THE FAMILY MAN.

When eager nips the frosty air
And bleak is autumn's breeze,
The poet sings of russet woods
And harvest views that please.
But oh, the careworn family man,
No song is in his soul,—
He turns but from the leeman's bill
To run up one for coal!

And when the surely short'ning days
Mark summer's certain flight,
The poet sings of evening song,
And home's serene delight;
But still the luckless family man
No comfort sees,—alas!
For all this means that he must pay
A bigger bill for gas!

Base-Ball.

The Hammontons easily defeated the Egg Harbor nine, last Saturday. Of course there were some good plays, but the game would not whet the appetite for more. It was the last one for this season.

The Democratic political leader who refuses to admit the country's prosperity advertises a pigheadedness and obstinacy that would discredit any party.

This is the way in which an editor answered a question propounded by a would-be stock raiser: A rural subscriber asks,—Do hogs pay? We know that a good many don't; they take the paper for several years, then have the postmaster send it back marked "refused." Such a breed is usually twolegged, and don't pay.

An Autumn Outing.

An eleven-day personally-conducted tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to the Battlefield of Gettysburg, Luray Caverns, Natural Bridge, Virginia
Hot Springs, and the cities of Richmond and Washington will leave New York and Philadelphia in a special train of parlor cars on Thursday, October 19th.
The party will be in charge of a tourist agent and an experienced chaperon. A whole day will be spent on the Battlefield of Gettysburg, a carriage drive with lectures by an able guide being included in the ticket. Ample time will be allowed at Luray and Natural Bridge to view the wonderful natural formations, and at the Hot Springs two days will be spent. The season at this great Autumn resort in the beautiful mountains of Virginia will be at its height. At Richmond and Washington opportunities will be presented to visit all points of interest under intelligent guidance.
The round-trip rate, including all necessary expenses, is $65 from New York, $68 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other points.

Democratic praise of Admiral Dewey and demand that the work which he began shall be stopped do not seem to be set to the same music. There's something out of true somewhere in the composition.

The Democratic party, by its implied course on the Philippine question, makes closer the duty of every Republican voter this Fall—Stand by the government and the flag.

Admiral Dewey says "Aguinaldo is a mere tool." Messrs. Bryan, Allgeld and a lot of other Democratic leaders call him "hero." Public judgement had better tie itself to the Admiral's estimate.

SATURDAY, OCT. 7, 1899

County Convention.

Last Saturday, Republican delegates from every precinct in Atlantic County met at Egg Harbor City, to nominate candidates for Assembly, Sheriff, and Coroner. The Atlantic Review states that it was "the most disorderly and least harmonious held of late years."

John C. Anderson, of Hammoncton, was chosen chairman; E. C. Shaner, May's Landing, Secretary; Franklin J. Moore, Asst. Sec'y. The usual committees were appointed, and reported after a short recess. The rules adopted were substantially the same as last year. Rule 6 provides for representation next year, as follows: The total vote of the Republican candidates for all county offices received at the coming November election shall be divided by the number of county offices which are being filled, thus making the average of the Republican tickets. The representation of the County Convention will be one delegate for every fraction of fifty votes over twenty-five in the various Cities, Towns, Townships, Boroughs and Wards where thirty votes or more were cast, calculating the average as above stipulated.

The resolutions adopted were as follows: We, the Republicans of Atlantic County, in convention assembled, hereby endorse the platform of the Republican State Convention of 1898 and the National platform of 1898.

We stand by and approve the sentiment expressed by the President of the United States, William McKinley, with reference to the direction of affairs in the far East, and express our abiding trust in the wisdom of our National Administration, aided by Congress, in directing the affairs of the country in such a manner as shall reflect the glory of the flag and subserve the best and lasting interests of all the people and our beloved country, wherever located; we pledge our faith in the conduct of Hon. J. J. Gardner in national affairs.

Also endorse the economic and business like administration of Governor Foster M. Voorhees, and the efforts of our representatives in the Legislature to secure for our county and State such legislation which tends to promote our welfare and conserve the respect of the people, regardless of political affiliations.

