presidency, while the son of the other is Mark Hanna, who is managing the campaign for McKinley. Mrs. McKinley, perhaps, bears the burden of her 87 years more lightly than does Mrs. Hanna, that of the 82 years which have passed over her head, but such a thing could not have been truthfully said two years ago, when Mrs. Hanna's health became robust. But despite the fact that she is a physical sufferer she does not look a woman more than 60 years of age.

Explicit Instructions.

"What you want to do," said the old politician to the young man who had countered to do missionary work among the voters in the remote section of the country, "is to make yourself personally popular. If you can make people like you they're almost sure to vote your way."

"Yes, I suppose so. You mean that I should talk as if I were a native of the country? I don't cultivate an unaffected style of speaking and that I am to use small words and put my arguments into homely phrase wherever it is possible to do so, and to avoid any high sounding, other in the matter of my language or in the manner of my delivery, which may be beyond the comprehension of my audience, or which may possibly excite a prejudice against me on the ground of affectation."

The old-time politician dropped into the chair and looked weary.

"No," he said emphatically, "that is not it at all."

"Have I misinterpreted your instructions?"

"You have. What I mean is, that whenever a woman holds a baby up at you you have to chuck it under the chin and kiss it, and whenever you see a man with a dog you have to stop and tell the owner that it's one of the finest thoroughbred specimens you ever laid your eyes on. That's what I mean."

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

Tommy's Boy.

Tommy: Boy, Mollie, I wish I had ten cents to get some candy with. Mollie: He and ask father who borrows and what is it about by the difference in the calculation. It's got company, and I shouldn't wonder if he gave you a quarter. Boston Transcript.

AN AFRICAN'S CARE FOR ORNAMENTS.

Soon after you get started on a journey with little belongings all your breakable property: cups, saucers, etc.—will be smashed or lost, but the great African, notwithstanding, will wear round his ankles a thin thread of beads three years; he will wear his beads round his neck and collar, and he will wear his beads through his hair, without injury to his ornaments. It is remarkable how an ornament sticks to a native.—Century.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

October 1, 1899.

Solomon Anointed King.

Golden Text: "Keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways."—1 Kings 2: 3.

(1 Kings 1: 28-31. Memory verses 29-31. Read 1 Kings 1: 30-31.)

LESSON PLAN AND ANALYSIS.

Topic or the Quarter: Establishing the Throne of David.

Golden Text for the Quarter: "Thy throne shall be established for ever."—2 Sam. 7: 16.

Lesson Topic:—Appointing David's successor.

1. The Successor Designated, vs. 29-31.

2. The Successor Inaugurated, vs. 32-33.

3. The Successor's Qualifications, vs. 34-35.

4. The Successor's Anointment, vs. 36-37.

5. The Successor's Coronation, vs. 38-39.

6. The Successor's Inauguration, vs. 40-41.

7. The Successor's Anointment, vs. 42-43.

8. The Successor's Coronation, vs. 44-45.

9. The Successor's Inauguration, vs. 46-47.

10. The Successor's Anointment, vs. 48-49.

11. The Successor's Coronation, vs. 50-51.

12. The Successor's Inauguration, vs. 52-53.

13. The Successor's Anointment, vs. 5

WRIGHT'S TRI-VEGETABLE PILLS
For all Bilious and Nervous Diseases. They purify the blood and give healthy action to the entire system.
Cure DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION and PIMPLES.

FRAZER AXLE GREASE
Best in the World!
Get the Genuine!
Sold Everywhere!

R-I-P-A-N-S
The modern standard Family Medicine: Cures the common every-day ills of humanity.
ONE GIVES RELIEF.

D. D. FEO STEAM

Manufacturer of the Finest
MACCARONI, VERMICELLI,
And Fancy Paste,
And dealer in
Imported Groceries

SHOES.

Always a Good Stock

Only the Best!

Shoes made to Order is my Specialty, and full satisfaction is guaranteed.

