W. C. T. U.

Therapies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

Union services were held in the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evening, Oct. 20th, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

Rev. Mr. McKinney, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, portrayed in terms of power "The curse of intemperance." Intemperance the curse of the nation, of the community, of the home, of the individual; the cause of war and strife, of the breaking up of homes, the crushing of noble natures, and the breaking of loving hearts.

The second speaker, the Rev. Mr. Jewett, Pastor of the M. E. Church, had for his topic, "Why?" Because the rum traffic is a legalized traffic. Any system that will put my boy on the block, a system that will sell souls and bodies, belongs to perdition.

Rev. Mr. Loomis, Pastor of the Baptist Church, gave "The Remedy." This evil can be exterminated by the ballot. Let us gird ourselves for the conflict. The Church of God can destroy this evil.

The male quartette sang "Is it none of our business?" Miss Gilbert sang "I heard the voice of Jesus." Other appropriate music was rendered by the combined choirs.

A Marvellous Escape.

On Wednesday evening, as the Hammonton accommodation train was near Murphy's Crossing, Messrs. George Wilson and Claude Myrose attempted to cross the platform from one car to another. The wind caught Claude's hat, and he, apparently rattled, handed George his book, and made a flying leap after his hat. The train was then nearing Hammonton, and an express following, so Conductor Laver wired back to Winslow for the express to run cautiously. Messrs. C. D. Jacobs and John T. Ash secured a carriage and started back, fully expecting to find the corpse of their friend, but were happily disappointed. It was learned that the momentum of the train threw Claude forcibly, and drove him some distance on the rough road bed. In a few minutes he arose, walked to house near by, and asked for water to wash the blood from his face. They bandaged him up to the best of their ability, and in a little time had him in Dr. Crowell's office. Examination showed that, to the surprise of all, no bones were broken; his hands and arms were bruised, his face and forehead abraded, with one bad cut above his right eye, requiring two surgical stitches. After the wounds were dressed, Claude was taken home, and on Thursday morning was evidently feeling much better than any one expected. As an indication of the force which drove the young man along the road-bed, we note that every button was torn from his vest, and a stone from the ballast forced into an upper vest pocket. How he escaped death is beyond human comprehension.

Given a Surprise.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church on last Tuesday evening gave a "surprise" to Mrs. Jesse Treat [it was her sixtieth birthday], who has served as President of the society for eight years. The occasion was one of enjoyment to all who were present. Mr. Treat happened to meet the party on their way to his home, but was promptly "corralled" and kept in duration in order to prevent him from giving information in advance. Pastor Jewett, on arrival at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Treat, in a few appropriate and humorous remarks, presented the hostess with a beautiful silver cake basket and a cut glass bon-bon dish. Mrs. Treat attempted to reply, but failed on account of too much "surprise." Among those present were—

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Capt. and Mrs. O. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Levi B. Jowly, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Jacobs, Mrs. Wm. Bernshouse, Mrs. L. Monfort, Mrs. Charles D. Loveland, Mrs. Charles Monfort, Mrs. E. Melony, Mrs. W. R. Tilton, Mrs. M. J. Tilton, Mrs. W. H. Bernshouse, Mrs. M. L. Jackson, Miss Nettie Monfort, Miss Bernier Bernshouse, Miss Myrtle Dieke, Miss Jennie Trafford, Miss Hannah Gordon, Miss Abbie Gordon, Miss Adelle Mortimer, Miss Eliza Mortimer, Miss Anna Gowley, Miss Anna DePuy, Mr. Alfred T. Trafford, Master Milton Jewett.

Mrs. Taylor, of Maryland, mother of Mrs. W. H. Bernshouse, also assisted the home party on the occasion. The gentlemen present complain that they were invited to do all the heavy work, carrying packages, etc.

A Shocking Calamity

"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kellett, of Willford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklin's Arnica Balm quickly cured him. It is simply wonderful for burns, boils, piles, and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cures guaranteed. 25 cents. Sold by Crowell."

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They are wonderful in building up health. Only 25 c. per box. Sold by Crowell.

Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says that he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains, and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Crowell.

What would you think

If you saw a man sitting on the bank of the Lake, watching some fishermen with a drag net, catching all the fish, and after they had left he would take a cork line out of his pocket, put a worm on the hook, cast it into the water, then expect to catch a string of fish.

That is precisely what some of our Hammonton merchants are doing. They sit in their stores, see some wide-awake neighbor, by a literal use of PRINTERS' INK, catch all the customers in the neighborhood, then complain because they don't sell their goods.

MORAL

SATURDAY, OCT. 26, 1901

Republican Ticket.

For Governor of New Jersey,
FRANKLIN J. MURPHY,
Of Newark.

County Nominations.

For State Senator,
Edward S. Lee,
Of Atlantic City.

For Assemblyman,
Thomas C. Elvins,
Of Hammoncton.

For Coroner,
Albert C. Stephany,
Of Atlantic City.

Hon. George Wurts, Secretary of State, says:
I sincerely believe that any Republican of sound mind and character
would be a safer Governor for New Jersey than any Democrat of equal repute and capacity. No man has ever yet been able to defy his maker,
and no Governor ever could do so.
Mr. Seymour could not be an exception if he were ten times as strong and independent as he is said to be.
I hold that the records of the two parties are a thousand fold stronger
proof of their worthiness to govern
than any amount of theorizing, harping about principles, or ante-election promises.

These records will justify the conviction that the Republican party not only knows how to govern, but, having the capacity, has always, as a rule, exercised it for the benefit of the State and nation; while the Democratic party, either because it has not the genius for government, or because its desires and intentions have always been entirely overruled to the disgre-
and injury of the people, has invariably made a dismal and disastrous failure when entrusted with the reins of power.

And the Democratic party has not changed, except in its principles or professions. It is lively in nothing save its progressive adoption of Republican doctrines, none of which, as
in its present acceptance of the sound money theory, it has ever professed until it has stubbornly tried and has been soundly beaten on a radically opposing one.

It may have changed its creed, but not its inspirations here in New Jersey. At its recent convention, which nominated Mr. Seymour for Governor, there were present, and in the saddle,
the same men who, in days yet quite vividly remembered, by their evil
counsel and conduct, brought intolerable disgrace upon our State.

A Night of Terror.
"A fearful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Mach-igan, Mich., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. H. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but also begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life,
and cured her of consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further she entirely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat and lung diseases. Only 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Grocers and drug stores.

A Communication.
Mr. Burton—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at night. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely cured me.—W. B. Brookman, Bagwell, Mo.
This remedy is for sale by Grocers.

Last Week of the Exposition.

The Board of Managers have decided to close the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, finally, at midnight, Saturday, Nov. 2nd. The last week will no doubt be one of the best, both in attendance and display.

The final $9 excursion via the Phila. & Reading and Lehigh Valley Route will leave Reading Terminal Wednesday, Oct. 20, and reach Buffalo early that evening. This will give excursionists the advantages of the last three days of the Exposition, and time to visit the Falls, etc.

The special tickets good going only on train leaving terminal at 10:30 a. m., and to return on all regular trains except the Black Diamond Express, within seven days. Only $9 for round-trip from Philadelphia.

For special regulations, etc., consult Reading ticket agents, or address Edson J. Weeks, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia.

Stood-Death-Off.

E. B. Maudy, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex, once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued the use until he was entirely cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs, and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50 c., at Crowell's Pharmacy.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville 'Messenger,' suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Crowell, druggist.
