A REFLECTION.

There's a Christmas in the atmosphere—
You can feel it in the tingle.
There's a Christmas in the sleighbells—You can hear it in the jingle.
The spirit is infectious,
It enlivens young and old, And sets the heart aglow despite The winter's piercing cold.

There's Christmas in each honest face That passes brightly smiling; There's Christmas in the snow-drifts On the cross-walk swiftly piling.
You'll find it—Merry Christmas—No matter where you look, Except, alas! where needed most—Inside the pocket-book.

The Republican.
(Entered as second-class matter.)

The Grand Army Fair opened very auspiciously, on Tuesday evening, with "Rebecca's Triumph," which was witnessed by a good audience. On Wednesday evening the hall was found beautifully decorated with the national colors and evergreen, with booths along each side, under which were tables loaded with articles of ornament and use, many of them manufactured by the ladies who are interested in the Post, and all offered for sale at reasonable prices. The attendance, with their very pretty surroundings and holiday merriment, formed an attraction that proved irresistible to many. It was a very unpleasant night, but the attendance was good, the music and tableaux enthusiastically applauded.

Christmas.

It is very wonderful, what a power Christmas has upon the world at large; and every year it seems to gather to itself a mightier power, not the power of magic, nor the power of the divine light, but the power of a divine life.
The world is truly concerning itself more deeply with the mystery of life.
Christmas means peace and good will among men; it also means Christ in the world, the divine leaves, leaving the whole lump. An actual influence on the minds and hearts, and purposes of men. Men are not always willing to admit the Christly source of the influence; sometimes they do not even know whose hand is at work, softening their hard thoughts and feelings.

There is no getting away from the simple fact that Christmas means Christ —not in any narrow theological sense, but in a large, loving, gentle sense.
Christmas day is Christ's day. Love claims it in Christ's name; charity claims it in Christ's name; and the path of the sick and the poor, and the desolate, is made bright and beautiful by it. The children claim it, for was not Christ a child? and their songs rise in happy exultation to his praise. We all claim Christmas day. May this Christmas day be full of gentle thoughts, and loving words, and tender charity, —which means being full of God himself, who we receive through Jesus Christ. Christ, in the largest sense, means God, who is ever creating, sustaining and blessing the entire universe.
Christ stands now as the summing up of all our needs. His love is all our souls ever need; and when this great truth has been recognized by man-every evil and sickness will receive its death-blow, and man will view in himself the image and likeness of Christ.
MENTAL DEALER.

Influenza—the real genuine European article just imported—is likely to be quite fashionable this winter. It is an innovation that is not to be sneezed at.

The nomination of David J. Brewer to be an associate justice of the United States Supreme Court was confirmed by the Senate, eleven negative votes being cast.

Senator Call, of Florida, will hardly persuade this Government to buy Cuba.
He might try it himself, however, if he wants to engage in the real-estate business.

A movement was started in Indianapolis to organize a state and national temperance party outside of the Prohibition party: the idea being to only vote for candidates pledged to work for the suppression of the liquor traffic.

The New York weekly Mail and Express has given $10,000 to the Grant Memorial Fund and all subscriptions to the paper are to be turned over to the association. Mrs. Grant says the tomb of her husband is finally located at Riverside Park.

The proprietor of a patent medicine is liable in damages for an injury done to the person who takes the medicine according to the directions. This, at least, is the law of Georgia as interpreted by its Supreme Court. This is a wholesome ruling, but it is incomplete.
It meets the noxious preparations that harm, but not the patented humbugs that simply defraud. What is needed is a law that shall punish men who sell medicines warranted to cure all or nearly all the ills that flesh is heir to for obtaining money under false pretences on proof that the intended medicine is a fraud and a device to extract money from the ignorant, the credulous and the simple.

THE FIRST WORD.
Our Sunday School is increasing.
Last Sunday we had 61 scholars and eight teachers. The Superintendent, Mr. Estabrook, was ill and could not be present. We all hope he will be out by next Sunday.

Adam Heiler, carriage builder, has made for himself a very nice carriage.
The new house on First Road, below Eleventh Street, owned by an Italian, is about completed.

Mr. Doerfel is trimming out the under brush on his new land, Twelfth Street and Chew Road.

Mr. Bury has gone to New York to spend Christmas.

