DEAR MR. EDITOR:

"He that speaks the truth will find himself in sufficiently dramatic situations."

It doesn't pay to try to be popular; for if you do fall in line with other men and attempt to boom what they are advocating, they say, "get out,—I am running this thing." This week the Journal has an article written by some one; and the compliments therein intended for me are all there is to the article.

When I attended school, years ago, the children used to play a trick on the unsuspecting. You would be invited to smell a beautiful rose; and as you complied with the request, either a sharp pin or a dose of pepper rewarded you. See the point? The Journal's writer talks all the time about the pretty red (wine) rose, its fragrance, and all that. But when anyone hints at the pin underneath ("Look not upon the wine when it is red, when it moveth itself aright; at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder.") he holds up his hands in holy horror.

When I knew of the "point," and it was presented to a companion, I was man (boy) enough to say "be careful." Invariably I was sneered at and called "tattle tale,"—just as I have been in this case.

Seriously, I can not see much moral difference between the saloon, gin-mill, wine-vat, or the other evil. The first three very frequently lead to the last. What's the use of hiding facts? Those who look at the moral side of the issue know this is the truth; others wish to hide the truth. As Oliver Wendell Holmes says, "There are those who hold the opinion that truth is only safe when diluted,—about one-fifth to four-fifths lies,—as the oxygen of the air is with its nitrogen."

As to my "vituperative temper," etc. He who does not exhibit righteous indignation when an evil is being urged to harm not only his own family but that of his neighbor is not worthy of the respect of a true wife or of his children. Zeal for the public good is the characteristic of a man of honor and a gentleman, and must take the place of pleasure, profit, and all other private gratifications. Whoever lacks this motive is an open enemy, or an inglorious nouter to mankind.

Not knowing that I was the "Good Morale," several have said to me, "That was a good plain article in last week's Republican;" I was glad to see someone stand out for truth. These are the best and most highly respected men in town.

Yes, I do live in Hammonton, I own property here, I pay taxes for the same; and the property I occupy and do not own I pay rent for. Therefore I have an interest as to the moral condition of the town.

If Hammonton loses the reputation of being "fair," it will not be any fault of mine, nor of the Republican.

Yours for GOOD MORALS.

Did you say you saw the spirit aigh, or the spirit's eye, or the spirit's sigh?

Winter Excursion Tickets.

On Nov. 1st, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will place on sale at its principal ticket offices excursion tickets to all prominent winter resorts in New Jersey, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Cuba. The tickets will be sold at the usual low rates, with the usual liberal limits for return.

The magnificent facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad, with its many connections, make this the favorite line for winter travel.

An illustrated book, descriptive of winter resorts, and giving routes of travel and rates for tickets, will be furnished free on application to any of our ticket agents.

The following is the proposition made to Town Council last Saturday evening, by Mr. John D. Ball, in behalf of the Local Water Company:

1st. We think the town should own its plant, by laying the pipes and putting up the tower. Our proposition is to supply 500,000 gallons of water every 24 hours, from our pumps and wells, have a man on duty all the time, and in case of fire we will give direct pumpage of 80 pounds to the square inch, for the sum of $2000 a year. This will save the expense of not less than $1500 a year for operating and keeping in repair the pumping machinery, and fuel, and a first cost of $5000 to $6000.

2nd. We will put in a plant and supply the town with water at the rate of 500,000 gallons in twenty-four hours, and give the town not less than 25 fire plugs, to be placed on pipe line wherever Council may direct, for a rental of $25 per year for a two-nozzled plug, and two free drinking fountains for man and beast.

The first proposition above will give the town all water rents, which ought to more than cover the $2000 paid to the Company. We do not believe that a more favorable proposition will ever be made, and if Hammonton desires a public water supply, now is the time to secure it.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whiffen entertained a number of young people at their home on Central Avenue, on "Hallowe'en." The evening was spent in games and other entertainments,—among the latter being several cornet solos by Mr. Eschelman, vocal solos by Miss Thomas, Mr. Samuel Newcomb, and Mr. John T. Ash; also, recitations, humorous and otherwise, by Miss Lida Crawford, Miss Myrtle Smith, and Mr. Ash. The admirable manner in which the host and hostess entertained will be long remembered by those present. A lunch was served, which included everything suitable for the occasion. Among the company were Misses Blanche and Gertrude Thomas, Lida and Myrtle Smith, Lida Crawford, Eva Carlaw, Phoebe Newcomb, Lina and Anna Whiffen; Messrs. Edward, George and Henry Whiffen, Samuel Newcomb, Harry Thomas, Lewis Smith, John Ash, and George Eschelman.

