FIEDLER'S.

"If a girl shrinks from the word 'obey,' or hesitates to speak it at the altar, it will be better that she shall never approach the hour of her marriage," writes Edward K. Bok in the October Ladies' Home Journal, in reply to inquiries from two girls if they should insist upon the word "obey" being omitted from their marriage ceremony. "Either she is doubtful of her own love or distrusts the heart of her lover. And in either case her marriage will be a sin in the eyes of God. Where marriage is a union of true love—and marriage should be naught but that—the question of 'obey' is not thought of: it does not enter the mind of the girl. One thought alone is uppermost and supreme: the union of two loving hearts, each filled with the thought of the other—both to be united in one complete whole. That is marriage, and that alone. Let non-essentials enter it, and the holiest state into which man and woman can enter this side of Heaven becomes a wrong, an irreparable sin. Shall these two girls, then, and all other girls with their faces turned toward the altar of marriage during these weeks to come, say 'obey'? Yes, a thousand times yes. And as they say it to the men of their hearts, so will the men, in turn, promise to love them as wives, 'even as Christ loved the Church' which unites them, 'and gave himself for it.' No woman has found it difficult to obey the husband who loves her as only a true man can love one woman in a universe. She does not find the little word coming up in her married life to make her regret its utterance. On the contrary, she never thinks of it except to be thankful that she did not shrink from it. The state of matrimony is not a state of demand on the part of the husband, nor of obedience on the part of his wife. It is a perfect state that lifts two people higher: a state where love is masterful and supreme."

The Eastern Mutual Life Insurance Company, a year-old corporation with headquarters in Camden, has decided to discontinue business. It was represented in Hammonton by Walter W. Horn and Mr. Wayland. Lack of business is the stated cause for closing up.

The large union choir of forty voices, formed for the revival meetings, held their first rehearsal on Thursday evening, using a new book entitled "Songs of Praise," furnished by Evangelist Geil. They met again last evening and were assisted by Mr. Eschleman, a cornetist.

Alexander Aitken and wife took possession of their Hammonton Hotel, on Wednesday, Mr. Frederick Bockius, the genial lessee, retiring. The hotel has been thoroughly renovated, new furniture added, and is ready to "welcome the new and speed the departing guest."

The M. E. Sunday School gave a "Rally Social" last week Friday evening, at which all departments of the school took part. A fine program had been prepared, and was carried out. Refreshments were served after the entertainment. The scholars say they will long remember rally day.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50 c. and $1 per bottle, at Croft's drug store.

No Gambling in Jersey.

In spite of the general apathy manifested by friends of the proposed amendment to the Constitution, all over the State, sufficient votes were cast in its favor to adopt it by a majority of 602. The newspapers guessed at the result, last week, and pronounced it defeated by various majorities ranging from 1000 to 18,000. We are happy to know that the official figures show that right triumphs in New Jersey, and that for eight years no gambling,—that fruitful parent of many iniquities,—can be legalized. This will not prohibit legitimate racing. Honest tests of speed of horses or men can be made exceedingly interesting, and few visitors at a fair can resist the desire to witness these contests. But the betting, the book-making, the contagious passion of gambling, that aroused public indignation, routed the dominant political party in the State, and has now decreed that no form of gambling shall be allowed. Good for Jersey. May this be the dawning of a day when vice in every form shall be abolished by decree of the sovereign people.

The second amendment was adopted by a majority of 7,804. This restricts the Governor's powers of appointment. We wish it could have gone further. The Governor of New Jersey can retain in his possession any number of passed bills for thirty days after Legislature adjourns, giving neither approval nor veto until it is too late for the Legislature to re-enact. At the last session, for instance, several important bills were passed—some of them in response to popular petition. They were handed to the Governor, who defeated the will of the people's representatives by filing the bills "disapproved," long after the Legislature had reached home. One man more powerful for good or evil than the hundred (nearly) who are elected to make the people's laws.

The third amendment, giving women the right to vote at school elections, was defeated by the decisive majority of 10,141. We must confess that we cannot understand this vote. Women now vote on appropriations; they now serve on the Board of Education; and why not allow them to have a voice in electing school officers? But we'll take the good the gods provide, and hope for better things to come.