Repairing done.

J. MURDOCH,
Bellevue Avenue,
Hammonton. : : N. J.

A. H. Phillips, W. A. Franco,
A. H. Phillips & Co.

Fire Insurance.

MONEY FOR Mortgage Loans.

Correspondence Solicited.
1828 Atlantic Avenue,
Atlantic City, N. J.

JOHN ATKINSON,
Tailor,
Second Street and Bellevue Ave.,
Hammonton.

Garments made in the best manner.
Dyeing and Repairing promptly done.
Rates reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case.

Wm. Rutherford,
Commissioner of Deeds, Notary
Public, Real Estate and Insurance,
Hammonton, N. J.

J. S. Thayer

Teacher of
GITAR and MANDOLIN

Agent for Guitars, Mandolins, Banjos, and other instruments. Also, Music, both vocal and instrumental. Repairing promptly attended to. For terms and prices apply at residence in the evening, or at Herman Fiedler's Cigar Store.

Hammonton, N. J.

Dr. J. A. Waas,
RESIDENT
DENTIST,
HAMMONTON, : : N. J.
Office Days.—Every week-day.
GAS ADMINISTERED.
No charge for extracting with gas, when teeth are ordered.

THE RACES.

The Race Meet of the H. A. A. last Saturday was attended by a goodly number who had come principally to see the unusual attractions offered.

On the whole, the meet was a success, the racing good and the time pretty fair, while the extras—especially the band (?)—were evidently well received.

The racing of the Adams Bros. on their diminutive wheel, "Kenilworth," weighing about eight pounds, was certainly interesting. Jesse, aged three years, rode here in his second public exhibition, the first being the week before in Philadelphia. He rode one-eighth mile in 54 2-5 sec. Lester, aged 5 years, rode one-half mile in 2:24 1-5.

H. W. Hackett, paced by W. Smith and Fredrick, of Atlantic City, on a tandem, and also by Englehardt, reduced the half mile track record held by Bernshouse at 1:03 2-5, to 1:02 1-5. Paced by this tandem, he also made an attempt to lower the mile record held by Joe Harrison at 2:15; but on account of some misunderstanding with his pace maker he had to ride the home stretch un-paced, and narrowly missed striking the judges' stand. His time was 2:15 1-5.

J. S. Williams and A. Stackhouse attempted to lower the world's record of two-thirds of a mile un-paced tandem; but made it in 1:29 1-5, about seven seconds above the record. This was not very surprising to those who knew the condition of the tandem—that the right rear pedal struck the chain at every revolution, sometimes making the rear wheel bound into the air.

The Watermelon (?) race, caused a great deal of fun, in the boys' efforts to pick up the melons. A. Wescott, of Atlantic City, proved an easy winner.

Several bad falls occurred during the races, marring the pleasure in the sport. Stackhouse and Karrar fell in the first heat of the One Mile Handicap, neither being hurt severely; but Karrar's wheel was minus several spokes. On a claim of foul, they were allowed to ride in the final. In the second heat of the same, Stiles fell, near the finish, hurting himself pretty badly and smashing his front wheel nearly beyond repair. Bernshouse also fell, but ran in, in time to qualify.

The One Mile Club Race was a veritable laughing race until the home stretch was reached, and Cordery pulled out, winning the race with Englehardt second, and Bernshouse close behind. Time, 3:43.

It is to be regretted that so many of our local racing men have left the track; thus our Association was represented Saturday by only three racers, Bernshouse, Englehardt, and Cordery. The latter surprised a good many with his success, especially in the five mile, while Bernshouse did well, taking into consideration the fact that he has done no training and no riding even, of any importance, for about three months; but Englehardt was snowed under by his unjust handicap.

The summary:

One Mile Open.—
First Heat. 1st C. L. Champion, 2nd Arthur Stackhouse, 3rd J. S. Williams, 4th H. J. Gormley. Time 2:30.

