The results of the recent election in New York are partly due to a righteous rebellion of the people of all parties against "Boss" and "Ring" rule; but a careful study of the election returns shows, also, that wage earners have joined to a considerable extent in the popular protest against the free-trade designs of the Reform Club and the ruling majority in Congress. The decision in Ohio, where the definite issue was protection, as exemplified by McKinley, or free-trade, as represented by Neal, is a blow at the iconoclasts from which they will scarcely recover. It furnishes conclusive proof that the people of this country, although diverted for the moment by misrepresentations of the campaign of 1892, are true to the principles of protection to American industries and labor.

The splendid results in Massachusetts, where a confessed free-trader was opposed to the protection candidate for Governor, with the success in Iowa on the same issue and increased majorities in Pennsylvania, are additional proofs that the tide has turned and that the "object lessons" of 1893 have been learned by heart.

"Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad." The majority in Congress and their journalistic supporters assert that they will go on with their destructive policy. So be it. They may occasion additional distress for a time, but all we have to do is to stand loyally by our principles and to give the freebooters a check in the Congressional elections of 1894, and complete the lesson in 1896. The disturbance and distress of the four years will probably have been sufficient to settle the question that a protective policy is best adapted to the needs of the United States and the people will be guaranteed another quarter century of the prosperity which has been so wantonly destroyed by the men now in possession of the national Government.

CORNELIUS N. BLISS,
President Am. Protective Tariff League.

Pursuing the policy which has been so successfully maintained during the past few winters, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces a series of pleasure tours to Washington for the fall, winter, and spring of 1893-94. These tours have won great popularity on account of the universal interest which attaches to the National Capital, the low rates, convenient limits, and liberal conditions which the tickets bear. The dates of leaving Philadelphia are Nov. 30th, Dec. 14th and 28th, Jan. 18th, Feb. 5th, March 1st and 22nd, April 12th, May 3rd and 24th. The rate will be $11 from Philadelphia, and proportionately low from contiguous points, covering all necessary expenses except meals en route. The special train will leave Philadelphia at 2 P. M., and arrive in Washington at 5:20 P. M. A tourist agent and chaperon will accompany each tour. On the third day parties will leave Washington at 3:15 P. M., thus affording considerable time in the most beautiful and interesting of American cities.

When the administration undertook to help Gresham "get even" with Gen. Harrison it did not probably expect the task to be so dangerous as it has already proven to be.

The next President of the United States will be—a Republican; his name is a secondary consideration.

The $65,000,000 of surplus reserve—the largest ever known—now lying idle in the New York banks, is a silent but significant protest against Democratic tariff tinkering.

It is stated, on what is claimed to be reliable authority, that two hundred of Philadelphia's saloons are in the hands of the Sheriff. Good! They are the nurseries of nearly all forms of crime, and ninety-eight per cent. of them are now owned by the very lowest type of foreigners. We need another revolution; and it's coming.

The devil is still getting people every day by making them believe the judgment day is a long way off.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Cochran, druggist.

Pay for the Republican first, and read it with comfort.

HOUSEHOLD MATTERS.

CAULIFLOWER.

Remove the outer stalks. Boil in salt water and cook in boiling water about twenty minutes. Drain, separate the stalks, and add a little lemon juice, or with two table-spoons lemon juice, a little salt and pepper mixed with quarter of a cup of melted butter. Or pour a thin, white sauce over the cauliflower which has been browned in butter over the sauce.—Boston Cultivator.

CRAWLING AND FREEZING BRASS.

Brass should never be employed in cleaning brass, as the metal soon becomes dull after such treatment. The application of olive oil and very fine tripoli, followed by a washing with soap water, maintains the best condition of polishing and preserving the brilliancy. To free brass and give it a decorative finish, boil the article in potash, rinse in water, plunge in nitric acid, wash again, then dry in hot sand, and give the still the metal's coat of varnish.

COOKING CAULIFLOWERS.

