Dr. G. M. Crowell is again at home, after seven weeks in the hospital. He has not yet resumed professional visits, but was warmly welcomed by all who met him.

The "mothers" of Hammonton held a meeting in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, to consider plans for the advantage of the young people. Plans were suggested, and will be further developed to desired consummation. Every mother who has the real good of her children at heart should take part in this movement. An effort is being made to secure an experienced speaker from the city to address the next meeting.

Thanksgiving Services.

There was a goodly number assembled together, Thursday, in the Presbyterian Church, to unite in a common thanksgiving to the Bountiful Giver.

Following the opening services, hearty songs, prayers, and reading of Scriptures, from Psalm 1 and 2, and a very pretty duet by Misses Monfort and Rider, Pastor H. P. Hoskins preached a most excellent and helpful sermon, taken from Psalm ii. 2, 3, and 9.

The verses, the speaker said, were so suggestive. Our minds are on Thanksgiving Day, on the week of blessed meetings we have just had, on the encouraging conditions in foreign lands, on our national resources, and our personal blessings.

Taking up the warning words of David to those who set themselves up against God and his cause, the speaker referred to the situation in Turkey, and saw the ultimate triumph of righteousness.

Referring to our own country, its responsibility was pointed out. The star of leadership or empire has hung over every great nation. Egypt failed, also Assyria, Greece, Babylon, Persia, Britain, and today it rests over our own land. It is ours to have that righteousness that exalteth a nation, or have written of us "the rise and fall of the United States," as has been of other nations. What shall it profit a nation if it gains the whole world and loses its own righteousness?

Credit was given the early Puritance, including Puritan mothers, for their Christian and physical endurance. There is a free Gospel; every man can read it in his mother tongue.

Men's records are being searched. It is difficult for a bad man to get into office,—people demand that he shall not be a grafter.

America is influencing other nations, causing unrest and a desire for better things. We refunded a balance from the Boxer indemnity, and China is sending her young men here to learn American ways, religion and education.

Thanksgiving is not the day of big dinners, foot-ball, nor bumper crops, but for America's spirit and standard of purity. For the passing of the holding of the big stick over other countries, people having no desire for increase of battleships. The speaker saw the "beating of swords into plowshares," and the passing into history of Annapolis.

God is working out his plan in the far East.

"Lord God of Hosts,
Do with us yet,
Lest we forget,
Lest we forget."

The offering taken for the New Jersey Children's Home Society amounted to over thirteen dollars.

The three pastors, Revs. Shaw, Marple and Hoskins took part in the service. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. D. H. King, of Vineland.

It was rumored, Tuesday eve'g, that the home of Geo. R. Moody had been invaded and several suits of clothing stolen. His patrons may all rest easy in regard to the safety of their goods. Mrs. Moody was away from home. Mr. M. prepared his supper, then went into the yard for a few minutes; on his return, his supper had disappeared. After investigation, he formed a theory, and again stepped outside. Hearing a slight noise, he quietly returned, and found a dog standing on a chair and greedily licking the dishes he had previously robbed. A vigorous application of the fire shovel routed the intruder.

Mr. S. A. Ford is the welcome guest of his daughter, Mrs. Burt.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1912

The Political Overtun.

Whether you regard the result of the election as a Democratic victory or a Republican defeat, the fact remains that after March 4th the Democratic party will be in control of the government, and responsible for the foreign and domestic policy of the nation.

Governor Wilson, the President elect, is as untied in national affairs as Grover Cleveland was when he entered the White House; but he has been a student of politics and political history all his life, and is therefore generously equipped with knowledge of the theory of government. He is now to put his theory into practice; to apply his knowledge to the stupendous labor of administering the affairs of a hundred million people.

His party itself is confronted by a task that should sober all its leaders. Its policies will take the place of Republican policies, and to a large extent, its own men will displace Republican office-holders.
The change in office-holders will not be nearly so complete as it would have been thirty or forty years ago, for the civil service laws no longer permit sweeping changes; but the new President will, of course, have a Democratic Cabinet, and all the foreign ministers will present their resignations on March 4th. It is natural to expect that their places will be filled by Democrats.

The Democratic political doctrines that differ most widely from the Republican doctrines are those that concern the tariff, the responsibilities of the national government, the size of the navy and the status of the Philippines.

