(Entered as second class matter.)
HAMMONTON ATLANTIC CO., N. J.
SATURDAY, NOV. 16, 1890.

Prof. W. B. Matthews has been very sick this week, unable to attend to his duties as Principal of the school. Miss Alden took charge of the higher department, her station being filled by Miss Hattie Smith. Mr. M. was recovering, at last report.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Mark's Church will give their next social for the benefit of the Church, at the house of Judge Byrne, next Wednesday evening, Nov. 20th. A repetition of the good time of last year is expected. All are invited.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in Sons of Temperance Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 19th, at three o'clock. Dr. O. B. Bird will give a talk on "Alcohol as Food and Medicine." All persons interested are cordially invited. Come, and bring a friend with you.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Post Office at Hammonton, N. J., Saturday, Nov. 16th, 1890:
Miss Mary Gervay,
Miss Lewis F. Taitel,
Miss Philip J. Potter.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

CHRIS F. OSGOOD, P. M.
THE FAMILY EDUCATOR.—Webster's Unabridged Dictionary is a great educator, and no family of children ought to be brought up without having ready access to this grand volume. It will answer hundreds of questions of each wide-awake child. It is an ever-present and reliable schoolmaster to the whole family.

"Hal Hazard, or the Federal Spy," is a new American play by the author of "Tip Van Winkle." It is full of interest, especially to those who took part in the war for the Union. This play will be produced by all home talent, with Mr. David Cunningham in the title role, on Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 28th and 29th.

Mr. Anson Green received a letter the other day, from a relative in California, announcing the departure from that place of two sons of the King of the Sandwich Islands, who are on their way to Europe to be educated. The letter stated that the princes would spend a few days in Philadelphia, and probably visit Mr. Green and family.

The Board of Freeholders met on Wednesday. Members reported the receipt of notices from the Supreme Court to appear and show why a mandamus should not be issued to compel Atlantic County to join Burlington in building a bridge at Chestnut Neck. Referred to the solicitor. Notice was also given that the patent ballot-box controversy would be heard at the December term of Court in Essex County.

Bear in mind that the annual commencement of Atlantic County public schools will be held on Friday next, in Red Bank Hall, Pleasantville. If seventy adults from Hammonton attend the commencement, the Reading Road will run a special train up that evening. We suggest that all who intend to go, should give their names to Prof. W. B. Matthews, or to the County Superintendent, that the train may be secured.

The other evening, the ladies of the Iron Hall were invited to attend a sage-chess social at Mrs. M. L. Jackson's. At the close of a very pleasant evening, sage-chess, croquet, coffee, cake, and fruit were served. This is the fourth entertainment Friend Jackson has given the ladies, and they appreciate her kindness. The Branch is nearing the close of its second year, and has paid $385 in sick benefits.

E. L. WHITMORE, Accountant.
A two cent stamp sent to L. W. Noyes, Chicago, will bring you a package of fine quality buttons. One showing a cunning little cupid dressed only in a traveling cap and grip, is represented as saying: "I am a runner for La Verne W. Noyes, the well-known maker of Dictionary holders, and am here to point out a fact that a book held with the edge up will become filled with dust, soiled and spoiled, unless hugged with strong springs. The Noyes holders are the only ones thus closely clasping the book. About 125,000 are now in use, and the later makes are so greatly improved—indeed are so perfect that Mr. Noyes is said because nothing more is desired or can be done in this direction."

Election News

Have now lost much of their interest; again we turn to matters pertaining to our comfort and convenience,—in fact, our necessities.

Determined to suit our customers, we have placed on our floors a splendid line of STOVES, which, for beauty, quality, convenience, and price, will be hard, if indeed possible, to excel. Every one admires them; a good many are buying them; and others, who have bought elsewhere, say they made a mistake in so doing. Here is what one party said: I went to the city and bought my Fire-Light, because I thought I could no better there. When I had it at home and set up, it had actually cost me more than the price you asked for the same thing up. This is what another did: Looked our stores over in the morning, went to Philadelphia, same day, came to us the next day and bought a stove.

"Draws show which way the wind blows," so get a straw, hold it in the stove trade-wind, and it is pretty sure to point to our stock as the place to buy. Every stove is marked with a tag, giving the name and price. You may see the tags below, but we think you would do well to see the stoves also. The long line is being broken every day, as you will see by the tags marked sold, and to secure your choice, better come soon.

WEBSTER
THE BEST INVESTMENT
For the Family, School, or Professional Library.

Has been for years Standard Authority in the Government Printing Office and U. S. Supreme Court.
It is highly recommended by 35 State Superintendents and the leading College Presidents. Nearly all the School Books published in this country are based upon Webster, as attested by the leading School Book Publishers.
3000 more Words and nearly 2000 more Engravings than any other American Dictionary.

