A true patriol will stand for his home, his town, and his country. Shouldn' support his town paper?

Next week we shall probably publish data in regard to the new school law. It is changed very much, resembling the primary, necessitating the filing of individual petitions; and only those who voted at the last general election are elegible to office.

Yes, and why did you break that New Year's resolution so soon? Join one of the Christmas savings clubs-if you have not alreadyyou will appreciate it next tax time.

In nominating members for the Water Commission and Board of Health, Councilman Lucas made his maiden speech; said by several who heard it, to be the best one heard on the floor for some time. Mr. O'Donnell responded to it eloquently and explained several inside facts which will develope later. The little tilt, however, will not retard any of Council's work; in fact, friends are looking for even a more hustling

COLLECTION- OF -CHECKS

PROMPT collection of checks for its customers is one of the features of its service in which this Bank takes a pardonable pride.

THIS is an essential of satisfactory service, because dilatoriness in collection of checks, especially at distant points, may result in there being no funds to meet them upon their arrival at the bank upon which they are drawn.

Big Basket Sall Game.

Basketball faus in this section of New Jersey are all on the qui vive over what is regarded as one of the major contests of the season, to be played here on Saturday evening, January 20. The contest, which has been arranged by Thomas B. Delker, of Hammonton, a lover of clean sports, will be fought out by six of the best players of Atlantic City and the six best players of Hammouton.

The Atlantic City Collegians will present Allen Bossler, of the Atlantic City High School, and Morris Guards teams, and Joseph Sharp, of the Melrose team, as forwards; Edward Miller, of Atlantic City Bastern League five, as center Joseph Mangold, of the Atlantic City Eastern League, George Oberholzer, of the same organization and Donald Hasenfelder, as guards The game promises to be the most interesting ever played here. Ham monton will pick its best stars for this game.
