

South Jersey Republican

Hoyt & Sons, Publishers.

Terms--$1.25 Per Year.

VOL. 34.

HAMMONTON, N. J., NOVEMBER 7, 1896.

NO. 45

What's Better than Baked Beans

and Boston Brown Bread
for a hungry man?

We can furnish you both.

Baked Beans, 10 c. per can.
Brown Bread, 13 c. per can (2 for 25 cents).

No fraud about this—

Genuine Boston Bread, put up at the "Hub" of the Universe.

Get it of

Roberts, the Grocer,
No. 8 South Second St.

The People's Bank Of Hammonton, N. J.

Authorized Capital, $50,000
Paid in, $30,000.
Surplus, $14,000.

R. J. BYRNES, President.
M. L. JACKSON, Vice-Pres't
W. R. TILTON, Cashier

DIRECTORS:

R. J. Byrnes,
M. L. Jackson,
George Elvins,
Elam Stockwell
G. F. Saxton,
O. F. Osgood,
W. R. Tilton,
A. J. Smith,
J. C. Anderson,
W. L. Black.

Certificates of deposit issued, bearing interest at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum if held six months, and 3 per cent if held one year.

Discount days—Tuesday and Friday of each week.

GEO. W. PRESSEY,

Hammonton, N. J.,
Justice of the Peace.
Office, Second and Cherry Sts.

Henry Kramer,

Manufacturer and Dealer in FANCY SHINGLES
Posts, Pickets, etc.
BERRY CRATES,
Folsom, N. J.

Lumber sawed to order.
Orders received by mail promptly filled.
Prices Low.

Election

is over,—

Business Now

We can supply you with

Cocoanuts
Oranges
White Grapes
Layer Raisins
Nectarines
Apricots

Everything indicates a further

Rise in Flour.

The shortage in the wheat crop in South America, India, Eastern Europe, and the W.S., combined with the rapidly increasing rate of consumption
in some parts of the world, will probably keep wheat
strong for some time to come.
If you have not already put in your winter stock of Flour, we advise you to do so immediately.

Geo. Elvins

Wm. Bernshouse, STEAM

Saw & Planing Mill

AND Lumber Yard.

All varieties of the Finest Mill Work.
Sash, Doors and Blinds.

FIRST GRADE Cedar Shingles

A Specialty.

Near the Railroad Stations,
Hammonton, N. J.

Bring us your orders for Job Printing.

Our Shoe Store

No. 1210 Bellevue Ave.
Where you find a good stock of Boots and Shoes

To select from at all times.
Shoes made to order.
Repairing done at short notice, and at reasonable rates.

D. C. HERBERT.

Foot Ball.

HAMMONTON, 10. S. J. INSTITUTE, 8.

How did we do it? Don't know exactly. But Jackson was very much in evidence; so was Jones, Langham and Parkhurst,—so were the whole eleven in fact, for all did better than ever before. On the Institute side it was pretty much all Wolsieffer, though O'Brien did some good running.

The South Jerseys took the south goal with the wind in their favor, while Hammonton kicked from the north. The visitors soon punted the ball out of bounds, Jackson got it and the fun commenced. Jones went through left and Parkhurst around right for eight yards. Parkhurst is improving. We said last week that he was too easily tackled. But we won't say it again this time, for in this run he dodged two and threw the third several yards against the linesman's flag with such force as to break the staff short off. Jones and Langham banged the line for repeated gains and within five minutes of actual play Jones pushed the ball over the visitors' goal line. The kick for goal failed. Score 4 to 0.

The visitors kicked off to Jackson who dropped the ball and in the scramble Jones got it and punted to Wolsieffer who was immediately tackled by Parkhurst, the South Jerseys gaining out over 10 yards by the exchange. Soon after, Parkhurst went around right for 15 and Jones through right tackle for 10. More short gains for the locals and then Wolsieffer took the ball for a 20 yard run but was stopped by Farrar. O'Brien made a 20 yard run and, on the second attempt, a touch down. No goal and the score a tie.

Sutton kicked off to McGillard, Parkhurst tackled and after short gains Farrar kicked out of bounds for 5 yards. With a flying leap over the guard wire Wolsieffer got the pig skin. Wolsieffer three times in succession went through the line for at least 5 yards, but lost to Sutton on a fumble and loss of 5 yards. Hammonton took the ball and the first half ended on the Institute's 35 yard line.

In the second half Wolsieffer kicked off to Langham on our 10 yard line who advanced it 10. Parkhurst fumbled, Institute made a little headway, and it was the locals' ball again. Then it went back to the visitors on downs and was pushed along until Wolsieffer made another touchdown. No goal. Score, 4 to 8.

Sutton kicked to O'Brien who was tackled by Parkhurst. Wolsieffer did some of the best dodging ever seen on our field. Fumbles were made on both sides. McGillard did some good work bucking the line. Right here, Lore's knee was dislocated in a scrimmage and for the first time in our recollection a man had to be carried off our field. The young man suffered greatly and it will be a long time before he plays foot ball again. Langham did great work through the line, sometimes apparently dragging a half dozen men for several yards before downed. Jones and Lang kept right on with their line bucking until the latter went through center for another touchdown. Jackson kicked the goal. Score 10 to 8.

The South Jerseys kicked off on the second attempt to Lindsay who fumbled, but the ball was saved by Jackson. Lindsay is a plucky, tireless player but he must do less fumbling. In this case he could have advanced the ball 5 or 10 yards had he held on to it. Jones, Parkhurst and Langham made short gains. Jackson made 4 yards by a clever double pass. More gains and the locals lost the ball on downs. Then Wolsieffer made the star run of the game making at least 30 yards around right before tackled by Baker. The ball changed hands twice when the visitors fumbled and the ball passed to Hammonton within a foot of our goal line and ten seconds only of time remaining. But the whistle sounded before we could get the ball into play again. Score, 10-8.

My! but weren't the visitors charged over that fumble; and wasn't it a narrow escape for our victory! But throughout the game fumbling was their weak point. Our team were ever on the alert to take advantage of this, and were far superior in line-bucking, while the visitors excelled in general team work.

This was the greatest victory in the annals of local football, and puts our boys on a level with the best teams in New Jersey. Capt. Wolsieffer is said to have remarked that with a little more practice on certain plays, we'd be equal to many of the University eleven.

The line-up,—

Hammonton	S. J. I.
Lindsay	L. T. Goodman
Baker	L. G. Anderson
Davison	C. Greedy
Sutton	R. G. (Stephens)
Slack	R. T. Van Horn
Treat	I. E. O'Brien
Parkhurst	I. E. O'Brien
Jackson	Q. B. (Lore)
Jones	L. H. B. McGillard
Langham	R. H. B. Capt. Wolsieffer
Farrar	F. B. Garrison
Umpire	C. H. Goodall
Referee	H. M. Phillips
Linesmen	E. Whitten, H. Z. Will.
Time	Two 25 minute halves.

A good feature of the greater portion of the game was the marked absence of wrangling and rough language. The only dispute was over the last fumble, and the Institute boys very naturally died a little hard.

That Football Game.

Sporting Editor of "The Press."
In Sunday's issue I notice that "The Press" Hammonton correspondent states that the team of that place defeated the South Jersey Institute eleven, thereby winning the championship of South Jersey. I beg to correct this, and state that it was the Institute team which rightfully won the game, by a score of 12 to 10. The Hammonton referee called time with the ball one foot from Hammonton's goal line, with one minute more to play. Kindly note this, as it means much to the reputation of this school team.

CHAS. E. GOODALL,
Bridgeton, N. J., Nov. 2. Manager.

MR. GOODALL,

DEAR SIR: My attention has been called to an article you have contributed to the Philadelphia Press of to-day in which you claim that the game you played here on Saturday was not won by Hammonton, on the ground that I declared time up when there was still one minute to play. This statement is absolutely false, as the linesmen both stated that there was only ten seconds to play and it was Hammonton's first down. When you came across the field and spoke to me as umpire in relation to the time to play, you stated to me that the indication by your watch was still one-half minute to play. Hammonton lined up after this and time was called out by both linesmen.

How you can as a gentleman make the above statement in the face of the facts is a mystery to me. But this much is sure, you have by your unpardonable conduct marred what is otherwise a gentlemanly game and a close contest with an organization that has an enviable record for impartiality and perfect fairness extending through a period of seven years. I acted as referee in this game upon the solicitation of your organization and only after the insistence on your part did I consent to serve. Happily I am personally above any imputation you may address to me. I am,
HENRY M. PHILLIPS.
Hammonton, Nov. 3, 1896.