Second Heat. 1st E. Bates, 2nd A. H. Hillen, 3rd W. H. H. Cressy, 4th W. H. West. Time 2:41.

Final. 1st Cressy, 2nd Gormley, 3rd Williams, 4th Champion. Time 2:30 4-5.

One Mile Handicap.—
First Heat. 1st J. H. Gormley 150 yds, 2nd E. A. Cordery 90, 3rd J. H. Walters 110, 4th J. O. Hagar 80, 5th W. B. West 60. Time 2:31 4-5.

Second Heat. 1st C. L. Champion 60, 2nd C. Batesman 80, 3rd W. H. H. Cressy 100, 4th E. Bates 100, 5th A. K. Bernshouse 70. Time 2:29.

Final Heat. 1st Gormley 150, 2nd Champion 60, 3rd Cressy 100, 4th Batesman 80, 5th Walters. Time 2:25 2-5.

Five Mile Handicap.—
1st W. H. H. Cressy 200, 2nd C. Batesman 180, 3rd E. A. Cordery 200, 4th J. H. Walters 200, 5th C. L. Champion 180. Time 13:47 1-5.

There was a man once on a time who thought him wondrous wise. He swore by all the fabled gods he'd no more advertise. But his gods were advertised ere long, and thereby hangs a tale: the ad was set in nonpareil and headed "Sheriff's Sale."

LARGE TOWN LOT for sale cheap. "Real Estate" REPUBLICAN OFFICE

MARVELOUS RESULTS.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gauderman, of Diamond Lake, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Doctor King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succumbing to grip. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little intermission, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Croft's Pharmacy. Regular size, 50 cents and $1.

FOR BUSINESS LIFE

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION AND ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that the several Boards of Registry and Election of Atlantic County will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 13th, 1896,

at the place where the next election in their district will be held, at ten o'clock in the morning, and remain in session (except from one to two o'clock) until nine o'clock in the evening, for the purpose of making up from the canvassing books two lists or registers of the names, residences and street numbers, if any, of all persons in their respective election districts entitled to the right of suffrage therein at the next election, or who shall personally appear before them for that purpose or who shall be shown to the satisfaction of such Board of Registry and Election to have legally voted in that election district at the last preceding election therein for a member of the General Assembly, or who shall be shown by the affidavit in writing of some voter in that election district to be a legal voter therein.

And notice is hereby further given that the said Boards of Registry and Election will also meet on Tuesday, October 27th, 1896, at the place of their former meeting, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon, and remain in session until nine o'clock in the evening, for the purpose of revising and correcting the original registers, or adding thereto the names of all persons entitled to the right of suffrage in that election district at the next election who shall appear in person before them or who shall be shown by the written affidavit of some voter in said election district to be a legal voter therein, and of erasing therefrom the name of any person who, after a fair opportunity to be heard, shall be shown not to be entitled to vote therein by reason of non-residence or otherwise.

And notice is hereby further given that the County Board of Elections will be in session in the Court House at May's Landing, on Saturday, Oct. 3, 1896, for the purpose of revising and correcting the aforesaid register of voters, by ordering erased therefrom the name of any person who shall be shown to the satisfaction of said Board, for any cause, not to be entitled to vote at the next election in the election district where he is registered, and of adding to said registers the names of any person or persons who shall prove to the satisfaction of said Board, by affidavit or otherwise, his right to vote at the ensuing election.

And notice is hereby further given that the next General Election will be held on Tuesday, November 3rd, 1896, commencing at six o'clock in the morning and closing at seven o'clock in the evening.

And notice is hereby further given that on the aforesaid day of the General Election, November 3, 1896, the County Board of Election will be in session at the County Court House, in May's Landing, from eight o'clock in the forenoon to five o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of ordering added to the registration lists the names of such persons as shall then satisfy the Board of their right to vote on that day.

Done in accordance with an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "A fairer or supplement to an act to regulate elections," approved May 27, 1896, and the amendments thereto.
LEWIS P. SCOTT County Clerk,
County Clerk's Office, May's Landing, N. J.,
September 28, 1896.

