Tuesday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Chas. Whitney. It was also the day of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, and a few personal friends were invited to and spent the evening with them very pleasantly. May they reach their diamond wedding, and beyond.

Some of the teachers in the Temperance Legion find that they have laid out a big job for themselves, in training the children for the entrance to the given Friday evening, Dec. 6th; but their patience will be rewarded if the people manifest their appreciation by filling the hall on that evening.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Atlantic County Board of Agriculture will be held at Germania Hall, Egg Harbor City, Saturday, Dec. 7th, 1890, 10:30 A. M. All Agricultural and kindred associations, and the public generally, are cordially invited to attend and participate. Col. A. W. Pierson and Dr. J. D. Halstead will then give addresses on grass culture, diseases of the vine, etc., and musical growth of plants. Secretary Franklin Dye, of the State Board, will also be present and address the hall on that evening.

V. P. HOFMANN, Sec'y.

Union services were held in the M. E. Church on Thanksgiving Day. The attendance, as usual, was no greater than it should have been, still, many gathered to return thanks to God for the mercies of the year. The united choir sang appropriate anthems, and the congregation joined in the hymns. Rev. H. T. Russell preached an excellent sermon, from Deut. iv 8-9: "And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous?" Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them to thy sons and thy sons' sons." The text is a key to the sermon: congratulations upon so good a government; thanks for peace and general prosperity; review of the financial condition of the country, with sympathetic words for laboring men who are in so many instances deprived by individual greed for gain, of their just proportion of the nation's wealth; good words of warning and advice; reform needed in public service and servants, and in our method of voting, and, more than all, in drinking habits and liquor laws. It was a commendable discourse, earnest, patriotic, and appropriate for the day.

The First Ward

Is still booming, a two-story house is being built on First Road, below 11th Street.

Mr. Bean is clearing up the rest of his farm.

The Sunday School entertainment, last Friday evening, passed off very pleasantly. Notwithstanding the rain, the house was quite full, and, considering the short time occupied in preparation, the exercises were very creditable to committee and scholars. For opening the school sang "Scatter seeds of kindness," Miss Horton at the organ. "Our Baby," was sung by six little ones, Jennie and James Wolbert being leaders. Misses Florence Wescott and Annie Wolbert sang a duet. Solo by Miss Lizzie Johnson—well sung. The class singing was pleasing. Miss Lizzie Heller recited "The Village Blacksmith." There were other praiseworthy features, too numerous to mention. As appropriate for closing, the school sang that beautiful hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," Miss Ida Bakely at the organ. We are told that another entertainment will be given there, about Christmas.

Election News

Have now lost much of their interest; again we turn to matters pertaining to our comfort and convenience,—in fact, our necessities.

Determined to suit our customers, we have placed on our floors a splendid line of STOVES, which, for beauty, quality, convenience, and price, will be hard, if indeed possible, to excel. Every one admires them; a good many are buying them; and others, who have bought elsewhere, say they made a mistake in so doing. Here is what one party said: I went to the city and bought my Fire-Light, because I thought I could no better there. When I had it at home and set up, it had actually cost me more than the price you asked for the same thing up. This is what another did: Looked our stores over in the morning, went to Philada. same day, came to us the next day and bought a stove. "straws show which way the wind blows," so get a straw, hold it in the stove trade-wind, and it is pretty sure to point to our stock as the place to buy. Every stove is marked with a tag, giving the name and price. You may see the tags below, but we think you would do well to see the stoves also. The long line is being broken every day, as you will see by the tags marked sold, and to secure your choice, better come soon.

Renews her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 70 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. I am now free from all pain and lameness, and able to do all my housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle 50 cents and $1, at Cochran's drug store. 4

(Entered as second-class matter.)

Mr. J. A. Thayer has the ground broken for a residence on the corner of Central Avenue and Vine Street, for Mr. W. O. Horton. We are pleased to see this evidence of Mr. Horton's intention to return to Hammononton.

Monday last was Col. Daniel Slope's birthday. In the evening, a company of friends gathered at his residence, during the Colonel's temporary absence, and gave him a genuine surprise when he returned. They all enjoyed the subsequent proceedings.

Col. Sanford's lecture is billed for Saturday evening, Dec. 7th, in the Universalist Church. Reserved seats, 50 cents; tickets for sale at Cochran's drug store. Col. Sanford stands in the front rank of platform orators, and we hope he will be honored with a large audience.

