

South Jersey Republican

Hoyt & Son, Publishers.

Independent
Phone — No. 532

Terms, $1.25 per Year; $1 in Atlantic County.

VOL. 47

HAMMONTON, N. J., OCTOBER 23, 1909

NO. 43

ELVINS' STORE

Cor. Main Road
and Bellevue
Hammonton

Purina Food

Chick

Scratch

Pigeon

Try it!

What do You Want When you Buy Clothes?

Is it style, clever designing that covers up any defects of figure, artistic workmanship that insures a pleasing appearance, and excellent high-grade materials that are necessary to produce garments of character?

EASY!

You can secure all these essential qualities and be sure of satisfaction by placing your fall order with us.

650 new all-wool Styles to choose from.

An unqualified pledge to give you exactly what you want and at a price that proves us worthy of your patronage.

Suits or Overcoats, finely tailored to order, $16.50 to $40
Trousers, $3.50 to $10. Let us show you.

Chas. Guber,

Odd Fellows' Hall, Hammonton, N. J.

Sick Room Requisites

IN OUR WINDOWS
This and next week.

A good variety. Look them over.

RED CROSS PHARMACY.

For the most news got

The REPUBLICAN

The Peoples Bank

OF
Hammonton, N. J.

Capital, $50,000
Surplus and Undivided
Profits, . . $45,000

Three per cent interest paid on time Deposits.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

R. J. BYRNES, President.
M. L. JACKSON, Vice-Pres't.
W. R. TILTON, Cashier.

DIRECTORS

R. J. Byrnes M. L. Jackson
C. F. Osgood George Elvins
Elam Stockwell Wm. L. Black
Wm. J. Smith J. C. Anderson
Sam'l Anderson W. R. Tilton

John Prash, Jr.,

Funeral Director
and Embalmer

Twelfth St., between railroads.

Local Phone 901—Bell 47-D

Hammonton, N. J.

W. J. ILLINGWORTH

Solicits your patronage in all kinds of

Monumental, Marble & Granite Work
Also repairing and lettering in Cemetery neatly and satisfactorily done.

Egg Harbor Road and Peach Street,
Hammonton, - N. J.

Paid your subscription?

The Town Goes Wet.

At the special election on Tuesday, voters decided to issue Town bonds for $10,000 to extend the water mains.

In the first precinct, 117 votes were cast; in the second, 106,—total, 223.

For the bond proposition, 84 votes in first; 69 in second,—153. Against, 28 in first; second, 28,—total, 56.

Majority, 99.

For $10,000,—in first, 75 votes; in second, 65 votes,—140.

These figures indicate that 16 men crossed off both "for" and "against." That 13 voters either failed to write any amount on the ballot, or preferred other figures. Two men wrote $20,000.

We are glad to know that the extension are to be made.

A Rumor Well Handled.

DEAR MR. HOYT: A rumor is afloat that if a certain candidate is elected to office, he will use his influence towards turning the water-works over to a syndicate. I would ask that you give me space to say to such as believe this that Town Council does not possess the authority to make such a move. Should it become a question of taking the water works out of the hands of the citizens, it would necessitate a special election; and only by a majority of voters (not of those voting) sanctioning such a procedure, could Council have power to make the transfer. The water-works belong to the Town of Hammonton, and there it should surely remain.

MICHAEL K. BOYER.

By the Bank Directors.

The following minute was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Peoples Bank at their meeting on Tuesday evening last.

In the providence of God, Death has again entered our midst, taking from us Richard J. Byrnes, our President.

We desire in some measure to express our grief and sense of loss, and therefore direct that the following be entered upon our minutes:

Mr. Byrnes was elected President in 1887, at the organization of the Bank, and has served continuously since.

He always showed marked devotion to the interests of the bank, rarely missing a meeting of the Board of Directors, always conservative in judgment, unhesitating in expressing his convictions, strictly impartial in his decisions, and always considering first the protection of the interests of the stockholders and depositors. His long experience in business, and as a resident of the community, made him most valuable to the Board of Directors, while his early experience in banking circles enabled him to keep in close touch with the detail conduct of the bank.

