SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1915

A State Water Supply.

Next Tuesday, in addition to choosing Assemblymen and other officials, the voters will be asked to approve or disapprove the issue of State bonds to the amount of one million dollars, the proceeds to buy the well known Wharton estate lands, in Atlantic, Burlington and Camden Counties,—about one hundred thousand acres. The object is to conserve the abundant water supply, for the use of such municipalities as will certainly need it in a few years, and will be willing to pay a good price therefor. Enough water can be procured from this tract to supply two million people,—and it is the only obtainable source of supply in the State. Unless bought now, this property will ultimately be divided and sold to private parties; then it cannot be used by the public, unless after complicated and expensive legal procedure.

More than three years ago, Mr. Wm. Bernabhouse was employed (not by the State) as an expert, to make maps and an exhaustive report on this tract. Recently, a member of the State Water Commission accidentally learned that Mr. Bernabhouse had some knowledge of the property, called upon him, and later brought him before the Commission, at Trenton, where he was questioned and quizzed, and gave them just the information they were searching for.—Here is a condensation of what he told them:

"I measured all the buildings and put a conservative estimate on them; also the farms, cranberry lands, cedar swamps with good cedar—not including small tracts of from one to ten acres, of which there are a number,—and find a valuation of $267,791; ninety-three thousand acres of land with pine, oak and maple timber, at $5 per acre, making $465,000; a water shed producing three hundred million gallons daily, valued at $475,000; a total of $1,207,791."

It is claimed by some that one million dollars is too high a price; but Mr. Bernabhouse, a disinterested party, estimates the value twenty per cent higher. Others say that the estate will not be taxable if the State buys it. True, but no tax-payer will notice the increase on his tax-bills.

Governor Fielder heartily approves this purchase.

It seems to us that it would be a good investment. New Jersey is rich,—has no debt; can borrow money at a low rate of interest; and when this water is needed it will be badly needed. New York has spent $250,000,000 for water supply; Massachusetts spent $91,000,000. New Jersey can secure hers for $1,000,000, or less.

Congressman Bacharach has been requested to name a cadet for the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Desiring to divorce this appointment from politics, Mr. Bacharach has named the County Superintendent of Schools in this District as an examining board, to select from all the applicants first, second and third highest,—the first to be the appointee, the others to follow in order should he for any reason fail to enter.

Monday, Dec. 6th, at ten o'clock, has been agreed upon by the Board as the time, the High School building at Atlantic City as the place for this examination. Any young man between sixteen and twenty years, of good moral character, with a strong constitution, is eligible. For application blank, write to Hon. Isaac Bacharach, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. Applications must be in by Nov. 15.

To-night will be Halloween. As we have stated before, the reason for observing last night was that it suited merchants better. We hope that the mischievous ones will have spent themselves, and abstain from all senseless pranks to-night.

Who's who next Tuesday? The County Republican candidates, also Messrs. Elvins, Small, McIntyre, Conley, Strouse, Davis, Combe, Osgood, and the water land purchase. Step up and help elect them.

Residents on Twelfth Street are complaining that the sidewalks are in very poor condition since the street was repaved. Of course, the contractor should leave the walks as good as he found them.

Contractor Ed. Bader will want many laborers next week, perhaps for a month.—Several teams will also be needed.—This will be an opportunity for farmers whose busy season is past.

Thanksgiving Day is coming. It is not too early to find a place for that extra turkey or ton of coal. There are many who will need a hit before the winter is over.

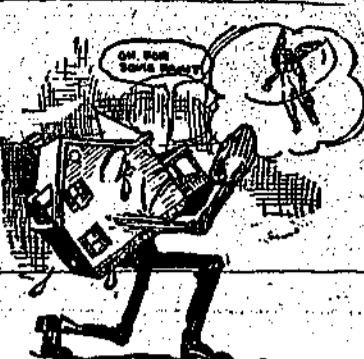

It was our error, last week,—the type should have read that rabbit season will open November 10th, not Nov. 1st.

Aren't you glad that you are a member of one of the Christmas Clubs,—now that you have your tax bills?

Presto, change! Door screens—storm doors.

DHAR EDITOR: I do wish that every woman in Hammoncton had attended the meeting of the Needlework Guild, and heard Dr. Senbrook's talk about the grand work accomplished through the hospital he represents, aided by garments sent by the Guild.

Each woman would have resolved to increase her donation next year, and secure more members. The Guild is the only organized charity here, and we would think that each woman would have resolved to increase her donation next year, and secure more members.

The Guild is the only organized charity here, and we would think that each woman would have resolved to increase her donation next year, and secure more members.

As he was about to board a car, Dr. Senbrook, last Saturday, when Bernabhouse was struck by a high-speed express truck and knocked not to the street and he more seriously injured, but against a heavy set colored man, and then to the street. His left arm is a mass of angry bruises from the elbow to the shoulder, and his right hip is still very painful. It was fortunate that he escaped with his life. No officer was in sight, and the truck got away before its number could be taken.

Vocational Schools Next Monday.

The Atlantic County Vocational School in Agriculture will begin their second year on Nov. 1st, at which time class work will start in five sections of the county, including Hammoncton. Considerable work has been done by the farmers, and the enrollment now exceeds the first week of last year by one hundred per cent.

Heretofore, the efforts of the County Board have been confined to the teaching of farming to boys and men. Beginning on Monday, Nov. 1st, a Vocational School for girls and women will be opened in Hammoncton, and continued for six weeks, then opened elsewhere in the county for like periods. The work in the Home Making classes is especially designed for women who are actually concerned in this work in their own homes, and in no sense will it be taught as a pre-vocational science. Enrollment already includes women in various walks of life,—and is not confined to any one group.

With the experience of the past year to work upon, and with the increasing support of the citizens of Atlantic County backing them up, the work in Agriculture and Domestic Science looks forward to a successful year.

The first day will be given to enrollment, and every man or boy who expects to take work in any line of agriculture should see the instructor in the room over Mr. T. Rancers' garage, for final enrollment and assignment to classes, on Monday next.

There will be classes for full time students every day for three hours each for five days in the week, either morning or afternoon; classes three nights each week for part time students; classes for school pupils, and a class every Friday evening for the older men who cannot join the other classes.

It is hoped that there will be a large number of men and boys who will make use of the daytime classes for they are designed so as not to interfere with the work on the farm, beginning when the out-door work is about finished for the year, and stopping when farm work begins in the spring. These classes require only three hours each day, thereby permitting each one a half day for farm work and sufficient time for chores.

The evening classes will meet each Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday nights if found agreeable, from 7:30 to 9:30. The rooms will be open all day next Monday, for enrollment.

FORD, the UNIVERSAL CAR.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The following prices f. o. b. Detroit, effective Aug. 2, 1915:

Ford Runabout	$390
Ford Touring Car	$440
Ford Town Car	$640

No Speedometer included in this year's equipment, otherwise extra fully equipped.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to August 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915, we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September, and October, 1915.