We also pledge our individual support to the candidates named by this convention.

For Assemblyman, Chas. T. Abbott, May's Landing, and Walter E. Edge, Atlantic City, were named. Abbott received 70 votes, to Edge 43.

For Sheriff, Emory E. Irelan and Smith E. Johnson, both of Atlantic City, were named. Johnson received 82 votes, Irelan 51.

Geo. F. Sent, of Egg Harbor, was nominated for Coroner, by acclamation. As usual, the candidates were escorted to the platform, and spoke the customary acceptance. The delegates seemed in no mood for speeches, and dispersed soon after making nominations. The business for which the convention was called had been completed; but none seemed very enthusiastic about it.

There was a very distinguishing difference in the way that Admiral Dewey talks on the Philippine situation and the way that Mr. Bryan and his kind talk. And this difference ought to settle any question as to who is right. Senator Vest doubts that the country is having better times—so much for a partisan view. The big business of Dun & Co., assert that the volume of business now in progress has never been rivaled—so much for a commercial view.

Gen. Foraker put the issue squarely when he declared that so long as Aguinaldo makes his arm against our government in the Philippines, there can be but one side to the question and that is the American side. This is the only view for any voter to take.

Wall street had a big flurry. There were enormous losses and gains, yet none were the richer or poorer except the gamblers. The country itself saw values change in million values, but the country was none the richer or poorer for these enormous stock transactions. Strange, wasn't it?

The following item from an exchange is an instance of lack of interest in church men: A traveling man attended prayer meeting in one of our churches Thursday night, and among other things said: "During the past month I have by actual count received 120 invitations to drink, 50 to gamble and 2 to attend church."

Courtesy gives freely demands politeness in return.

Adjourned.

A Narrow Escape.

Thenful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Gerton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Maker, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my Maker once above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, cough and cold. I gave it a trial, took it in all right bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at Crowell's Drug Store. Regular size 50 cts and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Question Answered. Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mother and grandmother never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration, or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that's why they took when feeling dull and bad with headache and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Sample bottles are at Crowell's Pharmacy.

FOR SALE, A one and a half year old Holstein Bull, weighing 1,200 lbs. HENRY NOTZ, Egg Harbor City, New Jersey.

James B. Wright, one of the oldest residents in Egg Harbor, N. J., died very suddenly, Wednesday, Oct. 4, at his home, of apoplexy, aged 78 years. A good citizen, a Christian man, for several years Secretary of the Atlantic County Sunday School Association, a Justice of the Peace, known as a man of the strictest integrity. The Editor feels the loss of a good friend. Funeral services at the house this morning, at 10 o'clock.

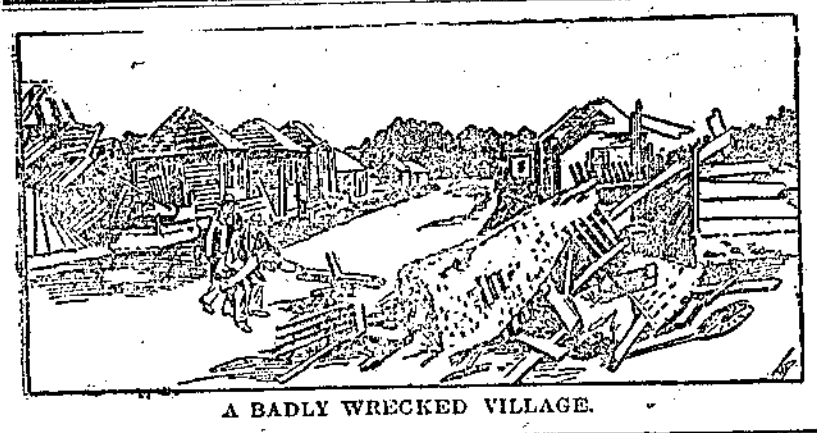

Hon. Henry M. Jowett died on Wednesday last, Oct. 4, at his residence in Winslow, N. J., after many months of illness. Capt. Jowett served during the war of the rebellion, was from an early date a prominent citizen of Winslow, a member of the State Legislature from Camden County, a Justice of the Peace, Past Grand of Winslow Lodge of Odd Fellows, also Past Grand Master of the Order in the State. He was postmaster under President Harrison, a member of the Township Committee, and of the School Board. Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon.

