How Joel Parker got the State out of Debt.

See our issue of the 14th, we have received additional facts in regard to the "economical" administration of Ex-Gov. Parker. In his speech at Absecon, Mr. Parker said:

"When I entered upon the duties of my office, the state was in debt over seven hundred thousand dollars. The debt had been in existence some twenty years. The result of Republican extravagance. When I retired from office, notwithstanding the purchase of the Normal School property, the building of the addition to the State Capitol and other extraordinary appropriations, all the state debt on civil account was paid, and a balance of over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars was left in the Treasury."

The State debt he referred to has no reference to the war debt. This debt was left as a Democratic legacy in times of peace, by a Democratic Governor,—Rodman M. Price, and amounted to the sum of nearly $1,620,000. This debt Gen. Newell found when he was inaugurated Governor. During his term it was reduced to $155,700, notwithstanding the financial troubles of 1857. During the first year of Olden's term, owing to the erection of a new wing to the State Prison it was increased to $161,700. Then commenced a reduction. The second year of Olden's term it was reduced to $137,500 and the third to $76,400, a total reduction in two years, of $85,300. This is the "Republican extravagance" which left the State over $70,000 in debt, by paying off over $85,000 of the Democratic debt of $162,000.

Now, how did Joel Parker go to work to pay off this? A correspondent of the State Gazette tells us very plainly, as follows:—

First, by the levying and collecting of a state tax. This state tax for the "state account proper" was the first tax of the kind levied since 1847. By this (then) extraordinary tax there was raised and paid into the treasury during Gov. Parker's term the sum of $170,000 for state account proper.

Secondly, The State Treasurer's reports disclose the fact that the receipts into the treasury from transit duties, &c., (independent of the above tax), owing to the great increase in travel and traffic, were, under Parker, over $167,000 greater than the same class of receipts were under Olden. With these two sums, $170,000 state tax and over $167,000 increased transit duties, amounting to over $337,000, Governor Parker paid a debt of $70,420.37, purchased the Normal School at a cost of $38,000, (see Parker's message for 1865,) erected an addition to the capitol, on which he paid $17,657.69, (see Treasurer's report for 1865,) leaving for Governor Ward to pay the balance, (see Treasurer's report for 1867,) and left the Treasury on civil account over $150,000 ahead. In other words, with $337,000 he paid $122,000 and had over $150,000 left.

This is clearly an evidence of a financial genius of high order. Clap your hands, Democrats, over the great financial operations of Joel.

Let it be remembered that as late as 1864 Joel Parker publicly declared the war for the Union a failure, and expressed himself fully in favor of the peace-at-any-price doctrine! And yet this man now boasts of his "war record," upon which he asks the suffrages of the loyal people of New Jersey. This is what the gamine call "cheek," but it won't win this time.

Alluding to the U. S. Loan as an English paper says:—"A government that has within five years redeemed nearly five millions of the obligations created in the conduct of a great war, and which has at the same time largely cut down the fiscal burden of the people, stands in a position which investors know how to appreciate."

A TRICK!

Some unprincipled Democrats and discontented or bought Republicans, in and about Absecon have concocted a plan by which, unless Republicans are on the alert, Mr. Moore may be defeated. They propose a day before election to secretly circulate bogus Republican tickets, with the name of Cordery in place of Moore. This dodge must be watched. Let every true Republican be on the alert and spot these fellows. We do not think Mr. Cordery has anything to do with this underhand fighting. We believe he intends to carry on the campaign in an honorable manner. We do not propose fighting these fellows with their own weapons. It is too low. But if they try it, they will find the Republicans more thoroughly aroused, and by fair, hard fighting carry the day by fair means. If they do not believe it, let them cast their memories back just twelve months.

The Pennsylvania Democrats took the "new departure," but it does not seem to have agreed with their constitutions—at all events, it has done nothing towards enabling them to overcome the Republican majority beneath which they are buried. The sincerity with which they acknowledged, in their platform, the right of the colored citizens to the franchise, received an odd comment in the action of the Democratic police of Philadelphia, who drove the colored voters from the polls and killed some of them. The city will now be under Republican control, and it is to be hoped that the ruffianly policemen who have so long disgraced Philadelphia will be severely punished. Pennsylvania is now sure to vote for the Republican candidate in '72, so the Democrats may spare themselves any anxiety on the subject.

