DR. JOHN BULL'S Smith's Tonic Syrup FOR THE CURE OF FEVER and ACUE Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and scrofulous affections—the King of Blood Purifiers.

DR. JOHN BULL'S VEGETABLE WORM DESTROYER is prepared in the form of candy drops, attractive to the sight and pleasant to the taste.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS,
DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. Their symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluctuating at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the liver. As a Liver medicine, TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through those three "sewer-ages of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN.

"I have had Dyspepsia, with Constipation, two years, and have tried ten different kinds of pills, and TUTT'S are the first that have done me any good. They have changed me out and about. My appetite is splendid, food digests regularly, and I now have natural passages. I feel like a new man." W. D. EDWARDS, Palmyra, O. Sold everywhere, 25c. Office, 44 Murray St., N.Y.

To the Voters of New Jersey.

On Tuesday next, November 6th, the question whether Jonathan Dixon or Leon Abbett shall be the next Governor of New Jersey, is to be decided by the votes of the people. The honor and the welfare of the State are alike involved in the decision.

Jonathan Dixon is still a comparatively young man. He has hardly reached the period of full development. He began life at the lowest round of the ladder, under peculiarly unfavorable conditions, but has already attained an exalted official position—a position which came to him unsought, because he was known to possess those qualities of mind and heart which fit men for high judicial station—honesty, integrity and ability. His performance of the responsible duties of that position has won the approval of men of all political parties.

He has not sought the gubernatorial office. He is not now personally seeking to secure it. He simply says that if the people desire him to occupy the place, he will obey their voice, and discharge its duties to the best of his ability.

Judge Dixon was selected as a candidate for Governor, not only because he is pre eminent in the qualities which fit him to succeed the long line of illustrious men who have occupied that office, but because he is entirely removed from, and outside of, all influences and associations which tend to warp the judgment, and effect, if they do not control, official action; and because with his known firmness and independence he can be relied upon to treat all persons and all interests justly and fairly, guarding and protecting the humble and the weak as well as the rich and the strong.

In Leon Abbett we have a person of diametrically opposite characteristics. Upon the testimony of his own political associates, he is not distinguished for purity of character, and his reputation, to say the least, is not above suspicion. We ask you to carefully examine and dispassionately consider the record of his legislative career, and form your judgment from it. No man who is a candidate for office can complain that he is judged by the record he has made. In this case, such examination has been ostentatiously invited. An inspection of Mr. Abbett's record will show that he has always been on the side of corporate power as against the people.

That he is committed by his utterances and votes to extravagance and wastefulness of expenditure in the public administration;

That he is opposed to the wise and provident policy under which the riparian lands of the State, appraised at a valuation of $25,000,000, have been secured to the School Fund, and has persistently labored to divert these lands from public to private use;

That he is committed to the most dangerous theories of taxation, having by his voice and vote favored the exemption of some of the most valuable properties of the State, and a natural and legitimate source of revenue, from all taxation whatever;

That he has been unfaithful in high public trusts, having neglected to protect the interests of the city of which he was the legal adviser from the menace of hostile legislation, and acquiesced in the enactment of laws which deprive the county represented by him of nearly a quarter of a million of dollars revenue annually; for which acts of infidelity he is now vigorously opposed in that county by men of all parties;

That he has stubbornly opposed essential reforms as when he violently resisted the measure for placing the State Prison on a self-sustaining basis and securing to it a non-partisan, business management—a measure which, adopted in spite of his opposition, saved to the State in the first year of its operation over $50,000.

Mr. Abbett sought the nomination for Governor, and is now industriously seeking the office upon the latest of pretences, claiming to be what he is not as to questions of vital importance. Moreover, he is appealing to the lowest passions and the worst influences for support. He openly proclaims that the rewards of office will be given to those who aid him in his effort, and that those who oppose him shall receive no consideration at his hands. That is to say, he will make his appointments, not on the basis of capacity, integrity or fitness, but solely on the basis of partisan service. Such a policy will not only ostracize citizens of an opposite political faith, but will ostracize also many of the best men of his own party who refuse to give him their support; occupying this attitude of hostility to the principles of genuine reform in the civil service, he will have the support of all those who seek immunity from the consequences of wrong-doing, and of those who hope to secure unfair advantage in the legislation of the State.

Those who desire a fair, just and economical administration of our State affairs, with justice to all and special favor to none, should unite to oppose him.

In this contest, the issue of which is wholly one of good government, we confidently appeal to all men who love their State and are jealous of its honor. In the presence of such an issue, partisan considerations become altogether insignificant. We are all of us citizens before we are partisans. In national affairs we may differ, and wisely so, as to politics and principles. But in matters of State administration we are concerned supremely in the personal character of the Executive—his purity, his trustworthiness, his tendencies, his associations. Is his integrity unimpeachable—has he always and in every place illustrated the highest civic virtues—does his career show that he can be trusted in any and all emergencies to protect the rights of the people and preserve the good name of the State; these are the tests by which we are now to determine our choice between the two candidates before us. We submit that governed by these tests, right thinking men of all parties, who desire only to secure good government, must give their influence and their votes to Jonathan Dixon. GARRET A. HOBART, Chairman State Rep. Com.