Following is the probable line-up for this afternoon's game:

Hammonton	Atlantic
Treat	E. E. W. Smith
Lindsay	L. T. Edw. Jones
Baker	L. G. Jesse Wright
Davison	C. Ralph Jones
Sutton	R. G. O. Wahl
Slack	R. T. B. Conover
Parkhurst	J. E. Carrigan
Jackson	Q. B. P. Parker
Langham	R. H. B. Al. Darby
Jones	L. H. B. G. Barlow
Farrar	F. B. Capt. Th. Roberts

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache, Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure, and the most dreaded habitual sick headache yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation, Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1, at Croft's Pharmacy.

A Rare Opportunity

Eyes Properly Attended To.

Dr. Wm. L.
RAUBITSCHKE.

A graduate of the Philadelphia Optical College, the Expert Eye Specialist,

Has opened an office at Dr. E. North's on Railroad Ave., and will be prepared to give your eyes a thorough examination to correct all cases of defective vision by the latest approved scientific methods, on Monday, Nov. 2.

No charge for examination. Only reasonable charge for glasses, if required.

Persons unable to call, by sending me word, will be treated at their residence.

Every first and third Monday of each month. Office hours, 10 a.m. to 12 m.
and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Philadelphia address, 941 N. 7th St.

Coal!

Coal!

Coal!

Best grades of coal at lowest cash prices for cash, under sheds, and we can deliver it clean and dry even during wet weather.

All coal delivered promptly,
and satisfaction guaranteed

E. STOCKWELL,

Cor. Bellevue Av. and Third St

A Man of Dollars

will usually be found to be of an investigating and saving nature.
When he buys, he buys at the best place in town, if it is ten miles off. Before he buys you may know that he has been about to other places—found which store sold the best and most for the least money. When you are out prospecting, don't pass us by, please. We may be able to save you money.

J. B. SMALL.

ALEX. AITKEN,

Hammonton Hotel

Livery and Boarding Stable.

Carriage and Delivering of all kinds done promptly, on short notice.

Single and Double Carriages to hire,
by the day or hour.

NEW STORE

and a most reliable line of all the popular brands of Tobacco, and my own make

CIGARS

Is what I call the attention of my old friends, and new friends. Also, well selected line of sporting goods.

FIEDLER'S.

WHEN I HAVE TIME

When I have time, so many things I'll do
To make life happier and more fair
For these weary lives are crowded now
With care.

When I have time, the friend I love so Well—shall know no more these weary, telling days.
I'll lead her heart in pleasant paths always,
And cheer her feet with words of sweet
est praise.

When I have time, the friend I love so
Well—shall know no more these weary, telling
days.
I'll lead her heart in pleasant paths always,
And cheer her feet with words of sweet
est praise.

Now is the time! Ah, friend, no longer wait.
To suffer loving smiles and words of cheer
To those around whose lives are now so
dear.
They may not meet you in the coming year.

Now is the time.
—Jadonopolis News.

THE HELMET.

"But, uncle, I love my cousin."
"Get out!"
"Give her to me!"
"Don't bother me!"
"I will be more self-willed still;
and, since I must be forced to say
"Yes," I will force him to say it."
"But how?" asked Rose.

"Ah! how? That was exactly the difficulty. But, no matter; I would find a way to surmount it."
As that moment a heavy step resounded in the street. Instinctively we moved away from each other; I returned to my double-handed sword and Rose, to
dust herself in the corner of her apron
a little statuette in its faded red velvet
case.

My uncle entered. Surprised at finding us together, he stopped short and
looked sharply from one to the other.
We each of us went on rubbing without ceasing our heads.
"Here, take this," said my uncle,
handing me a bulky parcel from under his arm. "A splendid purchase, you'll see."

"The subject did not interest me in the least."
opened the parcel and from the enveloping paper emerged a steel helmet
—but not an ordinary helmet, oh, no,
a superb, a monumental morion, with gorget and pointed visor of strange
form. The visor was raised and I tried to discover what prevented it from being lowered.

"It will not go down—the hinges have got out of order," said my uncle, "but
it's a superb piece, and when it has
been thoroughly cleaned and touched
up with oil and wax, it shall be your tomorrow's job."

"Very good, uncle," I murmured, not
daring to raise my eyes to his.
That night, on returning to my room,
I at once went to bed. I was eager to
be alone and able to think at my ease.
Night brings counsel, it is said, and I
had great need of that; the proverb about
for an hour without receiving any assistance I felt to sleep and till next morning did nothing but dream the oddest
dreams. I saw Rose on her way to church in a strange bridal costume, a fourteenth century cap three feet high
on her head, but looking prettier than ever. Then suddenly the scene changed
to moonlight, in which innumerable helmet and pieces of old china were floating, a wild rambling, while my uncle, clad in complete armor and with
a formidable halberd in his hand, conducted the bewildering whirl.

The next day—the next day—I was no nearer. In vain, with clenched teeth, I recited the immense helmet
brought by my uncle the previous evening,
secured it with such surety as almost to break the iron; not an idea
came to me. The helmet shone like a
sun. My uncle sat smoking his pipe
and watching me, but I could think of nothing, of no way of forcing him to give me his daughter.

At 3 o'clock Rose went into the country, whence she was not to return
till then. In the evening, on the threshold she could only make a sign
me with her hand; my uncle had not left us alone for a single instant. He had not purchased that morning. Suddenly he raised his head; 5 o'clock was striking.

"The council!" he cried.
I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

"As to you—don't forget our conversation. If you think you can make me say 'Yes,' try it—but don't think you'll succeed. Meanwhile, not a word to Rose, or by St. Bartolomeu, my patron of happy memory, I'll instantly kick
you out of doors!"

At that moment Rose appeared with my uncle's cane and hat, which she handed to him. He kissed her on the forehead; then, giving me a last but eloquent look, hurried from the shop.
I went on scouring my double-handed sword. Rose came quietly toward me.
"What is the matter with my father?"
she asked. "He seems to be angry with you."

I looked at her—her eyes were as black, her look so kind, her mouth so rosy and her teeth so white that I told her all my love, my suit to her father and his rough refusal. I could not help it—after all, it was his fault. He was not angry; determined to brave his anger. Besides, there is nobody like him persons for displaying courage under certain circumstances.

My cousin said nothing; she only held down her eyes—while her cheeks were as red as those of cherries in May.
I checked myself.
"Are you angry with me?" I asked tremblingly. "Are you angry with me, Rose?"

She held out to me her hand. On that,
my heart, seething with audacity, my heart on fire, I cried:
"Rose—I swear it! I will be your husband!" And as she shook her head and looked at me sadly I added: "Oh,
I will know that my uncle is self-willed;
but I will be more self-willed still;
and, since I must be forced to say
"Yes," I will force him to say it."

"But how?" asked Rose.
"Ah! how? That was exactly the difficulty. But, no matter; I would find
a way to surmount it."

As that moment a heavy step resound-
ed in the street. Instinctively we moved away from each other; I returned to my double-handed sword and Rose, to
dust herself in the corner of her apron
a little statuette in its faded red velvet
case.

My uncle entered. Surprised at finding us together, he stopped short and
looked sharply from one to the other.
We each of us went on rubbing with-
out ceasing our heads.
"Here, take this," said my uncle,
handing me a bulky parcel from under
his arm. "A splendid purchase, you'll
see."

"The subject did not interest me in the least."
opened the parcel and from the en-
veloping paper emerged a steel helmet
—but not an ordinary helmet, oh, no,
a superb, a monumental morion, with
gorget and pointed visor of strange
form. The visor was raised and I tried
to discover what prevented it from being lowered.

"It will not go down—the hinges have
got out of order," said my uncle, "but
it's a superb piece, and when it has
been thoroughly cleaned and touched
up with oil and wax, it shall be your
tomorrow's job."

"Very good, uncle," I murmured, not
daring to raise my eyes to his.
That night, on returning to my room,
I at once went to bed. I was eager to
be alone and able to think at my ease.
Night brings counsel, it is said, and I
had great need of that; the proverb about
for an hour without receiving any assistance I felt to sleep and till next
morning did nothing but dream the oddest
dreams. I saw Rose on her way to
church in a strange bridal costume, a
fourteenth century cap three feet high
on her head, but looking prettier than ever. Then suddenly the scene changed
to moonlight, in which innumerable
helmet and pieces of old china were
floating, a wild rambling, while my
uncle, clad in complete armor and with
a formidable halberd in his hand, conducted the bewildering whirl.