Pr's fee, $14 45.

COAL

The largest and most complete assortment in town. Best grades of Lehigh constantly on hand.

W. H. Bernshouse

Railroad Avenue
and Orchard Street,
Hammonton.

PEIRCE. SCHOOL 32nd YEAR.

A Representative American
Business School for both sexes.

RECORD BUILDING,
917-919 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

THOMAS MAY PEIRCE, A. M., Ph. D.
Founder and Principal.

1865-1896.

A Systematic Business Training,
Coupled with a practical, sound and useful
English Education.

THREE FULL COURSES: Business, Shorthand and Typewriting, English.

The whole constituting an Ideal Combination.

Graduates cheerfully assisted to positions.

Visitors welcome especially during school hours, day or evening sessions.

Call or write for school literature.

DAY SESSIONS: '96-'97 BEGIN MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1896.

NIGHT SESSIONS: MONDAY, SEPT 21, 1896.

Atlantic City R. R.

September 28, 1896.

DOWN TRAINS.										UP TRAINS.
A. M.	A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	A. M.	A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.
8:00	8:15	8:30	8:45	9:00	9:15	9:30	9:45	10:00	10:15	6:15	6:30	6:45	7:00	7:15	7:30	7:45	8:00	8:15	8:30
Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City

SUNDAY TRAINS leave Hammonton as follows: Down train, accommodation, 9:30 a. m. and 6:42 p. m.; express, 9:49 a. m. Up train, accommodation, 8:01 a. m. and 3:42 p. m.; express, 8:11 p. m.

WEST JERSEY & SEASHORE R. R.

September 29, 1896.

DOWN TRAINS.										UP TRAINS.
A. M.	A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	A. M.	A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.
8:15	8:30	8:45	9:00	9:15	9:30	9:45	10:00	10:15	10:30	6:15	6:30	6:45	7:00	7:15	7:30	7:45	8:00	8:15	8:30
Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City	Atlantic City

The Philadelphia Weekly Press and the Republican both one year for $1.25, cash.

The People's Bank
Of Hammonton, N. J.

Authorized Capital, $50,000
Paid in, $30,000.
Surplus, $14,000.

R. J. BYRNES, President.
M. L. JACKSON, Vice-Pres't
W. R. TILTON, Cashier

DIRECTORS:

R. J. Byrnes,
M. L. Jackson,
George Elvine,
G. F. Baxton,
C. F. Osgood,
A. J. Smith,
J. O. Anderson
W. R. Tilton,
W. L. Black.

Certificates of deposit issued, bearing interest at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum if held six months, and 3 per cent if held one year.

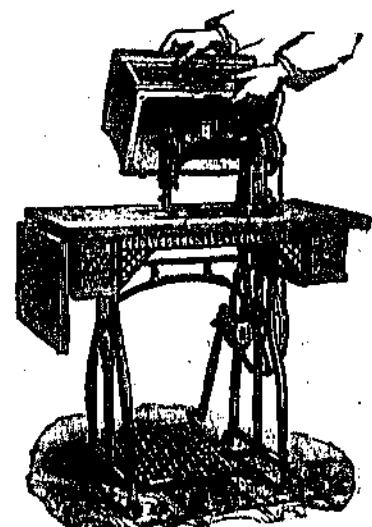

Discount days—Tuesday and Friday of each week.

A Boston Heights

building lot for sale, very reasonable.

Good location. Address,
WILL O. HOYT,

Cheapest and Best

Duplex No. 9
Wheeler & Wilson

Light running, easy to understand, beautiful work.
Single or double thread stitch—a modern invention.
Every machine guaranteed.
Are you interested? See us for a catalog.
Agents wanted.

W. & W. Manufacturing Co.,
1312 Chestnut St., Phila.

FOR SALE BY

C. D. & H. A. Jacobs,
Hammonton, N. J.