SUNDAY SALOONS.

Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, of New York, favors Sunday saloons.

"Yes," he said, "I am for Sunday opening of the saloons. I should bar whiskey and liquors, but let the people have beer and light wines. People cannot have draught beer on tap in their houses. I consider the Germans as a most valuable part of our population. Once we can convince them that we are for their ideas regarding Sunday beer, and we will have them with us in our fight against indecency. I, for one, want to convince them that we mean to look to their welfare and comfort."

"I am for Sunday opening of the saloons during certain hours, because the Germans regard this as their inalienable right, and I regard them as one of the most valuable factors in our population. I look upon the German idea of a beer garden as one of the most beautiful examples of domesticity in the world. I have been in them on every day in the week, and I know about them."

It is very evident that a minister who can compromise with sin, and shake hands with Satan, has missed his vocation, and will do very little toward Christianizing the world.

A Communication.

Mr. Emerson:—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at night. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely cured me.—W. B. Brockman, Bagnall, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Crowell,

FIRE!

Again the fire bell sent forth its signal, about 3:40 on last Thursday morning. M. L. Jackson's building was discovered to be on fire by Mrs. J. C. Anderson, whose residence is in a direct line from Jackson's corner. She and her daughters gave the alarm, and Night Marshal Bob Miller rang the bell.

Firemen were prompt in responding, considering the hour, but the flames were pouring from the second story windows at the south corner of Jackson's fine brick building, and rapidly spread to the first story (the engine room) where lard, and fats, and oil fed the fire until that whole corner was a seething furnace, and intensely hot. There seemed little hope, but the firemen and citizens battled bravely, and with chemicals and water had the fire under control about five o'clock.

It was a close call for the meat market and for the Post-office, also. In the latter, the damage by smoke and water is considerable. Floor, walls, shelves, boxes, letters, and papers, everything, is covered with a dirty and adhesive deposit, which a brush will not remove.

The REPUBLICAN office, in the next building, was so filled with smoke that no one could enter until the fire was out, although every window was tightly closed. Here too, as we write, everything is covered with that same creosote deposit, and not a little of our stock is damaged thereby. We are reconciled to this, however, as we feared, for a time, that both buildings would be destroyed.

But for hard and persistent work, there would have been a big vacant spot on Bellevue to-day. Thanks are due to the firemen who did the good work, and to other willing men who did all they could to aid them. Fortunately there was no wind.

Messrs. Jackson & Son, in conference with the insurance men, place their loss on building and contents at about $5,000. Doric Lodge, Shied of Honor occupied the entire second floor, as a club room, and lost their pool table and some furniture and fixtures.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It evidently started in the second story, as there was no sign of it in the first when discovered, and there had been no fire below for at least two days. There is a story told of a cigar stub thrown into a box of saw-dust, in that same pool-room, which smoldered for hours, until it burst into flame, and had burned a hole in the floor when discovered. It is believed that a similar careless act caused this late disaster.

A Shocking Calamity

"Lately bereft a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kellogg, of Wallford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklin's Arnica Balm quickly cured him. It is simply wonderful for burns, boils, piles, and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Ours guaranteed, 25 cents. Sold by Crowell."

A Night of Terror

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. B. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Crowell's drug store.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

The program and arrangements for the conference at Glasboro have been completed. An unusually strong list of speakers will be present. It will open at four o'clock this afternoon with a brief song service, followed by a "School of Methods," conducted by Charles B. Brown. On this evening, Donald MacColl, Esq., of Newark, one of the most eloquent speakers to young men in New Jersey, will deliver an address. On Sunday morning, leading speakers will occupy the pulpits of local churches. In the afternoon three meetings will be held,—one in Association Hall, for men only, conducted by Hon. Elkanah Drake, of Newark. One for women, addressed by Mr. MacColl. A grand rally for boys, in charge of George C. Bartlett, Jr., of Philadelphia. In the evening, a union service in the M. E. Church. Delegates will be entertained over Sunday.