The next day—the next day—I was
no nearer. In vain, with clenched
teeth, I recited the immense helmet
brought by my uncle the previous evening,
secured it with such surety as al-
most to break the iron; not an idea
came to me. The helmet shone like a
sun. My uncle sat smoking his pipe
and watching me, but I could think of
nothing, of no way of forcing him to
give me his daughter.

At 3 o'clock Rose went into the
country, whence she was not to return
till then. In the evening, on the threshold she could only make a sign
me with her hand; my uncle had not
left us alone for a single instant. He had not purchased that morning. Suddenly he raised his head; 5 o'clock was
striking.

"The council!" he cried.
I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

Struck almost speechless, I watched what he was doing—thinking only how nearly he looked.
Suddenly there was a sharp sound—down fell the visor; and there was my uncle, with his head in an iron cage, gesticulating and swearing like a pagan.

I could contain myself no longer, and burst into a roar of laughter; for my uncle, stumpy, fat and rubeicund, presented an irresistibly comic appearance.

Threateningly he came toward me.
"The hinges—the hinges, fool!" he cried.
I could not see his face, but I felt that it was red with rage.

"When you have done laughing,
"fool!" he cried.
But the helmet swayed so oddly on his shoulders, his voice came from out it in such strange tones, that the more he gesticulated, the more he yelled and threatened me, the louder I laughed.

At that moment the clock of the Hotel
du Ville striking 5 o'clock was heard.
"The municipal council!" murmured
my uncle, in a stifled voice. "Quick, help me off with this beast of a machine! We'll settle our business afterward!"

But, suddenly likewise, an idea—a wild, extraordinary idea—came into my head; but then, whoever is madder than a fool? Besides, I had no choice of means.

"No!" I replied.
My uncle fell back two paces in terror—and again the enormous helmet wobbled on his shoulders.
"Yes," I said, "I will be more self-willed still; and, since I must be forced to say
"Yes," I will force him to say it."

"But how?" asked Rose.
"Ah! how? That was exactly the difficulty. But, no matter; I would find
a way to surmount it."

As that moment a heavy step resound-
ed in the street. Instinctively we moved away from each other; I returned to my double-handed sword and Rose, to
dust herself in the corner of her apron
a little statuette in its faded red velvet
case.

My uncle entered. Surprised at finding us together, he stopped short and
looked sharply from one to the other.
We each of us went on rubbing with-
out ceasing our heads.
"Here, take this," said my uncle,
handing me a bulky parcel from under
his arm. "A splendid purchase, you'll
see."

"The subject did not interest me in the least."
opened the parcel and from the en-
veloping paper emerged a steel helmet
—but not an ordinary helmet, oh, no,
a superb, a monumental morion, with
gorget and pointed visor of strange
form. The visor was raised and I tried
to discover what prevented it from being lowered.

"It will not go down—the hinges have
got out of order," said my uncle, "but
it's a superb piece, and when it has
been thoroughly cleaned and touched
up with oil and wax, it shall be your
tomorrow's job."

"Very good, uncle," I murmured, not
daring to raise my eyes to his.
That night, on returning to my room,
I at once went to bed. I was eager to
be alone and able to think at my ease.
Night brings counsel, it is said, and I
had great need of that; the proverb about
for an hour without receiving any assistance I felt to sleep and till next
morning did nothing but dream the oddest
dreams. I saw Rose on her way to
church in a strange bridal costume, a
fourteenth century cap three feet high
on her head, but looking prettier than ever. Then suddenly the scene changed
to moonlight, in which innumerable
helmet and pieces of old china were
floating, a wild rambling, while my
uncle, clad in complete armor and with
a formidable halberd in his hand, conducted the bewildering whirl.

The next day—the next day—I was
no nearer. In vain, with clenched
teeth, I recited the immense helmet
brought by my uncle the previous evening,
secured it with such surety as al-
most to break the iron; not an idea
came to me. The helmet shone like a
sun. My uncle sat smoking his pipe
and watching me, but I could think of
nothing, of no way of forcing him to
give me his daughter.

At 3 o'clock Rose went into the
country, whence she was not to return
till then. In the evening, on the threshold she could only make a sign
me with her hand; my uncle had not
left us alone for a single instant. He had not purchased that morning. Suddenly he raised his head; 5 o'clock was
striking.

"The council!" he cried.
I went to my room, took my hat, and
went to the council. It was a bright
glow that would have lulled it benighted.
But this time, after a moment's
consideration, he tapped his forehead
and added, in a tone of supreme relief:
"You have made it quite bright
enough, put it down," said my uncle.
I put it down. The storm was gathering; I could not do better than allow
it to blow over.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

THIS IS THEIR DEPARTMENT OF THE PAPER.

Quiet Sayings and Cute Doings of the Little Folks Everywhere, Gathered and Edited Here for All Other Kids to See and Read.

How the Monkey Won.
A race was proposed between a monkey and a foxhound. As the hound clutched the selection of the ground, the monkey stipulated that any method of arriving at the goal should be deemed fair.

"This," said the monkey, "is necessary, as it is well known that I cannot maintain one steady gait, like a dog."
The judges said that the monkey should be allowed his way, and that any method of arriving at the end of the race should be deemed fair.

Useful Black-and-Tan.
Black-and-tan dogs are not expected
to earn their own living, any more than dogs of other such pets; but the Indianapolis Sentinel reports an interesting exception to the rule. As
the story goes, the mistress of the dog
is also a keeper of hens. One of these was sitting upon a "dutch" of three-teen eggs, and Don, the black-and-
tan, soon became very curious to know
why she stayed in the barn so closely.

The dog, as it is reported, had formerly
been given to teasing the hen, snatch-
ing her food away from her, and otherwise making himself a torment; but
this intercourse had gradually turned into friendship, and the two would sometimes be seen lying and squint-
ing side by side in the sun, on a bit of carpet in the back porch.

During the three weeks that the hen
sat on her eggs, Don used to pay daily visits to her, and the hen would
stand up with her by the half-hour.
Then the chicks came out of their
shells. Don was intensely interested.
All day long he scarcely left the barn.
The next morning, when the hen stepped
out of the nest and with a cluck called
her brood after her, Don followed.

The hen fell to scratching, and the
fluffy chicks dashed hither and thither,
picking up the tidbits which the
mother had uncovered.
"Good!" said Don to himself; "I can help in this business," and to the terror of the chickens he ran in among
them and began turning up the soil at a lively rate. Then he sat down and waited.

The mother hen called back the
chicks to the newly scratched earth,
and soon they picked it clean. Then
the dog took another turn. And so
the good mother hen, to the great delight of all the parties.

Thackery Among Friends.
One of the prettiest of the many charming anecdotes of Thackery was told by a friend of an English class.
The story is as follows: Thackery, who
has just been published for the first time,
Mr. Gladstone recalls some of the incidents of his first election canvass.

There seems to have been a very little effort to convince the minds of the
electors, and a great effort to influence
them through their stomachs. Innumerable glasses of beer and wine played an important part in giving the great statesman of to-day his first start in public life.

No man has done more than he to put a stop to the wholesale bribery and
corruption which were once the most prominent features of an English election. To-day, if the giving of a single glass of beer to a voter is traced to the authorized agent of a candidate, that candidate not only is compelled to surrender the seat in Parliament, but he cannot again be a candidate
within a certain term of years.

Electoral corruption is one of the greatest evils that can exist in a free
government. A monarchy which stands because the people will that it shall stand, is a better government
than a Republic in which the power of
one party or the other to purchase
votes determines which of the two shall
rule. Youth's Companion.

Discoverer.
There were many queer characters
in Ballantyne's printing-house in Edinburgh, and one of them declared
that he knew who wrote the famous
novels, "almost as soon as the author," Mr. James Ballantyne.

"I had just begun a new sheet of Guy Mannering," he would say,
"one night after awhile after twelve,
and all the compositors had left, when
in comes Mr. Ballantyne himself, with a letter in his hand and a lot of types."

"I am going to make a small
alteration, Sandy," said he, "blot
the form, will you? I'll not keep you
many minutes."

"Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great handwriting copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

One morning when the plums were at their best my mother gave me a small basket and asked me to go down to the tree and fill it. The tree was loaded with the bright red plums, and I soon filled my basket, and then sat down on the grass under a large shady tree to eat some of the delicious fruit.