The performance of his duties as President was most acceptable and pleasing to his associates, making the meetings of the Board of Directors ever harmonious.

These meetings were not only business sessions, but times of social intercourse, very largely because of the tact, genial ways, and constant good fellowship of our President; so they were looked forward to and rarely missed by any member.

In a general way, he was always thoughtful of the bank, and had great pride in its success.

His financial standing in the community and successful business career added to its strength, and brought to it much of its business.

To his stricken widow we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

As an expression of our loss, it is directed that the picture of the President be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and that this minute be given to the press, and that it be communicated to Mrs. Byrnes.

Special services are to be held in the M. E. Church, beginning to-morrow evening, to continue every night for two weeks or more. Pastor J. E. Shaw will give short twenty minute talks on "Gems of the Gospel." All cordially invited. See programs.

Bank Brothers

STORE NEWS!

Join the many who wear Dutchess Trousers!

The Dutchess Trousers wear better, look better, and are made of a better grade fabric than other trousers in the country.

Our tables are piled with these fine trousers, and the newest weaves are here.

Every pair has a written guarantee, which reads, ten cents for any button that may come off, one dollar or a new pair if they rip.

Dutchess Trousers to work in at 95 c, $1.25, and $1.50

Dutchess Trousers for dress wear at $2, $2.25, $2.50, $3, $3.50, up to $5 and $6.

Other Working Trousers at 50 cents and 75 cents.

Corduroy Trousers, in all colors and grades, at $1.25, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50 and $4.

Guaranteed not to rip.

Gunning Boots,

Gunning Trousers,

Gunning Shoes,

and Gunning Leggings.

A good supply, to suit all.

Gunning Coats at 75 c, 95 c, $1.25, $1.45, and up to $2.50.

Gunning Trousers at 95 cents and $1.25

Gunning Shoes at $1.50, $2, $2.25, $3, and $3.50

Gunning Leggings at 39 cents, 50 cents, and 65 cents.

Knit Jackets,---

The largest collection we ever had is here, in the newest combination of colors; also plain gray, black, white, red and brown.

Prices ranging from 45 cents, 95 cents, $1.25, $1.95, and up to the very finest all wool Jacket at $5 and $6.

Quilts and Blankets

At a Saving.

Blankets at 75 c and 95 c, worth from $1 to $1.50

Blankets at $1.50 and $1.95, worth from $2 to $3.

Blankets at $2.50 and $3, worth from $3.50 to $4.

Quilts at 95 c, $1.25, $1.50, $2, $2.50, and up to the very finest at $3.50

BANK BROTHERS

The Home of

Good Merchandise at Fair Prices.

Hammonton, N. J.

STIVE QUESTIONS

Sunday School Lesson by Dr. Linscott for the National Newspaper Bible Club.

October 24th, 1909.

Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

Paul a Prisoner—Before Festus and Agrippa—Acts xxv:1-12; Chap. xxvi.

Golden Text—I know him whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Tim. i:12.

Verse 6—Who was this Festus referred to in this verse?

From the preceding five verses what had the Jews requested Festus to do?

Verse 7—On what principle can you explain the bitter hatred which the Jews had for Paul?

Will a religious bigot, who is full of hatred as these Jews were, stop short of swearing to a lie to accomplish his purpose?

Should any Christian believe or circulate a charge against any person that he has not got ample proof of?

Verse 8—As a matter of fact had Paul, in any sense, broken any Jewish law?

Which, at this time, were really in the most inevitable situation, Paul or his accusers, and why?

Verse 9-12—When a judge or a magistrate favors the prosecution, and makes harsh remarks against the prisoner during the taking of the evidence, thus prejudicing the jury, is such a man fit for a judicial position?

When a Christian is accused of wrong doing, and is innocent, should he insist upon his innocence or be patient and silent, and wait for the facts to speak?