The earnest labors of Rev. Mr. Sweet, in the Baptist Church, are bearing fruit. Several persons have applied for admission to the Church, and there will probably be baptism at the Lake very soon. Last Sunday evening, the church was full to overflowing. On Thursday evening, Mr. Sweet preached at Folsom. He will be here to-morrow and next Wednesday evening.

In some manner, the impression became quite general that the Legislature of this State had enacted a law, in 1887, giving to soldiers' widows the same exemption from taxation that their husbands would have been entitled to if living. A thorough search of the pamphlet laws prove this impression to be unfounded. No such law can be found in the books.

Col. J. P. Sanford,

Will lecture on

"Old Times and New,"

In the Universalist Church, Hammononton, and our readers may expect a rare treat.

The Brooklyn Daily Times, among other things, says of him:—

" * * * for he speaks most intelligently. * * * his discourse was more on the order of the humorous * * * He was frequently interrupted by applause, and received a storm of approval at the close."

" * * * During the entire evening he held the closest attention, and it is an open question which was the more admired, his oratory or his dry humor."—Scranton Republican.

Go and hear him. Tickets now for sale at Cochran's.

Reserved Seats, 50 cts.

On Thursday, while Mr. William Colwell was unpacking new machinery, just received, a piece of wire spring back in such manner as to strike him in the eye, cutting the eye-ball so seriously that Dr. Edw. North found it necessary to sew up the wound. Had the cut extended one-third of an inch nearer the pupil, the sight would have been destroyed. Indications are now favorable.

The Commissioners of Appeal had a lively meeting, on Tuesday,—Messrs. Presey and Jackson present. The actual reduction in valuation was but two, amounting to $75. One soldier was relieved $500; misunderstandings caused a drop of $75; errors were very few, and made but trifling change; one lot of thirty acres was found to be just over our boundary line, and made a difference of $300. Altogether, the reductions in tax (not counting the dog-tax) footed up $30.41.

Last Saturday was quite agreeable except for brisk winds. Sunday was delightfully pleasant, for November. Monday, cloudy, gloomy, wet. Tuesday, bright, shining, though not cold. Wednesday, decidedly wet and disagreeable; the evening brought us a thunder-storm, rain falling in torrents and the wind blowing. Thursday was more endurable,—wind, clouds, and sunshine, but colder. Friday, pleasant and still colder.

The Local Temperance Legion will give an entertainment in Union Hall, Dec. 6th. Under direction of Dr. Threl, the children will present "An hour with Mother Goose and her Temperance Family." The music and recitations in costume are very attractive. Admission, ten cents. A public reception will be given on Thursday afternoon, the 5th, to enable those to see it who cannot be out at night, for which the same admission will be charged.

Insurance, viz: fire, tornado, life and accident; also, real estate. Wm. LUTHERBOND, Hammononton.

The dog-tax question is settled, for this year, at least. Knowing that several applications would be made for abatement of this tax, the Commissioners of Appeal directed the Collector to see Ex-Judge Panoast, of Camden, state the case fully to him, and ask his opinion. This was done, the attorney studied the charter, general laws, and many court decisions upon the subject, and gave us the following:

CAMDEN, Nov. 23, 1890.

THE HON. J. R. HORTON, Mayor, and Treasurer of Hammononton, N. J.

Dear Sir:—My answer to your questions concerning the dog law is as follows:

The 17th Section of the Town Charter of Hammononton confers the right to tax all property, both real and personal, within the limits of the town; and as dogs are property, I consider it carries the right to tax dogs at their value, the same as other personal property.

The 23rd section confers the power to pass ordinances "to prevent and prohibit all quadrupeds from running at large in the town." This, of course, includes dogs, and carries with it right to prescribe a penalty.

The act for the preservation of sheep, etc. (Revision p. 15, etc.), which provides for the taxation of dogs in a special manner, to raise a fund to pay for sheep killed by dogs, does not apply to towns or cities, but is limited to townships by its terms.

By the act of March 26th, 1889 (Laws of 1889, page 96), the Common Council of every town is authorized to authorize the killing of all dogs running at large without a muzzle and accompanied by their owner.

Under the law as I understand it, your town authorities may tax dogs as ordinary personal property, and may pass ordinances to prevent them from running at large, and for killing them if left to run at large without a muzzle, but cannot levy a special tax on them for the purpose of raising a fund to pay for sheep killed. Yours, etc., D. J. PANOAST.

This was laid before the Board, at their meeting, Tuesday, and as there appeared to be no alternative, they