The Republican office is evidently considered headquarters for everything. Well, perhaps it is so, in a measure; but we have repeatedly drawn the line on extracting teeth. One customer took us for a livery stable, and planked down a dollar for a "free trip." He is one of several who had probably read our ad on first page.

This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs, and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. As the synthetic incident related, PROPHECIES of the day of fasting and prayer which were appointed by all the Governors of the United States at the time President Garfield was removed from Washington, D. An aged colored man, who is well known to some of the attaches of the city hall, for whom he frequently does odd jobs at their homes, is known as "Pate," the "readin' man" of the city. The request was complied with, and it proved to be a call upon "Pate's" services as a "readin' man" of a certain "Wh'y, 'Pate," and he said, "This is very plainly written, and you surely ought to be able to read

It is the future that has the most for us, and hope which we use on the future. We must find the meaning in the calling of the roll of those whom they are to deliver. We must find the meaning of ourselves. However much you may have accomplished for the past and the present, it is the future that is yours to create. "No," said man, "my memory is gone." THE LESSON OUTLINE.

Sin Woes in an Evil Time:

1. Woe upon Covenantness: Woe unto them that join house to house, and field to field; they covet fields, and size them (M 21: 28).

2. A curse of life consisteth not in riches (Lk 12: 16).

3. Rise up, O Revolver: Rise up, O Revolver, and strike strong dry (Lk 12: 22).

4. Turn ye to yourselves, ye hypocrites (Lk 21: 34).

A sensitive conscience never allows a man
un-learn self-consciousness.

There can be no music in life where there are no silences.

who will come and set it free."
Often the best view of heaven is that that obtained from the knees.

The brightest truths are often dug out of the darkest doubts.

The heavenly vision does not come

The fifth chapter of Isaiah is a sermon.
The nation has been humiliated.
By a cruel enemy, war, and preacher makes this his text.
Concerning the sins that have led to the calamities, the prophet has recently denounced a sinful drinking in Verses 11, 12—Woe! Rising early in the morning, they pursue their drink!
Tarrying late, they become drunk!
flames them! Directly, this charge is made against the nation. The prophet religious leaders in Judah, whom the prophet has specified in the preceding here emphatically, not the habit of drinking drunk, but the habit of though he may have had that in mind, the prophet's chief aim is to show the serious business of life.

"He will smite himself early and late, and will be drunk, etc."

You cannot put the church before Christ without putting Christ behind the church. Some people do not believe in offices of the church because they are never mentioned.

A man who is willing to begin his work in a small way will be led into it.

When you start up on promises you will always find a higher and a better one before you.

His friends he set sail from New York and proceeded by way of the Cape of Good Hope to a cruise. They were to be gone a year, and he was to choose, and a week or so after they left New York were drifting leisurely to a point of land at the end of which stood a solemn Yankee-Beding. In a few minutes the vessel came to anchor, and Yankee around, blazed the point and the water, and the contemplation of the water and ashore: "Where are you from?" "New York," replied Gillette, with a nervous smile.

"Where?"

"New York," replied the yachtman.

"Where?"

"New York," replied the yachtman.

The Yankee returned to his contemplation, and the yacht kept on drifting all along in the afternoon there came voice over the water, and it asked, "What year?" Warner's Weekly.

They justify their wickedness with a bribe, and take away righteousness from the land (v. 22).
It is a hideous picture from which there is no awaking, a sinners' plea which there is no relief, a plague against which there is but one consolation that is, total abstinence. Let every pupil pledge it—The Sunday School Times.

Knighthood of the Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath, and the "good fellowship" pension were accepted and enjoyed by Dr. Samuel Johnson and also by the poet Southey.