We, the undersigned, desire to express to the citizens of Hammoncton our thanks for the hearty manner in which they have publicly expressed to us their appreciation of our work as members of our base-ball team. We feel that in so doing they have strengthened the good feeling which already prevailed. To the umpires, Messrs. Grant and Chalmers, we extend thanks for the earnest manner in which they have manifested their desire to render fair and impartial decisions. To the manager and players we express our good will, and thank them for the gentlemanly manner in which they have received us. Hoping you will have a successful season the coming year, we are Respectfully Yours,

JOHN J. HARRAR, S. PAUL JEFFERSON. M. B. Taylor Lodge, F. & A. M., celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary on Friday evening, Sept. 29th, in their Lodge room. A goodly number of this most ancient fraternity was present, coming from Ates, Collingswood, Wilmetown, Atlantic City, and Lodges outside this jurisdiction. A history of the Lodge was prepared and read by Bro. P. M., H. E. Bowles, which was listened to with rapid attention, though nearly an hour was occupied in reading it, and by a unanimous vote it was ordered that the document be placed among the archives of the Lodge, as a memorial of this pleasant and enjoyable occasion. After closing the Lodge, refreshments were soon spread, and the brothers enjoyed a cup of beer in a social way. A quartette regaled the brothers with a choice selection of songs, duets, etc., which added greatly to the pleasures of the occasion. Short speeches were made by the visitors, including Mr. D. G. M. Ingersoll, of Atlantic City, and by members of M. B. Taylor Lodge, suitable to time and place.

A change of time on the W. J. & S. R. R. took effect on Tuesday. Down trains now reach Hammoncton at 5:40 and 9:17 (mail), A. M.; 12:06, 3:44 (express), 6:35 (mail), and 7:30 P. M. Up-trains, 6:00, 7:23 (mail), and 9:30 (express) A. M.; 12:30 and 4:03 (mail) P. M.

PORTO RICO'S RUINS.

FERRE DESTRUCTION OF THE GREAT HURRICANE.

Picture of the Havoc Wrought in our Favorite Isle, Many Fatalities Incurred and Deaths of Hundreds Followed the Passage of the Storm.

The recent West Indian hurricane, which swept across the life and dam- age to property, was one of the worst calamities of the century. In Porto Rico alone the death toll reached nearly 1,200, while the number of injured was three times as many. The damage and destruction of property was incalculable. Whole villages were swept away; growing crops were washed out by flood or leveled by the wind; shipping was wrecked or blown out to sea. For days and days after the terrible storm, tossed upon the shores of the island a heterogeneous mass of wreckage that told of disaster to vessels, the crews of which perished, and of ghastly, bloated corpses came floating ashore to add their ghastliness and horror to the awful scenes already depicted there. Now and then, after the storm, a disabled and long-enduring steamer made its way to the shore, and the men aboard there were taken to the stories of the storm's awful fury at sea. The entire island of Porto Rico was storm swept, but the worst destruction was wrought along the southern coast in the vicinity of Ponce and twenty miles inland. Sickening scenes abounded upon every side. Dead, mangled, and mangled bodies of men, women and children were walling to and fro; rows of dead availed themselves of the ground, and the air was filled with the stench of decay. In some places, the bodies of the dead were piled up in great numbers, and the air was filled with the stench of decay. In some places, the bodies of the dead were piled up in great numbers, and the air was filled with the stench of decay.

Many heroic incidents. There were many instances of heroism displayed by the brave men of Porto Rico. A city of 30,000 people was entirely under water, a foaming torrent pouring through the streets; lightning flashing; men, women and especially children struggling with the current, and then drowning; the rain came pouring down in sheets. Particulars of the terrible storm, show the great destruction and accentuate the horrible condition of the people. Houses and roofs to shelter were as serious questions. This disaster before the government issued ration and made other provisions to feed the destitute. The ruins in most cases consisted of a floor only, with a few articles of furniture. Porto Rico and the southern shore the hurricane spent its greatest fury.

