W. C. T. U.

The ladies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

The W. C. T. U., in the name and strength of Jesus Christ, arrays itself against wickedness of every kind. It protests against the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, even at the dinner table, in the home, as well as in public. It pleads for the instruction of our youth in our public schools in regard to the ravages of alcohol on the physical system. It pleads for a holy keeping of the Lord's Day, and for a standard of purity for men and women alike; and then it goes forth with a Christian hand extended, in the name of Jesus, to every drunkard and every saloon keeper, and brewer, and distiller, who desires to turn from the evil of his ways and be saved from sin.

It seeks to lift up the fallen everywhere, and bring them to God through Jesus Christ.

Here's a calf story,—a true one. M. L. Jackson & Son have this summer and fall paid to one man from Shamong, $548.32 for calves, twenty-five of them, averaging $21.73 each, and aggregating 7762 pounds. Considerable veal.

Milton, son of Dr. J. A. Waas, broke one of the bones in his ankle, on Tuesday, while playing "pull-away," near the school house. He fell, with his leg doubled under. Dr. Crowell treated him, and he is doing well.

The streets were not lighted this week, because the foundations are being laid for the new mammoth engine and dynamo. Have patience; it will be all right in a few days, and they need the new machines in their business.

When you see a neighbor cleaning and reloading his gun, don't take it for granted that he is going out after rabbits next Monday. He may be after your cat, which has been swiping his young chickens.

SATURDAY, NOV. 8, 1902.

Still Republican.

Notwithstanding the apparent lack of interest in matters political, in Atlantic County, the election was held on Tuesday, with the usual result,—everything Republican.

In Hammonton there was a very light vote,—less than four hundred ballots being cast. The result was as follows:
For Congressman,—Gardner, R., 248; Cash, D, 66; Owen, P., 46.
For Assemblyman,—Elvins, 281; Hall, 58; Turner, 29.
For Sheriff,—Kirby, 262; Cope, 75; Risley, 32.
For Surrogate,—Shaner, 258; Voelker, 72; Monfort, 40.
For Coroner,—Benson, 206; Gar-ton, 130; Johnson 2.

The official returns were not made up in time for publication; but the figures received from all parts of the county indicate the following pluralities for Republican candidates:

For Gardner, 2903; Elvins, 4063; Kirby, 3441; Shaner, 3371; and Benson, 3300.

New Jersey has evidently elected nine Republican Congressmen, and one Democrat.

The result in other States was quite satisfactory to Republicans, though majorities were reduced in some of them. New England went solid for prosperity. New York elected a Republican Governor by a few thousand. Pennsylvania won in Pennsylvania by 140,000. Nearly every western State gave Republican majorities. Altogether, the next House of Representatives will have a fair Republican majority.

The Arbitration Commissioners appointed by the President have evidently determined to know all that can be learned of the conditions and circumstances surrounding the mines and miners in Pennsylvania. They have all entered seven of the coal mines, donning appropriate clothing and carrying miners' safety lamps where necessary, to see for themselves just how the work is done. They also inspected many washeries and other outside workings, visited miners' houses, and talked with their wives and children. They do not propose to take all their knowledge of the questions involved, second-hand.

So far, their every move indicates that Mr. Roosevelt knew his men, and made no mistake in their appointment. They have some of the most important questions to consider that have ever been placed before a human tribunal, and their decisions may have a lasting effect upon the lives of thousands of men and their families.

25 Cents will pay for a three months' trial subscription to the Republican. It has all the news. Send in your name now.

We printed another lot of those "No trespass" notices on Monday, sold forty-eight of them in less than that number of hours, and nearly two hundred this week. Plenty more for all customers to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Van Schoick desire to publicly thank pupils of the Central School, who contributed a beautiful floral offering on the occasion of the funeral of their son, Charles Van Schoick, to all who were kind to them during their time of trouble.

More than a score of the Shield of Honor awarded the Baptist Church last Sunday evening. At the close of the sermon, Pastor Loomis, in behalf of the Baraca Class, presented the Lodge with a handsome altar Bible, their's having been destroyed by the Jackson fire.

Thos. C. Elvins and family have moved into their own house. Mr. McAnney and family have taken the house thus vacated, at Bellevue Avenue and Liberty Street, vacating the Presbyterian parsonage, which will be occupied by Pastor Thurlow and family as soon as improvements are completed.