Caryle declined the title as being out of keeping with the tenor of his "poor existence," and the pension because it was not in needy circumstances; but the fact of the offer and the generous language in which it was conveyed, started and subdued him. He wrote frankly to Disraeli:

"Allow me to say that the letter, both in purpose and expression, is worthy to be called magnificent and noble; that it is without example in my own literary history, and I think it is unexampled,

The laugh was on him. Ex-Attorney General Miller recently told this story, which he thoroughly enjoyed by the narrator:

"When President Harrison invited me to become a member of his cabinet," he said, "I determined to visit my boyhood home in Indiana before going to Washington. I had not been in the town for twenty years. At the rail-road station, I was met by a man who said, 'Welcome home, Mr. Miller.' I said, 'Welcome home, Mr. Miller.'"

Stung by its ugliness, an amusing controversy has sprung in Paris over the gender of the "automobile," which the French Academy has only declared to be masculine. One disputations writer would like to know how "automobile" can be masculine, while "bicycle" is feminine, to this the answer is, triumphantly, even that the automobile is too ugly to be feminine.

The Republican.

[Entered as second class matter.]
SATURDAY, NOV. 23, 1901

The Reception.

The Pastor of the Baptist Church, Rev. Herbert F. Loomis, with his bride, arrived home unexpectedly on Tuesday evening, thereby avoiding a meeting which had been planned by some of the young people.

On Wednesday evening the Ladies' Aid Society carried out their reception programme. The church was most beautifully decorated. The platform was fitted with the finest display of chrysanthemums we ever saw in Hammonton. In the center was an illuminated "Welcome." The electric lamps were covered with colored tissue paper.

The house was well filled with friends from all the churches, and others. The programme consisted of an instrumental solo by Miss Belle Carls; vocal solo by Miss Marion Gilbert; address by Rev. F. L. Jewett, Pastor of the M. E. Church; vocal solo by Miss Carls; address by Rev. Wm. K. McKinsey, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church; organ solo by Miss Gilbert.

The guests were then introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Loomis, and tendered their good wishes, after which a little time was spent socially.

After adjournment, quite a number proceeded to the parsonage, where a supper was given, that could hardly be classified as classical music, except by the Chinese. The Baraca Class then presented to the Pastor and wife a beautiful Morris chair; the Junior O. E. Society gave them a cut glass dish; the Ladies' Aid Society, choice "down" quilt.

ELWOOD NOTES.

Last Saturday, Max Pope had the misfortune of losing one finger, and had his thumb and hand badly cut by the circular saw at Bozarth's mill.

The M. E. Church was represented at the Bible Society meeting in Hammonton by Rev. H. T. Fialer; the Presbyterians by Rev. M. S. Morgan and Louis L. Holden. They spent a pleasant as well as profitable time there.

Pastor Morgan is conducting a series of prayer meetings every afternoon from three to four, preparing his people for the communion service next Sunday, and trying to bring others into the church. These meetings are very beneficial, and all are welcome.

Mrs. Maurer spent a few days in the city this week.

Mr. J. W. Johnson and son George H. have returned from a very pleasant visit to Washington.

Mr. Chas. Wagner has been spending a few days with friends here. Mrs. MacMillan is at home for a few days. She has been in the hospital since Oct. 1st, undergoing treatment for catarrh. She has had one removed from one eye, and expects an operation on the other. Her niece, Miss Wickward, from Philadelphia, is staying with her until she returns.

Notwithstanding a widely current rumor that the Rev. E. R. Hicks was dead, he was never in better health, and never did a harder and more successful year's work than that about closing. He has just completed his large and splendid Almanac for 1902, and, with his staff of able helpers, has brought his Journal, Word and Work, justly forward into international reputation. For a quarter of a century Mr. Hicks has grown in reputation and usefulness as the people's astronomer, and forerunner of storms and the character of coming seasons. Never were his weather forecasts so sought after as now, his timely warning of a serious drought last year having saved the people from loss and suffering. Millions of bushels of wheat were harvested there his advice to plant crops that would mature early. The American people will certainly stand by Prof. Hicks, when it costs them so little and the benefits are so great. His Almanac of 200 pages is only 25 cents, and his splendid family journal in only one dollar a year including the Almanac. Send to "Word and Work" Pub. Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and most anxious thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They are wonderful in building up health. Only 25 c. per box. Sold by Crowell.

on Thanksgiving night.

