AN ADDRESS.

From the State Republican League of New Jersey.

TO REPUBLICANS:

The results of the election in New Jersey on Nov. 7th are most gratifying. It is a triumph of law and order over vice and immorality. Every good citizen of the State rejoices and confidently looks forward to see the pledges made by the Republican party crystallize into legislation.

They must not be disappointed.

Great responsibilities have been placed upon us; League clubs must take hold of this new work and assist the regular party organization, in the repeal of the vicious legislation under which the people of the State are suffering. If hungry partisanship is exhibited, and persistent demand made for the official positions created by the Democrats for their henchmen, our lease of power will be short. Self-restraint and self-sacrifice are needed. Every useless office must be abolished.

The watch-word of the party in its legislation during the coming session ought to be REPEAL. First and foremost of all, and on the very day of organization, the race-track acts should be repealed by both Houses and sent to the Governor for his signature. Be wise and patriotic. Remember we now have with us the intelligent, independent voters of the State; they will condemn us also if we show ourselves no more worthy of the trust than the party that has just been hurled from power. As rapidly as possible, bills ought to be introduced repealing each and every one of the partisan acts condemned by the people, including the Boards of Public Works, Police Boards, Police Justices, Election of Freeholders from gerrymandered Assembly Districts, the State Police, and all the rest of that brood, to make a list of which would be to repeal almost by title, every Act of the Legislature for the last three or four sessions.

Salaries must be reduced; all new and useless officers abolished; and the newspapers once more free from partisan control.

The new schemes of taxation so cunningly devised to provide funds to pay the great hordes of useless officials, must be made to contribute to the relief of the people from the burden of local taxation and used either for the support of the schools, the building of roads, or other public enterprises. The law authorizing the Governor to draw upon the Treasury for such purposes as he sees fit without an appropriation bill, must be abolished.

The partisan boards under which the expenses of our State institutions have been swelled hundreds of thousands of dollars annually are to be abolished and the non-partisan boards re-established.

The purity of the ballot must be preserved; the sunset law re-enacted; registration laws provided to prevent repeating, and the ballot law amended so as to make it a more perfect protection to the right of suffrage.

These are but a few of the many things which must be done to redeem our pledges, and restore to the people of the State the good government they once enjoyed.

Above all, our Public School system must be maintained in all its integrity, and the outrageous act of the Democratic Legislature in diverting a portion of the school funds to the ordinary expenses of the State government, be at the earliest moment repealed.

Local self-government must be restored and the appointing power of the Governor restricted to the appointment of the officers named in the Constitution. All other officers should be elected in joint meeting or by the people.

JOSEPH H. GASKILL, Pres.
JOSHUA MATLACK, JR., Sec'y.

A fellow who tried to sing bass
Made up such a terrible fuss
That the rest of the choir
Rose up in their choir
And fired him out of the place.

If we are going to have free-trade we must have cheap labor. Mr. Cleveland has penetration enough to understand this, hence his indisposition to have the Geary law enforced.

THE CHRIST-LOVE.

There is a love more precious far
Than sensual loves, flower-deck'd that bar
The soul's swift flight from star to star—

From star to star of glory won
O'er self and sin, in each act done
By grace of God's most blessed Son.

O, Love divine! It is a light
That doth illumine our upward flight
Through these illusive ways of night.

And by this love mankind shall rise
To fairer heights, "neath calmer skies,
The world's dim-visited paradise.

W. H. HOPPING.

The "American Protective Association," a non-political party, numbers fully 30,000 in Buffalo, N. Y., and 60,000 in Pittsburgh. They are pledged to vote for no Roman Catholic for any office. The society is very strong in the West, and was prompted by efforts to Romanize the public schools.

"Hats off to New Jersey," said Mr. Cleveland one year ago. So said the people last week.

Never differ with a woman except when she says something mean about herself.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Cochran, druggist.