Paul was no doubt wise in refusing to go to Jerusalem but was he equally wise in insisting that his trial be finished at Caesarea, and in his appeal to Caesar?

If you were a minister to be tried for heresy, which tribunal would you rather select, a prejudiced Conference, or Synod, or General Assembly, or Convention, or a Committee of Social High Court Judges?

Chapter xxvi:1-11—Who was this Agrippa and what had brought him to Caesarea?

If a man's cause is just will a knowledge of all the facts always help him? What are the leading points here outlined of Paul's defense before King Agrippa?

Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead? v:8.

Was Paul a better man when he persecuted and caused Christians to be put to death, than when he was in prison wanting to put him to death?

How do you estimate Paul's character before his conversion?

Verse 12-18—What points of resemblance are there between Paul's conversion and that of a sinner to day?

Why did Paul so frequently describe his conversion?

What was God's object, as here described in Paul's conversion, and what is God's object in every conversion?

Verse 19-23—Is it possible that some sinners get a call from God fully as marked as Paul's and yet refuse to comply and go on in their sins?

What difference is there between a man before and after he turns to God? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 24-32—Why did Festus interrupt Paul and say he was mad?

Why did not Festus and Agrippa both turn to God, seeing that they were clearly convinced of the truth of Christianity and their need of salvation?

Why are not all persons Christians who have heard the voice of God calling them to repentance?

Lesson for Sunday, October 31, 1909. Paul a Prisoner—The Voyage. Acts xxvii:1-26.

Change of Occupation.

"His wife was a high flier when he married her."

"And now?"

"She's a high flier." Birmingham Age-Herald.

"Speed" Means to Arrive Success.

"When we use the slang 'too slow' as applied to non-success we are speaking correctly, according to etymology, for 'slow' conveys an idea opposite to that of 'speed' and for more than 19,000 years the root from which 'speed' has grown has preserved its influence in a dozen languages and has continually signified the idea of quickness in grasping, in drawing to, in extending, in making room for action, in bringing property and means by reaching out."

Our Arayan ancestors used the little word "sua," and from it has grown among scores of other words our word "speed," which, through the centuries, has not been restricted to its meaning of velocity. It connoted the thought of velocity that reached out for success. It meant having room for action, to increase in the direction of property. Without "sua" there was no "success."

Old Favorites

Mona.

O swift my boat like a bird on the billow,

The boat of my heart—my trim Ben-mychoe,

But swifter than bird leaps my love from her pillow.

The girl of my heart who is waiting for me;

And down drops the anchor, the brown sails are falling,

And out on the shingle we leap in our glee;

But for all the bright eyes and the laughter and calling,

The girl of my heart is all that I see.

Chorus—

Mona, my own love, Mona, my darling,

Art thou not mine thro' the long years to be?

By the bright stars above thee, I love thee, I love thee,

Live for thee, die for thee, only for thee;

Oh, Mona, Mona, my darling,

Art thou not mine thro' the long years to be?

Farwell, all is over, the bitter tears falling;

My life is a wreck on a dark winter sea.

The innocent days are gone past recalling,

There yawns a dark gulf 'twixt my darling and me;

I pass to my exile alone, unattended,

The summer days mock me with their gladness and mirth,

For only with death will that exile be ended.

Thou'rt lost to me, darling, forever on earth.

Mona, my love, Mona, my darling,

Pray for me, pray thro' the long years to be;

And the angels above thee, who pity and love thee,

Will plead for me also and bring me to thee.

Oh, Mona, Mona, my darling,

Pray for me, pray thro' the long years to be.

—Fred E. Weatherly.

"MAKES THE TREATY TO-NIGHT."

Wards Seward Spoke When Arranging a "Cool" Investment.

On the eve of Friday, March 23, Mr. Seward sat in his parlor playing whist with his family when the Russian minister was announced, says Richard Lloyd Jones in Callie's.

It was a dispatch, Mr. Seward, from my government by cable," said Mr. Stoekil, the Russian minister.

