VOL. 50.

HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1912.

No. 50

Comrade Pogy Thomas is still far from well.

Volunteer Fire Company meets next Monday evening,—annual election of officers, etc.

This office appears to be headquarters for cardboard and paper used for Christmas decorations and presents.

James Scullin, a former Ham-montonian and school teacher, is with the Hemingway Piano Co., Atlantic City. He spends a day here, occasionally.

There will be a New Year's eve chicken potpie supper, in the store until recently occupied by Harry McD. Little. Everybody invited. Proceeds go to the Presbyterian Church.

In preparing copy for publication, one of the Association's officers made a mistake in the list of prizes awarded at the poultry show. In the S. C. White Leghorns, Anton Piez was given first for hen; B. P. Gray, third for hen. The report as published had these two transposed.

Tuesday afternoon, as Messrs. H. C. Doughty and Leroy Jackson were riding their motor-cycles on Twelfth Street, approaching the station, a horse was evidently frightened by the peculiar exhaust racket, and bolted. The young men tried to get out of the way, but Mr. Doughty's machine was struck, and the rider pinned underneath it; while the wagon passed over both rider and machine. Mr. D's head was pretty badly cut, and both legs lacerated. It will require a few days of rest to fit him for business.

Christmas Exercises.

The various Sunday Schools will render exercises appropriate to the day,—the plans of each being so different that we are sure all will have a good time.

The Baptists will entertain their friends on Monday evening after Christmas. Their programme, entitled "Our Saviour's Birthday," is unusually good, carrying with it the true spirit of the day, instead of the light Santa Claus jingles too common in programmes.

The Presbyterians will, Sunday, 22nd, during Sunday School hour, have appropriate exercises. On Monday afternoon, 23rd, at two o'clock, the junior classes will have their good time; and on Christmas night a social, music, etc.

The Universalists will have an appropriate sermon Sunday morning, 22nd. In the evening, service of story and song, entitled "In Quest of the King." A tree and a few exercises by choir and school will be given some evening during the week.

The Methodist School, with Miss Nettie Monfort as conductor, is rehearsing Tuller & Meredith's "The Supreme Gift," for the Christmas exercises, which are to be held on Christmas night.

At St. Mark's, arrangements have not been completed; but they will have a good time, as usual.

To accommodate auto owners, an agent will be in town about Jan. 1st, to issue auto and drivers' licenses. The exact date will be given later.

Ralph Bingham, the fun-maker, entertainer, singer, pianist, and violinist, was all here Monday evening (with his charming wife), and certainly entertained. In fact, some people have grins on their faces yet; and judging by others, they haven't had time to remember their blues, "a-thinking of the puns." While there was not the instruction of a lecture, it encouraged us to look on the pleasanter side of things. He was good in everything he did, and will be welcomed to Hammon-ton another time.

Only eight shopping days after to-day.

Rev. John D. Counterline, D.D., died on Tuesday morning, at his home in West Philadelphia. Because of his long illness, this news was not unexpected, though many will mourn his departure. While pastor of the Hammon-ton Presbyterian Church, he won hosts of friends, who deeply sympathize with his bereaved widow (herself beloved by many here), and other relatives.

The doctor was a man of uncommon attainments, extensive writer, earnest and untiring in his chosen work, compelling attention by his eloquence, successful in every undertaking. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the house; burial in the family plot at Schenectady, N. Y.

St. Mark's Church, third Sunday in Advent. 7.00, Morning Prayer; 7.30 and 10.30, Holy Communion; 11.45, Sunday School; 7.30, Evening Prayer. St. Thomas' Day, Dec. 21st; 7.00, Morning Prayer; 7.30, Holy Communion; at 5.00, Evening Prayer. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, Ember Days.

At the M. E. Church to-morrow: Class meeting, 9.30 a.m. Preaching at 10.30 and 7.30, by Pastor W. L. Shaw. Bible School at 12; Jr. League, 3.00; Epworth League at 6.45. Prayer meeting at 7.30 Thursday evening. Literary and Social Club at 7.30, Friday.

On account of neglect of duty on the part of train men, Mrs. Lee did not arrive at the Universalist Church, last Sunday evening, in time to give her talk on her recent visit to Siberia. She will be present without fail, to-morrow evening, at 7.30.

Thursday was 12—12—12.

Attend the corn exhibit at Mays Landing to-day.

The Farmers' and Merchants' Building and Loan Association meets next Tuesday evening.

