Thanksgiving Services.

It was a fair sized audience that assembled in the M. E. Church, Thursday morning, to raise their songs and prayers of thanksgiving to the Bountiful Giver.

The speaker, Rev. W. S. Marple, selected his text from Psalm 48,— "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, etc."

In introducing the text, he said that it seemed as though this was written for Thanksgiving Day. We are here to think of His loving kindness; that we cannot do so without having our hearts overflow with gratitude. The purpose of these services is to turn our minds to those things.

Men and women have laid their all on the altar. Prosperity is over the land. Think of the greatness of our land, its advantages and progress. God's ways are always best and wisest. We cannot think of God's blessings without being thankful.

Thanksgiving started in New England—is a continuous holiday, reaching every life, and we cannot help being thankful for it is implanted in our very nature to be so. People who are thoughtful are thankful; those who are thoughtless are thankful.

The handiwork of God is shown all about us—in the beautiful combinations in the Dahlia fields. Let us count our many mercies, one by one, and glorify Him for his mercies to the children of men. So often when we receive, we never render thanks to the giver.

Thanksgiving Day is a holy day rather than a holiday. Has it brought us into closer touch with the Great Giver? There is a service we must render, a song we must sing. How many are truly thankful as we get the pay envelope. The lack of thankfulness is the shame of the Christian Church. We are too apt to measure our thanksgiving by the amount of property we possess.

God wants our thanksgiving. When man is truly thankful, it seems as though he ought to make some memorial, some resolution or purpose, a dedication of self, something specific, to show God that we are truly thankful.

The sermon was a real uplift, a splendid one, showing God's bountifulness, and the need of true thanksgiving and consecration.

Rev. C. D. Clauss closed with a prayer, full of love and gratitude, and petitions for continued favor; in fact, one of the most earnest supplications we ever listened to.

The collection for the Children's Home Society of New Jersey, amounted to a goodly sum.

Schubert PIANO Ware-rooms

Does $100 Look Good to You?

I will save you that much and more if you are looking for a piano or player piano. What's the use of buying a second-hand piano when you can have a new one of better grade at the same price.
What's the use of buying cheaper quality, when you can have the best direct from the factory at the same cost, or less?

Don't be old-fashioned and say,
"I don't see how it can be done."
Look into my proposition and see for yourself. Just because pianos have never been sold here before
on this plan and at such low prices, is no reason they cannot be. I save you the middleman's profit.

WE DON'T SELL CHEAP TAILORING

Primarily because our customers are not the "cheap" kind—they have learned from costly experience elsewhere that the best is the most economical. We have never been obliged to represent adulterated fabrics as "pure wool," nor to offer "sweat shop" garments with the argument that we can save you money through poorly-paid, inexperienced help.

SHOES and RUBBERS

Cheap clothes, like cheap jewelry, soon show their actual worth, and the man who is deceived thereb is not wise. Everything is sold according to its relative worth,—you rarely get more than what you actually pay for.

UNDERWEAR

If we offered you "strictly pure cream butter" at 15 cents a pound, and you later found it to be a cheap oleomargarine, you'd lose no time in exposing us.

HATS, CAPS AND SHIRTS

Many well-meaning people make the mistake of expecting $2 and $3 value for $1, due to the impossible claims of over-anxious dealers.
They later come to realize that their money
was wanted more than their future business.

NECKWEAR

Cheap clothes are either lacking in the quality of woollens or in skimping of workmanship.
High-grade artist tailors like those with Ed. V.
Price & Co., cost money, and are worth it.
Don't let any "smooth" salesman convince you to the contrary.
