

AMERICAN

HAMMONTON, N. J. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10 1866. 200 PER YEAR

What is the cause of the...
The purpose of developing and gaining...
The great Johnstons, at Washington, in...
He must have a book in his nose.

THE BATTLE-FIELD.
The black and red of the...
A column afloat in the field thus opened...
Under the sub kingdom radiata, the lowest...
The Hydras Secession, which swam in...
The Hydras Secession, which swam in...

MINCELLANEOUS.
Alured's An Allegory.
BY FRANCIS POWER COBBE.
Under the shadow of grand old trees, in...
I labor this monotony of height and size...
And the lady answered, and said:
"O, lady, I am not worthy to be near..."

INTERESTING STATISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES.
The following interesting item was prepared in the United States...
The land and water surfaces of the United States are equal to 3,250,000 square miles...
The population of the United States in 1860 was 31,423,321...

THE LORD'S DAY.—Gail Hamilton, in her book entitled "Summer Recs," thus eloquently apostrophizes the Lord's Day:
"So long as the stable earth bosoms under the tread of human foot, let human hearts celebrate this august day with glad and joyous..."

THE EDITOR OF AN EASTERN PAPER...
A merchant having advertised his stock to be sold under private sale, a neighbor observed that it was impossible as he had never paid a cent for it himself.
One of the old wives, in alluding to ineffectiveness, says it is as useless to visit your relatives and friends with your eyes as it is to intrude upon his apartments with your feet.

What is the cause of the...
The purpose of developing and gaining...
The great Johnstons, at Washington, in...
He must have a book in his nose.

THE BATTLE-FIELD.
The black and red of the...
A column afloat in the field thus opened...
Under the sub kingdom radiata, the lowest...
The Hydras Secession, which swam in...
The Hydras Secession, which swam in...

MINCELLANEOUS.
Alured's An Allegory.
BY FRANCIS POWER COBBE.
Under the shadow of grand old trees, in...
I labor this monotony of height and size...
And the lady answered, and said:
"O, lady, I am not worthy to be near..."

INTERESTING STATISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES.
The following interesting item was prepared in the United States...
The land and water surfaces of the United States are equal to 3,250,000 square miles...
The population of the United States in 1860 was 31,423,321...

THE LORD'S DAY.—Gail Hamilton, in her book entitled "Summer Recs," thus eloquently apostrophizes the Lord's Day:
"So long as the stable earth bosoms under the tread of human foot, let human hearts celebrate this august day with glad and joyous..."

THE EDITOR OF AN EASTERN PAPER...
A merchant having advertised his stock to be sold under private sale, a neighbor observed that it was impossible as he had never paid a cent for it himself.
One of the old wives, in alluding to ineffectiveness, says it is as useless to visit your relatives and friends with your eyes as it is to intrude upon his apartments with your feet.

What is the cause of the...
The purpose of developing and gaining...
The great Johnstons, at Washington, in...
He must have a book in his nose.

THE BATTLE-FIELD.
The black and red of the...
A column afloat in the field thus opened...
Under the sub kingdom radiata, the lowest...
The Hydras Secession, which swam in...
The Hydras Secession, which swam in...

MINCELLANEOUS.
Alured's An Allegory.
BY FRANCIS POWER COBBE.
Under the shadow of grand old trees, in...
I labor this monotony of height and size...
And the lady answered, and said:
"O, lady, I am not worthy to be near..."

INTERESTING STATISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES.
The following interesting item was prepared in the United States...
The land and water surfaces of the United States are equal to 3,250,000 square miles...
The population of the United States in 1860 was 31,423,321...

THE LORD'S DAY.—Gail Hamilton, in her book entitled "Summer Recs," thus eloquently apostrophizes the Lord's Day:
"So long as the stable earth bosoms under the tread of human foot, let human hearts celebrate this august day with glad and joyous..."

THE EDITOR OF AN EASTERN PAPER...
A merchant having advertised his stock to be sold under private sale, a neighbor observed that it was impossible as he had never paid a cent for it himself.
One of the old wives, in alluding to ineffectiveness, says it is as useless to visit your relatives and friends with your eyes as it is to intrude upon his apartments with your feet.