The emperor gives his consent to the cession. Tomorrow, if you like, I will come to the department and we can enter upon a treaty." Pushing aside the whist table, the impatient Seward replied with a smile of satisfaction:

"Why wait till tomorrow—let us make the treaty tonight!"

In these solemn midnight hours the silent wilderness of centuries was released and to a nation's pillow over the low north wind whispered: "Gold."

When the sun's rays fell upon this parchment and the world was told what that night had done the whole nation couched the name of Seward with the epithet "Fool."

"A barren, worthless, God-forsaken region," whose crops were "feebles"—a country where the ground was frozen six feet deep in summer; the streams were "glaciers"; "it should be named 'Walrusia,'" the fish were "only fit for Eskimo food"; it was "Seward's folly" and his "polar bear garden"; it was "a fool's bargain"; "Oh, the shrewd Russians," etc., etc.

In the half-century that has passed since the Senate ratified that treaty this "fool's" has produced a wealth of $20,000,000, or nearly 100 per cent per year on the "fool's" investment.

Alaska's exhaustless storehouse of precious metals was the lure that drew the argument, as did California in '49 and Nevada in the winter of '70. But the great grant from this argentine treasure—from swamping picks and pans and want wadded garments for bags of fresh-washed nuggets, its rapid growth and perfect stability have fascinated upon its people the chronic affliction of inflammatory enthusiasm.

An Easy Way Out.

"Here, you," said the conductor, angrily, "you rank up a fare. Do that again and I'll put you out."

The small man standing in the middle of the crowded car promptly ran up another fare. Thereupon the conductor projected him through the crowd and to the edge of the platform.

"Thanks," said the little man, "I did not see any other way to get out here's your dime." Success Magazine.

Not Frightened.

"And what did that city girl do when she saw the snake?"

"She picked up and told in all about its genus and species, habits and habits."

—Louisville Courier-Journal.

KEPT IN TRACK BY "GUIDES."

BLIND ATHLETES MAKE WONDERFUL TIME.

The Overbrook record for 100 yards is 10.45 seconds, very remarkable time when all things are considered. The runners being blind, it is obviously necessary that they shall have some means of knowing whether they are keeping to the right track or not. Therefore wire cables stretch the full length of the track. On these are rings large enough to run easily, and to these rings are attached short chains with handles. The racers hold each a handle, and are thus able to keep an exact course. The tape also takes a novel form. It consists of a hanging fringe of cords. This the blind runners strike with their faces, and so realize that they have reached the winning post. This fringe of cords is similar to that used on certain American railroads to warn the brakemen on the top of freight cars that a low bridge is used. Illustrated London News.

THE LESSON SETTING.

When the Governor Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus he left Paul a prisoner. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

Festus proved no better, or when he could find nothing against Paul for which to keep him prisoner, he proposed to take the ship to Jerusalem, there to be tried among his bitter enemies. That would have been like handing him over to them, for they were prepared to risk anything other to murder him or to have him judged worthy of death.

But Paul had been sure for some time that he was to be sent to Rome. He knew it to his duty to free him as no honest charge had been made against the prisoner. He had been charged with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound. Very likely these charges were charges against himself that would be rather serious for him if they were pressed at Rome. These could be satisfied, perhaps, or even disposed of entirely, by doing the Jews this favor.

</

SAVE 1/2 ROOFING EXPENSE

Climax or Veribest Roofing

Quickly laid, durable, almost everlasting, and fire-proof, insurance companies make the same rate on it as on metal or slate, always pliable like rubber, sold under guarantee and if not satisfactory, goods can be returned and money refunded.

SOLD BY
JOSEPH R. IMHOFF
DEALER IN
LUMBER & MILL-WORK
COAL and WOOD
Hammonton.

Miss BERTHA TWOMEY
Notary Public
Com. of Deeds
Bellevue Ave., Hammonton.
Business in these lines properly and promptly attended to.