Regular morning service at the Universalist Church to-morrow, at eleven o'clock, followed by Sunday School.

Thomas R. Wescoat and Charles Davenport were "stuck" on the special jury,—were still sticking yesterday afternoon.

A musicale will be given in Bellevue Hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 17th, under the auspices of the "Blue and White."

At seven o'clock on Wednesday morning, thermometer registered seventeen above zero; at one o'clock it was twenty-one. Pretty cold weather.

Black's big store is full of interesting things for Christmas shoppers. Toys, books, and many more substantial articles are there, ready to make many happy.

Mrs. Margaret W. Cunningham, widow of the late Dr. William C. Cunningham, died on Tuesday, Dec. 10th, aged 49 years. Funeral services were held last evening, in Camden.

Presbyterian Church. Worship at 10.30; theme, "The mercy I trust." Sabbath School at noon. Society of C. E. at 6.45; Anna M. Walther, leader. Evening, 7.30, theme, "Perfection, how found." Thursday evening, at 7.30, prayer meeting. Shall we make His the first claim, always? M.

Mrs. Downs, of Vineland, will put in a stock of "remnants" in the Spear building.

Once again, the floor had to be renewed in front of general delivery window, in our post-office.

Take the children to Bank Bros. toy department, to see Santa Claus. He will be located there until Christmas.

Jesse B. Wescoat has the contract to remove garbage for one year,—awarded by the Board of Health at Tuesday night's meeting.

Have you been to the Fair yet, in Bellevue Hall? If not, don't miss the last and best day. Come to supper, and spend the evening.

Hammon-ton schools will close on Friday next, Dec. 20th, to re-open on Thursday, Jan. 2nd. This gives teachers time to reach home before Christmas, and a week more for enjoyment.

Mrs. J. C. Bitler received word, Tuesday, of the sudden death of her sister. In an hour's time she was enroute for home, Nazareth, Pa., to mingle her tears with those of her dear ones.

Albert S. Gay, a former prominent Hammon-tonian, died on Tuesday, 10th, at Pineville, Pa., aged 71 years. Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral service to be held in Oak Grove Cemetery on Monday, 16th, at 12.30.

A very interesting meeting of the Board of Health was held on Tuesday evening, at which time a committee was appointed to confer with the Supervising Principal of our schools about alleged irregularities in the school hygiene.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1912

There is something about Christmas giving,—the thinking about others, and what they will like,—that warms the heart and makes one feel cheerful, happy and busy. That is, if giving is done in the right way: not by bestowing useless trifles that soon degenerate into "clutter," just for the sake of giving something; nor gifts so expensive that you begrudge them, because handsome ones have been (or may be) given you. Give something you believe is needed or desired by the recipient. If too much for your single purse, the spirit of the day is "combination." How, for instance, would the mother appreciate an easy chair, or a new cloak or dress, given by all her children? Or one family might unite in giving to another a nice picture, or a subscription to a newspaper or magazine. And perhaps father enjoys periodicals. Pretty china and porcelain dishes, or a chafing dish, are always acceptable, and will bring many a pleasant thought of the donor if marked "For daily use." For the children, good substantial toys, that will not go to pieces before night. But the main thing is for each to be bent on making every other member of the family happy and comfortable, even down to the old horse, cow, dog, cat, and chickens, and the birds that winter with you; and thus you will be sure of a happy time, full of the true spirit of Christmas.

New Year's Eve plans are continually growing. In fact, some of our business men are getting excited over it. Committees from the lodges are holding consultations, and should have the co-operation of all. Those of the Red Men are: Messrs. H. Nicolai, W. H. Miller, Chas. Slack, A. B. Holman, and Albert Dunning. Louis Spies, who started the Halloween fun, has some good stunts started. Even some of our lady friends are making plans. The more the merrier!

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin.

CONVENIENT TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES

The Pennsylvania Railroad, by main lines, branches, subsidiary lines, and connections, covers the Eastern country so completely that the people of almost every community may avail themselves of its facilities.

The lines reach the cities, the big towns and the little towns, so that whether the impulse to travel be for business, pleasure, or social purposes, it may be satisfactorily carried out, as far as transportation facilities are concerned, by taking a Pennsylvania Railroad train at the nearest point.

Through cars are operated over the lines between all important centres of population, and an excellent dining car service is available at the usual hours for meals on the through trains. The all-steel equipment of the trains adds greatly to the security and comfort of passengers.

