PARKER.—Governor Parker's headquarters, during the sitting of the Legislature, will be at the United States Hotel, the proprietor of which, Mr. Easy, is fitting up two splendid rooms for the Governor's accommodation.

The Legislature of New Jersey will assemble on the 9th of January. Applications for acts of incorporation must be noticed six weeks before the day of meeting. There are but a few days to spare.

John Ware, the condemned Camden murderer, seems resigned to his fate. The death warrant for his execution has been received by Sheriff Fredericks, and he is to be hanged on the 15th of next month.

In Tyrone, Pa., the folks keep a minister who preaches semi occasionally, who edits a newspaper, who sells patent medicines, who cures corns and dyspepsia, who abuses lecturers, whose personal appearance contrasts strongly with the natural beauty of the place.

Vineland is to have its liquor law made more stringent this winter. The new law provides that it shall be the duty of every deputy sheriff, constable or police officer to arrest every intoxicated person and hold him until he will testify from whom the liquor was received.

Some of the Democratic papers signify their willingness to "fall in" with the proposition that the Democratic make no nomination for the next Presidency, but support the nominee of the bolting Republicans, which the Blaine are concocting. From present appearances there will probably be little of the old concern left to fall in or out, next fall. How does the Journal like the idea of supporting a Republican for President? It is a bitter pill for a large majority of the party, yet it is their only hope.

A new order known as "The Patrons of Husbandry," has been discovered, the New Jersey branch or State Grange, having its locality at New Brunswick. Its origin was in 1837, and its purpose, the banding together of farmers to control better sales for their produce, lower rates for the purchase of implements, &c., and the procuring of capital for farmers at fair rates. It is claimed that since the foundation of the order, several impositions upon the farmers of the West have been discovered and abolished, notably the transportation of grain from the State of Minnesota, which, before in the hands of a railroad monopoly, were taken therefrom and carried by a line of boats established by the order. Granges are being instituted in this State, and Mr. G. W. Thompson, of New Brunswick, is General Deputy for New Jersey.

RICHARD B. CONNOLLY, ex-Controller of New York and the partner of Tweed, Sweeney and Hall, of the great firm of official thieves, was on Saturday arrested in New York as a co-defendant with Tweed in the suit brought to recover the money of the city, which the two have stolen. Connolly furnished bail, although the arrest was as much a surprise to him as it was to New York and will be to the country. He had turned State's evidence and betrayed all the secrets of the gang of which he was a member; the books of his office were furnished to the Committee of Seventy, and he even vacated it at the request of the Reformers. It was generally thought he would be allowed to escape scot-free as a reward for the exposure of his confederates, but he is equally guilty and should also be compelled to disgorge.

The Washington telegraphic correspondence of the Philadelphia Press says that there is not a single U. S. Senator, whose opinion is worth quoting, but declares the judgment that President Grant's re-nomination, and consequent re-election have been assured. He adds:

"Even Senator Trumbull, who is prominently mentioned by the Democratic journals as the Moses who is to lead them into the White House, under the banner of conservatism and reform in the revenue and civil service, cannot see the re-election of Gen. Grant. In a conversation the other day, referring to the subject, he said, 'I don't believe there's any doubt of Grant's re-nomination, and of course his election will follow.' Trumbull, in common with most men, has little ambition for defeat. He is too shrewd to allow his name to be used as the leader of a movement which is sure to end in disaster.

Woman's Department

The question is often asked, "What is this Woman's Club we have here in Hammonton?" We are glad this question is asked, for we wish to answer it, and therefore will explain the purpose and object of the club. In the first place we feel that women are citizens of these United States, and that women are necessary citizens. As wives, and the mothers of our noble children woman performs her daily routine of household duties, no matter how numerous they are, even though they are too many to count. She cuts and makes the clothing for all the household, no matter if she has only a husband, or from six to eight children. As a mother she performs all the thousand and one other officers, no matter how many aches and pains she may bear. If any of her little ones are sick, she must be more than a doctor to them, in addition to her other cares. She must be the first and last in fact. To the home she is the alpha and omega; for what is home when sickness lays her low and she meets the last messenger, and is called from her earthly toils? In fact what is home without a wife and mother? Now in view of these stubborn but truthful facts, that women is of some account at home, where some think she should rightfully be confined; and that she has nothing to do but be an obedient wife and submit to the dictation of her lord and master, who should know everything and answer all her curious questions. It may be well to suppose a case. Imagine that she should ask him sometime why it is that women are "compelled to obey the wise laws of the land, which are made only by men." There he will probably answer, "My Dear I do not know, but I suppose that those who made the laws knew what they were doing." But the wife and mother will continue "supposing that you should die without leaving a will, why must I be compelled to take a guardian for our dear children, and what we have together collected by long years of toil must be divided, and our home sold to others, who know nothing of the hopes and fears with which we have constructed it for our darlings, and I must receive only my thirds while it takes another third to pay the lawyers and judges of our courts."

Here then is the conclusion, woman needs to know something about how she stands before the courts, and therefore it is necessary for her to have a chance to learn to do her own business and not depend upon some one else, whom she must buy, and whose change she can save if she will. This then is the object of the Woman's Club to educate woman so that she may the better impart her knowledge to her children; and when we have a voice in the elections we hope to see and feel a more refined feeling throughout the whole country.

A MEMBER.

Snow fell Tuesday the 21 inst., to the depth of about fourteen inches at Central City, Colorado, and sixteen at Colorado Springs and Pueblo. The storm has extended a great distance east and south, and the railroads are badly blocked up by snow drifts, but are now cleared. The telegraph wires on the Kansas Pacific railroad are prostrated.

THE CHINESE at Belleville have been at their vain tricks again, and have furnished another illustration of their peculiarly dark ways. Their employer at that place lately finished a large barn for them, the lower floor of which was unoccupied. A few nights ago he observed lights in the rooms on this floor, and suspecting mischief, cautiously approached the buildings fully armed and prepared to punish the supposed marauders. He reached one of the rooms in which the lights were burning, and pushed open the door, to discover that the wicked and unchristian wretches had carpeted the apartment, furnished it with a large table placed in the centre of the floor, and that a score of them were gathered about it deeply intent—with the aid of the forewoman and her daughter—in acquiring the English alphabet. It is not believed in the immediate vicinity of Belleville that these mysterious actions on the part of the Chinamen seriously threaten the peace or morals of the neighborhood.

New Chicago Relief Fund Ad-

The Chicago Tribune, of November 2,

is giving an account of the method of giving relief to the sufferers by the first of the world's money.

It is known to be $2,000,000. Of this sum the Relief Committee has received about one half, or $1,000,000. With this fund and a half of money they have carried on the work of housing, feeding, and clothing from 20,000 to 40,000 people since the 19th of October,

aided by the contributions of provisions and goods which have also been made.

But for much of this money, very money only is indispensable. Lumber, coals, furniture, crockery, flour, beef,

and all the necessities of life are absolutely necessary to the comfort and health of the masses. They have all been to be purchased with the ready cash. Take, for example the one article of shoes. With the money they would be able to buy three or four hundred thirty or forty thousand in want. There