FIRST CLASS
Plumbing.
WALTER J. VERNIER
HAMMONTON
Local Phone 477

ICE CREAM!
Only the very Best!
Bread, Cakes,
Pies, and
Breakfast Rolls

SMALL'S
BAKERY

For the Best Meals
GO TO Cramer's Restaurant
Next to Bank Bros. Building,
Hammonton.
Meals at All Hours.
Full Meals 25 Cents
Choice Oysters and Clams
Served in all styles.
Philadelphia Pure Ice Cream
35 cents a Quart.
Families served with Oysters and Ice Cream on short notice. Both Phones.

DO YOU NOT KNOW?
If you do not, you can find out by a very little investigation that
The Hammonton Paint
Is the very best paint
that was ever used in Hammonton.
There are scores of buildings that you see every day, painted with the Hammonton Paint eight to twelve years ago, and looking well at the present time.
The Hammonton Paint is sold for less than any other first-class paint. It has no equal, as it works well, covers well, and wears well. Sold by JOHN L. TAYLOR
House, Sign and Carriage Painter,
Second and Pleasant Sts.,
Hammonton, N. J.

Annual meeting of the Needlework Guild on Monday, Oct. 25th, in Oda Fellows' Hall. Reception to members and friends from three to five o'clock. All are invited. Garments will be displayed, reports of year's work made, with an address by Mrs. Webster, of Philadelphia.

As the subscriptions of many of our readers are about to expire, we shall send out bills to all such, between now and the first of January. We will appreciate it if our friends drop in and settle for the new year, and save us the bother of "dunning."

The girl-and-horse elopement of last week resulted in finding the horse in a stable at Ashland, on Monday, and the girl's release. The Grand Jury declined to allow the county to bear the expense incident to the case. Something should be done, or such crimes will become common. When any one wishes to go to Atlantic or elsewhere, and hasn't the coin, he has but to hire a rig and turn it loose when he gets there. Probably the case will not be dropped.

List of uncalled-for letters in the Hammonton Post Office on Wednesday,
Oct. 20, 1909:

Nicola Gilbert Phillip Colucci
Appello Esposito Agnone Forczykta
Chas. Fuanna Pino or Puro Gaetano
Mrs. Giovanni Allono Archie Fortunato

Foreign
Thos. Ponis or Pomi Mrs. Hack August

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

Thos. C. ELYNS, P.M.

A Penny Saved Is
A Penny Earned

A DOLLAR SPENT AT HOME
Is a Dollar That May Come Back to Your Purse

Dr. R. R. MYROSE
DENTIST
O'Donnell's Building Hammonton
Office Hours: 9:00 to 12:00 a.m.
and from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.
Phone 533 Closed Thursday and Friday

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias, to me directed, issued out of the New Jersey Supreme Court, will be sold at public vendue, on Saturday, Nov. 13th, 1909

at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at Kushle's Hotel, corner Atlantic and South
Carolina Avenues, in the City of Atlantic City,
County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey.

All that certain lot, tract, or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the town of Hammonton, County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning on the Southwesterly side of the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad at Baker's corner at DuCosta, said corner being forty (40) rods southeasterly from the centre of Eighth Street; thence extending (1) southwesterly at right angles with said railroad and along Baker's land eighty (80) rods; thence (2) at right angles with first line southeasterly forty (40) rods; thence southwesterly and parallel with Eighth St. eighty (80) rods to the centre of First Road; thence (4) along said First Road southeasterly forty (40) rods; thence (5) at right angles with said First Road northeasterly one hundred and sixty (160) rods to the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad; thence (6) along the same northeasterly eighty rods to the place of beginning. Containing sixty (60) acres. Being lots numbers 28, 27 and 74 on plan of Farms as laid out for the Weymouth Farm and Agricultural Company. Excepting out of the above, right of way of the Reading Railroad.

Being the same lands which Lily F. W.
Byrnes and Richard J., her husband, by deed dated May 29, 1906, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of Atlantic County in Book No. 341 of Deeds, page 356, 357, etc., granted and conveyed unto William B. Shaffer.

