Riding Two Horses.

The Republicans have asked Mr. Parker some very knotty questions which he has not yet answered. The latest reads:

Resolved, That we find it utterly impossible to reconcile the "New Departure" professions of Joel Parker with the following resolution adopted at the Monmouth County Democratic Convention, held at Freehold, October 8, 1870, and reported by him as chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, namely: "Resolved That the Democracy of Monmouth County are in favor of restoring in a legal mode the government of the country to the white race, and believing that two races, so distinct as the Anglo-Saxon and African, cannot successfully govern together, believing that each State should control the elective franchise within its own borders, and believing further that the so-called Fifteenth Constitutional Amendment was illegally and fraudulently forced upon the country, they are in favor of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, repealing and annulling said Fifteenth Amendment," and that we respectfully invite an explanation from ex Gov. Parker, as to which of these positions he intends to stand by in the future.

Which we are quite sure they will not get. The platform upon which Parker was nominated recognizes the Fifteenth Amendment. The resolution reported by Mr. Parker a year ago declares it a grave fault; so grave that it makes the Constitution itself "unconstitutional," and that the mission of the Democracy is, in all time hereafter, to procure its abrogation. He claimed that it was illegal and wrong. That was what he thought in 1870. Now, in 1871, he is bestride a platform which recognizes this "illegal and wrong" amendment as the law of the land. How is the position to be explained? We think it will be found that it is the platform only, that has been changed, and that the Parker of '70, and the Parker of '71, are the same in principle. He believes now, as then, that the amendment is illegal and wrong, and the "new departure" acquiescence is only a political dodge to gain votes. He, with a majority of the Democratic party, longs for the "good old times" of slavery and Democratic supremacy. The further back they can get, the better they are suited.

Frank Blair characterizes this new departure business as a "supreme humbug," and he is nearer right than Democrats usually are. It is a mere policy dodge; assumed in sections where power can be obtained in no other way and flung aside the moment it ceases to be of utility, or loudly denounced when the opposite course will gain the ascendancy.

Now Jersey soldiers who served their country in the field have not forgotten, nor will they forget, that Joel Parker when Governor of this State in 1864 opposed their right to vote. It is not likely that this remembrance will contribute greatly to Joel's success at fishing for the same votes now. And yet he has the impudence to expect it!

Will the Journal inform us how much majority Atlantic County is expected to give for Parker & Co? Is it minus 250?

The editor of the Journal is puffed up greatly with the prospect of a Democratic victory in the county this fall. He really thinks he knows something about it, and when he meets the REPUBLICAN, up goes nose, spunk and all, on a bee-line for the sun, like a monkey catching flies. He will need double specs on the 8th of November to see Joel's majority.

Our readers still remember the logical and pointed speeches which Gov. Parker held in our County. Journal.

We think the Journal should be the last paper in the State to perpetuate such a burlesque as the above upon its candidate.

The County Seat Question Once More.

Last Winter when the removal of the County seat began to assume definite form, the citizens of Egg Harbor City of both parties, tendered Mr. Moore the lead in the whole matter. This generous and complimentary offer was not noticed. Soon after, a petition signed in all parts of the County, without regard to party politics, and numbering over half the voters of the county, was with a bill for the removal, presented to the Legislature at Trenton. The bill passed the House by a very large majority and went over to the Senate for action upon. Just here Mr. Moore first appeared as an opponent of the bill, and in Trenton, whether corrected or not, it was given out that Mr. Moore's influence, backing Senator Adams, he, (Senator Adams,) was induced to let the bill lie unacted, and the Legislature adjourned; it was lost, and, as was feared, with it all that had been done in the matter.

So pressing was this question of removal, that May's Landing commenced the construction of a Railroad to that place to obviate this pressure, but as time went on the difficulties of collecting the subscriptions to the stock increased and it began to be feared the R. R. would not be built.

As the day for holding the Convention of the Republican party approached the County heard that Mr. Moore was to be the nominee. When that Convention met, it was found that two or three large towns (one of them Democratic) had united on Mr. Moore and he receiving the highest vote, was nominated on first ballot. Presuming the ascendancy of the Republican party this action would send Mr. Moore to Trenton, to veto all efforts to remedy the evil of our county town location. To some it looked as if it were easier to use the Republican party thus to choke the question in the Senate for three years than to build the Railroad.