SPECIMEN TESTIMONIALS.
The New York World says: Webster is at present universally acknowledged to be the best.
The Boston Globe says: Webster is the most acknowledged standard in lexicography.
The Atlanta Constitution says: Webster has long been the standard authority in our office.
The Chicago Inter Ocean says: Webster's Unabridged Glossary is the standard.
The New Orleans Times Democrat says: Webster is standard authority in our office.
The New York Tribune says: This is recognized as the most useful existing "word-book" of the English language all over the world.
Sold by all Bookellers. Pamphlet free. S. E. BROWN & CO., Publishers, Springfield, Mass.

The Verdict Unanimous.
W. B. Salt, druggist, Bippus, Ind., writes: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of six years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, writes: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in 20 years' experience is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys, or blood. Only a half-dollar a bottle at Codman's drug store."

The Sheriff adjourned his sale of the Henry E. Thayer property until this afternoon, at two o'clock.
The social at Rosedale chapel, Tuesday eve, was well attended and the receipts were very satisfactory.
Hammonton, with two competing railroads, and another on her border, is just the place for more manufactures.
The famous Bearded Christenthum, Mrs. Alphaus Hardy, will be on exhibition at Bassetts, next week.
Ground has been broken for a new house on Grape Street, near Second, for Miss Bodine, the music teacher.
Mr. F. A. Mortimer, lawyer and poultry-fancier, of Pottsville, Pa., was a welcome guest in Hammonton, this week.
Mr. Frank Huster, of Philadelphia, succeeds to the management of the barber-shop so long owned by Mr. Haney.
Mr. D. C. Potter, of Pleasantville, is building a large addition to his store and dwelling,—an indication of prosperity.
Mr. J. D. Fairchild has the foundation ready and lumber on the ground for a new house, on the south side of Egg Harbor Road.
Lumber was placed, yesterday, for improvements on the building occupied by Butler the barber. Painting is also on the program.
Grand Army Post-meeting this evening. A large number is requested to be present, as there is business that requires immediate attention.
George M. Strong, senior member of the firm of Strong and Green, Philadelphia, well known here, died in Colorado, this week, of consumption.
Insurance, viz: fire, tornado, life and accident; also, real estate. Wm. HUTCHINSON, Hammonton.

The coming Grand Army Fair will be the biggest thing of its kind seen in Hammonton. The ladies have it in tow.
The World's Fair, if held in New York in 1892 (and it probably will be), can be made to impart a big boom to Hammonton.
Were it not for our sleeping Board of Trade, we would second the Mirror's motion to organize a Village Improvement Society. The town needs it.
Dr. Bowles showed us a postal card, written by his eldest son, in Dubuque, Iowa, which contains over six hundred words. Pretty fine work.
Mrs. Fanny Gage and son, of Los Angeles, California, are visiting at Mr. Wm. Sturtevant's. Mrs. Gage is a niece of Mrs. Sturtevant and Mr. J. C. Gage.

Members of Hammonton Loan and Building Association are requested to leave their books with the Secretary, for the annual examination by the auditing committee.
We have a communication from a Republican in Iowa, which is lively reading, which we may publish next week, though the writer takes strong grounds against prohibition.
A few more good cross-walks wouldn't come amiss. We see the need of them when people have to pick their way through the mud, or walk a square out of their way to a crossing.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Haney left Hammonton on Tuesday, for their new home at Talmage, N. J. They have resided here a number of years, and carry with them the best wishes of the entire community.
The Glee Club are arranging for two choice lectures during the coming winter,—the first by the renowned Col. Sanford, Dec. 7th; the second by Col. Copeland, whom we all know so well, Feb. 14th. Particulars later.
Our Methodist friends are again agitating the question of moving their house of worship down town. There is strong opposition, but the movers seem to be in the majority. We understand that the matter will be decided this evening.
The Presbyterians of Hammonton observed the week of "Simultaneous Missionary Meetings," with interest and profit. Sunday morning, Nov. 3rd, the theme was "The Lord's Last Command," and the endeavor was to show the Church's obligation to missionary effort. The evening service was a missionary concert exercise, in which the children took part, and which was enjoyed by all. Thursday evening was held a service of prayer and conference on the general subject of missions.
Rev. Lyman R. Swift, who filled the Baptist pulpit so acceptably last Sunday, is engaged for to-morrow, and perhaps for a special meeting during the week. Mr. S. is an ordained minister, has chosen to labor as an evangelist, but is now pursuing special branches of study at Bridgeton.—He is a man of uncommon ability, and makes his services intensely interesting. Military tactics and discipline being a compulsory part of the Institute course, Mr. Swift wears the uniform of a private soldier, and is not a member of the Salvation Army, as some people supposed and reported.
One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last Tuesday, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Jacobs, the contracting parties being their daughter Miss Marienne V. Jacobs, and J. Frank Scullin. The ceremony took place in the afternoon, and amid beautiful flowers and music, in the presence of the members of both families and the bride's dearest friends, Rev. Mr. Lawrence, pastor of the M. E. Church, pronounced them man and wife. The presents were numerous and beautiful. After the congratulations of friends and a bounteous repast, Mr. and Mrs. Scullin started for New York on a wedding tour. If the good wishes of their friends can be realized, their wedded life will be as beautiful and serene as their wedding day.