Good progress is being made on the big stand-pipe. Wednesday, they were riveting the third five-foot section, of which there will be twenty-three. Water will be pumped in, to raise the platform upon which the men stand while working. The riveting is done by a small machine which is operated by compressed air. There is always a group of interested spectators about.

The regular meeting of the Lyceum will be held in Freeman's Hall on Monday evening next, 10th inst. The question for debate will be, "Resolved, That Bonaparte was a greater man than Washington." The Home News, of Bryn Mawr, says: "Charles J. Herbert, foreman in charge of the building of Gen. John R. Brooke's handsome residence at Rosemont, is pushing the work rapidly to completion, and he stated that the General would be able to move into his new home by the middle of November. The house is built on a tract of land formerly a portion of the Ashbridge estate. It is very handsomely finished throughout, and has cost upwards of $10,000."

Olydie Little, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Malt Little, died on Saturday morning last, aged seven years. He had been suffering with a cold since the previous Monday, but did not show serious symptoms until Wednesday evening, after which double pneumonia developed, and notwithstanding every effort was made for his relief, he died at noon. Funeral services were held at the home on Monday afternoon, largely attended, conducted by Pastor H. Marshall Thurlow.

In our record of Council proceedings, published last week, we mention the bill for street lights, $160. Of course, deductions were made for nights when lights were not burning. Forty dollars were taken from this bill, giving the Company but $120 for the month of October.

The "Passion Play of Oberammergau," one of the most notable plays ever presented, will be given in Union Hall on Monday and Wednesday evenings of next week, Nov. 10 and 12, by means of the Edison Stereo-Projecting Kinetoscope. It shows in moving pictures the various scenes and incidents in the life of Our Lord Jesus Christ, from his birth to the ascension. Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents; reserved seat tickets, 35 cents, for sale at Leib's drug store. This is given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church.

The usual mischievous fun was indulged in last Friday night (Hallowe'en). The boys pulled up Gillingham's barber pole and tossed it over a fence, wrecking a bicycle. Various carriages and wagons were transported to strange quarters. A great bear sign from somewhere adorned C. M. Crowell's soft drink factory. Numerous gates were unhooked and deposited where they were not needed; and some of them remain still hidden. The Sunday School teachers were in session in the M. E. Church, and found the doors tied outside. The school bell rang out of hours—up to midnight. However, we have heard of no serious damage done; but we would like to know where our gates are!

A notable event in religious circles will be the great Convention of Sunday School workers, to be held by the New Jersey Sunday School Association, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Trenton, on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 20th and 21st. The program is being sent by the General secretary, Rev. E. M. Ferris, to every pastor and superintendent in the state. Plans are being made to receive one thousand delegates. In addition to the main convention, several special meetings of great interest will be held,—notably the "Superintendent's annual banquet on Monday night, Nov. 18th, and the Primary and Junior Institute, beginning Wednesday afternoon.

ELWOOD NOTES.

Messrs. Rupp & Sawyer are successfully operating their brick plant, and have sent away several car-loads of bricks. This is their first shipment, and we hope that the business will prove profitable, for they are both deserving young men.

Miss Jennie Smith has been visiting friends in Cross Keys and Millville. She returned on Thursday.

The Post-office is being treated to a coat of paint, which will greatly improve the looks of the building.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Maurer, on Wednesday afternoon.

Who said that the Prohibition party stood no chance? Why, in Mullica Township the Democratic party had only four more votes than the Prohibition party. In this place there were eight or ten more votes for prohibition than there were last year. Not much of an increase, to be sure, but every little counts.

Mr. James Watson and Miss Reba Stone were the delegates chosen to represent the Presbyterian Sunday School at the Convention, on Friday.

Basket-Ball.

The Shield of Honor defeated the Atlantic City team on last Saturday evening, in the opening game of the South Jersey League, by the score of 28 to 11. It was the first game for the championship of South Jersey. The home boys outplayed their opponents at every point.

The same teams will play a return game in Atlantic City to-night. May our team come home victorious.

On Wednesday evening last, the S. of H. Reserves defeated the H. G. W. by a score of 29 to 13. The Reserves are composed of good players, and give promise of making a very strong team.

Egg Harbor and Pleasantville will play a championship game to-night, in Jackson's Hall, Hammonton. A good game is looked for, as both these teams are fighting for the honors and the silver cup of the South Jersey League. Everybody come, and have a chance to shout. Admission same as usual, and give a dance after the game. Doric Lodge has bought a new piano. Come early and secure your seats, as a very large attendance is expected.