THE ONLY SURE ROAD.—The road to success is very hard traveling, and full of awkward places. Fortune-hunting is like a handful of pennies tossed into a scrambling crowd; only the strongest or most unprincipled get any. Rushing for fortune is a mistake. Steady perseverance and careful economy are the sure paths that have success at the end. Lay the foundation of a fortune at once by economizing your means, and save a large percentage by purchasing your clothing of BENNETT & Co., Tower Hall, No. 518 Market street, half-way between Fifth and Sixth streets, Philadelphia. 11-12.

The True American finds comfort in the reflection, that although the Democracy were overwhelmingly defeated in Newark, they were still more cruelly and thoroughly whipped a year ago. We do not wish to disturb our neighbor's peace of mind, or destroy the little comfort which he is able to take out of this comparison. He must feel miserable enough over the certain defeat in November, of which the result in Newark has afforded him no sudden, palpable and unlooked for a glimpse.—E.

Messrs. Munro & Co., the publishers of the Scientific American, and also well known as patent agents, send us a neat little volume containing in addition to the census returns of all the States, by counties, for 1870, the patent laws for the same year, and much valuable information for the use of inventors, mechanics and others. The price of the work is twenty-five cents, and we should think it worth the money to all interested in such matters.

Notwithstanding Joel Parker's "omnipotent services in behalf of the soldiers" (7) many of them from all parts of the State, declare that "his election will be an insult to every soldier in the State."

"Is there a single thing the Democratic party ever held to that they haven't departed from?" asked a Republican orator in Marietta, Ohio, the other day. "Yes, whiskey!" answered a voice in the crowd.

The proclamation of Gen. Randolph and the act concerning bribery will be found in this issue. Read it.

IN MEMORIAM.

Donus B. Snow, died at West Suffield, Conn., on Monday 16 inst., at the residence of his brother-in-law, Geo. W. Root, Esq.

It is with sorrowing heart we record the death of one whose friendship we held so dear; dearer than almost any other friend on earth. During the eight years in which we were closely connected, we found in him a most unselfish friend and a worthy, efficient counsellor. Our friendship began in our school-days and passing years but more closely united the bond between us.

Mr. Snow was born in Becket, Berkshire Co., Mass., and at the age of 18 came to Atlantic County. He taught school at the old "Cedar Grove" school house, near Somers' Point, two years. The following year he accepted a situation proffered him in the West Jersey Academy at Milville. While there he commenced the study of Medicine. Circumstances compelled him to discontinue his studies, and after a sojourn of less than two years at Milville, he returned to Atlantic County and took charge of the Leeds' Point school, which in the course of three years he made the best in the county. Upon leaving Leeds' Point, his services were secured for the Absecon Academy, which he took charge of in the Fall of 1861. For two years he labored incessantly to bring the school up to a high standard, in which he was successful. He expected to take charge of the school again in the Fall of 1863, but during vacation he was persuaded to accept the editorship of the REPUBLICAN. From that time until February 1870, our readers are familiar with his record. Working energetically at all times for the success of the Republican party with which he had identified himself in youth, he largely assisted the Republicans in gaining and keeping control of the county, and the readers of the REPUBLICAN, and Republicans generally throughout the county, will remember him with kindness and respect.

Upon leaving the REPUBLICAN in 1870, he went to Wilkes Barre, Pa. The climate, however, did not agree with him, and after a few months sojourn, resigned his position. In the Fall he visited the West, but not finding an opening returned to Conn. In the Spring of the present year he took a position upon the Philadelphia Press, upon which paper he continued until about the first of the present month, when, his health rapidly failing, he returned to Conn. His demise was unlooked for by his friends, so soon, but the unwelcome news reached us on Wednesday that our friend was no more. Many of our old school-mates, to whom this will bear the sorrowful tidings, will mourn with us the demise of their old and dearly beloved teacher, for probably no one was ever more beloved by the young people of Leeds' Point and Absecon. Though he has passed from earth, he will still live many, many years, in the hearts of his young friends whom he has been instrumental in leading to happier, holier and higher lives. "What greater reward hath man than this."

STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of New Jersey did at its last session pass a law, entitled "An Act relative to Bribery," a copy of which I made a part of this Proclamation.

