SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR DECEMBER 17, 1911.
THE FIRST BIBLE CLASS ON RECORD.

Nehemiah 8.

Ezra Teaches the Law. Nehemiah 8. The law of the Lord is precious, converting the soul. Psalm 119.

An old Bible class with a whole city full of pupils and a very famous scholar as teacher: not often has there been such a sight.

Ezra was not only a great scholar and a diligent student of the Bible but what was more to the purpose as a preparation for this great Bible lesson, he was a man of a deeply spiritual nature and a deep sense of the God whose Word he undertook to expound. Learned men who are not humble-minded men and who are not men of God are not fit to expound Scripture; for as Paul tells us, spiritual truth can only be spiritually discerned. (1 Cor. 2: 14.)

It is a great privilege to hear the Bible expounded by such a man as Ezra—a man in whom the Spirit of God was so abundantly present that he was qualified to expound the Word of God in a way that would be understood by all.

This day is holy unto the Lord your God: mourn not, nor weep. * * * For the joy of the Lord is your strength. * * * Weeping is not a profitable occupation, except when a heart is so overwhelmed with grief that it must find vent in tears.

Conviction of sin should bring sorrow to the heart, but if the penitent sinner will not let his eyes be turned from the Lord, his eyes will be turned to the Lord, and he will find that his sorrow for sin will be speedily transformed into the joy that comes from the assurance that the sin is wiped out and that he can look up into the face of God with confidence.

Mourning, weeping, grieving, weaken a man or woman, mentally and spiritually as well as physically. It is not sorrow, that gives strength to the believer to fight his battles.

And yet, that in only one side of the truth. No one can really rejoice in the salvation of God who is not genuinely sorry for his sins. Even the arrow of conviction goes into a man's heart, the more keenly he realizes the evilness of his sins, the greater will be his joy in forgiveness. The man who, like David, makes his bed weeping, with his tears all night (Psalm 63) because of his sin will, like David, love God intensely when he feels that God has forgiven him.

Most laborers find too much hay. Never give a horse any more than he will eat up clean. Many excellent horsemen give no hay at all at the noon rest, but the horse gets hungry in the evening and gives the horse all that he will clean up in the morning, but no more.

An extensive hog-raising party is better for the hogs than worms than worms in the hogs. It is better to have the hogs in the mud than to have them in the mud and worms. It is better to have the hogs in the mud than to have them in the mud and worms.

We are all in sympathy with the human in his desire to be the death of sin. But the man who is the death of sin is the man who is the death of sin. The man who is the death of sin is the man who is the death of sin.

To a hard working horse regime in almost all places is a necessity as food. Unless a horse has been regularly fed, his body will be in a state of starvation and he will be unable to do his work. It is true that some horse men are in a splendid position and continue working their horses in a regular way, but they would work much better if they were fed more.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Topic for Dec. 17, 1911.
MISSIONS IN THE WEST INDIES.
2 Cor. 12: 1-15.

Porto Rico—Previous to the American occupation, no evangelical work had ever been done in the island. Under the Spanish regime evangelic missions were prohibited.

There was an Anglican Church in Ponce exclusively for English speaking residents. Since the American occupation conditions have changed, all restrictions have been removed, and members of the American missionary societies are now represented in the island. Porto Rico has been, so far, mapped between the front religious bodies, and it has been agreed between them that in towns under 8,000 population the Protestant churches should be the first to be established in full possession.

There are eleven different evangelic denominations at work in Porto Rico. The Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Baptists, Congregationalists, Methodists, the Disciples, Christians, Unitarian, Lutherans, and Seventh-Day Adventists. There is also an undenominational work near Ponce under the direction of a former Spanish Capuchin monk.

Hospital work at Santitico is under the Presbyterian Church. Protestant orphanages are also found in Bayamo and Caguas.

At first, as in all new fields, the work of the missionaries was slow and painful. Disappointments were many, but the workers were not discouraged. They were determined to do the work of God in the West Indies, and they were determined to do it.

Some fruit growers believe that the most appropriate time to plant an apple orchard is in the fall, from the last of October till the middle of November, when the ground is warm and moist enough to work well, but not too hot. At that time the growing season is over and the trees will hardly be injured at all by the change from nursery to orchard.

Under the Spanish regime Cuba could not even host a church. The Spanish government prohibited the Cubans from trying to propagate evangelic doctrines, but owing to various material causes, to the laws and the attitude of the Spanish government, the Cubans had failed in quick succession. The disappearance of the Spanish flag opened a new era for Cuba.

There, too, as in Porto Rico, the beginnings were slow and hard. Some came through curiosity and went on to stay. Others were attracted by the new expectations and also went their way. But the good seed had been sown, and it bore fruit. Once more the key to the future of the island was in the hands of the people.