MANUFACTURE OF KEROSENE.
 Brushed into a Whirl, the Oil Becomes of Lighter Color.
 How many housekeepers, as they fill their lamps with kerosene oil or their summer stoves with gasoline have any idea how these oils are made?
 And yet a few miles from Chicago, at Whiting, Ind., is the largest oil refinery
 in the world.
 Everybody knows that in its crude state the oil comes out of the earth, but it would be an utterly useless discovery were it not for brains and money used in the refining of the raw material. By use of the brains and money, however, not only the clear oil, but several other products are drawn from the crude material.
 Naphtha, benzine, gasoline and kerosene, the last often called coal oil or illuminating oil, belong to the same family. The three first named being lighter oils, do not require nearly as much handling to bring them to perfection as the kerosene. This, of course, is easy to believe, but when it is said that the crude oil, after being refined, the lighter oil has been distilled out was made so closely resembling the product of the bee as to deceive even an expert and that it is used in chewing gum, factories, candle factories, hand-dries and even in candy factories, one is often met with a polite look of doubt or an incredulous shrug of the shoulders.
 Yet it is so. It is possible to go yet further, and say that hundreds of homes in Whiting and in Chicago have been made comfortable this winter by the refuse that adheres to the bottom and sides of the "still" after even the wax has been pressed out. This refuse makes a good coal, is easily lighter and is warmer, cleaner and cheaper than coal. Hundreds of tons are removed from the stills daily before they are "charged" again, and hundreds of those who use this fuel do not know that it was once crude oil, dug in the Ohio desert and piped on to "Whiting."

 The carbon used in electric lights is also made from this coal. Nothing is wasted.
 As the most common the kerosene oil is perhaps the most interesting of the products. After leaving the crude still it appears again in the "sweeten-ing stills," or in the "compound cylinders," which perform the same work as the sweetening stills, but is a newer invention, and is patented by an engineer, who allows only forty in each refinery. The "sweeteners" form an important factor in the refining of Ohio oil. Owing to the "compound" before mentioned and the continuous feeding of the immense vats brushes, which keep the oil in a mad whirl, it loses much of its bad odor. It is again washed, cooled in the condenser boxes and passed out into the "steam stills"
 for the next process.
 In the steam still it is treated just the same as in the two previous puri-fications, with the addition of a washing by steam from perforated pipes passing through it. It is "raped" off at the bottom, and now one would suppose that it was ready for use. Not quite.
 The kerosene oil now passes into the agitator for the final process. The agitator is a funnel-shaped tank in which the oil is treated with acid, and beaten and blown about by a machine called a blower, and washed by torrents of water until it runs like the lake in a storm. Every particle of foreign matter is thus expelled. It is then pumped off into the storage tanks for shipping.

A TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM
 About the Cause of Anemia.

Everybody comes into this world with a predisposition to disease of some particular tissues
 in other words, everybody has a weak spot.
 In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the weak spot in women is somewhere in the uterine system. The uterine organs have less resistance to disease than the vital organs; that's why they give out the sooner.
 Not more than one woman in a hundred—nay, in five hundred—has perfectly healthy organs of generation. This points to the stern necessity of helping one's self just as soon as the life powers seem to be on the wane.
 Excessive menstruation is a sign of physical weakness and want of tone in the uterine organs. It saps the strength away and produces anemia (blood turns to water).
 If you become anemic, there is no knowing what will happen. If your gums and the inside of your lips and inside your eyelids look pale in color, you are in a dangerous way and must stop that at once. It is a sign of anemia. Why not build up your generous, splitting tone, like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Mrs. EDWIN EMOND, 413 Church St., Bethlehem, Pa., says: "I feel it my duty to write and tell you that I am better than I have been for four years.
 I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one package of Sanative Wash, one box of Liver Pills, and can say that I am perfectly cured."
 "Doctors did not help me any. I should have been in my grave by this time if it had not been for your medicine. It was a godsend to me. I was troubled with excessive menstruation, which caused much trouble, and I was obliged to remain in bed for six weeks. Mr.
 Pinkham's medicine was recommended to me, and, after using it a short time, was troubled no more with flooding. I also had severe pain in my kidneys. This, also, I have no more. I shall always recommend the Compound, for it has cured me, and it will cure others. I would like to have you publish this letter." (In each package.)

A word with you, . . .

It is worth your while to give attention to some reasons why you should be a reader of THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS. THE PRESS is the greatest home newspaper of the United States. Its record of each day's events, in all parts of the world, is more complete than that of any other paper. It has no space for sensationalism or anything tending to lower the moral tone.

No other Philadelphia paper has equal facilities for obtaining prompt and accurate reports of news events, wherever they may occur. Reports for THE PRESS are in every section of Philadelphia every day; special correspondents of THE PRESS are stationed at every county seat and important town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, and at every news center in the United States and the old world.

