PERSONALS AND OTHERWISE.

There will be a Civil Service examination in Philadelphia, next Saturday, for clerk-carrier at Haddonfield. For blanks, address the Secretary, F. R. Boyer, Haddonfield, N. J.

Miss Annie E. Crowell returned from her trip to Europe, on Monday night, evidently well and happy. She had a very enjoyable time all around. Her aunt, Miss Sara Crowell, will remain abroad all winter.

Chief Adams found it necessary to divide the work of verifying the registration list. He took the first precinct himself; assigned the second to Justice Hall; third, James Palmer; fourth, Jos. H. Garton. Thus the work was thoroughly done, and completed within legal time.

John H. Young has taken his brother-in-law, A. C. Reading, as a partner in the milk business. "Gru" had a good position with the Pennsylv. R. Co., at Atlantic, but resigned because of ill health. He and his family will reside in their own bungalow, on Grape Street.

Mrs. Isabella Lyons entered into rest on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31st, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. C. A. Wood, Third Street, Hammonton, aged 78 years, after long illness. Burial on Friday, at Mt. Moriah Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Wood desire to tender thanks for many sympathetic words and kind acts.

On Sunday evening last, the Chelsea Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. R. Randall, pastor, concluded its series of anniversary services. The church has prospered, and has a promising outlook. Rev. Mr. Randall was presented with a Pastor's individual communion set.

Passengers on the Reading down express, Monday noon, had a very startling experience. Something projected from a train which they met, raking the side of the train as a boy runs a stick along a picket fence, breaking windows and sending glass flying about the cars. Druggist S. T. Goffrey had four pieces of glass taken from his eye, and his ear was cut. It might have been serious.

There will be a huge Republican Rally to-night in Atlantic City, on the Million Dollar Pier. Ex. Governor Stokes and others will address them. Train leaves Hammonton on the Pennsylv. at 6.30; returning, leave Atlantic at 11.00.

A dozen new ballot boxes have been received from the County; and now arises the question where to bestow all our goods in this line. The vault is not large enough; no one wants to see them stored in the Hall, and—well, we may have to tear down and build greater, or as the Janitor suggests, "Store the Hall in the boxes."

Five births have been reported to us this week,—three boys and two girls. Oct. 26, to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. King, daughter; 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Scoglio; a son; 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crain, at Elwood, a boy; same date, to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Shields, at Columbia, a son; 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Nene Rizzotte, a daughter.

It is not too late to congratulate the management of the Hammonton Telephone Company on their excellent service during the recent world series of base-ball. Every subscriber who cared for it was furnished with the score promptly at the end of each inning, whether the game was in Philadelphia or New York. Such enterprise was appreciated alike by both men and women.

For the Presbyterian Church note the following: Morning worship at 10.30; theme, "Our fortunate Heavenly Life." Sabbath School at noon. Christian Endeavor at 6.45 p. m., a meeting of consecration, led by Miriam Wood; topic, "Lessons from the life of John." Evening worship, 7.30; theme, "Helping God." Come, sit at the feet of Christ and learn of him. Upon this we rest both our claim and your need.

A cordial welcome awaits you at the services in the M. E. Church, to-morrow. Morning Class, 9.30. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Shaw, at 10.30 and 7.30. The morning theme will be "The soul's lover." Evening, "Changed by a look." Bible school at noon. Jr. Epworth League at 3 o'clock, and League devotion meeting at 6.45, led by Clara Rohlf. Special meeting each night next week.

A cake sale will be held next Saturday afternoon, in the Ballard building, next to the Gas Office, for the benefit of the Boy Scouts of America.

Rev. H. P. Hoskins, of Reading, Penna., has accepted a unanimous call to the pastorate of the Hammonton Baptist Church, to begin his work December 1st. To-morrow, and until the pastor comes, there will be regular services in the church, with chosen supplies in the pulpit.

We will, on Monday, have tags, ready addressed, for all those who wish to ship barrels or boxes of produce, etc., to the Lutheran Orphans' Home, at Germantown. This is a worthy object, and should be assisted by all who can. Goods shipped early in the week will reach their destination before Sunday following.

The Farmers' Institute.

Following is the programme for the Institute to be held in Grange Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 8th:

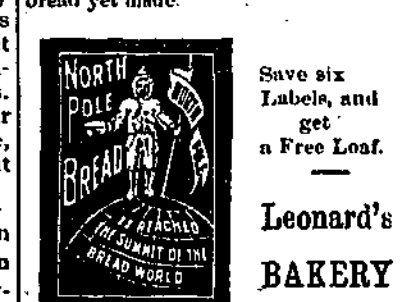

8.30 a. m. Prayer, by Pastor and unopposable village in Atlantic County forming the past series. John Huette, President County Board.
11 a. m. "In relation to soil improvement and crop production." Franklin Noble, New York.
2.00 p. m. "Ten years' successful combat of the blue jeans." Edward Van Dine, N. J.
2.45. "Small fruit culture." C. C. Halsey, N. J.
3.30. "The cost of marketing and transporting farm produce." A. L. Clark, N. J.
4.30. "Economic value of birds." Beecher S. Bond, Sec. N. J. Audubon Society. Illustrated with stereoscopic views.
5.30. "Each production." Requirements. Prof. M. L. Blake, State Agricultural College, illustrated with stereoscopic views.

I'll have to buy some pretty gifts—the holidays are near.
Oh, dear! I need the City shopping so! Then why not buy the things you need in Hammonton, this year?
The Civic Club's nice fair's the place to go.