So keenly did these views present themselves to the property holders, and so much did this action look as if it might smother all their efforts to improve the values of their homesteads and hamper their energies in developing the County, that they determined to address the following interrogatory to Mr. Moore for answer before Election:

"Should you be elected to the Senate of New Jersey, and a bill authorizing the people of Atlantic County to vote for and against the removal of the County seat, be introduced into the Legislature; would such bill authorizing a vote of the people on the removal, receive your vote and support up to its passage through the Senate?"

An answer to this inquiry was requested by between twenty and thirty Republicans and this number might have been increased to hundreds, but it was thought not necessary to add so many signatures. All that is asked, is, will Mr. Moore if we vote for him and elect him to the Senate, allow those of us who think we will advance the interests of the County at large, as well as our individual interests, to have a fair chance to express our wishes at the ballot box on the question of the removal of the County seat?

If we are too few we cannot move it, while if we are a majority as our petition showed, the County seat ought to be removed, while the effort to do so is made in an open honorable and legal manner. And it is as important to the good of the Republican party to rebuke an effort, if there be one, to smother the decided wishes of a majority, properly expressed, as it is to elect a Senator and an Assemblyman.

While this matter ought not to have been mixed up with party politics, it is now unfortunately in that predicament and an open avowal of views on it seems necessary.

The Democratic candidate freely gives his personal views and forebushes his public conduct, thus that party has a great advantage. The same openness on the Republican side would equalize both parties, and it is hoped relieve the County seat question of party politics altogether.

REPUBLICAN.

The New Departure in Delaware.

WHAT THE PRESS HAS TO SAY OF IT.

On the issue of Bourbonism and New Departure, the Democratic newspapers of our neighboring State of Delaware, may be thus classified:

The Delawarean, (Saulsbury Organ,) declares it will die rather than depart.

The Gazette (Wilmington Organ,) is astride the fence—on a very sharp rail. It will depart rather than die.

The Advertiser (organ of the Hibernian Democracy,) is strongly for the Departure.

John O'Byrne, who is charged with writing its editorials was on the stump for the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania.

The Middletown Transcript says the Departure has ruined the party, and will soon bury it so deep as to make tomb-stones unnecessary.

The Buxton Journal goes for the Departure though insisting that it is still a "good old rebel that's just what it is; it won't be reconstructed, and it don't care."

A CONTRAST.

We hear much now-a-days of the needless extravagance and corruption of the Republican Administration, and of the general demoralization of the finances. It may not be inappropriate, in view of the allegations put forth by the Democracy, to contrast the present state of our finances with that of ten years ago. On the 19th of January, 1861, Mr. Buchanan's Secretary tried to borrow $5,000,000, and the best-bids he could get averaged 10% per cent. less than par. The six per cent. bonds of the Government having twenty years to run, sold at 83, and soon ran down to 80. After an exhaustive conflict, after the severest tests that could be applied to the credit of a Government, Secretary Boutwell is now funding the debt, with the offer of $1,300,000,000, and the five per cent. bonds are freely taken at par, while confidence is expressed that securities bearing four and a half, or even four per cent. interest, can soon be floated without discount. Before the bonds are ready for delivery, nearly seventy million dollars of the five per cents. have been placed among our own capitalists without a dollar of foreign aid. The contrast is eloquent beyond words, and demonstrates the marvelous efficiency of honest, economical administration, and of a direct and honorable financial policy. It will take time to complete the funding process, and doubt may be expressed whether the four per cent. bonds will be taken at once. But the reduction of the rate, as well as the aggregate of the interest burden, is assured. By funding, as well as by payment of the principal, and by a vigorous system of retrenchment, the demands upon the Treasury are diminished.

These achievements have not been easy. It has required stern virtue at once after the close of the war to enforce rigid economy. Courage has been necessary to persist in paying the debt in the face of clamor. But only on these conditions could the natural credit be restored and the tax payers be relieved by permanent reduction of the interest. The dangers of repudiation rendered a vigorous policy indispensable, and the advantages of such a policy have been abundantly demonstrated. These benefits included the ability now to inaugurate new and large reductions of natural taxes. Although the Forty-first Congress abolished $80,000,000 of customs and internal duties, the fidelity of Gen. Grant's administration has kept the revenue beyond the demands upon the Treasury. The prosperity of the country, the elasticity of its resources, and the efficiency of the authorities, combine to justify systematic legislation for the relief of the tax-payer. Congress and the Secretary have been brave enough to maintain the taxes which the national credit has required. They will unite with joyful alacrity in lifting burdens for which the necessity has passed away. It is moderate to calculate that at the next session of Congress, fifty million dollars a year will be stricken from the sum of national taxation. The Democracy, where-over it has power, magnifies the taxes, and multiplies the extortions from the people. The Republican administration on the contrary, paying $204,754,413.09, since the first of March, 1869, on the principal of the debt, and having only a year ago stricken $80,000,000 per annum from the national tax schedule, is now ready to make a further reduction of nearly one-sixth of the entire annual revenue. And while it can achieve such a reduction, payments on the principal of the debt can be continued at a handsome rate.

