THANKSGIVING.

One of the gladdest days of the year greets us with glorious sunshine and good cheer. What a panorama of memories passes before us. Family reunions come and go, and as the years succeed one another we are reminded by the vacant chairs at our board, and loving letters of regret from absent ones, that changes are ever taking place; and we look forward by faith to the great thanksgiving and reunion beyond the river.

We think of the many homes that are sad and desolate to-day, because of the drink habit. Oh, let us do all in our power to bring about a reform and thanksgiving to these sad hearts and homes.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Buchanan, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. H. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but who begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Crowell's drug store.

A Communication.

MR. EDITOR:—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my life got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely cured me.—W. B. Brookman, Hignell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Crowell.

DISTRIBUTION PLAN HAMMONTON WATER WORKS 1885

Water Wanted.

The fire last week emphasized Hammonton's need of an adequate public water supply. Our cisterns are an excellent substitute, but they are not numerous enough, and are at times too small. During the late fire, and at a very critical time, the firemen were compelled to move the engine from an emptied cistern, to one farther away; and although this was done as quickly as possible, the flames gained perceptibly during those few moments. We heard an anxious man say, "Suppose this one gives out before we get through?" The next cistern was still farther from the fire.

It has been demonstrated that private capital will not put in our desired water-works without a guarantee of municipal patronage, which would cost the Town heavily every year. This our voters do not seem inclined to grant; and we don't blame them. No private corporation would enter the business unless convinced that there was profit in it,—that is quite certain. If there is, why pay outsiders for doing what we can do ourselves? We believe the Town can supply water without foreign intervention, and leave all profits in the treasury.

Of course, this would cost money. But we have put considerable money into school houses during the past few years, borrowed money, and are paying the debt so easily that many people have forgotten all about it. Do the same for water. At the next annual Town Meeting, vote an issue of bonds to the necessary amount, payable in twenty-five years, at a low rate of interest. Council (or Water Commissioners, if you wish) can employ a competent man, and put in the water plant as mapped out in above drawing. Then, when the fire-bell threatens us again, we will have ammunition with which to fight him, with a force that will not require so much hard work at the pumps, in quantity sufficient, and not subject to exhaustion at a desperate point in the battle.

Other municipalities have done this very thing, and do not regret it. Still others have given the franchise to private parties, and bought the business after a few years, at a heavy advance over cost.

Insurance rates are high, here in the business centre. In Atlantic City the rates have been advanced recently, and the same move may be made here unless we provide better facilities for extinguishing fires.

Let us have water works; and have them right away.

A Shocking Calamity

SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 1901

Thursday's Services.

Thanksgiving Day dawned very cold and windy, with mercury down to 18 at seven o'clock; but not so stormy as to keep the worshippers from outdoor services. The M. E. Church was a little more than half filled at 10.30, when the services began. After singing, reading of Scripture, and prayer, Rev. Wm. K. McKinney, of the Presbyterian Church, preached an excellent sermon, using as his text, Luke xvii, 15, 16: "And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks." He with the business man's notion of looking over his accounts for "lost" and "what had been done during the year, and how he stands today. Referring to our late President McKinney, it is truly said he is dead but still lives, and will live on in the minds and hearts for generations; that in his death God's purpose was to bring out the best. The dying and death of a Christian can sometimes bring about more good than the most consecrated service. "God moves in a mysterious way,"

In regard to our Nation, it is looked up to by all, and always takes a prominent part in everything. We have reason to be thankful for the missionary spirit. Although but a year ago we were shocked by the massacre of 100 of our missionaries in China, the work has gone on greater than ever, and now we have over one thousand missionaries in that country. Just now we are having the greatest revival of religion in Japan ever known. Our foreign missionaries number 4110.

The increased unity of spirit was referred to, not only in our own town, but all over the country and even the world.

In closing, the speaker again referred to the bountiful hand of God, for which we should be full of praise and thankfulness. He hoped that our efforts the coming year would be accompanied with even more zeal than in the past. His final words were, "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow."

Rev. A. Mottilla, of the Italian Evangelical Church, pronounced the benediction in his native language.

The union choir, under the leadership of Mr. Tilton, added much to the spirit of the meeting.

A collection was taken, as usual, for the Children's Home Society of New Jersey.

Our Fire Department.

While the matter of fires is fresh in the minds of our townspeople, the writer would like to say a few words in relation to our fire department, whose brilliant work has twice lately saved our town from destructive fires.

While our fire department is appreciated by many of our citizens, there are some who seem to think, as I heard a man say the other day: "They are well paid for the little work they do."

This is far from being the case. At every fire our firemen are placed in dangerous positions, which at any moment may result in a serious injury, or even a loss of life. They receive no compensation whatever for their work, outside of a tax exemption, the value of which this year is nine dollars to each fireman who holds property the assessed value of which is five hundred dollars or over. This amount is more than eaten up by their dues, fines, and other unavoidable expenses, all of which is cheerfully paid for the sake of being in a better position to protect our town.

There is probably not another efficient fire department in the state whose expense to their respective city or town is as small as that of our local department, and it is to be deeply regretted that at our annual town meeting a substantial appropriation is not made for their assistance.

Much more could be said on this subject, but the idea of this article is not to go into lengthy details, but simply to bring this matter before the public, that we may all do everything possible to better our fire companies and aid the firemen, who are deserving of all we can do.

NOT A FIDELMAN.

Josh Wenthoffer, of Longmont, Ind., is a poor man, but he says that he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this balm for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains, and rheumatism and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Crowell.

OBITUARY.

Dr. Harvey E. Bowles died on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 26th, 1901, at his residence on Third Street, Hammonton, N. J., aged 38 years, after four days illness with pneumonia.

We first met Dr. Bowles during the winter of 1895, when he was a practicing physician, residing on Central Avenue. He was a native of New England, but resided for some time in Canada, working at his trade, printer, while he studied medicine. He served in the army during the war of the rebellion, as Assistant Surgeon, afterward locating in Hammonton. With the exception of a little time spent in the South, this has been his home ever since. For some years he was publisher of this paper, purchasing it from Potter & Cordery about 1873, and selling it to the present proprietor in 1880. The doctor was for a time employed in the U. S. Pension Office, at Washington, but has lately lived quietly at his pleasant home. Though not in robust health, his last illness was very sudden, and from the fact that he was a native of New England, because of his advanced age. There were very many, here and elsewhere, who in his death mourn the loss of a friend.

Funeral services were held at 10.30 a.m., Thursday, conducted by M. B. Taylor, Lodge of Masons, of which the deceased was a charter member. Comrades of Gen. D. A. Russell Post, G. A. R., of which the doctor was an officer since its organization, attended the funeral. Three sons were present at the death bed.—Edward, from Jersey City; Fred, from Elmer, N. Y., and Frank, from Detroit, Michigan.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville 'Messenger,' suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Crowell, druggist.