Now, therefore, I, THEODORE F. RANDOLPH, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby enjoin upon all chief judicial officers of this State, upon all local magistrates, upon sheriffs and their deputies, upon police officers and constables, upon all officers of the State who have especially taken upon themselves the oath to bear true faith and allegiance to the government of this State, to see that, to the best of their ability, the provisions of this law be fully and faithfully executed.

And I do further enjoin upon the State Attorneys for the several counties of this State the prompt and vigorous prosecution, without fear or favor, or all persons or corporations who may in any degree render themselves liable to the penalties of the law against Bribery at Elections.

And I do further enjoin upon all good citizens of this State the execution of this law, as far as in their power lies, by rendering information to magistrates, and to G. and Jurors, that will serve to cause the arrest and conviction of any "officer of any corporation, or other person or persons, who may, directly or indirectly, bribe or attempt to bribe, or give means to bribe, any voter of this State, or who may be guilty of receiving a bribe from any person or corporation by which a vote shall be influenced."

And I do hereby offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest and conviction of any and every person who may be found guilty of violating the provisions of the said law at the coming election in this State—said rewards to be paid until the total amount expended for this purpose shall reach the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The affidavits of persons upon which the arrests and convictions shall be had, determining the elements of reward, and the priority of convictions, to determine to whom, within the aggregate amount, the rewards shall be paid.

Given under my hand and seal, at Trenton, this twenty-first day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

THOMAS F. RANDOLPH.

Attorney: ANTHONY M. SNOWS, Acting Private Secretary.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO BRIBERY.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any person, convicted of, hereafter, in any way, directly or indirectly, offering, promising, procuring, conferring, accepting, receiving or taking any money, property, thing in action, victuals, drink, preferment, or other consideration, by way of fee, reward, gift, or gratuity for giving or refusing to give any vote in any election of any public officer, state, county, or municipal whatever, or any member of the Congress of the United States, shall, in addition to any punishment now imposed by statute or the common law, be deprived of the right of suffrage, and such additional punishment shall be part of the judgment of the court in which the conviction is had.

2. And be it enacted, That any corporation, whose managers, officers or agents, or any of them, shall use the money or property of said corporation, or any other money or property to effect any of the unlawful purposes in the first section of this act mentioned, or in the first section of an act approved April second, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, entitled "A Further Supplement to the act entitled 'An Act for the punishment of crimes,'" approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, shall, if the said money or property be bestowed by such corporation, in account with such managers, officers or agents, or any of them, or be repaid by such corporation to such managers, officers or agents, or any of them, forfeit its charter; and all officers of said corporation who shall in anywise assent to such appropriation of the money or property of such corporation, or shall not, after being informed of such use or intended use of the money or property of such corporation, ask, in writing, that his dissent therefrom be recorded on the minutes of said corporation's meetings and send to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which the meetings of the company are usually held, a copy of such request, with a detailed statement of the information on which he acted, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be deprived of the right of suffrage.

3. And be it enacted, That in case any of the said persons in this act mentioned, who shall be convicted of any of the offences above set forth, shall be non-residents of this state, they shall, in addition to the punishments before described, be deemed and held incapable of performing any official act within this state for the benefit of such corporation, but shall, in all respects, so far as to bind such corporation, be competent as before.

4. And be it enacted, That whichever of the parties to an act of bribery shall first complain, in writing, under oath, to a magistrate in this state, of the other, shall be exempt from the pains and penalties inflicted upon such first complaining party by any law of this state; provided, such first complaining party shall also send a copy of such written complaint to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which the offence shall be committed, within one week after the written complaint is taken immediately.

Approved March 31st, 1871.

Cornelius Walsh.

The Republicans of our State have nominated as their standard bearer, a self-made man, one of that driving, enterprising, quick-witted men who rarely fail in any undertaking, for the simple reason that they undertake only that which they know they can accomplish. Self confidence and prudent foresight are indispensable conditions of success; with these a man can do a great deal; without them nothing. Such is Cornelius Walsh. In social intercourse he is exceedingly popular; an entire freedom from superciliousness or assumption, a careful regard for the sensibilities of others, good conversational powers, and a well stored and well balanced mind, render him a most agreeable companion, while his friendships are strong and lasting. During our nation's struggle, when suffering and death were known in every town and hamlet, his ear was never dull to the tale of the sufferer, nor his purse closed when relief was required.