The Glee Club are arranging for two choice lectures during the coming winter,—the first by the renowned Col. Sanford, Dec. 7th; the second by Col. Copeland, whom we all know so well, Feb. 14th. Particulars later.
Our Methodist friends are again agitating the question of moving their house of worship down town. There is strong opposition, but the movers seem to be in the majority. We understand that the matter will be decided this evening.
The Presbyterians of Hammonton observed the week of "Simultaneous Missionary Meetings," with interest and profit. Sunday morning, Nov. 3rd, the theme was "The Lord's Last Command," and the endeavor was to show the Church's obligation to missionary effort. The evening service was a missionary concert exercise, in which the children took part, and which was enjoyed by all. Thursday evening was held a service of prayer and conference on the general subject of missions.
Rev. Lyman R. Swift, who filled the Baptist pulpit so acceptably last Sunday, is engaged for to-morrow, and perhaps for a special meeting during the week. Mr. S. is an ordained minister, has chosen to labor as an evangelist, but is now pursuing special branches of study at Bridgeton.—He is a man of uncommon ability, and makes his services intensely interesting. Military tactics and discipline being a compulsory part of the Institute course, Mr. Swift wears the uniform of a private soldier, and is not a member of the Salvation Army, as some people supposed and reported.
One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last Tuesday, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Jacobs, the contracting parties being their daughter Miss Marienne V. Jacobs, and J. Frank Scullin. The ceremony took place in the afternoon, and amid beautiful flowers and music, in the presence of the members of both families and the bride's dearest friends, Rev. Mr. Lawrence, pastor of the M. E. Church, pronounced them man and wife. The presents were numerous and beautiful. After the congratulations of friends and a bounteous repast, Mr. and Mrs. Scullin started for New York on a wedding tour. If the good wishes of their friends can be realized, their wedded life will be as beautiful and serene as their wedding day.
Insurance, viz: fire, tornado, life and accident; also, real estate. Wm. HUTCHINSON, Hammonton.

The coming Grand Army Fair will be the biggest thing of its kind seen in Hammonton. The ladies have it in tow.
The World's Fair, if held in New York in 1892 (and it probably will be), can be made to impart a big boom to Hammonton.
Were it not for our sleeping Board of Trade, we would second the Mirror's motion to organize a Village Improvement Society. The town needs it.
Dr. Bowles showed us a postal card, written by his eldest son, in Dubuque, Iowa, which contains over six hundred words. Pretty fine work.
Mrs. Fanny Gage and son, of Los Angeles, California, are visiting at Mr. Wm. Sturtevant's. Mrs. Gage is a niece of Mrs. Sturtevant and Mr. J. C. Gage.
Quarterly Meeting in the M. E. Church next Sunday. Preaching in the morning at 10:30 by the Presiding Elder, Rev. M. Relyea. Love-feast at 9:30 A. M.
St. Mark's Church, Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity, Nov. 17th. Holy Communion, 7:30 A. M. Evening Prayer and Sermon, 4:00 P. M. Sunday School at 3:00.
Members of Hammonton Loan and Building Association are requested to leave their books with the Secretary, for the annual examination by the auditing committee.
We have a communication from a Republican in Iowa, which is lively reading, which we may publish next week, though the writer takes strong grounds against prohibition.
A few more good cross-walks wouldn't come amiss. We see the need of them when people have to pick their way through the mud, or walk a square out of their way to a crossing.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Haney left Hammonton on Tuesday, for their new home at Talmage, N. J. They have resided here a number of years, and carry with them the best wishes of the entire community.

"Strong Minded" Women

Just where the weak mind stops and the strong minded begins is hard to say. The boundary is vague, it is crossed so unconsciously and so unpremeditatedly, that some do not even know when they have crossed it, until some morning they wake up and find the epithet

It is strange that such an epithet be used as a term of reproach applied to a woman, for surely "weak minded" would also be an unfit prefix.

No sensible woman would call "weak minded" and "weak desires" to be called
