Prohibition in Maine.

Says our National President, Mrs.
Stevens, replying to allegations concerning violations of prohibitory laws in Maine: Since my return from England
I have made inquiries as to the pictures of Portland "saloons" which are in the Sherwell and Roundtree book, and even an expert deputy could not tell where the pictured places were. The bartenders were "disguised," according to the statement under the photographs.

Why? On the outside of saloons, photographs of the men employed to watch the approach of the officer, were not taken in the picture. Why?

Miss Anna Gordon and I took a tour of inspection around the districts where the law is most violated, and what we saw of the saloons is no more to be compared with the real saloon of the license state than an inch worm is to be compared with a rattlesnake. I can only repeat that prohibition at its worst in any place in Maine, is incomparably better than any form of license at its best.

Referring to the latest expression of Maine opinion, the election of a probi-tion sheriff, Mrs. Stevens continues:
Whenever the voting people of the state speak on the question of prohibition, it is always overwhelmingly in its favor.
If the women could vote, the majority would be much larger; but they work and pray, and steadfastly support the law which has brought blessings instead of curses, joy instead of mourning,
comfort instead of poverty.

If, in a few months, Mr. Sherwell should again visit Maine, he would have to seek new hunting ground to prove that prohibition is a failure, than in the city of Portland. I have studied every phase of the temperance question,
in nearly every state of our great country, and I am sure that Gen. Neal Dow never spoke truer words than when he said, "There is not now, and never has been in this country a locality where the policy of license has diminished the liquor traffic or the evils coming from it." And I might add that of the two great evils of the government, issuing a license to an individual to carry on the defamatory business, or the government carrying on the business itself, I would say the former was the least objectionable; but we have proved, in Maine, that there is a "more excellent way."
May the Lord continue in opening the eyes of the blind, and turning the way of the wicked upside down.

AT LAST.

When on my day of life the night is falling,
And, in the winds from unsunned spaces
blown,
I hear far voices out of darkness calling
My feet to paths unknown.

Thou who hast made my home of life so pleasant,
Leave not its tenant when its walls decay;
O Lord divine, O Helper ever present,
Be Thou my strength and stay!

Be near me when all else is from me drifting:
Earth, sky, home's pictures, days of shade
and shine,
And kindly faces to my own uplifting
The love which answers mine.

I have but Thee, O Father! Let thy Spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold;
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.

Suffice it, my good and ill unreckoned,
And both forgiven through Thy abounding
grace,
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place.

Some humble door among thy many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where sin and striving cease,
And flows forever through Heaven's green
expansions
The river of Thy peace.

There, from the music round about me
stealing,
I fain would learn the new and holy song,
And find at last, beneath thy trees of healing
The life for which I long.

—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Spread Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves.
Electric Bitters tones up the stomach,
regulates liver, kidneys and bowels,
purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves
hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, rundown man or woman. Price 50 cents.

Something Now in Prospect.

Everybody buys the Helix pickles, relishes, etc. They are the best known of any in this country, and the firm's business is probably the largest in its line in the world. Recently, Mr. Heinz and his "industrial manager" visited Hammonton with a view of locating a new plant here. They are about to open another branch, and have several places in view. They called upon a number of our leading business men, received what encouragement could be expected on short notice, and appeared to be favorably impressed. A proposition will probably be made to Hammontonians, which we hope can and will be accepted.

This is a desirable industry. It will give farmers a large home market for much that they can raise, and will employ many hands. We are told that their plant in Muscatine, Iowa, now ten years old, contains $50,000 worth of machinery, and employs about one thousand hands. There is some idle capital in Hammonton, and it is hoped that the owners thereof will be willing to place a portion of it for the public good. At Fredricktown, it is said Mr. Heinz is offered four acres of land and five thousand dollars toward necessary buildings. We have no idea what they will ask here, but it seems as though the above offer could be duplicated, and more.

22-Doric Lodge, No. 12, Shield of Honor, is to give a ball on Saturday evening, Dec. 22nd, in Jackson's Hall. Admission for gentlemen, 25 cents; ladies, 15 cents; spectators, 10 cents.

23-The Board of Health at Pleasantville closed all schools and churches this week, on account of diphtheria. There have been two deaths and one other case of that disease reported there.

24-All members of Little, H. H. Council, No. 27, D. of H., are requested to be present at the meeting next Monday evening, Dec. 17th. There will be important business and nomination of officers.

25-A. H. Whitmore has bought the property on the corner of Central Ave. and Grape Street, and moved thither with his family yesterday. Those who wish paper-hanging done will hereafter find Fred at that location.