The spirit of the holiday season stimulates the wish to travel, and the facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad and its connections appeal with equal force to the home-coming young folks and the migrating people of maturer years.

The comprehensive train service, apart from the local trains well known in each community, covers a wide extent of territory.

BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST.

There are splendid limited trains between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Harrisburg, Altoona, Pittsburg, and points in the West, notably Chicago and St. Louis. Included among these are the "BROADWAY LIMITED," the 20-hour train between New York and Chicago; the "24-HOUR ST. LOUIS," to St. Louis and Chicago; "THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED," to Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, and Cincinnati; and the "CHICAGO LIMITED," to Chicago, Cincinnati, and Cleveland. These are all Pullman trains and provide the highest grade of service. In addition there are a number of express trains to Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, and other important centres of the Middle West, which provide both Pullman and all-steel coach service. Among these are the "Chicago Special," "Chicago Express," "St. Louis Express," "Western Express," and the "Cleveland, Cincinnati and Chicago Express."

TO THE SOUTH.

Those contemplating a trip South, to the resorts of the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, and the Gulf Coast, will find a number of fine trains between the important terminal cities of the Pennsylvania Railroad; and cars to the more important cities of the South, running through from and to New York via Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia. On January 6, 1913, the through Limited Trains between New York and Florida will be placed in service.

COMMERCIAL CENTERS LINKED.

An examination of the time tables of the Pennsylvania Railroad will show that practically all important commercial centres on its lines and connections are linked by through trains, through cars, or convenient connections, affording accommodating service.

Anyone who wishes to go anywhere should consult the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He can give all the information a traveler requires.

Taxes must be paid not later than next Friday. Have you paid yours? Collector Davis will be in his office this afternoon, also every next week. Don't forget!

The swiping of lighted danger lanterns, off the piles of stone, sand, lumps, etc., is no small matter. Boys thought it sport to hoist them up on poles; but supposing a team or automobile struck the obstruction, regarded by danger signal? Thousands of dollars, or perhaps a life, might be sacrificed. Cut it out, boys.

Read the advs. in this issue, and there'll be no excuse for a trip to the city.

Uncle Sam and the Express Companies are already getting busy. People are shipping early, as well as shopping early.

Days like Thursday and Friday were hard on our coal-bins. The lowest record of the season was yesterday, at twelve above zero.

The nearness of Christmas calls to mind, to some of us, our early anticipations. How many of us used to make calendars, all our own, something like this,—checking off a figure each day, until that eagerly-looked-for occasion arrived:

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
10	9	8	7	6	5	4
3	2	1	Xmas.

The new "Parcels Post" law will go into effect Jan. 1st. Under its arrangement, you can send a package containing almost anything, not to exceed eleven pounds in weight, anywhere in the United States or its colonies, for so much per pound, according to distance, as follows: Within Hammoncton, 5 c. first pound, 1 c. each additional pound.

Post-office employees will in time familiarize themselves with its complicated provisions. Papers are having no end of fun,—picturing housewives exchanging pumpkin pies and plum puddings with distant relatives, through the post-office; and farmers shipping eggs to city customers by mail. We will become accustomed to it, after a time, and bless the man who originated the plan.

Mrs. Alice A. A. Case, a trained nurse, has for some time past resided on Twelfth Street, died on Tuesday, of typhoid pneumonia, aged 43 years.

A stray dog attempted to leg a meal from a passing man's leg, the other day, but failed. He tried the same game on Chief Adams, Monday last, but caught only on his big overcoat, and received a vigorous kick. On Tuesday, the same beast seized B. F. Henshaw by the calf of the leg; but Ben had not forgotten his sabre drill, and gave his assailant a swipe over the head with a heavy cane, which laid him low, and with the aid of a friend finished the dog's career. Mr. Henshaw's wound was slight, but he very wisely secured medical treatment.

Here are some definite statements and facts to show that you either believe yourself or are unknowingly humbugged when you buy inferior paint.

A gallon of low priced paint won't cover more than 200 to 250 square feet, two coats. The label on the can and the printed matter concerning the paint often even tells you that.

A gallon of 9422. DOLLS' ROMPERS.