FREDERIC A. POTTS, Chairman of Executive Com.

[We publish the following on its own merits, disclaiming personal responsibility, but feel that Mr. Dixon has been in a position (Prosecutor of the Pleas) to know whereof he writes. By giving quotations from general and criminal law, he enforces his points.]

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 30, 1883.

DEAR SIR.—Of the foolish charges preferred by Collins' following, against Hon. John J. Gardner, one of the most absurd is that which charges him with buying up riparian rights, to monopolize the oyster grounds in our bays. How foolish! Sec. 14, Riparian Rights Revision, page 984, reads as follows:

"That no grant or license shall be granted to any other than a riparian proprietor until six calendar months after the riparian proprietor shall have been personally notified in writing by the applicant for such grant or license," etc., etc.

This clearly shows that no one can secure these rights without notice to the shore owner. I think no law could be enforced which would deprive a citizen of his substantial rights without notice and a fair hearing.

On this question Mr. Collins says: "Oh, I am with the people, and shall do as they say." But who are the people? that's the rub. A Senator can't take the people to Trenton with him, how much soever he may love them. Is there to be a representative of the dear people in the lobby for the would-be Senator to confer with?

He is with the people! God bless the mark! Was he with them when he went secretly into the Grand Jury-room, locked the door, and proceeded to investigate the Grand Jury cheque, to see if the Prosecutor of the pleas was discharging his duty?

Was he with the people when he employed Gen. Elias Wright as a detective, to investigate a criminal matter, and then made him foreman of the next Grand Jury to indict a man of a serious crime on mere suspicion? Was he with the people when by this means fifty dollars were taken out of the treasury of this County contrary to law, without the certificate of the Prosecutor of the pleas and the approval of Judge Reed, to pay General Wright for doing nothing of advantage to the County?

Was he with the people when he made Dr. Willard Wright, who was just off of a sick bed, foreman of a Grand Jury?

Was he with the people when he discharged, voluntarily, from his custody, a prisoner committed on a charge of rape (without bail) by a Justice of this County, until he could be taken before Judge Reed on Habeas Corpus and be discharged on bail?

By Sec. 9, Crimes, Revision, page 27, it is enacted: "That any Sheriff, Coroner, Jailor, Constable, Keeper of a Jail, or other officer who shall be guilty of any voluntary escape in any criminal case whatever, shall forever be disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under this State."

What is an escape?

"The general rule is that whenever any person has another lawfully in his custody, whether upon an arrest made by himself or another, no is guilty of an escape if he suffers him to go at large before he has discharged himself by delivering him over to some other who by law ought to have the custody of him." 2 Bishop Criminal Law, Sec. 924.

"It was long ago decided by the Court of King's Bench, in England, that although a prisoner departs from prison with the keeper's license, yet it is an offence as well punishable in the prisoner as the keeper. 10, 829.

But the Sheriff—"Honest Ike"—says "I did not do it; it was my deputy." Mr. Bishop says again [1b. 922]:

"The Sheriff is as much liable to answer for an escape suffered by the jailor or bailiff (who are his officers or ministers, as if he had actually suffered it himself."

Why did you not discharge your deputy, Mr. Collins? Was it because you were afraid such a course would injure you politically? Do you not ratify his act, which is equivalent to a prior command, by retaining him in office?

Who are the people? are they a few dissatisfied Republicans, who by some means have come to be looked upon as great Democratic leaders? Are Gen. Elias Wright and Dr. Willard Wright the people? Or are the rank and file the people? And if they are, will they support Isaac Collins in preference to Hon. John J. Gardner? I think not! I can answer for myself, who never voted any but a Democratic ticket in my life; I shall cast my vote for the Republican nominee for the Senate.

I feel assured, Mr. Editor, that if the people were made acquainted with these facts, which clearly evince the want of integrity of "Honest Ike," and his entire incompetency to fill the chair of State Senator, they would una voce declare with me; then the election of Hon. John J. Gardner, which is already assured, will be doubly sure; and then "Honest Ike," who appeared a leader in the Democratic party as suddenly as some phosphorescent exhalation, will disappear as suddenly, to rise no more.

Truly Yours,

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1883.
Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the King of Medicines.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. BRIGGS writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. It promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

Mr. ANGUS FAIRBANKS, leader of the celebrated "Fairbanks Family" of Scotland, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which denotes time, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mrs. O. A. PIERCE, writing from 18 Elm St., Charleston, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly use but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. F. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 64th St., New York, May 16, 1882. MESSRS. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching—humor, affecting more especially my limbs, which rendered me intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence to all who are afflicted with the above diseases. It is in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good."

Yours respectfully, F. P. WILDS.

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.
