

Lyceum concert next Tuesday evening.

Howard Sooy has moved onto Passmore Ave.

St. Mark's Fair next week, Oct. 28th, 29th, 30th.

Night School will open on next Monday evening.

A Republican rally to-night! Music by the Band.

Miss Goddard has returned from down east, for the winter.

Mercury was at twenty-seven on Wednesday morning at 6.30.

Mr. Spear has completed his second contract for sidewalks and curbs.

Mrs. H. T. Pressey has returned from her summer visit in New England.

Rev. Edwin S. Fry, of Manasquan, is to occupy the Baptist pulpit to-morrow.

Miss Clara Veit has been spending several weeks with relatives in Elm and Waterford.

The Stockwell building has been remodelled, and the corner rented for a department store.

Another huge digging machine has made its appearance, and is hastening the sewerage excavating.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. E. Johnson are the happy parents of a little daughter, who arrived on the 12th.

Volunteer Fire Company are planning a run for next Monday evening. No watermelons, this time.

The County candidates will all be present at the Democratic meeting next Monday evening, in Bellevue Hall.

Mrs. Daniel F. Yost, who has been spending the month in New England, will leave Boston to-night, for home.

Simpson & Roller will open a shoe repair shop in the Ballard building, equipped with up-to-date machinery.

People regretted the killing frosts of Tuesday and Wednesday nights, for the two Bassett dahlia fields were a sight worth seeing.

The Patriotic Order of America will celebrate its first anniversary Oct. 28th. All members of the Camp are requested to be there.

Night School will be opened on Monday evening next, Oct. 27th, in Central High School building. The enrollment is encouraging.

G. A. R. Post meeting at three o'clock this afternoon. Don't forget 'it boys; we haven't been together since May.

Pension Day Nov. 4th. It will be a big day all around, with general election and its attendant excitement, and the old soldiers with pocket-books bulging out with Uncle Sam's greenbacks.

Prof. F. H. Thornton, of Blue Anchor, died last Saturday morning, as the result of an injury. On the Tuesday previous, he was thrown from his wagon by sudden start of his mules, frightened by an automobile. Mr. Thornton was run over, across his chest, breaking several ribs and injuring him internally. The deceased was a musician of uncommon ability, having pupils in Hammonton and neighboring towns.

The Prohibition meeting Wednesday evening, was fairly attended; but made up for lack of crowd by enthusiasm. Edw. R. Johnson presided, and introduced the following, several of whom made interesting speeches: Dr. Jas. G. Mason, candidate for Governor; W. C. Port, for County Clerk; David R. Adams and Orville Bassett, for Assemblymen; and Jas. Steelman, a County speaker.

This has been a week of political gatherings. On Tuesday morning Senator Colby spoke to the Progressives and their friends; Wednesday evening, the Prohibitionists had speakers in Firemen's Hall; Thursday morning, Gov. Fielder and his Democratic escort held forth in Bellevue Hall. And to-night and next Thursday, the Republicans run things. And again, next Monday evening, the Democrats take possession of Bellevue Hall.

Justice Geo. E. Strouse came home from the hospital last Saturday. He is much improved in health, and hopes for speedy recovery.

Eugene Cordery was "first down and out," in Saturday's foot-ball game. He was taken to Dr. Bitler's with a bruised nose and sprained ankle.

The new telephone directory is out. It contains many changes, and the old one should be destroyed, to prevent mistakes in calling.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kline and Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Ward, of Salem, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perry, Horton St.

The first number of this season's Lyceum entertainments is billed for Tuesday evening next, Oct. 28th, the Hussar Male Quartette, a high-class company.

Frank Dudley is at home from the hospital, somewhat better, but still under treatment, preparatory to an operation on his broken nose and jaw-bones.

Reserved seats for the Lyceum Course sold well, Monday night, but there are a few still on sale. Call at Steel's jewelry store and make your selection.

At the Democratic meeting next Monday evening, in Bellevue Hall, there will be three speakers from other parts of the state, who are well posted on the issues.