The design here shown will gladden the heart of every doll mother, and the little dresser-maker will find the making an easy task. The romper portion of this model is cut circular and is closed at the centre back. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes, for dolls 18, 20, 22 and 24 inches in height. It requires one yard of 27-inch material for the 20-inch size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

LACES MUCH USED.
Lace is much used.
The sheer laces stand first.
There should be no stiffness.
The laces must fall fairly limp.
And yet they look to have enough body.
Even the metal laces are absolutely soft and sheer.
The brims of some evening hats are made most of lace.
Lace appears in some form on nearly every evening dress of importance.
When eight or ten-inch lace is used for the cuffs fronts the ends may be carried down the back half or three-quarter length.

CHAFING DISH CLAMS A LA NEWBURY.
It's a tasty dish.
First take a pint of clams.
Trim away the tough parts of the clams.
But be careful not to cut the soft part.
Heat two tablespoons of butter over boiling water.
Stir butter constantly. When creamy add one pint of clams.
Heat together the clams of cream and a half pint of cream.
Add this while being careful to keep stirring all of the time.
As soon as it is well mixed turn in the clams and cook until done.

9419. DRESS FOR MISSES AND SMALL WOMEN.
This design may be made with or without the yoke portion. It is suitable for velvet, serge, coutur, voile, muslin, chambray or silk. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 14, 16, 18, 20 and 22 inches. It requires 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for 18-inch size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in silver or stamps.
Perfume will come to us in new outfits in bottles and cases of Egyptian glass. In these bottles and cases are all the latest and most popular perfumes. The bottles are of various shapes and sizes. The cases are of various shapes and sizes. The bottles are of various shapes and sizes. The cases are of various shapes and sizes.

9418. LADIES' DRESS, CONSISTING OF A RUSSIAN SLEEVE WITH PLAIRED SKIRT, ATTACHED TO AN UNDER-WEIST.
Brown serge was used for this design, with a simple design of self-fitting. The blouse with its simple lines is easy to make, and will prove a very comfortable and desirable garment. The skirt is plaited and joined to an under-vest that may be lined under the blouse. The sleeves may be joined to the blouse or under-vest as preferred. The pattern is for a size 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches. It requires 4 yards of 44-inch material for the 36-inch size. ## THE BEST WAY

In Which Half a Dozen Useful Things May Be Done.

To restore rancid butter pack it in a drain, and then take a barrel, put about one barrel of charcoal in it, set the barrel of butter inside the barrel and cover with good brims, letting it stand three or four weeks. Unless very bad, this will restore it.

To make artificial coral, take four parts of yellow resin and one part of vermilion and mix together. Applied as a coating to beads, glass, twigs and cinders, by dipping them into it, it gives the effect of a very pretty coral. It is also useful as a cement.

To relieve (and often to cure) a cough, roast a lemon very carefully without burning it. When it is thoroughly hot, cut and squeeze it into a cup containing three ounces of finely powdered sugar. This is agreeable to the taste and effective.

To make linings less dissatisfied, brown linings in water by boiling them in a wet cloth and hold the velvet firmly over it. The vapor arising will raise the pile of the velvet, with the assistance of a light whisk or soft brush.

To give plaster casts an alabaster effect dip them in a strong solution of alum water.

RECIPE FOR BANANA FRITTERS.
Remove the skins from four bananas, cut in halves lengthwise, and cut halves in four crosswise. Sprinkle with powdered sugar, lemon juice and three tablespoons of sherry wine. Cover and let stand for half an hour. Drain in butter, fry in deep fat, and drain upon brown paper. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve on a folded napkin.

SAVING THE SOAP.
The small pieces of scouring soap that are left over I put through the meat-chopper, use a fine sieve, making them into powder.

—There's a new kink.
—It's not on a wire frame.
—Rather it is on a straw foundation.
—So the hat is more trimmed with washables.
—Lace and batiste another a clever poke shape.
The whole idea is to arrive at a dainty and becoming chaparral.

MENDING.

Mean.
Keep it up.
Begin early.
And do it often.
It's never too early to mend.
It is a case of the proverbial "itch in time."
Some economists even mend articles before they wear them.
Stockings especially repay mending, even before they are worn at all.
Gloves will wear very much longer if every rip is at once attended to.
Not only will all articles repay immediate mending, but they will look better all the time.
"It's never too late to mend" refers to either rather than to our ever-declining attire.
However, the sooner the transgressor begins to mend his ways, the better the look.