WEYMOUTH.
This place is not dead, by any means.
The new pulp mill is working, but needs some alterations to make it fully satisfactory—the owner having consented to change his plans for that purpose. The kindling-wood factory works up some five cords of wood a day. Some cut three inches long, and is tied in bundles about 30 inches in circumference; some is cut about eight inches long and is shipped loose. So there is a business air about the place. There is, too, an interest in the things of the hereafter.
Rev. Mr. Bush, of Elwood, has a good congregation here every Sunday, and a large Sunday School is in successful operation. Perhaps it is better not to mention the wrong efforts of another preacher. Some who are doing most for the good of the place and people are sorry he ever came here. All speak approvingly of Miss Flora Potter, who has charge of our public school. W.

ELWOOD, Dec. 18, 1889.
Mr. Editor:—An instance of the blind leading the blind is portrayed in your last issue, regarding the licensing of a hotel in this place. Whoever the writer of that article was, his aim was to mislead. No second application has been made, or attempted to be made, that I have heard of. The person who talked of buying a property suitable for a hotel asked if a license could be obtained, and was promptly told by the owner that he would not aid in such a scheme, as he had just opposed a license being granted here. It has been said, without qualification, that this party who proposed to sell guaranteed a license, which is the reverse of the truth. The writer of a previous article is referred to the 20th chapter of Proverbs, and "wear a new cobweb over again." I fail to see anything of so simply a nature as cobwebs in that or any other chapter in God's Word. I would refer him to the first verse of the chapter he refers to; also, last clause of the third verse, and to the 17th verse, as presumably applicable to the case in point. His friends and sympathizers will excuse my referring to another passage, which I write out for fear they may not have the Book: "And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand." It is found in Isaiah xxviii, 18. The entire chapter is good for "hand-twisters" to meditate upon.

THE FIRST WORD.
Last Sunday we had 61 scholars and
eight teachers. The Superintendent,
Mr. Estabrook, was ill and could not be
next Sunday.

made for himself a very nice carriage.
The new house on First Road, below
Eleventh Street, owned by an Italian,
is about completed.

Mr. Doerfel is trimming out the under
brush on his new land, Twelfth Street
and Chew Road.

Mr. Bury has gone to New York to spend Christmas.

WEYMOUTH.
This place is not dead, by any means.
about 30 inches in circumference; some
interest in the things of the hereafter.
Rev. Mr. Bush, of Elwood, has a good
congregation here every Sunday, and a
has charge of our public school. W.

ELWOOD, Dec. 18, 1889.
Mr. Editor:—An instance of the
writer of that article was, his aim was
owner that he would not aid in such a scheme, as he had just opposed a license
being granted here. It has been said,
is referred to the 20th chapter of Pro-
chapter he refers to; also, last clause of
covenant with death shall be disan-
for "hand-twisters" to meditate upon.

The Pearl.—There is some talk about the Pearl starberrry plant not being profitable. With me it has proved to be very much so. From 500 plants planted last Spring, they have covered the ground with 5000 plants. I sell them on their merits, not by attempted lowering of other people's stock.

The saying that "we are wonderfully and curiously made" comes home with force when we examine the skin of our bodies with a powerful microscope. We find that it is covered with minute scales like those on a fish. Can now use as stiff a brush as obtainable with impunity. It has also hardened the enamel of my teeth."

The Weekly Press
For 1890 will be as much better than The Weekly Press for 1889 as we can make it. With every issue during the new year it will be

An Eighty Column Paper.

Each of the fifty-two numbers will contain ten pages, or eighty columns, with a total for the year of 520 pages, or $100 columns. Thus it will be "as big as a book," as the saying is.

A Paper of Quality.

Not only will it be as big as a book, but it will be a paper of quality as well as of quantity. It will contain the pick of everything good.

A Paper of Variety.

The idea is that The Weekly Press shall be both clean and wide-awake. It will discuss all subjects of public interest and importance. The writers on its list include: Julia Ward Howe, E. Lyman Linton, F. M. S. Thaler, Louis Pasteur, William Black, Edmund Gosse, Edgar W. Nye, Ople P. Reed, and, indeed, almost every popular writer of note in this country and quite a number of distinguished writers abroad. In fiction, an attraction of the year will be "Zacher," by H. Rider Haggard; another serial story, already engaged, will be "Come Forth," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps.

A Farmer's Paper.

A Woman's Paper.

The "Women's Page" of The Weekly Press alone is worth the subscription price. Its illustrations are attracting attention everywhere.