It is a contention of the Democrats that the protective tariff is unconstitutional, and that the present customs duties should be gradually reduced to a revenue basis. The party leaders realize, however, that a sudden and radical change in the tariff of a nation would be ruinous.
They promise, therefore, to see that no legitimate business suffers.

The Democrats are opposed to the tendency to increase the powers of the national government. They believe, rather, that the power of the states should be increased, and that in such matters, for example, as the control of corporations, the national government should be called upon to act only when the states have shown themselves unable or unwilling to handle the problem.

During the time that the party has been in the minority, it has opposed the Republican naval program; but since it is now to become responsible for the protection of Americans abroad and the defense of Americans at home, it may see fit to continue to build the ships that naval experts recommend.

In the matter of the Philippines, the party has steadily advocated independence for the natives, but it is of course impossible to say thus early whether that view will lead to definite action.

Governor Wilson's friends believe that his administration will be notably successful. Those who opposed him at the late election hope that his friends will not be disappointed. The whole country is kindly disposed toward him, and wishes him well.—The Youth's Companion.

Hammonton has been having an epidemic of burglaries during a few weeks past. They are the work of amateurs, but no less aggravating. Last Friday night they broke a window in the rear of Red Cross Pharmacy, gained entrance, stole more than twenty dollars' worth of Goswami pens and money figures. Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. W. J.
Smith were spending the evening with Dr. Waas and family; on their return found that their residence had been entered, by way of a rear window, and the second-story neatly ransacked. About two hundred dollars in money, a lady's watch, and suits of clothes, were taken.
Jewelry and silverware were evidently not wanted. Efforts are being made to detect the burglars. There have been a number of other nocturnal visits, and rumors of still others, which may all come out before long.

Hammonton will probably have an up-to-date New Year's eve, Tuesday, Dec. 31st. A committee has been appointed, and they will confer with others. It is hoped that everybody will take an interest in it, and even exceed the good time on hallow'en. In the meantime, he planning the rig.

In Chancery of New Jersey

Between
Pauline DeBelt
Petitioner, and J. S. Mart, Respondent.
The petitioner having filed her petition in the above cause, and process of citation having been served and returned according to law, and it now appearing that personal notice of process upon the defendant within the time allowed by law, has not been made,
It is on this twenty-first day of November,
A.D. 1912, ordered, that the notice of the order be published for two weeks, in the South Jersey Republican, a newspaper published in this state, and continued therein for four weeks, and it is further ordered, that service upon the defendant of the petition and order be made within the said twenty-two days, and in the event of disobedience of this order, the petitioner shall be entitled to the relief sought by her in the petition.
J. S. Mart, Plaintiff. E. H. Walker, Attorney.

Wouldn't it be a good plan for Council to pass an ordinance, forbidding the sale of rifles of any description to minors, and prohibiting any child under eighteen years handling or firing one. Boys are entirely too careless in the use of fire-arms, sometimes wilfully so; and if debarred from handling them, the danger from the stray missiles will be less.
Windows broken are a small thing; supposing a bullet strikes a person's temple, or eye?

Thanksgiving Day was more like Christmas. Early risers found everything covered with snow, which continued falling nearly all day.
This melted some, then froze, making fine sledding for the youngsters;
but Friday's sun made slush of it.

The finding of the specialists, that Schrank, Col. Roosevelt's assailant, is insane, appears to satisfy everybody. He will probably spend the balance of his days in an asylum, and prove a lesson to some others of uncertain tendencies.

Don't Bathe in a Cold Bathroom

It's mighty disagreeable peeling down to Nature's garb in a chilly bathroom. Then after your plunge—your pores opened by the warm water of the bath—you're in prime condition to take a good heavy cold if you become chilled.
Don't do it—it's dangerous.

Where 2=3

Here are some definite statements and facts to show that you either delude yourself or are unknowingly humbugged when you buy inferior paint.

A gallon of low priced paint won't cover more than 200 to 250 square feet, two coats. The label on the can and the printed matter concerning the paint often even tells you that.

A gallon of

Lucas Tinted Gloss PAINT

ONCE USED ALWAYS PREFERRED

Covers at least 300 square feet, two coats.

When you use inferior paint you must buy three gallons to do the work that could be done with two gallons of Tinted Gloss and besides you've got to pay for the additional time and labor required to apply the greater amount of an inferior paint.

Remember these things when you buy paint and then you won't fool yourself or be fooled.
