22d Year, No. 39.

Published at Hammonton, N. J., on Monday, January 22, 1923. Price, 5 CENTS.

Hammonton, N. J., January 26, 1923

WHAT WAS IN THE BARRELS?
Members of Troop A, State Police, located here, arrested Robert Connor, who claims he is employed as a driver by George Kuehn, of Ocean Heights. Connor was fined $20 and costs by Justice of the Peace Emerson A. Burdick, of this place, and lodged in jail pending payment of the same. Connor was adjudged guilty of driving without a license, and the truckload of alleged beer carried by him was taken in charge by the State Police pending an investigation.

SPEEDERS, ATTENTION!
Judge Shuy sentenced John W. Brennan, of Philadelphia, to six months in jail and a fine of one thousand dollars. Brennan's car struck and killed William C. Harding, also of Philadelphia, on the White Horse pike in October last, while Brennan was driving Lieutenant T. E. Dickinson, of the United States Navy, and a party of joyful guests to Atlantic City. The State Police found seven quarts of Canadian rye in the car.

LEGAL NOTICE
At a regular meeting of the Council of the Borough of Folsom, on January 2, 1923, upon passing the tax ordinance, it was resolved that the following amounts be raised by taxation, for the current year:

For Maintenance of Highways	$350.00
For Maintenance of Sidewalks	$100.00
For Current Expenses	$600.00
Total	$1050.00

Further: A hearing of remonstrances or suggestions from interested taxpayers may be had at the office of the Borough Clerk on Tuesday, the 6th day of February, 1923, at 10 o'clock.

D. M. RODEFFER,
Borough Clerk.

TAXES TO ADVANCE
Hammonton, N. J., January 26.—Despite an announced policy of tax reduction Council must appropriate at least $12,000 to $15,000 more than last year, unless the items in the 1923 budget are to be heavily slashed, or, in some instances, eliminated. The budget will come up for a hearing early in February, when taxpayers will be given an opportunity to express their opinion on the various items making up the grand total.

ALL INVITED
A farmers' institute and oyster supper will be held at Blue Anchor Grange Hall, afternoon and evening, Thursday, February 15. Institute free. Oyster supper, 40 cents. Local speakers from various points.

BOOTLEGGERS ON QUI VIVE
A number of changes have been made in the personnel of Troop A, Bootleggers, and other crooks, are on the uneasy bench, as they fear the new men may attempt to thwart them in the carrying on of their heavy, but unlawful, traffic. Some of the leading bootleggers are now using high-priced cars in an endeavor to supply their patrons without molestation, the cars usually used being of such character as to be easily spotted.

NO REPORT A BOOMERANG
Indications point to a deep interest being taken in the coming school election. Citizens of Italian birth or parentage are planning to make their strength felt at the annual meeting, to be held here on February 12. The fact that no detailed report of the expenses of the Board of Education, such an exposition of facts as had been the custom for decades previously, had been made by Boards of Education for a number of years, has given not only these citizens, but others, grounds for complaint.

CARS CRASH AT ELWOOD
Crashing into another car at Elwood, six miles below here, Diego Mafsegolo, 635 South Broad street, Trenton, received severe internal injuries. The State Police arrested Natalo Collin, also of 625 South Broad street, Trenton, on a charge of reckless driving, driving while intoxicated and using a fictitious license plate. He will be given a hearing before Commissioner Dill, at Trenton. Mafsegolo was a passenger in the car driven by Collin.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL
Prof. P. Cipitone has removed to the D'Giacomo Building, where he will be pleased to meet his friends, pupils and prospective pupils.

BIG TIME AT NESCO
All Nesco turned out to a sauer kraut supper on Saturday evening last in the Nesco fire-house. Sour kraut, fresh-killed pork done to a crisp, mashed potatoes, baked sweet potatoes, hot dogs, cranberry jelly, bread and butter, coffee, cake and peaches made up a menu that pleased all present.

ALL ABOARD FOR BIG SHOW
The members of the Hammonton Poultry Show Association held their annual meeting here Monday evening, electing a new board of officers, adopting a constitution and by-laws, and planning for a record-breaking show next winter. The officers elected were James Harrington, president; Paul Delzeit, vice president; Charles B. Miller, treasurer; Miss M. Radinzel, secretary; William G. Hale, show inspector; Frank Y. Hopping, show superintendent; Otto Bettmann, assistant show superintendent.

TO RESTORE LAW AND ORDER
Hammontonians who attended the Law Enforcement Convention at Trenton are highly pleased over the outlook for better law and order conditions in the future. Many claim it was the best convention they had ever attended; the heartfelt expressions of opinion making it of the greatest interest.

MUST STOP LEAKAGE
Consumers of water who allow their household spigots to leak, or the plumbing to be kept in such condition that water is wasted, must immediately rectify this state of affairs or have water meters installed in their homes. In some instances the water wasted far exceeds the amount used. In one case a water meter was slipped into a property and it showed that five times as much water had been used, most of it wasted, as the flat rate permitted. The property owner made a terrific howl, but the Water Commissioners "had the goods on him." If meters are installed in many of the homes under consideration the Water Commissioners will collect several times as much as the flat rate, unless the introduction of the meters causes the property owners to give more consideration to the question.