THE CAVE-IN

The "pit boss" inspected our "room" in Mine Thirty-three. "Boys," he said, "you'll have to get out of here; this room is going to cave. Got another room for us, John?" asked my "buddy."
"Not till Friday."
"Then we'll stay here."
"You look out. Just if you love the iron the company will take it out of your pay checks." By "iron" he meant the rails and tools.
Our wises were small enough without paying any of it out. "Haven't we better get the iron out?" I asked, when the pit boss said to him.
"Keep cool, kid. When he begins to 'work' we'll leave," replied my "buddy."
"Look out, see coming!" called my "buddy." Glancing up, I saw thousands of tons of rock swaying less than a foot above my head. To throw the pick out at the entry and to plunge head foremost after it was the work of an instant. The mass of rock crashed like a piece of undergrowth. Suddenly he rose upon his hind legs and began to look round in every direction. Why he did so I cannot say. That he was unaware of my nearness I am sure for he had studied my ground very carefully beforehand. My object was not to interfere with him, but to get into the mine. The first I had a rifle with me. I had no intention of gaining the knowledge that was wanted with a bullet. If shot, I could be avoided. My friend soon dropped on his feet again, aghast and rolled on until in a brief time, he reached a low wall surrounding the little field of mine.

BRUIN, THE CLOWN.

A bear may be as terrible as a lion or a tiger, but he is a more versatile beast, for he is usually armed with a great many tricks. Unless Bruin is actually after you, he is almost sure to tickle your sense of humor. This little picture from "Bruin in the Himalayas" shows that the bear of those regions is in this respect quite like his Western brothers. I played the caviardropper on a bear once, and it proved a most interesting and amusing occasion. He wandered out of the woods in a casual manner, without any of the great "scouting and scenting" that most other wild animals practice. He wandered out in a shabby, worn-out, and shabby place belonging to him, and he walked down the hill with that curious, ungainly, ungainly action that always makes you laugh. Once he turned aside, and pushing his head beneath a rock, took a few deep breaths in order to see whether there was an ant-hill there from which he could get a pleasant mouthful. Almost with a sigh for the daintiness that was not, he went on his way, making scarcely any noise, for all the awkwardness, except when he was pushed through a more than ordinary piece of undergrowth. Suddenly he rose upon his hind legs and began to look round in every direction. Why he did so I cannot say. That he was unaware of my nearness I am sure for he had studied my ground very carefully beforehand. My object was not to interfere with him, but to get into the mine. The first I had a rifle with me. I had no intention of gaining the knowledge that was wanted with a bullet. If shot, I could be avoided. My friend soon dropped on his feet again, aghast and rolled on until in a brief time, he reached a low wall surrounding the little field of mine.

THE END OF BIG FOOT.

The old guide, a man sixty-eight years old, lean and drawn, but with a step like that of a young cowboy, and an eye that shone like a boy's, told the story of grizzly-hunting in the Big Foot Mountains to Mr. Charles Adams, who tells it over again in the pages of Recreation. Grizzly, the grizzly, followed by the rest and the fire and the case of the moment, began to tell of some of the events in which he had borne a part in the days when the world was younger and the woods more menacing in respect to the feet they held. It was about that time that he told the story of the killing of the great grizzly, Big Foot.

Town Council Proceedings.

All members were present at the regular meeting, last Wednesday evening.

Light Committee reported purchase of new chemical fire hose;
also, that, with but small change, both street light contracts would be signed. Changes were made, and Mayor and Clerk authorized to affix signatures and seal.

License Committee reported the Denberg application back to Council, and license was granted.

Dominico Dellonoro
Petitioner, and
MATT DELLONORO,
Defendant.

Divorce Order.

The petitioner having filed his petition in the above cause, and process of citation having been issued and returned according to law, and it now appearing that personal service of process upon the defendant within the State could not be made:
It is on this twenty-first day of November
A.D. nineteen hundred and twelve, on motion of A. J. King, Solicitor of the petitioner, ordered that the said absent defendant do answer the petitioner's petition on or before the twenty-second day of January next, or that in default thereof, such decree be made against her, as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.
And it is further ordered, that the notice of this order, prescribed by law and the rules of this Court, shall, within twenty days hereafter be published in "The South Jersey Republican," a newspaper printed at Hammononton.
In this State, and continued therein for four weeks successively, at least once in every week; and it is further ordered that service upon the defendant of the petition and of this order (or notice of this order), as service substituted for personal service of process within the State, be made within the said twenty days and in the manner prescribed by the Rules of Court for such substituted service.