JACKSON will take your order for giving Turkey.

Cold weather this week,—a half-inch ice forming Tuesday night.

Hammonton schools will close next Wednesday night, for the week.

The opening overture for the minstrels is alone worth the price of admission.

MRS. KATIE DAVIS will do Manicuring
at her home, Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Mrs. Wm. Priestley, of Camden, is spending two weeks with her mother,
Mrs. John B. Seely.

Mrs. Emma Anita Beckwith,
of Newark, was in Hammonton on business, last Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Rutherford, with her daughter Jessie, and son Harry, spent a day or two with Hammonton relatives.

that there are no new cases of diphtheria
in town, and those now suffering from that disease are recovering.

Don't you remember how pleasant
the mince pies given by the Epworth League have been? The one for Dec.
6th promises to surpass them all.

At the fire, Thursday morning,
Mr. E. W. Batcher cut the back of his hand quite severely, severing two veins. He is one of our best and coolest headed firemen.

THE FIRE will not interfere with the quality of your Thanksgiving turkey.
Order of JACKSON & SON.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold their Christmas sale in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Fiedler, on Bellevue Avenue,—to be opened Dec. 2nd.

A very enjoyable social was given on Tuesday evening, at Mrs. Long's, by the Junior O. E. Society of the Baptist Church. The program consisted of songs, recitations, quartettes, and select dialogues.

Several men found that there is strength in the cold used in the chemical fire engine. A dash of it raised a coat and pair of pants for Mr. Gogsey, and several others will have to patronize
the tailor.

HALF A HOUSE to let. Inquire of MR. KENDALL, 229 Orchard St.

Mr. Edw. Drew filled most acceptably the pulpit at the Baptist Church, last Sunday. His solo singing, also, delighted the audience, both there and at the men's meeting in the old Post-Office building.

On next Thursday evening, the Baptist congregation will hold an experience meeting, at which the members and friends will tell how they raised the dollar (or more) towards the incidental expenses of the Church.

There will be special gospel
meetings in the Presbyterian Church, beginning Dec. 2nd, and ending on the 6th. The services will commence at 7:45 p. m., and be addressed by several prominent visiting clergymen.

For information relative to the purchase of the J. B. Price, Jr. property at North Street and Second Street, apply to W. R. McKINNEY, Agent.

Inquire with the A. H. Phillips Co., 216 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

Mr. Charles E. Coffin and his bride made Hammonton a flying visit, on their honeymoon trip, visiting their parents, the Mawsons, on Central Ave.
Mr. M. having just bought a new horse and carriage, the fair young couple took the first ride behind the new steed.

Mr. A. J. King has taken title to Union Hall, and is making needed repairs and improvements. New front steps have been built, with a hand rail on each side. Elevated seats occupy the rear end of the hall, either side of the entrance. Fred. Whitmore will still have charge of the building.

A CARD.—We wish to tender thanks to the Volunteer Fire Company, the Independent Fire Company, and to all who assisted in putting out the fire in our market early Thursday morning;
also to the business men who have offered us the use of their stock to fill our orders. Respectfully,
M. L. JACKSON & SON.

Next week Thursday, Nov. 28,
will be National Thanksgiving Day.
According to custom in Hammonton, unless religious services will be held,—
this time in the M. E. Church, Rev.
Mr. McKinsey to preach. Services will begin at 10.30 a. m., and everybody is invited to attend.

Miss Mabel Seely and her brother
Paul have gone to spend two months with their father, John B. Seely, at Charleston, S. C. They will visit the exposition to be opened there early in December. They have visited several places of interest, including the Isle of Palms, and report it a lovely sight.