Seized as the property of International Reduction Company, and taken in execution at the suit of F. Louis Morgenthaun, and to be sold by ERNOH L. JOHNSON, Sheriff.

Dated October 9, 1909. P's fee, $28.00
O. H. BRADY, Attorney.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias, to me directed, issued out of the New Jersey Court of Chancery, will be sold at public vendue, on Saturday, Oct. 30th, 1909,

at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at Kushle's Hotel, corner of Atlantic and South
Carolina Avenues, in the City of Atlantic City,
County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey.

All that certain tract or lot, of land and premises situate in the Town of Hammonton, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a stake in the southeast line of Bellevue Avenue fifty-seven feet and seven inches southwest of the southwest line of Third Street, being also the westerly corner of one Warren's land; thence extending (1st) southeasterly along said Warren's line one hundred and fifteen feet to a point; thence (2nd) southwesterly and parallel with Bellevue Avenue sixty feet to a point; thence (3rd) northwesterly and parallel with first course one hundred and fifteen feet to the southeasterly side of said Bellevue Avenue; thence (4th) northeasterly along said side of Bellevue Avenue sixty feet to the place of beginning; containing six thousand nine hundred square feet of land, situate in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey.

Seized as the property of Charles H. Wilson and others, and taken in execution at the suit of Thomas H. French, Samuel H. Robbins and George J. Morgan, Receivers, and to be sold by ERNOH L. JOHNSON, Sheriff.

Dated September 25, 1909.
Thomas H. French, Receivers,
George J. Morgan, Receivers,
Bellevue Ave.,
Hammonton.

P's fee, $28.00

UNDERTAKER
ELWOOD P. JONES
Office and Residence, 216 Bellevue Ave.
Local Phone No. 842 : Bell, 46-A Wax Flowers, Figures, etc., for funerals and memorial services, furnished on short notice.

School Shoes
and Rubbers!
Fit up the youngsters while our large stock and variety is in.
Any style and any price.

IT IS NOT PROFITABLE
For a soul to wear his sole through to the skin when he can get a good job of repairing at Monfort's.
Shoe Findings, Leather, Nails, Heel Plates, etc., always on hand.

MONFORT
The SHOEMAN
JOHN A. HOYLE
Hammonton
Hot Water and Steam
HEATING
CONTRACTOR

Hot Air and Gasolene Engines
Artesian Wells
Plumbing in all Branches
Bellevue Avenue, Hammonton.
BOTH PHONES

GEO. A. BLAKE
Carpenter and Builder
Work Finished as per Agreement.
Plans, blue prints, and estimates furnished. Jobbing attended to promptly. Box 583. Local Phone 806.
Cherry Street, Hammontao.

Nice - Fat - Young
Roosters for Sale
From 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 pounds.
THOMAS CREAMER.

20 words (or less) 10c
in the Republican

W. H. Bernshouse
Insurance Agent
Notary Public,
Commissioner of Deeds,
Office, Spear Building,
Hammonton.

DO YOU DRINK ?
Hammonton

Star Bottling Co.
B. FOGLIETTA, Prop.
Ginger Ale, Sarsaparilla,
Soda, Etc.

Orders Promptly Attended To.
Local Phone 542

— GET —
THE BEST ROOF and that is Cortright's Metal Shingles.
For which we are
Sole Agent for Hammonton.

They are Best and Cheapest.

Wm. BAKER, Agent
25 N. Third St., Hammonton

A. H. Phillips Co.
Fire Insurance.

— MONEY —
Mortgage Loans.
Correspondence Solicited.
Bartlett Building,
Atlantic City, N. J.

THE COLUMBIA
GRAPHAPHONE

For sale by John W. Roller,
Bellevue Ave., Hammonton

Lakeview
GREEN-HOUSE
Central Ave., Hammonton, N. J.

Large assortment of Palms, Ferns, House Plants,
Cut Flowers. Funeral Designs
in Fresh Flowers, Wax or Metal.

WATKIS & NICHOLSON
Florists and Landscape Gardeners.
Phone 1-W