Soon I heard a gruff "light light" followed by the falling of a perfect shower of plums from the tree. Quickly turning, I saw the large dog standing under the tree quietly munching the fruit and cracking the pits between his teeth.

Having consumed all the plums on the ground, one old dog that seemed to be the leader went up to the tree, and giving another "light light" rubbed his body against the trunk of the tree, and shook down another supply.

I watched this performance for some time, and then informed my father about it. It is needless to say the pigs were promptly turned out of the meadow—Chicago Record.

Useful Black-and-Tan.
Black-and-tan dogs are not expected
to earn their own living, any more
than dogs of other such pets; but the Indianapolis Sentinel reports an interesting exception to the rule. As
the story goes, the mistress of the dog
is also a keeper of hens. One of these
was sitting upon a "dutch" of three-
teen eggs, and Don, the black-and-
tan, soon became very curious to know
why she stayed in the barn so closely.

The dog, as it is reported, had formerly
been given to teasing the hen, snatch-
ing her food away from her, and otherwise making himself a torment; but
this intercourse had gradually turned
into friendship, and the two would
sometimes be seen lying and squint-
ing side by side in the sun, on a bit of
carpet in the back porch.

During the three weeks that the hen
sat on her eggs, Don used to pay daily
visits to her, and the hen would
stand up with her by the half-hour.
Then the chicks came out of their
shells. Don was intensely interested.
All day long he scarcely left the barn.
The next morning, when the hen stepped
out of the nest and with a cluck called
her brood after her, Don followed.

The hen fell to scratching, and the
fluffy chicks dashed hither and thither,
picking up the tidbits which the
mother had uncovered.
"Good!" said Don to himself; "I can
help in this business," and to the terror of the chickens he ran in among
them and began turning up the soil at
a lively rate. Then he sat down and waited.

The mother hen called back the
chicks to the newly scratched earth,
and soon they picked it clean. Then
the dog took another turn. And so
the good mother hen, to the great
delight of all the parties.

Thackery Among Friends.
One of the prettiest of the many charming anecdotes of Thackery was
told by a friend of an English class.
The story is as follows: Thackery, who
has just been published for the first time,
Mr. Gladstone recalls some of the incidents of his first election canvass.

There seems to have been a very little effort to convince the minds of the
electors, and a great effort to influence
them through their stomachs. Innumerable glasses of beer and wine played
an important part in giving the great
statesman of to-day his first start in public life.

No man has done more than he to
put a stop to the wholesale bribery and
corruption which were once the most prominent features of an English election. To-day, if the giving of a single glass of beer to a voter is traced to the
authorized agent of a candidate, that
candidate not only is compelled to surrender the seat in Parliament, but he cannot again be a candidate
within a certain term of years.

Electoral corruption is one of the
greatest evils that can exist in a free
government. A monarchy which
stands because the people will that it
shall stand, is a better government
than a Republic in which the power of
one party or the other to purchase
votes determines which of the two shall
rule. Youth's Companion.

Discoverer.
There were many queer characters
in Ballantyne's printing-house in Edinburgh, and one of them declared
that he knew who wrote the famous
novels, "almost as soon as the author," Mr. James Ballantyne.

"I had just begun a new sheet of Guy Mannering," he would say,
"one night after awhile after twelve,
and all the compositors had left, when
in comes Mr. Ballantyne himself,
with a letter in his hand and a lot of
types."

"I am going to make a small
alteration, Sandy," said he, "blot
the form, will you? I'll not keep you
many minutes."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

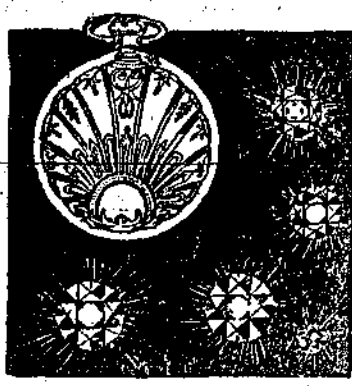

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Well, I did as I was bidden, and
Mr. Ballantyne looked at the letter,
and altered three lines on one page
and one line on another.
"That will do now, Sandy, I
think," were his words, and off he
went, never thinking he had left the
editor upon my bench. I had hardly
time to get a glimpse at it, when he
came back, and I kept the hand-
work and the signature, and it was
"Walter Scott." I had a great hand-
writing copy of the letter, and the
hand of the author, so that I was
no stranger to it. So you see, gentlemen, I kept the grand secret when
it was a secret."

Questions of the Day
Gold and Silver
can be found in our watch cases—enclosing Waltham or Elgin movements—for less money than ever before known. Prices are away down.
If your watch is not keeping time, bring it to us.
We guarantee satisfaction.
Robert Steel, the Jeweler.

A Big Stock.

You are invited to call and see it.

Hardware, Tools,

Furniture,

Carpets, Matting.

HARRY MCD. LITTLE.

HOYT & SONS

Have facilities for every kind of

JOB PRINTING.

And solicit your orders in that line.

TRY

our own make of

Sausage and Scrapple

At H. L. MCINTYRE'S

Meat Market.

Chow Chow and

Pepper Sauce.

Pickles, 6 cents per dozen.

Geo. M. Bowles,

Pork,
Sausage, Scrapple,
etc., etc.

Home-made Mince Meat.

Egg Harbor Road, cor. Cherry St.

The Republican.

Entered as second class matter.

SATURDAY, NOV. 7, 1896.

It is McKinley!

The following table shows the Electoral vote by states, so far as returns have been received up to Friday morning, with their pluralities in round numbers:

States	Electoral Votes	Pluralities
Certain for McKinley—	4,000
California	9	50,000
Connecticut	6	2,000
Delaware	3	2,000
Illinois	24	150,000
Indiana	10	20,000
Iowa	13	67,000
Maine	6	46,000
Maryland	8	32,000
Massachusetts	15	168,000
Michigan	14	55,000
Minnesota	9	48,000
New Hampshire	4	45,000
New Jersey	10	65,000
New York	36	270,000
North Dakota	3	8,000
Ohio	22	63,000
Oregon	4	4,000
Pennsylvania	32	300,000
Rhode Island	4	54,000
Vermont	4	37,000
West Virginia	6	13,000
Wisconsin	12	106,000
Certain for Bryan—
Alabama	11	32,000
Arkansas	9	35,000
Colorado	4	100,000
Florida	4	10,000
Georgia	12	25,000
Idaho	3	6,000
Kansas	10	44,000
Louisiana	8	44,000
Mississippi	9	54,000
Missouri	17	57,000
Montana	3	1,500
Nebraska	4	6,000
Nevada	3	2,000
North Carolina	11	8,000
South Carolina	9	40,000
Texas	15	40,000
Utah	3	40,000
Virginia	12	15,000
Washington	4	4,000
Still in Doubt,
Tennessee	12
Wyoming	3

Probable for McKinley.
Kentucky 13, 1,000
South Dakota 4, 000
Certain for Bryan.
Alabama 11, 32,000
Arkansas 9, 35,000
Colorado 4, 100,000
Florida 4, 10,000
Georgia 12, 25,000
Idaho 3, 6,000
Kansas 10, 44,000
Louisiana 8, 44,000
Mississippi 9, 54,000
Missouri 17, 57,000
Montana 3, 1,500
Nebraska 4, 6,000
Nevada 3, 2,000
North Carolina 11, 8,000
South Carolina 9, 40,000
Texas 15, 40,000
Utah 3, 40,000
Virginia 12, 15,000
Washington 4, 4,000

Still in Doubt.
Tennessee 12
Wyoming 3
Recapitulation.
For McKinley 200 votes
For Bryan 155
Uncertain 32

A Farmers' Institute will be held in Union Hall, Hammononton, next week Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13 and 14. There will be three sessions. We give the programme in full. All sessions are free, and every person interested in agriculture is invited.

Friday evening.
7:30. Opening remarks and exercises.
7:45. "Plant Lice and Other Pests." By Prof. John B. Smith, State Entomologist. Discussion.

Saturday morning.
10:00. Question Box.
"Healthy Plants for Good Crops." How may we have them? By Col. A. W. Pearson, Vineland.

11:00. "How I Grow Small Fruits." By T. F. D. Baker, Bridgeton.
Discussion on small fruit and melon growing.

1:30 p.m. Question Box.
1:45. Growing and Marketing Sweet Potatoes. Opened by Theo. Brown, Swanton.