WOOD FOR SALE at following prices:
Saw poles, grape stakes, and stumps.
May be left at Mr. Batcher's mill, or FRANK GREEN'S Dock.

Levi Bryant, an attaché of the Electric Light Company, was laid out still by a thousand volt charge of electricity, the other day. He stumbled, and so gave himself from falling, grasped a guy-wire which a stray piece of hay wire had connected with the charged line above, with what might have been a fatal result. He needed attention before he recovered from the shock.

The next meeting of the Lyceum
will be held on Monday evening, Nov.
25th. The subject for debate will be,
"Resolved, that education increases happiness." Miss Amanda Wilson and Mrs. Chalfant will sustain the affirmative, with Misses Rose Bodine and Miss Maude Jacobs on the negative side of the question. An interesting entertainment program has been arranged.

The Reading B. R. made quite a change in time on the 17th. Up trains leave Hammonton as follows: 5.07, 7.15, 8.00 (exp.), 10.53 (exp.), 4.38, 6.00
(exp.); Sunday, 8.04 a. m., 5.07 and 5.11 (exp.) p. m. Down trains leave Philadelphia at 7.00, 9.00 (exp.) a. m.,
2.00 (exp.) 4.00 (exp.), 5.15, 6.50, 7.15
(exp.); Sunday, 8.00, 9.00 (exp.) a. m., 5.00 p. m.

We call attention to the Training School for Public Minded Girls and Boys, at Vineland. It is sustained by donations, almost exclusively, and is doing a great amount of good in the care and training of children who, while not "idle," needed special attention day by day. The collection at our union Thanksgiving services has been given to this home for several years.
Make it liberal this year, as the school is needy. Or, send them food, new or second hand clothing, books, pictures, or anything that you think would be useful in a family of children.

An interesting and profitable
meeting of the County Executive Committee of the W. C. T. U. was held at the Leedom, Atlantic City. It was voted to expend fifteen dollars for literature. Local Unions were urged to take more interest in school matters.
The President urged all to keep posted on the campaign question. Arrangements were made for a Spring school of methods, in May, at Egg Harbor.

Mr. Mawson, who bought the Earl place, on Central Avenue, has made many improvements since he came here, last Spring. Besides fencing
the place, he has reconstructed the house, put a new brick foundation under the kitchen, and built a corn-crib. Though not a farmer, he raised thirteen barrels of sweet potatoes from one thousand plants—first time trying. Can anyone beat that?

Mrs. Mahala Anderson, widow of the late Samuel Anderson, Sr., died at the residence of her son Samuel, in Hammonton, on Saturday last, Nov.
19th, aged nearly 77 years. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were among the very earliest settlers in Hammonton, coming here about 1850. They were industrious hard workers, good neighbors, active Christians. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. K. McKinsey.

Last Friday evening an unknown
party in an automobile, making too rapid speed on the way from Atlantic City to Philadelphia, turned Elvin's corner in a reckless way, and collided with Dr. J. C. Butler, who was homeward bound in his carriage. The carriage was badly damaged, the doctor thrown to the ground, but happily not seriously injured. The strangers made no apology, but went on their way without stopping.

ADVERTISEMENTS in this size type, one
A half cent per word for each insertion.
No charge less than 10 cents.

On Sunday evening, as Wm. A.
Elvin stood at a window of the W. J.
& S. R. station, settling his watch by the office clock, an up-express went spinning by on the north-bound track.
At the crossing—perhaps fifty feet away—the locomotive encountered a dog, which was sent flying through the air, struck the station building, then hit Mr. Elvin in the back with the force of a cannon ball, knocking him down and injuring him severely, if not seriously. He was picked up by men present, soon taken home in a carriage, and medical aid summoned. The next day he was unable to walk, and the indications were not encouraging; but since, we are told, there are prospects of early recovery. It was a strange misadventure—apparently no man's fault, unlooked for, and unavoidable.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Lancaster 'Messenger,' suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Crowell, druggist.