There are many delicious ways of cooking cauliflower besides the familiar one of boiling it and serving it with cream sauce. An excellent way is "au gratin." To prepare a cauliflower au gratin, select a large, fine one. Tear off the leaves, pick the flowers apart, cut off the roots and wash it thoroughly in cold water. Then put in a saucepan an equal quantity of water and salt, and when it is cooked drain it, put it into a baking dish and have ready a cream sauce made by melting two table-spoons of flour with two table-spoons of butter, stirring in two cups of milk with salt and pepper. Let the cream sauce cook ten minutes after making it. Add the cauliflower and pour it all over the cauliflower in the baking dish. Sprinkle over the cauliflower three more table-spoons of Parmesan cheese, a table-spoon of fresh bread crumbs and a little bit of butter. Bake in a moderate oven in a quick oven for about twenty-five minutes, when it should be a rich brown all over.

ROMPES.

Tapioles Cream—Cook three table-spoons of tapioles in cold water over night. Boil one pint of milk and add the tapioles, letting it cook three-quarters of an hour. Add the yolks of two eggs and half a cup of cream. When thoroughly cooked and creamy, take from the stove and flavor. Beat the two whites stiff and add half a pint of whipped cream, sweeten and flavor, and pour it all over the tapioles cream.

INDIAN PUDDING.

Indian Pudding—Four cups of milk, one cup of Indian meal, one cup of molasses, one tablespoonful of butter, one-half teaspoonful of salt. Put on one quart of milk to scald, then wet the yolks of the remaining milk, add the molasses, and mix with the scalding milk. Put in the molasses and let it boil, stirring well for a few minutes. Pour into a pudding dish, add the cupful of cold milk. Bake three-quarters of an hour.

SALMON SOUP.

Salmon Soup—One can of salmon, one cup of bread crumbs, one quart of milk, two cups of milk, one tablespoonful of butter, pepper and salt to taste. Pick the salmon to pieces, removing the bones and bits of skin, put over the fire with the water and seasoning, and cook an hour; strain in the butter, the milk and cream and serve hot. Sliced lemon should be used with it.

CODDLE A LA MODE.

Coddle a la Mode—Boil a piece of codfish in plenty of salt water, take out the skin, and be careful to pick every bone, then pick up a cupful fine and mix with two heaping cups of mashed potatoes, beat two eggs, well, add the yolks of the remaining milk, nearly a pint of cream and a little salt, mix well, grease a baking dish and put in the mixture; bake twenty minutes, or until a nice brown.

STUFFED BALS.

Small Stuffed Bals—Out separately in small slices—pepper one ounce of soaked round beef, one ounce of cooked ham, one ounce of cooked chicken, one quantity of cooked onions and a few of cooked onion and two trifles. Put them in a bowl, separating each kind by six-boned anchovies. Then pour over the mixture a little of the contents over the sauce with the chopped leaves of lettuce.

STRENGTHENERS.

Do you know for how many different uses glycerine is really invaluable? It is so useful in so many ways, that when properly diluted may both prevent and cure chapped hands. It will ally the excessive thirst of a fever patient. Two or three drops given to a baby will stop its stomach-ache, if it will be the cause.

IT WILL FREQUENTLY SOOthe an Irritable throat, which gives rise to it. It is an efficient means for the prevention of diphtheria. It has been found excellent as an emollient in treating croup, and half a teaspoon every half hour has relieved many cases of summer complaint, water, wash and wipe with it. It is so useful in so many ways, that when properly diluted may both prevent and cure chapped hands. It will ally the excessive thirst of a fever patient. Two or three drops given to a baby will stop its stomach-ache, if it will be the cause.

Discharge of Oculum.