No other paper equals THE PRESS in its special departments—the woman's page; the literary page; the market page; the pages devoted to Church news, school news, society news, G. A. R. news, sporting news, etc.

THE PRESS is an advocate of the principles of the Republican party, but it prints the news of all political events more fully than any other paper; hence THE PRESS should be your paper, no matter what your political opinions are, if you wish to be well informed. In a word, THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS prints all the news all the time.

Send in your address. Sample copy will be mailed free. If you are fair minded you will read it regularly.

THE DAILY PRESS is mailed to subscribers for $6.00 a year ($5.00 cts. a mo.), payable in advance; THE SUNDAY PRESS, $2.50 a year; THE DAILY AND SUNDAY PRESS, $8.00 a year (70 cts. a month); THE WEEKLY PRESS, $1.00 a year. A liberal commission is allowed to persons who collect subscriptions or to persons who will place THE PRESS on sale in localities where there are no agents. Address "The Press," Philadelphia.

The Republican.

(Entered as second class matter.) SATURDAY, NOV. 6, 1897.

The Election.

Hammonton did her duty Tuesday, giving a good majority for Republican candidates. Atlantic County, too, deserves commendation for her patriotism.

The action of a few men, and the ill-considered words of would-be advisers, might have caused defeat, but not the Republican voters regarded success as more desirable than the punishment of a rival.

New Jersey is safely Republican again, though with a reduced majority in the Legislature. This may be an advantage for better work usually results from a narrow margin of votes between the parties. The number of ballots cast this week appears to be about two-thirds of those cast last November. General apathy came near giving the party a deplorable defeat.

In New York City, Tammany won by a heavy majority, elected Van Wyck Mayor of "Greater New York." But the Legislature is safely Republican.

In Ohio the result was close, but the Legislature is safe on joint ballot. That is well, as a U. S. Senator is to be elected.

Maryland seems doubtful, but may be finally reported Republican.

Iowa solidly Republican.

Pennsylvania ditto, as usual.

Massachusetts did the same.

South Dakota strongly Republican.

Kentucky, Virginia, and Nebraska went Democratic, the last named by a narrow margin.

It is too early yet to tell the whole story of victory and defeat. But it's over—no more elections after a new party secures the Presidency almost invariably results disastrously to the party in power; but a careful administration of affairs will bring things right in time.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Committee on Finance reported having investigated claim of H. L. Moorhead, and found no ground for paying same.

Committee also reported looking into the bill of goods from W. L. Black to F. L. Sanders, recommending payment of the amount; also that the Overseer be directed to enter in a book the amount appropriated to each case of town poor, with date of any increase or decrease,—this to be property of the town. Reports accepted.

Clerk reported that agents would not insure the Park buildings, as they are not occupied.

Property Committee reported that the town pump had been repaired.

Ordinance Committee reported an ordinance regulating the riding of bicycles. Passed first reading.

Also an ordinance forbidding the leaving of horses or mules on the street unattended or unhitched. Passed first reading.

An ordinance repealing Sec. 3, of an ordinance "regulating the sale and convenient use of the streets" (passed last year) was brought up, passed third reading, and was adopted.

The vacancy on the Commissioners of Appeals, caused by the death of E. K. Sproul, was filled by the election of G. Valentine.

A committee from the Independent Fire Company asked about the money voted them at the town meeting towards their house. Council assured them that the money would be ready when bill was presented.

Citizens on Fifteenth Street complained of the bad condition of the road near Rosedale School. Referred to Highway Committee.

On motion, Committee on Water and Lights was ordered to prepare a petition, to be signed by a legal number of the citizens, asking Council to call a special election on the question of issuing bonds for water works. Adjourned.

The "Committee of the Whole" immediately assembled and organized by electing Mr. Ballard chairman. By vote it was decided to meet on Saturday evening (to-night), at the chairman's residence.

We can sacrifice almost everything to society but conscience. The goods of the world belong to us, but we belong to our conscience.

AN ORDINANCE to repeal the third section of an ordinance entitled "regulating the sale and convenient use of the streets, and prohibiting assemblies in any street, place or house in Hammonton," passed Jan. 20, 1896.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Town of Hammonton, that the third section of the ordinance set forth in the title of this ordinance be and the same is hereby repealed, to take effect immediately.

SATURDAY, NOV. 6, 1897.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

November might-behave worse than this has far.

The Hammonton Hotel is now lighted by electricity.

J. H. Marshall has had his bread wagon neatly lettered.

OST—near the postoffice, this week, lady's pocket book. Keep the money, and return book and contents to this office.

Post meeting to-night. Some interesting business on hand.

Miss Maud Wilson is in Philadelphia for a few weeks visit.