It is stated, and we see no good reasons for doubting the statement, that the national taxes can be reduced at the next session of Congress, fifty million dollars. At least one-half that sum will go from the internal revenue. The income tax will disappear forever. Some of the stamp, also will be abolished. Of the more obnoxious customs, twenty-five million dollars can be stricken off. Coal can come in free. The duties on salt, tea, coffee and sugar, can be reduced one-half. The free list can be greatly enlarged. Wherever duties are proved to be unequal and detrimental to American industry, they can be modified. Such are the fruits of Republican administration. Could there be stronger proof of economy and thrift and prudence? The debt reduced one-tenth, and the process of abolition of taxes rapidly carried forward, are answers conclusive to the destructive who are aiming at the control of the government. Would it not be well for those sagacious Democratic editors and stump orators who are so loud-mouthed in their denunciations of "Republican misrule" to institute a comparison of national finances in 1861-1871? Figures of themselves never lie, though some of their manipulations sometimes do. Thus it will be seen that the boon which the Republican party offers to a country it has saved and now protects, a further reduction of fifty millions a year in taxation. Does this look as though there was much danger of the country going to the eternal smash financially, as prophesied by the same out-of-control politicians? Let the good sense of the public answer.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Legislature of the State of New Jersey did at its last session pass a law, entitled "An Act relative to Bribery," a copy of which is made a part of this Proclamation. Now, therefore, I, THEODORE F. RANDOLPH, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby enforce upon all chief judicial officers of this State, upon all local magistrates, upon sheriffs and their deputies, upon police officers and constables, upon all officers of the State who have specially taken upon themselves the oath to bear true faith and allegiance to the government of this State, to see that, to the best of their ability, the provisions of this law be fully and faithfully executed. And I do further enforce upon the State Attorneys for the several counties of this State the prompt and vigorous prosecution, without fear or favor, or all persons or corporations who may in any degree render themselves liable to the penalties of the law against Bribery at Elections. And I do further enforce upon all good citizens of this State the execution of this law, as far as in their power they, by rendering information to magistrates, and to the Governor, and to the State, will serve to cause the arrest and conviction of any officers of any corporation, or other person or persons, who may, directly or indirectly, bribe or attempt to bribe, or give means to bribe, any voter of this State, or who may be guilty of receiving a bribe from any person or corporation by which a vote shall be influenced. And I do hereby offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest and conviction of any and every person who may be found guilty of violating the provisions of the said law at the coming election in this State—said rewards to be paid until the total amount expended for this purpose shall reach the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS. The affidavits of persons upon which the arrest and convictions shall be had, determining the claimants of reward, and the priority of convictions, to determine to whom, within the aggregate amount, the rewards shall be paid. Given under my hand and seal, at [S.W.] Trenton, this seventeenth day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

THEO. F. RANDOLPH, Secretary.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY. AN ACT RELATIVE TO BRIBERY.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any person convicted of, he, she, or it, in any way, directly or indirectly, offering, promising, procuring, conferring, accepting, receiving or taking any money, property, thing in action, victuals, drink, preferment, or other consideration, by way of fee, reward, gift, or gratuity for giving or refusing to give any vote in any election of any public officer, State, county, or municipal whatever, or any member of the Congress of the United States, shall, in addition to any punishment now imposed by statute or the common law, be deprived of the right of suffrage, and such additional punishment shall be part of the judgment of the court in which the conviction is had.

2. And be it enacted, That any corporation, whose managers, officers or agents, or any of them, shall use the money or property of said corporation, or any other money or property to effect any of the unlawful purposes in the first section of this act mentioned, or in the first section of an act approved April second, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, entitled "An Act for the punishment of crimes," approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, shall, if the said money or property be allowed by such corporation in account to such managers, officers or agents, or any of them, or be repaid by such corporation to such managers, officers or agents, or any of them, forfeit its charter; and all officers of said corporation who shall in anywise assent to such appropriation of the money or property of such corporation, or shall not, after being informed of such use or intended use of the money or property of such corporation, ask, in writing, that his dissent therefrom be recorded on the minutes of said corporation's meetings and send to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which the meetings of the company are usually held, a copy of such request, with a detailed statement of the information on which he acted, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be deprived of the office.

