THE DIFFERENCE.

A churchly resolution against the saloonist is a pop-gun, the report of which makes the saloonist laugh hilariously. A Christian vote is a big Krupp gun, which, when aimed at that center of diabolism, makes even the devil tremble.

The liquor trafficker despoils our homes. The saloon is the black monster whose shadow, flung across millions of our homes, causes helpless women and children to live in constant terror. The saloon is the demon which transforms the home's natural protector into a beast whose very footfall is dreaded.

The Christian Churches at Philadelphia, Pa., and York, Pa., have long used the Longman & Co. Bible for their Sunday School classes. It is a beautiful book, and is the best of its kind. We believe the large advertisement on first page will explain itself; that every reader will understand that Dobbs & Frazier will sell, on Saturday, Nov. 19th, twenty-five lots in their tract (formerly Passmore's), at public sale.

Terms, $10 down and $5 per month. Easy enough. After nearly twenty-five years' residence in Hammoncton, we commend it to any one who desires to live in a quiet, beautiful, pretty, enterprising town. We have full four, three and two-story houses, with electric lights, gas, and a beautiful supply of as good water as was ever pumped from the earth. It's a good place to live, the lots offered are in a good location, and here's a chance to start a home with but little outlay.

Several of our tax payers have been heard to complain of the amount of their school tax, mentioning the school-book appropriation, which was started in the year 1900. It averaged about five hundred dollars a year, and this year reaches six hundred and fifty. This amount provides books, paper, and pencils to more than one thousand pupils, averaging sixty-five cents for each. What parent can purchase one-quarter of the necessary supplies for that amount? The writer recollects the time when it cost dearer five dollars per term for the same.

A party of young people celebrated "Hallow'en" Monday night, at the home of Mrs. Laura Jones, on Twelfth Street. The house, deemed in a costume of ancient type, sat in her rocking chair, by the open fire-place, in which a cheerful fire was burning, her knitting work in her hands, and bade the guests welcome in good old-fashioned style. Seated about, with only the fire-light and pumpkin lanterns, the young people told ghost stories, tried traditional "apple," bobbed for apples, ate pumpkin pie and nuts, and had a general good time.

All Hammoncton "took in" the circus, Friday afternoon and eve, 25th ult. It was the best that has been here for fifteen years. The first street parade included three bands, cages of animals, seven elephants, camels, chariots, etc. Those who attended the shows say that they were exceptionally good, and contained no bad features. This was their last exhibition, as the business had been sold to a European two weeks before.

Congressman Gardner made the principal speech at the Republican mass meeting, on Wednesday night. Union Hall was full of attentive listeners. The speaker's evident sincerity, and his clear arguments made his address worth hearing. Senator Lee, Assemblyman Elvins, E. O. Gaskill, Jr., and Judge D. J. Haynes also spoke. The last named took well with the audience.

We omitted to mention the Baptist singing box, held last week Tuesday evening. They had six two-hundred loads of wood, which willing hands rapidly reduced to stove size, and stored away for cold weather comfort. The ladies set out a substantial supper, to which weary workers did justice. Everybody enjoyed the affair.

Buy your cakes at Henson's next Saturday, Nov. 12th.

Children are important customers, in our estimation. When they are sent to us on a trifling errand we always remember that they are not discriminating buyers, and take special pains to see that they get what both you and they want. Then we always try to be prompt in waiting on them—there is always a little worry about them at home when they are sent out upon an errand, and they too long, often through the fault of their own.