26-Harry Davison is conducting a traveling drug store. In other words, he is selling from a wagon, all along the shore, and wherever there is no druggist, medicine and fancy goods from the Crowl Pharmacy, at Hammonton.

27-J. S. Patterson lost his fine horse recently from lock-up, the cause of which appears to be uncertain. Mr. P. owned the horse for about ten years, and it being a very intelligent animal, and a constant companion, his death is mourned almost as that of a human friend would be.

28-Geo. D. A. Russell Camp, Sons of Veterans, will assemble at headquarters, Sunday, Dec. 10th, at 1:30 p. m., sharp, to attend the funeral of Comrade Wm. D. Arlitz.

By order of LEONARD MILLER.
H. C. LEONARD, 1st Sec'y.

29-Mr. William D. Arlitz died on Thursday morning, Dec. 13th, at his residence, Central Avenue, Hammonton, aged 65 years. Mr. Arlitz had been ailing for a long time, and for two months or more confined to the house. He was a soldier during the rebellion, and a member of Gen. D. A. Russell Post, G. A. R. Funeral services at the house on Sunday, at 2 o'clock p. m. The Post and Camp will attend.

A Shocking Calamity
Lately befell a railroad laborer, writes Dr. A. Kellett, of Whitford, Arkansas. "His foot was badly crushed, but luck broke Arlitz. He was quickly cured. It is simply wonderful for burns, boils, piles, and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25 c. Sold by Crowl."

The Lyceum Meeting.

The Universalist Church was crowded to its fullest capacity on Monday evening at the third meeting of the Lyceum, the main attraction being the debate upon the question of the right of women to propose marriage.

Although the arguments were not devoid of humor, the subject was, in the main, treated from the serious standpoint, and was handled with marked ability by both sides. In the general debate, Squire Pressy created much amusement by his comical picture of the effect upon male costume which would follow the adoption of the reform proposal.

Although the decision of the judges was in favor of the negative, a vote of the audience, especially of the male section of it, would, we think, have agreed that affirmative had the better of the argument.

The entertainment preceding the debate was enlivened by a comic song by Dr. Waas, entitled "Why don't the men propose, mamma?"

The next meeting will be held next Monday evening, Dec. 17, because of the regular meeting night falling on Christmas Eve. The topic for debate is, "Resolved, that U. S. Senators should be elected by direct vote of the people." The affirmative will be sustained by Messrs. J. A. Cunningham and C. K. Nelson, and the negative by Rev. W. N. Osborn and Mr. A. L. Jackson.

20-The Alumni Association of the Hammonton High School is now fully organized. An enthusiastic band of young men and women met in the hall of their alma mater, recently, and formed a permanent organization. The uses that the association might serve was thoroughly discussed. Apart from its social advantages, the gathering of the Alumni at the annual meetings, the renewal of the old school ties, it was thought that it might be of much service in agitating needed improvements in our schools, in keeping the advantages of a thorough going course of study in the High School before the community. It is hoped that the alumni who do not live in town will take an interest and enroll themselves as members. The annual dues are 50 cents. The officers chosen are:

President, Mr. A. L. Jackson.
Vice-President, Mr. Wm. Damsell.
Recording Sec'y, Miss Kate Garcon.
Cor. Sec'y, Mr. H. K. Spear.
Treasurer, Mr. Chas. Campanella.
Board of Managers, Mr. J. E. Hoyt, Mrs. A. L. Jackson, Mr. Garfield Kramer, Miss Laura Davison, and the officers.

21-One of the daintiest pictures will be given free to every reader of the Philadelphia Sunday Press to-morrow, Dec. 16. It is entitled "The Young Mother," and is the masterpiece of Miss Maud Slum. It is the second of a series of reproductions of great paintings which are being issued by the Sunday Press, and is certain to prove a sensation. The beauty of the subject, and the coloring render this picture peculiarly attractive. It will be well to order next Sunday's to-day.

22-Mr. William Hubbard Parkhurst and Miss Elea Simmons Woodruff were married at high noon, Saturday, Dec. 14th, 1900, in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, by the Rev. Rev. E. O. Alcorn. It was a quiet wedding, none but immediate families being present. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst started for a visit in Washington, D. C. Both the young people are social favorites, and have the best wishes of all.

23-Millions Given Away.

On and after Jan. 1st, 1902, the state of New Jersey will have no bonded debt. On that date the last remnant of the debt incurred during the Civil War—some $72,000;—will become due, and the money is now on hand to pay it.