3. And be it enacted, That in case any of the said persons in this act mentioned, who shall be convicted of any of the offenses above set forth, shall be non-residents of this State, they shall, in addition to the punishments before described, be deemed and held incapable of performing any official act within this State for the benefit of such corporation, but shall, in all respects, so far as to bind such corporation, be competent as before.

4. And be it enacted, That whoever of the parties to an act of bribery shall first complain, in writing, under oath, to a magistrate in this State, of the other, shall be exempt from the pains and penalties inflicted upon such first complaining party by any law of this State; provided, such first complaining party shall also send a copy of such written complaint to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which the offense shall be committed, within one week after the written complaint to the magistrate.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 21st, 1871.

Do the "warm" friends of Joel Parker remember when he refused the soldier, leaving the "baracks" in Trenton and would not give their friends the privilege of seeing them? They finally broke away from restraint, and, appearing before his house, teased and teased the great "War Governor." We don't suppose they want to remember the above. Like some of the acts of their party during the war, they would like it to be covered up in the grave of oblivion.

Mr. Sam'l Gilbert has shown us some apples of second growth this season. The tree blossomed the second time in Sept., and the apples are now as large as hickory nuts.
Some person circulated the report last week, that Mrs. Gilbert was sick with the small-pox. We are authorized to contradict the story. No case of small-pox has yet made its appearance among us.
Capt. Somerby left some fine carrots, of his raising, at our office a few days ago, some of which weigh four lbs each. They are beauties. The Captain raised fifty bushels from one-eighth of an acre. Can any of our farmers beat it.
The Vineland railroad changes its time-table so frequently that we have not been able to keep up with it. The latest was issued Oct. 14th, and we believe is permanent. The crowd of political matter obliges us to omit it to-day. We shall publish the full table on Wednesday. Also, some remarks upon the meanness of some of the officials who are trying to shove Hammonton out in the cold.
A meeting will be held at Mechanics Hall on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Building and Loan Association. From the success attending these enterprises in other parts of the county we are surprised that the enterprise has not been agitated before. We hope there will be a good attendance on Thursday evening and a strong association the result.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY.
AN ACT RELATIVE TO BRIBERY.
1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any person convicted of, hereafter, in any way, directly or indirectly, offering, promising, procuring, conferring, accepting, receiving or taking any money, property, thing in action, victuals, drink, preferment, or other consideration, by way of fee, reward, gift, or gratuity for giving or refusing to give any vote in any election of any public officer, state, county, or municipal whatever, or any member of the Congress of the United States, shall, in addition to any punishment now imposed by statute or the common law, be deprived of the right of suffrage, and such additional punishment shall be part of the judgment of the court in which the conviction is had.
2. And it is enacted, That any corporation, whose managers, officers or agents, or any of them, shall use the money or property of said corporation, or any other money or property to effect any of the unlawful purposes in the first section of this act mentioned, or in the first section of an act approved April-second, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, entitled "An Act for the punishment of crimes," approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, shall, if the said money or property be allowed by such corporation in account to such managers, officers or agents, or any of them, or be repaid by such corporation to such managers, officers or agents, or any of them, forfeit its charter; and all officers of said corporation who shall in anywise assent to such appropriation of the money or property of such corporation, or shall not, after being informed of such use or intended use of the money or property of such corporation, ask, in writing, that his dissent therefrom be recorded on the minutes of said corporation's meetings and send to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which the meetings of the company are usually held, a copy of such request, with a detailed statement of the information on which he acted, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be deprived of the office of said corporation.
3. And it is enacted, That in case any of the said persons if this act mentioned, who shall be convicted of any of the offenses above set forth, shall be non-residents of this state, they shall, in addition to the punishments before described, be deemed and held incapable of performing any official act within this state for the benefit of such corporation, but shall, in all respects, so far as to bind such corporation, be competent as before.
4. And it is enacted, That whichever of the parties to an act of bribery shall first complain, in writing, under oath, to a magistrate in this state, of the other, shall be exempt from the pains and penalties inflicted upon such first complaining party by any law of this state; provided, such first complaining party shall also send a copy of such written complaint to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which the offence shall be committed, within one week after the written complaint to the magistrate.
5. And it is enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.
Approved March 31st, 1871.