Manure stains on white or gray horses are very unsightly and at times a great help in such cases and white ammonia will not do the work ordinarily white whiting will cover up the stain. It is not likely to be removed by the use of ammonia, but it will remove the cause of the trouble.

Most laborers find too much hay. Never give a horse any more than he will eat up clean. Many excellent horsemen give no hay at all at the noon rest, but the horse gets hungry in the evening and gives the horse all that he will clean up in the morning, but no more.

An extensive hog-raising party is better for the hogs than worms than worms in the hogs. It is better to have the hogs in the mud than to have them in the mud and worms. It is better to have the hogs in the mud than to have them in the mud and worms.

We are all in sympathy with the human in his desire to be the death of sin. But the man who is the death of sin is the man who is the death of sin. The man who is the death of sin is the man who is the death of sin.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES

PRESERVING CIDER—VINGGAR

(1) Will you give me a good recipe for preserving cider sweet? Can vinegar be made from apple pomace? If so, give the method of doing it. The cider is not based on the revelation of his will for us which we have in the Bible.

To do this, the Oregon Experiment Station has collected a large quantity of the finest apples for the purpose of obtaining the finest flavored product: first strain or filter the juice through a cloth, then strain it through a cloth, then strain it through a cloth.

Fill clean bottles, preferably beer bottles, with the cider, leaving an inch of space at the top. Cork the bottles, and seal them with a rubber stopper. Put the bottles in a water bath, and heat them to 180 degrees for 10 minutes.

Spring the stoppers in tightly, let stand for 24 hours, then stopper, reheat as above directed, reheat again the third day. Tighten the corks while hot, as they will be easier to handle and to sterilize.

Enough

to provide support and education for your family if you are taken from them? Few men have, but the far seeing ones call Life Insurance to their aid. During 1910 The Prudential paid policy holders over $24,000,000, providing support and education for thousands.

Please do not forget the Civic Club's work in behalf of shut-in people and the children. Already, contributions have been received, including a handsome check from Will Bessent, and more promises

But to give pleasure to many everybody should help. Yes, we mean

YOU. Send discarded toys (in good condition), produce of all kinds, or money, to Mrs. Samuel Anderson, chairman of committee; and have everything in by Tuesday, 19th, to give the committee time.

Don't, don't, DON'T throw waste paper into the street, or where it can reach the street. For some days, Bellevue Avenue looked like a rag shop, with discarded paper floating about or trampled in the dirt.

Let each one take care of his own waste, and there will be no cause for complaint.

Do not forget to be courteous. A pleasant "thank-you" at this season would not hurt you, even if it becomes a habit.

Between
 Maggie Richardson, Complainant, and
 Emil Gera, et al.,
 Defendants.
 To the Unknown Heirs, Devisees and Personal
 Representatives of John S. Allen, Deceased
 By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Maggie Richardson is complainant, and Emil Gera, et al., are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the Bill of said complainant, on or before the Fifth day of February, next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you. The said Bill is filed to foreclose a certain mortgage on lands and premises situate in the Town of Hammonton, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, and bounded and described as follows:
 BEGINNING in the centre of Eleventh Street,
 eighty rods West of the centre of First Road and extending thence (1) South forty-three degrees, twenty minutes East and along the line of the place formerly owned by one Jones, eighty rods; thence (2) South forty-six degrees
 forty minutes West ten rods; thence (3) North forty-three degrees, twenty minutes West,
 eighty rods to the centre of Eleventh Street,
 thence (4) along the same, North forty-six degrees forty minutes East, ten rods to the place of beginning. Containing five acres, more or less.
 John S. Allen, during his lifetime, was the owner in fee of said premises and died intestate, leaving him surviving his widow and no known heirs, and you are made defendants because of the fact that it is unknown whether or not the said John S.
 Allen at the time of his death left surviving him any heirs capable of inheriting his estate
 under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

Inferiority

Any one of a dozen
 things may happen or two or three things generally do happen when an inferior paint is used. For instance, the paint won't dry, or the colors fade or the paint cracks and peels off, or the paint won't spread right, or the paint covers poorly and you need three coats instead of two, or it wears out in a year or two, etc.
 Further, inferior paint often leaves a surface in such bad condition that it's years before the damage done is really remedied.
 When repainting is necessary you are put to considerable trouble and expense to burn off all old previous coat so that the new paint can be applied to a good foundation.
 Remember these facts when you buy paint. Get good, honest, reliable and be trouble free. Its first cost may be a little more than the inferior kind of paint, but even if it costs twice as much as it does,

 it would be more economical in the end.