Rev. Wm. H. VanToor, of Marcus Hook, Pa., occupied the Baptist pulpit last Sunday, and pleased his audience. He is a master of the art of word-painting, and makes all see the scenes he is depicting.

The first killing frost of the season, made its appearance on Wednesday morning. Dahlias in some locations were badly nipped, and sweet potatoes vines blackened. The first ice formed, was found Thursday.

You must do your shopping early; do it early, mother dear.
Or we shall hear the same old cry that went around last year.
In less than fifty days will come that sweetly solemn thought,
The middle of December and there's not a present bought.

The Civic Club Thimble-Bee will meet at Mrs. Orville Bassett's, Bellevue Avenue, Friday, October 31st, at three o'clock. The meetings are now drawing to a close, and they have been very enjoyable to those attending.

Monday last was Miss Clara Walther's birthday. A number of friends surprised her that evening, very pleasantly. A gift of a humorous nature was presented, and caused much merriment; but a silver gift came later.

One of the attractions at the Civic Club's Fair will be Phenology. One who has made it a life study will tell you what you are best fitted for, and give you a chart of your head, for the small sum of 25 cents.

St. Mark's Church. Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity. Holy Communion 7.30 a. m.; Morning Prayer at 10.30; Sunday School, 11.45; Evening Prayer at 7.30. St. Simon and St. Jude, Apostles, Oct. 28, Morning Prayer at 7.00; Holy Communion at 7.30; Even'g Prayer at 4.30.

May we help you to rightly spend the Sabbath by inviting you to worship in Presbyterian Church? The morning theme will be, "The re-charged life." Evening, "The new heroism." For an hour spent over God's Word, come at noon. If your week needs an hour given over to prayer, remember Thursday evening, at 7.30.

Educational day to-morrow, at the M. B. Church. At 10.30, the pastor will speak on "The High School, the Teacher, and Pupil." A special invitation is extended to all interested in education to be present. At 7.30, Prof. Henry P. Cressman, County Superintendent of Schools, will speak on "Educational Advantages." At this service, seats will be reserved for the Board of Education, and for all the teachers. Special music by male quartette.

In Memoriam.

Henry G. Newton, one of Hammonton's most highly respected citizens, passed to his eternal home, on Sunday morning, Oct.
19th, 1913, at 3.20 o'clock, at his late residence with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Andrews, on Central Ave. Mr. Newton had been confined to his home for nearly six months with a complication of ailments, the immediate cause of his death being heart disease.

The deceased was the son of Chas.
and Betsy Newton, was born at Old Town, Maine, in 1835. Some years later, the family moved to Belmont, N. Y., where Henry met and married, Oct. 4th, 1857, Mary A.
Ostrander. In 1865 they came to Hammonton, being among the pioneer settlers of this place. He bought a twenty acre farm, at Basin and Union Roads. The place was mostly wooded, there being scarcely enough cleared space for the erection of a small house. Within a short time, however, many more acres were added to the farm, and all was put under the best cultivation. After a few years he completed the erection of a new house,
with the most beautiful surroundings. Here he remained until about eight years ago, when, on account of failing health, he was compelled to leave the farm, selling to Mr.
Kind. After traveling for two years in the West, he, with Mrs. Newton, returned to Hammonton about 2 1/2
years ago.

The deceased united with the M.
E. Church here in 1873, during the ministry of Rev. M. DuPuy, and for 38 years has been an official member thereof. For several years he was Superintendent of the Sunday School. He was a faithful and loyal member, and a most ardent admirer of the Church's teachings.
He loved the Book, and with it he was most familiar. It was his daily companion and helper. He was a loving husband, a kind father, and a faithful friend. No one was ever more patient in suffering, than was
he. The one regret of his months of illness was that the privileges of God's house were not his. His end came quietly and peacefully, after months of waiting for the coming of the Lord.

Services were held on Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Shaw.
Interment was made at Greenmount Cemetery.

Deceased is survived by a wife and four children, - Willis E., Detroit, Mich., Carrie E. Trafford, Tacoma, Wash., Cora E. Andrews,
Hammonton, Henry G. Newton,
Phila., W.

First Football Game.