GRATEFUL THANKS
We sincerely thank all who were so kind to us in our hour of affliction in the loss of husband and father. Especially do we thank the Moose Band for services rendered.
MRS. JOSEPH CAMPIGLIA.
FRANK CAMPIGLIA.

DR. CROWELL PASSES AWAY
Death this morning claimed Dr. Godfrey M. Crowell, aged 66 years, one of the best known characters in Atlantic county. Deceased had been a resident of Hammonton for over 50 years, a practicing physician here for 40 years. He was, at the time of his death, medical inspector of the public schools of Hammonton school district, which position he had held for a decade past. He was a member of the Atlantic County Medical Society, and of M. B. Taylor Lodge, No. 171, F. and M. of this place. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lillian Crowell, and by a son and two daughters, Edwin Crowell, of Atlantic City; Miss Marion Crowell, of Pleasantville, and Miss Annie Crowell, of Hammonton. Three brothers and a sister also survive the dead physician. Dr. Crowell was one of the old school doctors, one who paid more attention to treating their patients than to collecting bills due them. Hundreds here mourn the bereaved family. Urnemia was the cause of death. We tender our sympathy to the stricken family.

Harrisburg, Pa.—The State Police are exceedingly active in enforcing the "dry" law. Reports come in every day to State Police headquarters of big hauls of liquor and high-powered beer. It is an interesting commentary on the situation, say those informed, that since the broadening of the Governor's inaugural address, in which he most vigorously declared for a rigorous and ruthless enforcement of the "dry" law, the State Police have been receiving more tips than ever as to the location and movement of stocks of beer and liquor.

Hunting Goats by Seaplane

By John Edwin Hogg

The goats on the island of St. Helena were hunted by seaplane. The goats had become a nuisance to the islanders and the military authorities. The seaplane was used to hunt the goats because of the island's terrain. The seaplane was able to land on the water and then fly over the island to hunt the goats. The goats were finally exterminated.

Hunt for Wild Goats

At breakfast on the morning of our fifth day, when the other visitors overhead came to breakfast, the seaplane was seen flying over the island. The seaplane was hunting for wild goats. The goats were found on the island and were hunted by the seaplane. The goats were finally exterminated.

A BAD ACCIDENT

While Andrew Merlino, aged fifty years, of Fairview avenue, this place, was chopping wood yesterday a wedge used by him flew into the air, striking his left eye and tearing out that eye.
Some years ago Merlino lost his right eye, so that he is now likely to be totally blind. He was taken to Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, for further treatment. Dr. Anthony Esposito, the attending physician here, states that there is practically no hope for a restoration of the victim's eyesight.

GOOD BOY, HARRINGTON!

James F. Harrington, president of the Hammonton Poultry Show Association and a leading poultry raiser of Atlantic county, sent eight of his best hens to participate in a two years' egg laying contest in England, conducted under the auspices of the "Daily Mail."
The eight hens were shipped last fall, at an expense of $100 in entry fees and transportation charges, and will not be returned until November of next year.

Harrington has received word from England that his birds have made an excellent record during the first three of the twenty-four months the contest is to occupy, and is confident that the "Jersey" birds will make a record equal, if not superior, to those of English raising.

PIKES PEAK MOTOR

Touring Car
$1395

The ultimate blend of all that is desirable in the car at a price that is surprisingly low. Deepened seat, refreshingly long, flow, graceful lines. A masterful performer on any road.

Five Passenger
Chummy Sedan
$1695

An entirely new type of five-passenger closed car, priced for those who desire genuine closed car durability and comfort at almost open car cost.
Body by Fisher, richly appointed. Exceptionally dignified and spacious.

A PHENOMENAL new motor that was built to a mountain's specifications in order to assure rugged strength, limitless power and a commanding margin of safety, is the outstanding feature of the 1923 Chandler car.

This motor earned its name, for it had to prove its capacity when pitted against the strains of Pikes Peak, the world's loftiest automobile highway, whose summit is 14,000 feet above the sea.

New Low Prices Complete the Triumph!

The Pikes Peak tests proved that perfect combustion under the widest range of atmospheric conditions had finally been achieved;

—that the steepest grades could be ascended in a swift, smooth,
silent advance;

—that instant throttle response
had been obtained even with low grade fuels;

—that the so called "ping" or spark knock of pre-ignition had been utterly eliminated regardless of carbon;

—that vibration, pounding,
bucking, skipping on any grade
had been overcome.

This new Chandler was built,
without regard to cost, to get the best.

Four open and four closed body styles have been carried to a new perfection.

An increase in price could readily have been justified, for the motor is a much more expensive design.

But Chandler production skill has matched Chandler engineering genius, and despite the advance in quality, there are new low prices on all models.

The result is a value without precedent, a value that can be proved by performance.