Native estimates place the dead at 3,000 for the Ponce district alone, but the real number will never be known. All were buried in haste. Who they were, they were, will never be found out.

He remained in his home as long as was possible, trying his money to his arm, and in his underclothes only, he struggled through water up to his neck and at times over his head. Fortunately, some one grasped him by the hair as he swept past a house and he was saved.

The flood was at its height near midnight and the scenes along the river were heartrending. Houses after houses floated past toward the ocean, carrying its three, four, and even more, wretched passengers, who uttered piteous cries for help. The night was lighted by many a flash of lightning, and the air was filled with the stench of decay. The ill of women overshadow their whole lives. Some women are constantly getting medical treatment and are never well. A woman best understands women's ills, and the women who consult Mrs. Pinkham find in her counsel practical assistance.

Mrs. MABEL GOOD, Corvallis, Ore., tells how Mrs. Pinkham saved her life. She says: "I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. I can recommend it as one of the best medicines on earth for all women's ills. I suffered for two years with female weakness and at last became bedridden. Three of our best doctors did me no last but came to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking a few bottles of your medicine, I was able to do all my household work. I know that your medicine raised me from a bed of sickness and perhaps death, and am very thankful for what it has done for me. I hope that every suffering woman may be persuaded to try your medicine."

Get Mrs. Pinkham's advice as soon as you begin to be puzzled. The sick headache and dragging sensation come from a curable cause. Write for help as soon as they appear.

Mrs. DOLE STANLEY, Campbellsville, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I have a sick headache and with sick and nervous, and I could hardly go. A friend called upon me one evening and recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying that she knew that it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine and after taking five bottles of it, I was entirely cured. I cannot praise it enough."

Detail in Hardware Business. "In no other business in the world," says a Chicago hardware merchant, "is there such a multiplicity of detail as there is in this. It is not a thousand and one objects you have to keep track of, but ten thousand and one. The great American inventor is forever at work, and we do not add new items to our stock, and relegate some others to the realm of the obsolete. It has become a business of specialists to a great extent as the profession of medicine. I have, and although I have been in it twenty years, I don't know it all yet."

WASHER, D. C.—At a time when the whole nation is stirred with patriotic emotion at the return of Admiral Dewey and his gallant men on the centennial of the battle of Manila, it is fitting that we should remember the great deeds of our naval heroes. Admiral Dewey's victory at Manila was a great triumph for the United States Navy. It was a victory that showed the world that the United States Navy was a powerful force to be reckoned with.

Ob, while old ocean's breast Bears a white sail, And God's stars to rest Guide through the gale, Men will him ne'er forget, Farrago, Farrago, Tread the old sea's path.

According to his own statement, Farrago was a man of great courage and determination. He was a man who was not afraid to face the most difficult challenges. He was a man who was not afraid to die for his country. He was a man who was not afraid to risk everything for the sake of his country.

Capitula Poulton, an honored old sailor, was a man of great courage and determination. He was a man who was not afraid to face the most difficult challenges. He was a man who was not afraid to die for his country. He was a man who was not afraid to risk everything for the sake of his country.

Popular Science quotes an eminent medical authority as saying that the apple is such a common fruit that few persons are familiar with its remarkably efficacious medicinal properties. Everybody ought to know that the very best thing he can do is to eat an apple just before going to bed. The apple is excellent brain food, because it has more phosphoric acid, in an easily digested shape, than any other fruit known. It excites the action of the liver, promotes sound healthy sleep, and thoroughly disinfects the mouth. It also agglutinates the surplus acids of the stomach, helps the kidney secretion and prevents calculus growth, while it obviates indigestion, and is one of the best preventives of diseases of the throat. Next to lemon and orange, it is the best antidote for the craving of persons addicted to the alcohol and opium habit. It might be added that the natural acid of apple is an effective solvent of those salts that tend to accumulate in the system, especially late in life, causing rheumatism and gouty affections.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mrs. R. P. Olivin, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest blood and nerve remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing, you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by Crowell, Druggist.

