Vol. 53

HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1915

No. 46

Harry Thomas was one of this week's visitors.
Living Post Cards at the Fair, Nov. 18th to 20th.

A little flurry of snow fell on Thursday,—the first of the season.

A good wholesome supper will be served each evening, at Civic Club Fair.

Mrs. J. C. Boden, of Philada., is visiting her friend, Mrs. D. W. C. Russell.

The kiddies have two pretty tableaux at the Civic Club Fair, Nov. 18, 19, 20.

Mrs. E. McClelland expects to soon join her daughter, who lives in Harrisburg, Pa.

Hammonton Grange meets next Friday evening, the 19th. There will be election of officers.

The Junior Band of Girl Pioneers enjoyed a belated Halloween party last Friday afternoon.

Picture postals were received from Alex. Rodio, now a U.S. Cavalryman, stationed in Texas.

Volunteer Fire Company meets next Monday evening. Dues and fines will be payable at this time.

There will be a Christian Science service held in Civic Club House every Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock.

All departments of the Presbyterian Church will unite, tomorrow evening, in an unique temperance service.

An auction sale of household goods will be held on the William Cunningham property, on Railroad Ave., next Saturday, 20th.

Presbyterian ladies continue their sale to-day, in Civic Club Hall. This evening, from five to eight, they will give a baked bean supper.

Sale of reserved seats for Lyceum Course to-night, at eight o'clock, in Bellevue Hall. Those who want a choice of seats will have to get in line.

The Senior Pioneers had a sweet time at their meeting, last week Friday evening, when the Bob Whites treated the Bobolinks to a candy-pull.

Word was received here that Mr. Brunt, lately a resident on Maple Street, died on Sunday, at his home in Collingswood. He, with his family, had many friends here.

Responding to many requests, another personally conducted tour Round the World may shortly be given by the famous tourist agency connected with Presbyterian Ch.

Norwood Rehnmann, son of the late Dan'l C. Rehnman, and brother to Miss Olive, is visiting relatives here. He is doing well, on a large farm near Coatsville, Pa., and likes that kind of life.

Miss Helen Bernushouse, one of Hammonton's most highly esteemed young ladies, and Mr. Charles A. Smith, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage at six o'clock last Saturday evening, in the M.E. Church, by Pastor Everett van Dright. Miss Ethel, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Wm. R. Smith, groom's brother, acted as best man. The ushers, with one exception, were brothers of the groom. A reception at the home of the bride's parents, followed the ceremony, after which the young couple left for their new home in West Philadelphia. A trip to Delaware Water Gap will add to the joy of the occasion. All Hammonton wish them much happiness.

George S. Turner died on Monday last, Nov. 8, 1915, at his home in Hammonton, aged 68 years. He had not been well for some months; but, with his wife, went for a long-planned visit to their old home. While at Kalamazoo, Mich., he was taken so much worse that his son, Wilson S., went out and bro't him home, arriving last Saturday morning. Despite all that loving care and medical aid could do, he passed away. For some years a resident here, and long manager of the brick plant at Winslow, he was well known here. Funeral services were held at the house on Thursday afternoon, conducted by Masonic Lodge; burial at Greenmount. Our sympathies are with the bereaved wife and son.

It is quite possible that the local Churches will engage Dr. Tucker, late of Los Angeles, to conduct a Bible reading class in Hammonton, and perhaps wind up with evangelistic services.

The M. E. Church will celebrate its fifty-sixth anniversary with ten days of special services, which began Nov. 11th, to continue each evening until Sunday eve'g, 21st. Among those who will preach are Revs. H. J. Zelle, F. L. Jewett, J. E. Shaw, H. G. Bernard, W. L. Shaw, Newton Nelson, and F. A. DeMaris.

LYCEUM FIRST NUMBER

The Royal Male Quartet, which will appear at Bellevue Hall next Wednesday evening, Nov. 17th, is an exceptionally strong organization,—one of the very best in the Lyceum. It is an excellent singing quartette of blending voices, with great instrumental possibilities. The programme consists of such variety and richness of material that they give real delight and genuine satisfaction. Their vocal work is exceptional, which is rare in such a varied combination.

while their orchestra work is capable of running the gamut from popular to classical.

Willard F. Lippincott, of Mount Holly, N. M., writing of their appearance at that place, says: "The Royal Quartette gave us a most pleasing entertainment. The church was well filled, and the Royals were applauded from start to finish. If they ever return they will be greeted by a large audience." The Royals have been re-engaged for the Mt. Holly course.

Rev. A. A. McKay, chairman of the Oceanic, N. J., course, reports: "A better evening we have never had,—everybody delighted."
The sale of reserved seats will be held this (Saturday) evening, at eight o'clock, in Bellevue Hall.

There should be an inspector of meats in Hammoncton, to see that no hogs are brought into Town and slaughtered without first having been examined by an expert. The Board of Health had a case brought to their attention, and on the advice of the State, prosecution business was started on Tuesday evening. The selling of a 300-pound hog to A. Tusso, on Third Street (not Kusso Bros.), for fifteen dollars excited suspicion, and an investigation followed.

One of our readers, in commenting upon a recent large congregation in one of the churches, remarked, "The organization attended in a body." Then, as an afterthought, added, "I wonder if it wouldn't be a good idea if the Church members would attend in a body!" This remark was prompted by the thought of all-too-many people who prefer to stay at home, or to take an automobile ride, rather than to attend divine worship.