Frank R. Whittier, of Atlantic City, is visiting relatives here.

CORN FODDER for sale at half price. "I. E. HOLMAN," Middle Road, Hammonton.

S. E. Brown is making repairs to Stockwell's great windmill.

Communion service to-morrow morning, at the Baptist Church.

P. H. Jacobs spent most of this week in a trip to Syracuse, N. Y.

PAULS, BEONIAS, Rubber Plants, Geraniums, etc.; also Snails, Carnations, Chrysanthemums, etc., may be found for sale by Mr. J. E. Battersby, on the S. cent. store. Orders taken there for potted plants and cut flowers.

A windmill surmounts a lofty steel tower, back of the new hotel.

Miss Bessie Hoyt, of Philadelphia, is visiting her grandparents.

Mrs. Mary J. Barber, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. R. Ruby.

THANKS. We tender thanks to those who aided and comforted us in our recent time of sorrow.

OTTO GREIS and FAMILY.

Charles D. Jacobs has accepted a position with the Clearfield Coal Co., at Peale, Pa.

Street signs were found to be convenient pegs on which to hang disconnected gates.

Mrs. F. A. Lehman and three daughters spent several days with friends in Philadelphia.

CAUTIONS for sale, at FOWLER'S Greenhouse, Open from 5 to 7 p.m.

The Hammonton juniors and the Elm team are billed for a game of football this afternoon, on home field.

Samuel Craig killed three coons one day recently, and is proud of the six months old dog which tracked them.

Dr. H. E. Bowles started for Jersey City on Tuesday, for a visit with his son Edward; but deposited his vote first.

SMALL HOUSE for sale,—next to George S. Steinhilber's, six rooms, electric bath. Everything in good order. Lot 30 x 150 feet. Inquire at this office.

Frank E. Roberts and family have moved from the tenement over their store, to Capt. Smith's new house on Horton Street.

Mrs. Ida Warren was in town last week, and returned to Washington on Friday, accompanied by her aged father, Nathan Hartwell.

Charles Campanella, teacher at Tuckahoe, came home in time to accompany Hammontonians to the Teachers' Institute at Atlantic City.

PAPER-HANGING. Leave your orders at Harry Little's store, and I will call and show you samples and also tell you.

HARRY L. THOMAS.

The inter-national Y. P. S. C. E. paper, "The Golden Rule," appeared this week with its new name, "The Christian Endeavor World."

The H. A. A. foot-ball boys will go to Haddonfield to-day, to play their crack team. A number of enthusiasts will go with them,—on the 12:30 train.

A. B. White came home from Washington to vote. Evidently, he valued the privilege more highly than did nearly three hundred voters who live in Hammonton and did not visit the polls.

REPAIRING, Cleaning and Dyeing done at my residence, the brick house on Upper Bellevue Ave. Undertaking made to order.—Good stock of cloth on hand.

4193, HETZELMAN, Tailor.

A party was given last evening, in Haddonfield, in honor of the twenty-first birthday of Annie Horvath. A large number of friends wished him "happy returns." Elegant refreshments were served.

E. W. Strickland was the lowest bidder for building the almshouse barn, and W. H. Andrews next lowest; but there was an error in the specifications, and it is not yet certain who will get the contract.

A FINELY LOCATED and large town hall for sale. Call at this office for full particulars.

Insure with A. H. Phillips & Co., 2228 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

Up to the close of the operation of the Wilson law, free-traders were sure that the increase in exportation of American manufactures was the result of a low-tariff policy. They now discover, however, that the very first month the Dingley law was in operation showed a larger exportation of manufactured articles from the United States than had ever been shown in the corresponding month in previous years. This is rather curious, in view of the agony they experienced during the recent discussion of the protective tariff measure over the prospect that it would "cut off our foreign markets."

In a hollow tree which he cut down, a man in Haleyville found 70 pounds of honey.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50 c. and $1 per bottle, at Croft's drug store.

SINGLE STANDARD

only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantity, time, or value; and

The Philadelphia Record

after a career of nearly twenty years of uninterrupted growth, it is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper.

To publish ALL THE NEWS promptly and succinctly, and in the most readable form, without omission or partiality; to discuss its significance with frankness; to keep an OPEN EYE for PUBLIC ABUSES, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies, and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its daily editions of from 10 to 14 pages, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of One Cent,—that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "The Record."

The Pioneer

one cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still leads where others follow.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation exceeding 160,000 copies, and an average exceeding 120,000 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold, "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

The Daily Edition

"The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3 per year or 25 cents per month.

The Daily and Sunday

Editions together, which will give readers the best and freshest information of all is going on in the world every day in the year, including holidays, will be sent for $4 a year, or 35 cents per month.