How different the pompous aristocratic Joel who had it in his power to relieve as much suffering, but instead, when the so-called and maimed veterans of four years, who had been fighting to preserve the honor of his country, and to keep unsullied that emblem of liberty the stars and stripes, returned to their homes, he allowed them to remain all night upon the streets of Trenton, in a dreaching rain, without food. Does the Ex-Governor remember all this? Does he remember how the ladies of Trenton, by private subscriptions, had to form an organization, to relieve them? And does this noble-hearted Ex-Governor remember how, after they had all returned, he attempted to address them and was hissed? Soldiers remember it; Republicans remember it; and the War Democrats remember it. As parties grow old, discussions creep in, is an old saying; but, Republicans, let it not prove thus in our case; let us remember the spirit which we had when we took Abraham Lincoln from the plains of Illinois. Every thinking man knows that the Democratic party has been instrumental in helping upon the consummation taxes you have been, and are still paying—taxes that absorb over one-half of the earnings of the laboring man; causing the main burden upon his shoulders, forcing him to dwell in miserable tenement houses, denying him the comforts of life, and paralyzing his honest efforts to provide for the future.

The issue is honesty and integrity on one side, and fraud and dishonesty on the other.—Red Bank Leader.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

TOWN
Miss Gregory's entertainment on Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Chicago sufferers netted $35.00.

We have been repeatedly asked when we expected to issue the REPUBLICAN, daily. We shall continue it semi-weekly for the present. When Hammon-ton has a population of 10,000 we shall make it a tri-weekly and when a popula-tion of 20,000 is announced, we shall sing our daily banner to the breeze, until then we rest—in anticipation.

Miss Minna E. Gregory gave a reading on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Chicago sufferers. A large and appreciative audience responded to her generous offer to help swell the contribu-tions from this place, and as we listened to that beautiful song "Over the River," we almost felt as if a sweet "Harpiet" had re-crossed the "mystic river" to join in the creation of a project so nobly planned so promptly seconded and so successfully accomplished. The admirable rendering of Hood's "Bridge of Sighs" could not fail of thrilling every soul who heard it, or of awakening a renewed tenderness of feeling toward the poor "unfortunate" and a desire in hearts to be more merciful and helpful toward each other. Then again the stormy scenes which called for "Sheridan's Ride" were brought back so vividly to mind, that we felt like exclaiming "Let us have peace." Space, however, will not allow of further com-ment upon a lengthy programme which was sufficiently varied to show the versa-tility of talent and extensive culture of this young lady artist. She will remain for a few months in this healthy locality, and we would most cordially recommend her services to those who wish to secure an evening's entertainment of a high intel-lectual order.

The following is a correct list of the provisions and clothing sent from Hammon-ton, to the Chicago sufferers, with the names of the donors:

COUNTY

After years of anxious waiting, the people of Absecon are to have a new passenger depot.

The Journal compares Cordery and Moore, to David and Goliath. Jew-els. But we imagine it will be a turning of the tables this fall.

Lemuel C. Reeves, will address a meeting of the Republicans at May's Landing, to night, (Saturday.) We hope our friends will turn out.

Capt. Abel Babcock, of Absecon, was quite seriously injured on Wednesday by falling from a wagon. He was attend-ed by Dr. Madden, who set his dislocated shoulder.

The Bakersville Fair was very largely attended both days, about one thousand people being on the grounds. The show of farm products was very good, and speaks well for the farmers of the County. As we returned so late in the week, we must defer an extended notice until our Wednesday edition, when we hope to publish the premiums, also. The best time made on the 4 mile track, in mile heats, was as follows:

- D. Walters—3.16
D. Doughty—3.22
R. Goudy—3.22
R. Somers—3.23
Taking into consideration the size and condition of the track, it is thought that on a good track the time would have been 20 seconds less.

Capt. Abel Babcock has the frame up for his new dwelling, at Absecon.
Our friend Butler, following the good example of Charley Wyatt, has taken water forward, and we shall now have the pleasure of splashing Mr. Butler. Look out for a matrimonial rash of the other conductors—except Boardman. The ladies don't seem to be "taken" with his august (?) presence.