In a circular issued by the government, it is suggested that it would be easy and facilitate work in the Post Office if people generally would adopt the following: Separate local and out-going letters; separate local and short envelopes; post letters as early in the day as possible; call for mail as early as possible, to relieve congested traffic; address letters and parcels plainly; mail holiday cards and parcels early.

There should be some provision in law whereby a gunner could be summoned, and his license withdrawn on proof of his reckless shooting and utter disregard of property rights or human life. Many complaints have come to us of such menaces,—one of the latest being that parties were on Wednesday shooting rabbits and squirrels within a few rods of Central School grounds.

The only "graft" or salary that the Lyceum Association officers get out of the course is the privilege of being assessed five dollars per head, in addition to the price of their tickets and reserved seats, with which to pay off the balance of the bills. It isn't fair; and we believe that our entertainment-loving people will not compel them to cough up again to make up deficiencies.

Got your turkey picked out yet? Nov. 25th will be here soon.

Doubtless there are many who will not be able to stand (or sit) in line at Bellevue Hall to-day, and wait for the hour of selling reserved seats. To those we would say, "Better late than never." Get there at eight o'clock, or soon after, in the evening, and you will run a fair chance of securing desirable seats. This has been the case nearly every year.

Next year will be leap year, girls. Step up, you who have waited in vain for him to pop the important question.

Be it known, that the Civic Club ladies are selling Lyceum tickets without compensation,—out of their goodness of heart they realized that thus they will help on in the effort to benefit Hammoncton.

The Coming Poultry Show.

The fifth annual show of the Poultry Raisers' Association of Hammoncton will be held Dec. 9 and 10, in Bellevue Hall. This promises to be the greatest show ever held by the association.

Louis G. Heller, a licensed judge from Bridgeton, will place awards
of hundreds of dollars in cash prizes,
silver cups, poultry appliances,
and ribbons, will be given.

A display of these prizes will be made the week prior to the show, in one of the large show windows of Bank Brothers' store.

Among the attractions of the forthcoming show will be a parade of fowls that will feed themselves by means of automatic feed hoppers, a system that will especially appeal to persons who keep a few fowls, and have little spare time to attend to them.

The State Agricultural College
will have charts on exhibition, giving instructions to beginners.

It is hoped that certain enthusiasts will select their best birds and exhibit them. A 32-page catalogue is being printed, which fully describes the cash and other premiums, and names the persons who donated them.

Local poultrymen who wish to enter their fowls should consult with the Secretary, M. K. Boyer, at once.

Ask about the Republican's offer.

Woman's Section Navy League.

A Woman's Section has been organized in Hammonton, with the following officers:
President, Mrs. Thos. Creamer
Vice-President, Miss Anna W. Brewster
Secretary, Mrs. Hugo Kind
Treasurer, Mrs. John Moore
Membership Committee, Mrs. Charles Layer

Charles Petrecca was one of a party of hunters, on Wednesday. When near Main Road and Fairview, in some unexplained manner, he was shot in the leg by someone, whose identity does not seem to be known. He was treated, and then hurried off to the hospital. It was feared that the leg would have to be amputated. Charles was one of the popular High School football players.

Local telephone users should observe the rule, "Calls are limited to five minutes." This rule is in the interest of all the consumers. Those who hold the line, or usually two lines, over time, are inconveniencing many others who have equal rights. Do not abuse the operator if she cuts such off in the discharge of her duty.

We desire to express our appreciation of the many kind deeds and words during our great trouble—the loss of a dear husband and son; and especially to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church.
SARAH RANDLETT.
J. D. RANDLETT.

F. Campanella (better known as Shorty) was out after rabbits on Wednesday. On his return, while doing something with his gun, it was discharged, the load entering his wife's arm. It was a very bad wound, and she was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

We wish to thank our many kind friends; also the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star, who extended their sympathy during our recent bereavement.

MRS. GEO. S. TURNER
WILSON S. TURNER.

Members of the family, with others, have identified the skeleton found near Weymouth as remains of a brother-in-law of D. W. C. Russell, of this place, who disappeared two years ago.

They had quite a time at the school house, the other day, raising the balyards to the top of the pole.

Un-Claimed Letters.

The following letters remained unclaimed for in the Hammonton Post Office on Wednesday, Nov. 10, 1915:

John Bernhardt, Maine Villa
Mrs. D. H. Watson
Forester, Mrs. Oulicco Spinnelle
Persons calling for any of the above will please state that it has been advertised.
LOUIS J. LANGHAM, P. M.

JUDGE A TREE BY ITS FRUITS

Old is the olive tree, and great its value to the human race. Man's appreciation of it has been earnest and loud from Biblical times down to the poets of the present day.

The softness of its mantle, silver gray and tender like the down of a bird's breast, tells the undulation of mountains and clothing hill and plain calls to mind the Scriptural reference to its emblematic strength and prosperity.

Its unsurpassed usefulness and its longevity stand as a symbol of long-enjoyed peaceful wealth.

It gives ornament to the earth, it gives wood of the most valuable, but its goodly fruit and the oil which is pressed from it rank among the highest of nature's gifts.

And the olive tree is well loved by men, who even in the oldest times associated it with the best things of the world, and, especially in Italy, they cherishingly cultivate and protect it, using abundantly for pleasure and wealth its most precious gift, oil, which represents the very purpose of its life.

In the Italian Riviera, where olives are richest, there are unsurpassed masters of the art of pressing and packing olive oil.
