

THE REPUBLICAN.

POTTER & CO., Publishers.
1872.

Americans in Russia.

Nearly everything in any way relating to the American emigration has a present interest, it is necessary to recall the reader that the Emperor

Nicholas, the Emperor Alexander, the Grand Duke, and the Emperor of Russia in every department of the government have always shown a frank interest in the affairs of the country which regulate the relations between the United States and the Russian Empire.

The American government has done much to assist in great improvement of the commercial relations between the two countries.

More

and more Americans will be sustained in their position.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

Russia, and that it

be a policy of friendliness.

It is equally important that

the American government

have a decided

policy in its relations with

EDWARD NORTH M.D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

HAMMONTON, N.J.

Residence opposite the Hotel, in the house formerly occupied by Dr. Donisthorpe.

Mr. J. D. DONISTHORPE, REPUBLICAN for sale his newspaper. Persons wishing extra copies may call at his office at the same price as others, or one single copy 3cts. or 6 copies 15cts.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Dr. E. North has returned to Hammonton after giving his services to the poor in medical treatment. His residence is on Central Avenue. See advertisement in another column.

A grand Polygraphic entertainment will be given at the Presbyterian Church, Hammonton, on Friday evening, Dec. 15. Splendid views of renowned Places and Sceneries, comic Views of a moral character, &c., will be exhibited. Doubtless it will be highly entertaining and instructive to old and young. The proceeds to be devoted to charitable purposes.

DRIVING A BARGAIN.—Some people are good hand at driving a hard bargain, shaving down to the finest point and clinching it with a close grip. They know all about what they are buying, or they don't buy till they do, and be who "shuts their eye up." Has to rise early. It is "diamond cut diamond." This should not be; confidence should exist between buyer and seller, and the result would be satisfaction.

If any one wants a genuine easy bargain in Winter Clothing now is the time to get ore at the great Clothing Emporium of BENNETT & CO., TOWER HALL, No. 518 MARKET STREET, half-way between Fifth and Sixth streets, Philadelphia. 26-27.

A Lecture on the Customs, Places, and Scenes of Bible Lands by Rev. A. C. Thomas, who has recently visited Egypt and Palestine, will be delivered at the Baptist Church on Monday next, Dec. 18, 1871, at 7 o'clock P.M. A rare opportunity to obtain a large fund of useful knowledge is offered to Bible readers and students, Sabbath School teachers and scholars, and the public in general, in these lectures. A Sciptoon Light will be held illustrating with brilliant Colossal Pictures, views of Places, Costumes, Marriage, and Funeral ceremonies, Houses, Home-life, &c. The Sabbath School has obtained this Lecturer at considerable expense, and a liberal patronage is solicited.

The price of admission is low, being only 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. Let us all give them our presence.

Mr. WADDELL.—On Thursday evening Nov. 23, at the Rev. H. Watson of the Methodist Church, was entertaining some of his friends in his parlor a crowd of persons gathered without any opportunity for private conversation. The door was restored, and he was assured that the crowd was not envious but friends, a member of the throng arose and presented Mrs. Watson with a Field & Lydon Sewing Machine, a dress and other useful articles valued at $77.00. Mr. Watson responded with the best little speech after which the company partook of a collation and went quietly to their homes, gratified with their visit.

Smith's Landing, Dec. 5, 1871.

CIVILITY costs nothing, and at times we find beneath a rough exterior a nature most refined.

By kindness life is beautified; it should be used by all.

You'll find both universal At Bennett's Tower Hall.

This is the well-known Clothing Emporium (where everything is so cheap) of BENNETT & CO., TOWER HALL, No. 518 MARKET STREET, half-way between Fifth and Sixth streets, Philadelphia. 25-27.

Special Notices.

DRAFFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH treated with the utmost success, by J. Isaacs, M. D., and Professor of Diseases of the Eye and Ear, (his specialty) in the Medical College of Pennsylvania, 18 years experience. (Formerly of Leyden, Holland,) No. 805 Arch St. His specimens can be seen at his office. All medical faculty are invited to accompany his patients, as he has no secret in his practice. Artificial eyes inserted without pain. No removal operation.

CHEAPEST CARPETS IN PHILADELPHIA! NO MISTAKE!

Can be made by going direct to EVANS, who make for him, selling the finest and largest CARPETS to be found in the city. Very good quality, from the lowest grade and most durable Carpets, to the finest. All Carpets, also, with out exception, are woven with the finest silk. Study your samples without examination.

JOHN M. DEPUTY,
No. 197 Nassau Street, New York.
PHILADELPHIA, 2622 N. Broad Street, Philadelphia, 2000 ft. India Brussels.

COALS, COAL GAS, OIL, &c. All kinds of coals supplied every day. Coal Gas, &c. Every kind of oil, &c. sent to you at cost price, and payment gathered when payment due.

THE GERMANIA INSURANCE COMPANY OF Newark, N.J.

No. 762 Broad Street, (Opposite Bank street.) Capital - $100,000.

This Company insure against LOSS or DAMAGES BY FIRE, upon all descriptions of property, at rates as favorable, as the insured among other good companies in this vicinity, either on the Market Street or Canal Assurance Plan.

Dividends declared annually.

OFFICERS.

JAMES M. PATTERSON, President GEO. C. WEBNER, Treasurer.
THOMAS MORRIS, Surveyor.

JOSEPH R. BROOKS, Secretary.

POTTER & CORDERY, Agents, HAMMONTON, N.J.

COLGATE'S SODA-COKE.

COLGATE'S SODA-COKE.