A Free Trip to Paris!

Reliable persons a mechanical or inventive mind desiring a trip to the Paris Exposition, with good salary and expense paid, should write
The PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Some one said: He who marries for love gets a wife; who marries for position, gets a lady; who marries for a fortune, gets a mistress. If you are sick, your wife will cure you, your lady will visit you, and your mistress will inquire about your health. If you die, your wife will weep for you, your lady will lament, and your mistress wear mourning.

There is no sort of wrong deed of which any man can bear the punishment alone; you can't isolate yourself and say the evil which is in you shall not spread. Men's lives are as thoroughly blended with each other as the air they breathe; evil spreads as necessarily as disease.

It is the bounden duty of every man to look his affairs in the face, and to keep an account of his incomings and outgoings in money matters.

To be frugal of thanks shows a churlish spirit.

If there is good in us it will bring out good in others.

In cultivating your virtues, be sure and uproot your vices.

The sin the soul loveth is the sin the Lord hateth.

A colored girl was graduated recently from the high school in Petersburg, Indiana. The other seven members of the class, all boys, refused two months ago to be graduated with the colored girl, but the trustees stood by her, and the boys backed down.

You can have morals without Christianity, but not Christianity without morals.

Sell not your spiritual birthright for the world's mess of pottage.

Christians should watch always, for they are always watched.

Bank deposits in Alabama, according to official reports, show an increase this year of fifty per cent. This statement at what the people are doing under a Republican administration must be disheartening to the more-money illusionists of that state.

Speaking of the big corn crop in Kansas this year, here is a story from Marshall County: A farmer wanted to get a couple of ears of new corn. He went out into the field to pick them. The stalks were so tall that the ears were beyond his reach. He boosted his boy up to get the ears. The boy did not come down that day, nor the next, nor the next week. The old farmer died. When he got to Heaven he asked if his boy was there. He was told that a boy answering that description had passed through just the day before, on a cornstalk.

A good example is the best sermon.

AN ORDINANCE to suppress tramps in the Town of Hammonton.

Introduced July 29, 1899.

Passed August 6, 1899.

Section 1. Be it ordained, That all persons who shall come from any place without this state, or from any city, county, township, borough or place within this state, and have no legal settlement within the Town of Hammonton, and live idly and without employment and refuse to work for the usual and common wages given to other persons for like work in the Town of Hammonton, or shall be found going about from door to door, or placing themselves in the streets, highways or roads to beg or get, or alms, and can give no reasonable account of themselves or their business in such places, shall be deemed to be tramps within the meaning of this ordinance.

Sec. 2. That if any person described in the foregoing section of this ordinance shall be found offending against this ordinance in the said Town of Hammonton, it shall be lawful for any constable or police officer of said town, and he is hereby enjoined and required, on notice given him by any of the inhabitants thereof, to apprehend and convey such person to a Justice of the Peace in said town, who shall examine such person, and may commit him or her, being thereof legally convicted before him by the oath or affirmation of one or more credible witnesses, other than the officer making the arrest, to labor upon the streets, roads, highways, or other public works of said town, for a term not less than thirty days nor exceeding six months; and shall forthwith commit him or her to the custody of the Overseer of Highways to carry out the provisions of the sentence imposed.

Sec. 3. That the Overseer of Highways shall be, and he is hereby empowered to incur any necessary expense for the Board and lodging of the offender or offenders under the terms of this ordinance, subject to the direction of the Council of the said Town of Hammonton.

Sec. 4. That the Overseer of Highways may, at his discretion, discharge such persons at any time within the term of commitment, upon and less than ten days good behavior, or upon satisfactory security that they shall not become a charge upon the public within one year from the date of said discharge.

Sec. 5. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately after the date of the final passage thereof.