Discussion on opened by Thomas J. Beane and Col. A. W. Pearson.
3:00. "Poultry Keeping and Profit to be derived from Egg Production." By Hon. F. E. Hawley, Director New York State Farmers' Institutes. He is one of the most successful growers of poultry.

Other questions of local interest connected with general agricultural subjects or growing out of those presented in the above programme, may be discussed if time permits.

We have been requested by the secretary of the McKinley and Hobart Club to state that there will be a celebration of the recent victory next Monday evening. We have inquired and cannot learn that there is any program ready or any other preparation. It is our opinion that no celebration is needed. Our work is done, and well done, and we don't need to advertise our gratification. Other well known Republicans agree with us in this.

A member of the firm that put the ventilating fixtures into our Central school house was down here the other day, and made a thorough inspection. He confessed that he could see nothing wrong in its construction or in the manner of its operation. Yet it is decidedly defective in its results and a claim for damages may be made—ought to be enforced—for at least a portion of it must be abandoned, and outbuildings be erected.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, corns, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no cure required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale at Croft's.

Town Council Meeting.

The regular meeting was held last Saturday evening, Oct. 31st. All members present. Minutes of last meeting approved. Minutes of recent special town meeting read.

Communication from Attorney Stophay read, stating that, in his opinion, the law of 1890 gave Council power to adjust past due taxes. Also, that Council has the right to fix the amount to be paid for burying paupers.

Bills ordered paid:
Highways—
Wm H Burgess..... $162.00
P H Brown..... 15.00
Geo Licht..... 27.00
M Rosen..... 18.00
G W Frondenthal..... 6.00
Joe Gardner..... 1.00

T J Smith, rent for poor..... 10.00
Joe H Garton, police..... 21.99
Atlantic Journal, printing..... 2.15
Hoyt & Sons, printing..... 11.65
J W Logan, salary..... 5.00
A H Miller, janitor..... 3.00
G Valentine, burying poor..... 15.00
J C Saunders, lamp lighter..... 31.55
W L Black, goods to poor..... 40.00
$200.55

It was stated that the father of the pauper for whose burial the above bill presented was able to pay the same. On motion the vote to pay said bill was reconsidered, and voted to pay when satisfactory evidence was presented that it was a case of poverty.

Ordinance Committee reported an ordinance granting to Messrs. Ball & Sheets a franchise to conduct electric lighting business (published in full elsewhere). On motion of Mr. Anderson, said ordinance passed first reading.

Subject of rebating a portion of the costs on past due taxes assessed to Mary Emma Anderson brought up. Voted that the present owner be allowed to settle by paying taxes of years 1885 to 1890, with interest at six per cent.

Committee instructed to employ some one to prepare boards and post the ordinance bills lately printed.

On motion, voted to fix Town Marshal's salary at not less than $50 per year. (By the ordinance he is allowed one-half of all fines paid by parties convicted on his complaint. This vote is to insure him at least fifty dollars.) Benj. F. Shourds was then unanimously elected Town Marshal.

Voted to increase the Town's contribution to salary of night policeman to $2.50 per week. Jos. H. Garton re-appointed to said position for six months.

Clerk reported unexpended balances as follows:
Highways..... $109.62
Town Purposes..... 654.13
Fuel..... 412.51
Street Lights..... 208.83
Fires..... 87.25

Mr. Anderson moved that Clerk advertise for proposals to bury town paupers; bids to be opened at next meeting of Council. Carried.

On motion Clerk directed to call a special meeting of Council next Saturday evening, Nov. 7th, to take final action upon electric lighting ordinance.

Mr. Anderson read letters from electric engineer, and moved that the writer be employed, at a cost of $100, to draw plans and specifications, and to superintend erection of electric lighting plant. Fully discussed, and motion lost; vote, 1 to 4. Adjourned.

The greatest disappointment at last Saturday's game was the large crowd of enthusiastic supporters of local sports, so conspicuous by their absence. We must do better to-day in the way of patronage.

Largest Stock
and most complete assortment of COAL
in town.

Try a sample of our PEA COAL
You'll find it O. K.

W. H. Bernshouse
Railroad Avenue
and Orchard Street, Hammononton.

Fruit Growers' Union.

And Co-Operative Soc'y, Inc.

Election

is over, and the great question is settled.

How do you like it?

Whether you like it or not, we are sure you would like a box of that New York state honey. We received a new lot this week. Try it now—it is great.

A Ham

is something you should have in the house. We have just received a new lot of Hams, Bacon, and Dried Beef. We also have Ferris' Pig Pork, a little higher in price, but great.

Lovers

of Cheese will find something that will suit them here. We have just received a lot direct from York state.

JEWEL

That is the name of a new Oil Heater we are showing this week. It is one of the finest stoves on the market. Call and see it.

That Car

of Potatoes and Apples is in now, and we are ready for your order.

Orders

called for, and goods promptly delivered. Drop us a card if you wish us to call.

Fruit Growers' Union

P. RANERE'S

Hammononton Steam

Macaroni Works

(Established in 1890)

Macaroni, Vermicelli, and Fancy Paste, The best made in the United States. Sold Wholesale and Retail.

Dealer in Imported & Domestic GROCERIES. Imported Olive Oil.

HARNESS.

A full assortment of hand and machine made, for work or driving.

Trunks, Valises, Whips, Riding Saddles, Nets, etc.

L. W. COGLEY, Hammononton, N. J.

Chas. Cunningham, M.D. Physician and Surgeon. 1111's Block, Hammononton. Office Hours, 7:30 to 10:30 A.M. 1:00 to 3:00 and 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, NOV. 7, 1896.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Football to-day at 3 P. M.

Special meeting of Town Council to-night.

PLAGS and Japanese lanterns for the Convention can be had at Jacob's.

Robt. Moore, of Haddonfield, is in town to-day.

Theo. Baker, Jr., was at home on election day.

BRANDY and MILLER Raspberry Plants for sale. D. COLWELL.

Mrs. Corn Hay is with friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Kate Wilson has gone to Virginia for a visit.

STORE FOR RENT, lately occupied by Mrs. Arlitz. Key at Mr. Cropper's.

Miss E. M. SARGENT.

Sunday evening church services 6:00 and 7:00 o'clock.

Harry Stockwell came home from Princeton to vote.

M. B. FOWLER has most of his stock of Fall Wall Paper in.

Hiram Preecey was among the visitors here, this week.

G. A. R. Post meeting to-night, in Sons of Veterans Hall.

Now that we are to have sound money, it is surprising to see how many shrewd men have a quarter will buy at Fowler's.

Geo. Thomas' little girl, Eva, is very low with pneumonia.

A violent wind and rain storm set in on Wednesday night.

Now that McKinley is elected, why not have that room painted?

Chester Crowell was home from Exeter for a few days and voted.

Harry Baker and Charlie Moore were in Hammononton on Tuesday.

WANTED. Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, up to Saturday, Nov. 28, 1896, at 9 o'clock a. m., for burying Town Paupers. The Town Council reserves the right to accept any or all of the proposals. Terms and conditions on file at J. L. O'DONNELL, Town Clerk.

A slight change in rates on the Reading, but does not affect Hammononton.

Miss Julia Gravatt is very ill at the residence of her sister, Mrs. L. A. Hoyt.

FOWLER changes his day in Hammononton to Thursday. Parties desiring his services in fitting and erecting, should apply at once, as he will soon give his whole time to his investments and improvements in artificial teeth. The office always open for consultations. Terms and conditions on file at J. L. O'DONNELL, Town Clerk.

The Sons of Veterans held their first meeting in their new hall, Wednesday evening.

Capt. C. D. Loveland starts for India to-day in charge of Fells' new steam yacht.

REVELOPES—all sizes—at Jacob's.

Hammononton, having cast 610 votes this year, will be divided into two election precincts.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. R. Tilton next Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

CORNET. A 33 German cornet, key of C with B-flat and A attachments, case, mouth stand, sheet music, etc., for sale cheap. Owner has no use for it. Can be seen at this office.

Mr. Lindley, the telephone foreman, has moved into Mrs. Fairchild's house, on Bellevue.

The church bell will ring for service at 7:30 o'clock to-morrow evening, the Winter solstice.

SMALL HOUSE for sale, next to George S. Friedman's. Six rooms, electric lights. Everything in good order. Lot 30 x 118 feet. Inquire at this office.

Wills Beach started on Wednesday to resume his duties in Philadelphia as trolley conductor.