"There have been many eye troubles," says a Government official, "since the introduction of the civil service rule, but none have been so common as the discharge of the oculum. It is not undertaken to explain it, but it would appear that there is something wrong with the system, or with the administration of it. It is something impossible that all of these arrests that have been made in this city during the last year of literary and other employees of the postal service should be explained on mere ordinary and matter-of-fact grounds. They are out of all proportion to the record of dishonesty in other walks of life. If you have paid any attention to the matter, it must strike you so. My own opinion is that the competitive system cannot be carried out to distinguish honesty from dishonesty. I am aware that there are a great many people who are under the impression that education makes men honest and women virtuous, but I am not one of them. It is barely possible that the postal service is, on the whole, more efficient to-day than ever before. It does not do so well as it should, and efficiency has nothing to do with honesty. And it is right here the present system is weak. It looks badly to note the arrest of a postal official for robbery every three days."—New York Herald.

The Pioneer Engineer of the Country.

Christopher Beeson, the pioneer engineer of the United States, "as he is called, is an inmate of the Philadelphia hospital. Although a servant of the railroad for fifty years, he is now dependent on charity. He is eighty-eight years of age, and still enjoys fair health. He held the throttle of the first engine ever brought into this country—the "John Bull." That was on May 27th, 1829, over the Albany and Schenectady Railway.—Atlanta Journal.

Curious Norwegian Legend.

Thorghatten, the famous Norwegian mountain, has a hole extending entirely through it from one side to the other. According to a Norwegian legend this same Mount Thorghatten was once a cat, and belonged to one Thor, hence the name Thorghatten. It seems that the mythical cat was a giant and gluttonous fell violently in love with one Thor, who was forced to part for a time, but vowed that they would marry in the near future. Soon after, however, the cat, who was pledged her troth to another, died. This angered her giant lover, and he determined to marry her, to a degree unknown to modern men of smaller stature. He was seventy miles from her when she brought the news, but, selecting a good arrow, he shot it into the cat's back. The cat was so angry that she bit her brother Thor, who was standing in direct line of the arrow's flight. It went through his back and skull, killing him instantly, and he fell harmless at the feet of the father. Thor, who had the power of turning all objects into stone, turned the father's body into stone, and the father's body became a stone monument to the tragedy. The cruel lover was turned to stone, and he sat at the feet of his dead wife, and he sat there petrified at Lecko. The two latter objects have disappeared, but Thor's hat (Thorghatten) is still the object of many pilgrimages.—St. Louis Republic.

A SUCCESSFUL MYSTICIAN.

At an army post in the southwest, returned by colored soldiers, the following amusing incident occurred. Sick-calls is sounded daily about 8 o'clock a. m., and immediately afterwards all soldiers who are sick report to the post-surgeon for treatment. One morning a soldier, who by the way, was a member of the regiment, had just reported to the post-surgeon. When asked what ailed him, he said: "You see I have a very bad fever blister on my mouth; I don't want to go to the hospital, but I belong to the band, and I thought if you could excuse me from playing my instrument for a few days I would be all right." The surgeon looked at the man and could hardly repress a smile. There was no doubt about it. Private Jones's upper lip displayed a fever blister of the first magnitude. "Very well, I will mark you excused for three days." Thus passed, and the doctor thought no more about it. Private Jones's upper lip displayed a fever blister of the first magnitude. Expert Testimony Submitted.

The Profession Forced to Admit the Efficacy of Munyon's Homeopathic Remedies.

A well-known Doctor Endorses them.

Dr. DeGraff, the well-known specialist in dentistry, of 9 West 14th Street, New York City, says: "I consider that Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedies represent the very quintessence of Homeopathic medicine. For a number of years I have been a sufferer from rheumatism. At times I could not stand on my feet, which made it impossible for me to do any operating work whatever. I could not sleep, and upon the least exertion, or when lying down, I would have shortness of breath and suffocate. My ankles were very much swollen, and sore to the touch. Even the slightest movement of my toes would cause me the most excruciating pains. My joints became sore and stiff. After much persuasion I decided to give Munyon's Rheumatism Cure a trial. I was prejudiced, and did not expect to get any relief; but I must confess that I had taken but a few doses before I felt relieved, and after I had taken the entire bottle the pains left me and have not returned since. I was also troubled with dyspepsia. My appetite was poor, and I was very much distressed after eating. I took a bottle of Munyon's Guaranteed Dyspepsia Cure which entirely relieved me from that distressing malady. I would be pleased to speak to anyone at anytime concerning Munyon's Homeopathic Remedies, for I am sure of their very beneficial effects in my case." Dr. DeGraff is one of New York's best known dentists. He is recognized as an authority on operative and mechanical dentistry. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure never fails to relieve in three hours, and to cure in a few days.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to correct constipation and cure all forms of indigestion and stomach trouble.

Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy Company put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cts. a bottle.

The Republican.

(Entered as second class matter.)

SATURDAY, NOV. 25, 1893.

Wonders will never cease. They're actually arrested seven men in Arkansas for taking part in a lynching; but they are, of course, all negroes.

The queen was not the highest trump card in the Hawaiian game, at least not on the first deal.

The Stevenson family ought to show the good effect of the marriage of the Vice-President's son to a good Republican girl, in the next generation, if not sooner.

The action of the Democratic tariff bill that will, unless present information is wrong, provide for the imposition of an income tax ought to be headed, "For the promotion and encouragement of the crime of perjury."

There is no truth in the report that the Missouri Congressional delegation had adopted a resolution thanking Mr. Cleveland for the appointment of Scott Harrison to one of the best Federal offices of Kansas City, or anything else. On the contrary, the delegation is more inclined to well, never mind what; it isn't to thank him.

If Mr. Cleveland's Minister to Hawaii, who has for some reason failed to openly attempt the restoration of the queen, engages in any weak-business to accomplish that end, it will add to the heinousness of the crime fathered by Gresham and Cleveland.

The canal boat mule appears to be in danger of becoming a victim of the trolley electric system.

Sympathy for the striking trainmen of the Lehigh Valley railroad cannot blind one to the fact that this is a very inauspicious time for a strike of any kind.

It is folly to say that an income tax will not be felt by the poor. The rich are never lacking for ways to shift their burdens to the shoulders of the poor. It is like expecting a tax upon usury to be paid by the usurer, when everybody knows that it is always the unfortunate borrower who has to pay.

Senator Vorhees gets his pie from the administration pie counter by threatening to show up the crookedness of the cook.

Even the free-trade New York Herald has at last discovered that the new tariff "must be moderate and framed with careful regard to the interests of trade and industry," and that "any reckless tariff legislation, any sudden or sweeping changes, would unsettle business and industry and bring on a panic." Still it lacks the courage to advise the Democrats to let the tariff alone.

No wonder Minister paramount Blount did not wish to remain in Hawaii to complete the dirty work he began.

Instead of finding himself a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, Walter Q. Gresham may long find himself out in the cold. Mr. Cleveland will find the task of forcing his tariff bill through Congress much more difficult than silver repeal. No Republican will support his tariff bill.

ASK YOUR CHILDREN SUBJECT TO CRUELTY? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Our Great Thanksgiving Present

TO EACH OF OUR READERS,

"An American Beauty."

The exquisite new floral panel-picture by the same artist who painted those lovely works of art "A Yard of Pansies" and "A Yard of Roses," will, by special arrangement with the publishers, be sent free to every reader of the REPUBLICAN. This superb picture is 20 inches high, and in panel form, and thus admirably adapted for upright narrow spaces, which are always so difficult to fill.

To obtain this valuable present, you have only to cut out the appended coupon, fill it up, and enclose it with three cents in stamps or pennies for packing, mailing, etc., to the publisher, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th Street, New York, who will send the picture direct to you, thus avoiding the additional expense which would be incurred if sent to us in the first instance and then remailed to your address. We present our compliments with this choice gift, which we are glad to be enabled to send to you, as it will form one of the most attractive ornaments of your home.

W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th Street, New York City.

Please send me by return mail the oil panel-picture, "An American Beauty," which I am entitled to by being a reader of THE SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN. Enclosed find three cents for the postage, packing, etc.