The vote cast last week Tuesday, in this State, was less than two-fifths of that polled in November last. Of this vote it is safe to say that much the greater part was cast by men who take a more or less active interest in politics. Had the army of law and order about us, when part in politics consists in waging their laws, taken a sufficient interest in the election to go and vote, the anti-gambling amendment would have been adopted by an overwhelming majority, instead of a begrudging hundred. It takes votes to carry elections. Talking won't do it. Perfect peace is always the result of perfect trust in God.

Proposed Water Supply.

The Town Council held an adjourned meeting last evening, to receive propositions for furnishing a public water supply. All members present.

Dr. White, who made the proposition at last meeting, was present.

A communication was received from John D. Ball, stating that a company was being formed, to provide a water plant with local capital, and asking for more time to complete the proposition which they would offer.

Mr. L. Mosfort, by permission, stated that he knew of two other propositions that would be made, and asked Council not to be hasty in their action.

After a short discussion, Mr. Anderson moved that further consideration of the subject be postponed until next regular meeting of Council, Oct. 30. This was carried.

Adjourned.

There was a change in timetable on the Camden & Atlantic R. R. Oct. 1st. Trains now reach Hammoniton as follows: Up, 7:20, 9:38 (express) a. m.; 12:33, and 3:41, p. m. Down, 5:40 (freight, carries mail and passengers), 9:20, a. m.; 12:13, 2:45 (express), 5:45, and 7:30 p. m. Sunday, Up, 7:55 a. m., 4:40 p. m. Down, 9:38 a. m., 5:50 p. m.

Train time on the Reading R. R. was changed September 27th. Trains now reach Hammoniton as follows: Up, 7:30, 9:38 (express) a. m., 4:53, 6:07 (express), p. m. Down, 9:35 a. m., 2:47 (express), 5:49 (express), 6:55, and 7:45 p. m. On Sunday,—up, 8:04 a. m., 5:05, 8:11 (express) p. m.; down, 9:34, 9:49 (express), and 6:02 p. m.

Many a man has reached the summit of fame, and then looked down into the humble valley he came from and longed to be back there again.

The Grandest Remedy.
Mr. R. B. Greese, merchant, of Chilton, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by the use of two bottles. For the past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the greatest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds, and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free, at Dr. King's drug store.

That base ball game, last Saturday afternoon, proved very interesting to the crowd of spectators. The home team lost by a score of 6 to 5, but did not seem to mind it, as the main object was financial aid to their comrade, Will Gifford. The net proceeds were quite satisfactory, $38.55.

One day last week a party of our young people spent a pleasant half hour, inspecting the Winslow brick works. Among the number were Will Fehrenbach, Charles, Robert and Wm.
Geppert, Misses May King, Evelyn Edsall, Annie Gillingham, and Mrs.
Wm. Hackett.

The Annual Convention of the Universalist Societies of the State of New Jersey, will be held in the Church at Hammonton, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 12th and 13th. Rev. M.
Vail, of Jersey City, will address the Convention on Tuesday evening, and Rev. Dr. Sweetser, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday evening.

Wm. L. Black's new dry goods department is worthy a visit. New, light, and bright, the display of goods is made doubly attractive; and the great plate-glass windows permit an arrangement and variety that will test the artistic abilities of proprietor and employee. May his prosperity keep pace with his enterprise and push.

List of uncalled-for letters in the Hammonton Post-Office, on Saturday,
Oct. 9, 1897:

letters will please state that it has been adverted.

JOHN T. FRENCH, P. M.
One of the pleasantest parties of the season was held on Thursday even'g, at Miss Dora Moore's. It was called the "Ladies' Choice Party," and of course the gentlemen were treated finely
by their lady escorts,—to refreshments, swings, hammocks, dances, etc. Among the couples invited were:

Miss Cora Crowell and Mr. Lewis Cordery;
Miss Katie Anderson and Mr. Chas. Loyer;
Miss Bessie Hay and Mr. Morton Crowell;
Miss Dora Moore and Mr. Edwin Thayer;
Miss Mary Loyer and Mr. Walter French.
Tom and Jennie Peeper were noticed outside the windows during the evening.

The man who is always anxious to bet five dollars on everything either has great doubts about his judgment or has a counterfeit bill he wants to part with.
The best preaching is not always done in the pulpit.