The first game of the series for the county championship cup will be played this afternoon.

PURE OLD CHERRY VINEGAR for sale at 25 cents per gallon. Under Pines and drops (stake) for sale at prices to suit the purchaser, by J. W. MILLER.

Where are you going this afternoon? To see the football game, of course. Everybody goes.

A. J. White, of Washington, D. C., made a flying trip hither, Tuesday, stayed long enough to vote.

REPAIRING, cleaning and dyeing done, &c., at my residence, the brick house at 29 cents per gallon. Under Pines and drops (stake) for sale at prices to suit the purchaser, by J. W. MILLER.

Geo. HERRMAN, Tailor, and Otto Wackerhagen and wife, from Atlantic, were in town yesterday.

The alligator farm in the window of Croft's drug store attracted much attention during the week.

STEFAN BOLTER for sale, small, reliable for heating houses or running a small engine. Jacketed with oil. Call on J. Q. A. GREENWICH, where found and made.

Insure with A. H. Phillips & Co., 1238 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

Atlantic County Vote, Nov. 3, 1896

So far as obtainable up to the hour of going to press. We will give the official and total next week.

Cities, Towns, Townships.	McKinley, R.	Bryan, D.	Garrett, R.	Conroy, D.	Jackson, R.	Jennings, D.	Kirby, R.	Barlow, D.	Jageroll, R.	Bialing, D.
Absecon	72	98	70	68	75	64	65	77	70	63
Atlantic City—1st ward	236	130	270	133	302	142	215	100	220	138
" " 2nd ward	303	95	309	95	306	100	218	100	304	101
" " 3rd ward	279	71	278	73	278	74	232	124	277	73
" " 4th ward	330	80	332	82	331	84	338	149	334	83
" " 5th ward	309	131	308	131	307	136	378	248	385	168
" " 6th ward	426	181	419	185	421	186	402	305	424	182
" " 7th ward	334	139	334	139	334	139	334	139	334	139
" " 8th ward	344	203	344	203	344	203	344	203	344	203
Brigantine	14	9	14	9	14	9	14	9	14	9
Buena Vista	196	112	193	111	174	115	201	95	189	111
Egg Harbor City	198	97	193	103	189	103	193	121	193	108
Egg Harbor Township	230	109	230	109	230	109	230	109	230	109
Galloway Twp., 1st precinct	74	77	72	78	76	76	66	66	76	77
" " 2nd precinct	74	77	72	78	76	76	66	66	76	77
Hamilton	411	163	409	164	439	143	412	167	390	159
Hammononton	83	23	80	23	73	34	66	40	84	22
Linwood	135	49	135	49	141	42	133	49	135	45
Mulliken	232	85	248	89	12	203	243	83	238	83
Somers Point	30	35	30	34	30	35	30	35	30	35
South Atlantic City	12	9	10	10	11	10	8	14	12	9
Weymouth	65	33	73	32	64	31	64	34	67	31
Totals
Pluralities

Woman's Relief Corps meeting to-night, in Masonic Hall.

HAL'S Vegetable Stiffening Hair Renewer has restored gray hair to its original color and prevented baldness in thousands of cases. It will do so to you.

There will be several new faces in "The Professor," and all have good parts to test their dramatic ability.

Capt. Crowley Loveland will take a cargo (of petroleum we hear) to Portugal, and return with copper from Spain.

368 ACRES of good land for sale, mostly in Weymouth, to close up the A. G. Cullen estate. Will be sold very cheap, at a nominal price, and easy terms given.

23 acres in lot and store on the northwest side of Bellevue Avenue, in the rear of Mrs. Arlitz. Price $105. Inquire of J. W. C. ANDERSON.

12th and Grand Sts., Hammononton.

Schools were closed since Tuesday, the teachers being in training at the Teachers' Institute in Atlantic City.

<

Memorial Offerings.

These are offerings sacred to the hearts of kindred, such as only private grief may know; there are others in recognition of devotion to duty, such as the people make in a public manner. Of these latter, none is more suitable to the memory of the departed than examples of patriotic devotion. It is, however, in keeping with the generous character of the soldier's profession that such examples may be drawn from the conduct of an enemy. A noble instance of this kind has recently been told in England. It belongs to the history of our Revolutionary War.

When Lord Rawdon was in South Carolina he had to send an express of great importance through a part of the country filled with Continental troops.

A corporal of the 17th Dragoons, known for his courage and intelligence, was selected to escort it. They had not proceeded far when they were fired upon, the express was killed and the corporal wounded in the side. Careless of his wound, he thought only of his duty. He snatched the despatch from the dying man and rode on till, from the loss of blood, he fell. Then, from the despatch would be taken by his enemy, he thrust it into his wound until the wound closed upon it and concealed it. He was found next day by a British soldier, who, with honorable pride upon his countenance, and with life just sufficient to point to the fatal depositary of his secret.

In searching the body the cause of his death was found, for the surgeon declared that the wound in itself was not mortal, but was rendered so by the irritation of the paper.

"Thus fell this patriotic soldier—rank a corporal, he was in mind a hero. His name was O'Lavery, and he came from the parish of Moira, in County Down, Ireland."

Forced to sing. Severe methods have been adopted to former days to bring willful sinners to reason. Even in England, Handel threatened to throw a prima donna out of the window unless she sang exactly as he wished, but one incident is recorded which could only have happened under an absolute monarchy.

When the Czarowitz, afterward Paul I., was in Berlin, Madame Mara was to sing in an opera given in his honor. The poet, who was ill, however, and informed the management that she could not appear.

On the morning of the day fixed for the performance, the king sent word that she might as well recover, for, ill or not, she must sing; nevertheless Madame Mara remained at home and in bed.

Two hours before the appointed time a carriage stopped at her door, and an officer entered her room, saying a company of dragoons without. He announced that he had been commissioned by the king to take her, alive or dead, to the theater.

But you said you can't sing and can't get up," remonstrated the valet.

"In that case, I must take the bed to be the reply."

Rather in terror, the singer made herself ready, and proceeded to the theater, making up her mind, however, that she would sing in such a manner as to make his Majesty repent his determination. Through the first act she persisted in the scheme, but as it then occurred to her that the Czarowitz would carry away a portion of her powers, she changed her tactics, and sang with a brilliancy which astonished and delighted the royal visitor.

A Persistent Query. Deacon It is an eminently pious man, active in church work, leading in the singing and loud in prayer. At the same time he is a tony man who has no respect for the church, and what it purports to be. One of the crowd that sits around the country store where the deacon loaf is a thorn in the deacon's flesh, and he is over on the watch to rile the good man.

"I tell you what it is," said this same good morning, "it's mighty few of these church people I have any confidence in."

The deacon standing over by the counter stepped to a keg of nails near the tailor and sat down.

"Howdy, deacon," said the tony man, just saying, "sit down, that I was a little shaky on some of the protesting Christians."

"I heard you say," responded the deacon, sternly.

"Yes, I've been thinking about some of them, and I don't think there are any to be trusted that sit up in the front row of the church, and horse-swing and praying out loud, all the time."

The deacon looked around and shook his head under the startled tony man.

"How long?" he asked, trying to restrain himself, "how long?" and the tony man fell off of his leg of nails without going into details.

MR. JONES HAS A SPELL.

It is a Most Chastising One, But Not So to Go.

"Maria," said Mr. Jones, looking up from a letter he was writing, "how do you spell calamity?"

"You ought to know," answered Mrs. Jones, "what are you doing with it, anyway?"

"I'm writing to Uncle Hiram about his bad luck with his sheep, and that's as good a word to spring on him as any other. Look in the dictionary and see if it is spelled with one m or two."

"Maybe it isn't in the dictionary," suggested Mrs. Jones, "but it's reached for the volume; you know there are 5,000 new words that ain't in it."

"Well, I reckon there's as many there as we will want to tackle in our lifetime. Look in the dictionary and find calamity."

"How does it begin—with a w or a y or a l?" asked Mrs. Jones, who was weak in her spelling as Jones is in his.

"It begins with a k, of course—K-a-l-a-m-i-t-y—I am sure of the two's, but I've kind of stuck on the w, because I think it's a w up in spelling, and I'd hate actually to be wrong."

"I can't find any such word, and I don't believe it's in the dictionary," said Mrs. Jones, smiling. "You'll find it among the K's."

Mrs. Jones looked and hunted, then she said, triumphantly:

"I told you so. There isn't such a word here. Tell me some other word that means the same thing."

"But I can't think of one."

"I can. How would catastrophe do?"

"But this isn't anything about cats; it's concerning sheep."

"I'll look it up. Is it spelled with a c or a k, Jephtha?"

"Whoever heard of a cat being spelled with a J? Maria, I'm ashamed of your ignorance, I really am."

"But kitten is spelled with a k, and it's a little cat. Why, Jephtha, here's calamity among the c's."

"Give it to me," said Jephtha. "I always told you this book was full of mistakes. Hum! it's there, and I s'pose it's the new-fangled way. I've spelled it with a k all my life, and I s'pose it's going to be made over now, sheep or no sheep; and he tore Uncle Hiram's letter into fragments, while Maria laughed softly in her sleeve."

Free Press.

Workers in Brittany. The women of Brittany are remarkable for their individuality, industry, and strength of character. In "Artistic Travel" the author tells of the time when the men slumber and smoke, the women are building little fortresses or propping up old ones.

Let us picture a prominent personage at the old Hotel du Lion d'Or. She has a beautiful name, Augustine, pronounced with enviable accuracy by all the household.

She hovered about us like a fairy, attending to all our wants to the most delicate way; to outward seeming a ministering angel with pure white wings, but in truth, a drudge, a methodical housewife, massive and hard to the touch.

She did the work of three Parisian garçons, and walked upstairs unaided, with portmanteaus which would require two men to lift, any where out of Brittany. She kept in a box in the kitchen, and dressed "somehow" in five minutes. She ate what was left, contentedly, at the end of the day, and rose at midnight to do the laborious work of the house; helping also at harvest-time in the fields.

She had the sweetest of smiles, when she looked at the unquenchable habit of talking round, and a murderous way of killing flies in the early morning which we shall not easily forget.

How it comes to pass that this girl of 10 occupies such an important position in the household is one of those things which are peculiar to Brittany. All through the land, in the houses, in the factories, and in the fields, the strong, firm hand and arm of a woman does the work.

THE OLD-TIME RALLY.

It is no longer for us to understand religious faith that God constantly interferes. At the schoolmaster takes a blackboard and puts upon it figures and diagrams, so that the scholar may not only get his lesson through to the ear, but also through the eye, so God takes all the truths of His Bible and leaves these out in diagram on the natural world, Campbell, the famous Prodigal, went down into Egypt to study the hieroglyphics on monuments and temples. After much labor he deciphered them and announced to the learned world the result of his investigations. The wisdom, goodness and power of God are written in hieroglyphics on the earth and all over the heavens. God grant that we may have understanding enough to decipher them. There are Scriptural scenes, like my text, which need to be studied in the very presence of the natural world.

These scenes have been made for the purpose of the natural world, which we look at it through the eyes of others, and from books taken their impression. There are some faces so mobile that photographs cannot take them, and the human mind is such a fluid and elastic life that no human description can gather them. No one knows the pathos of a wife's voice when she has an attendant evening tide at the edge of a wood and listened to the cry of the whippoorwill.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

THE OLD-TIME RALLY.

It is no longer for us to understand religious faith that God constantly interferes. At the schoolmaster takes a blackboard and puts upon it figures and diagrams, so that the scholar may not only get his lesson through to the ear, but also through the eye, so God takes all the truths of His Bible and leaves these out in diagram on the natural world, Campbell, the famous Prodigal, went down into Egypt to study the hieroglyphics on monuments and temples. After much labor he deciphered them and announced to the learned world the result of his investigations. The wisdom, goodness and power of God are written in hieroglyphics on the earth and all over the heavens. God grant that we may have understanding enough to decipher them. There are Scriptural scenes, like my text, which need to be studied in the very presence of the natural world.

These scenes have been made for the purpose of the natural world, which we look at it through the eyes of others, and from books taken their impression. There are some faces so mobile that photographs cannot take them, and the human mind is such a fluid and elastic life that no human description can gather them. No one knows the pathos of a wife's voice when she has an attendant evening tide at the edge of a wood and listened to the cry of the whippoorwill.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

REV. DR. TALMAGE.

The Eminent Divine's Sunday Discourse.

Subject: "The Panegyric of the Woods."

Text: "We all do fade as a leaf."—Isaiah liii, 9.

It is no longer for us to understand religious faith that God constantly interferes. At the schoolmaster takes a blackboard and puts upon it figures and diagrams, so that the scholar may not only get his lesson through to the ear, but also through the eye, so God takes all the truths of His Bible and leaves these out in diagram on the natural world, Campbell, the famous Prodigal, went down into Egypt to study the hieroglyphics on monuments and temples. After much labor he deciphered them and announced to the learned world the result of his investigations. The wisdom, goodness and power of God are written in hieroglyphics on the earth and all over the heavens. God grant that we may have understanding enough to decipher them. There are Scriptural scenes, like my text, which need to be studied in the very presence of the natural world.

These scenes have been made for the purpose of the natural world, which we look at it through the eyes of others, and from books taken their impression. There are some faces so mobile that photographs cannot take them, and the human mind is such a fluid and elastic life that no human description can gather them. No one knows the pathos of a wife's voice when she has an attendant evening tide at the edge of a wood and listened to the cry of the whippoorwill.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

REV. DR. TALMAGE.

The Eminent Divine's Sunday Discourse.

Subject: "The Panegyric of the Woods."

Text: "We all do fade as a leaf."—Isaiah liii, 9.

It is no longer for us to understand religious faith that God constantly interferes. At the schoolmaster takes a blackboard and puts upon it figures and diagrams, so that the scholar may not only get his lesson through to the ear, but also through the eye, so God takes all the truths of His Bible and leaves these out in diagram on the natural world, Campbell, the famous Prodigal, went down into Egypt to study the hieroglyphics on monuments and temples. After much labor he deciphered them and announced to the learned world the result of his investigations. The wisdom, goodness and power of God are written in hieroglyphics on the earth and all over the heavens. God grant that we may have understanding enough to decipher them. There are Scriptural scenes, like my text, which need to be studied in the very presence of the natural world.

These scenes have been made for the purpose of the natural world, which we look at it through the eyes of others, and from books taken their impression. There are some faces so mobile that photographs cannot take them, and the human mind is such a fluid and elastic life that no human description can gather them. No one knows the pathos of a wife's voice when she has an attendant evening tide at the edge of a wood and listened to the cry of the whippoorwill.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

For several centuries I have made a tour to the far west, and one autumn, about this time, saw that which I shall never forget. I have seen the annual assembly of the Grosvenor and other noble families, but that which I saw that day was more than a hundred times as noble as any I have seen.

There is to-day more glory in one branch of nature than in a hundred of the forest of maps. God hath laid out the utmost limit a glance that none see but those who come to the study of the meaning of the natural world, and the man looking upon the mountains.

The member of Council who advocated the employment of an electric engineer to draw plans and specifications and superintend the erection of an electric lighting plant, forgot, evidently, that the town is to buy the product, not the plant. When a sample of the goods is produced, the town may, if thought best, have it tested, to ascertain whether it is equal to the contract power. Law specifies how the work shall be done, and the National Board of Underwriters will inspect it before a wheel is set in motion, and this will not cost the town one cent.

Early Tuesday evening, a party of young Italians had a slight "scrap," near Anderson's store, and when several Americans approached, one of the Italians grasped one of the Americans by the neck, and struck at him with a ferocious-looking knife. Fortunately, there were others, and the miscreant was somewhat rattled before he escaped and ran up street. He may hear of the affair again, for Americans don't relish being carved.

FRAZER AXLE GREASE
Best in the World!
Get the Genuine!
Sold Everywhere!

Cheapest and Best

Duplex No. 9 Wheeler & Wilson

Light running, easy to understand, beautiful work.
Single or double thread stitch—a modern invention.
Every machine guaranteed.
Are you interested? Send for a catalog Agents wanted.

W. & W. Manufacturing Co., 1812 Chestnut St., Phila.

FOR SALE BY

C. D. & H. A. Jacobs,
Hammonton, N. J.

A. H. Phillips. W. A. Franco.

A. H. Phillips & Co.

Fire Insurance.

MONEY—FOR Mortgage Loans.

Correspondence Solicited.

1828 Atlantic Avenue,
Atlantic City, N. J.

J. S. Thayer

Teacher of

GUITAR and MANDOLIN

Agent for Guitars, Mandolins, Banjos, and other instruments. Also, Music, both vocal and instrumental. Repairing promptly attended to. For terms and prices apply at residence in the evening, or at Herman Fiedler's Cigar Store.

Hammonton, N. J.

Dr. J. A. Waas,
RESIDENT

DENTIST.

HAMMONTON, : : N. J.

Office Days.—Every week-day.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

No charge for extracting with gas, when teeth are decayed.

John Atkinson,
Justice of the Peace,
Commissioner of Deeds Pension & Claim Agent.

Bellevue Ave. and Second St.,

HAMMONTON, : : : N. J.

All business placed in my hands will be promptly attended to.

List of uncalled-for letters in the Hammonton Post-Office, on Saturday, Nov. 7, 1896:

Nicola Brozone
Domenico Chiriacio
Stefano Di Ciano
Robert Myers
Mrs. Jacob Smith
John Saguto
Mrs. A. E. Williams
FOLKTON.
Antonio Filippini
Sulco Nunzio
Teresa Demoneo

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

JOHN T. FRENCH, P. M.

A N ORDINANCE granting to John D. Ball and William J. Sheets full power to use certain public roads, highways, streets, avenues, and alleys in the Town of Hammonton for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, and operating works for the supply and distribution of electricity for electric lights, heat or power in said Town of Hammonton.

1. Be it ordained by the Town of Hammonton, in the County of Atlantic, that full power is hereby granted to John D. Ball and William J. Sheets to use the following public roads, highways, streets, avenues, and alleys in the Town of Hammonton, in the County of Atlantic, in constructing, maintaining, and operating works for the supply and distribution of electricity for electric lights, heat or power in said Town of Hammonton, and for that purpose to erect posts or poles on the said public roads, highways, streets, avenues, and alleys, to sustain the necessary wires and fixtures, viz:

2. And be it ordained, that the said posts or poles, together with the necessary wires and fixtures shall be so located on the said public roads, highways, streets, avenues, and alleys as in no way to interfere with the safety or convenience of persons traveling on or over the same.

3. And be it ordained, that the power aforesaid is granted to the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets subject to the following regulations, and not otherwise:

That the said works must be completed and in operation in sixty days from the date on which the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets shall signify and file with the Town Clerk their consent in writing to the regulations hereby imposed by the said Town of Hammonton.

That the said consent in writing shall be filed with the Town Clerk within ten days after the passage of this ordinance.

That in case the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets shall fail or neglect to operate the said works at any time after their completion, for a period of thirty consecutive days, then the power hereby granted shall be deemed forfeited by the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets, and they shall, upon ten days' notice in writing to be given by the said Town of Hammonton, forthwith remove the said posts or poles, together with the wires and fixtures, from the said public roads, highways, streets, avenues and alleys.

That the Town of Hammonton shall have right to purchase the said works at any time after the expiration of ten years from the passage of this ordinance, at its actual value, and that said value shall be determined and ascertained by three disinterested persons, to be appointed for that purpose in such manner as the said Town of Hammonton and the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets shall hereafter agree upon by contract in writing.

That the construction of the said works and all necessary repairs shall be made under the supervision of a competent engineer to be selected, employed and paid by the Town of Hammonton.

That in case the said works shall not be constructed in the manner as directed by the said engineer, the Town of Hammonton shall have the right to condemn such works and order the same removed, and to give reasonable notice in writing of such condemnation to the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets.

That the said John D. Ball and William J. Sheets shall and will, during the maintenance of the said works, furnish electric light to consumers on meter rates which shall not exceed one-half cent per hour for each light of 16 candle power, or one cent per hour for each light of 32 candle power, and also furnish power to consumers at rates not exceeding five cents per horse power per hour.

4. And be it ordained, that this ordinance shall take effect immediately.

A N ORDINANCE requiring the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad Company to erect and maintain safety gates at the crossings at Orchard Street and at Vine Street in the Town of Hammonton, and also requiring the Atlantic City Railroad Company to erect and maintain safety gates at the crossings of said Orchard Street in the said Town of Hammonton.

Introduced Aug. 29, 1896.

Passed Sept. 26, 1896.

1. Be it ordained by the Town of Hammonton, in the County of Atlantic, that immediately after the passage of this ordinance the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad Company and the Atlantic City Railroad Company, the successors and assigns respectively, shall file, immediately after the passage of this ordinance, a copy of this ordinance with the provisions of the preceding section of this ordinance, they or either of them respectively shall, for each and every day of such non-compliance, pay and forfeit a penalty of Ten Dollars, to be recovered under the provisions of the Charter of the Town of Hammonton.

2. And be it ordained, that if the said West Jersey and Seashore Railroad Company and the said Atlantic City Railroad Company, the successors and assigns respectively, shall fail, immediately after the passage of this ordinance to comply with the provisions of the preceding section of this ordinance, they or either of them respectively shall, for each and every day of such non-compliance, pay and forfeit a penalty of Ten Dollars, to be recovered under the provisions of the Charter of the Town of Hammonton.

3. And be it ordained, that this ordinance shall take effect immediately.

WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM,
President of Town Council.

Attest J. L. O'HANLON, Town Clerk.

The Discovery saved his Life.
Mc. G. Calloway, druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken by grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store, I sent for a bottle and began its use, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It's worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Croft's.

FOR BUSINESS LIFE

Wanted—An Idea Who can think of some simple thing to patent? Write JOHN WEDDERBURN & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C., for their $1.00 price offer and list of two hundred inventions wanted.

Wm. Baker's NEW TIN SHOP,
No. 25 West Third St., Hammonton.
Stove Pipe—all sizes, styles, quantities, at reasonable prices. Jobbing attended to promptly. Furnaces cleaned and repaired.

GOODMAN.

Great bargains in UNDERWEAR.

50 cent Gent's Shirts and Drawers, 39 cents.

Fleece-lined 75 c goods,
49 cents.

Ladies' Ribbed Shirts
and Drawers, 25 cents.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias, to me directed, issued out of the New Jersey Court of Chancery, will be sold at public vendue, on Friday, Nov. 13, 1896,

at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the hotel of Frederick K. Rocklin, in Hammonton, Atlantic County, New Jersey.

All that certain tract or lot of land and premises, situate in the town of Hammonton, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the intersection of the centers of Second Road and Eleventh Street; thence extending (1) along the center of said Eleventh Street northerly twenty-nine perches to a stake; thence (2) southeasterly on a line parallel with said Second Road sixty-four perches to Elder's land; thence (3) along said Elder's line southerly to Elder's corner in the line of the Weymouth survey; thence (4) along said Weymouth survey westerly forty perches to the center of Second Road aforesaid; thence (5) along the center of the same northerly thirty-seven and twelve hundredths perches to the line of a lot containing ten acres of land, be the same now or late, being the same premises that William Reiman and his wife, by deed dated the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1891, recorded in the Clerk's Office of Atlantic County in Book 154 of Deeds, folio 15 &c., and conveyed unto the said George W. Reiman in fee.

Reized as the property of George W. Reiman and wife and taken in execution at the suit of the Workingmen's Loan and Building Association, and to be sold by

EDWARD E. JOHNSON, Sheriff.

Dated Oct. 10, 1896.

THOMAS E. FRENCH, Collector.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

Pr's fee, $1.00.

PEIRCE.. 32nd SCHOOL YEAR.

A Representative American Business School for both sexes.

RECORD BUILDING,

917-919 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

THOMAS MAY PEIRCE, A. M., Ph. D.

Founder and Principal.

1865-1896.

A Systematic Business Training,
Coupled with a practical, sound and useful English Education.

Business, Shorthand and Typewriting, English.

The whole constituting an Ideal Combination.

Graduates cheerfully assisted to positions.

Visitors welcome especially during school hours,
day or evening sessions.
Call or write for school literature.

DAY SESSIONS: '96-'97 BEGIN MONDAY, AUGUST, 31, 1896.

NIGHT SESSIONS: MONDAY,
SEPT. 21, 1896.

SHOES.

Always a Good Stock

Only the Best!

Shoes made to Order is my Specialty, and full satisfaction is guaranteed.

Repairing done.

J. MURDOCK,
Bellevue Avenue,
Hammonton. : : N. J.

D. D. FEO STEAM

Manufacturer of the Finest

MACCARONI,

VERMICELLI,

And Fancy Paste,

And dealer in

Imported Groceries

Atlantic City R. R.

September 29, 1896.

DOWN TRAINS.

UP TRAINS.

STATIONS.
A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	A. M.</