WILL HONOR NEW BANKERS

Leading members of the Italian colony at this place will vie with each other in doing honor to F. Anthony Colasurdo, Peter T. Hanore and Benjamin Foglietta, who were elected Directors of the Hammonton Trust Company at its recent election. The Rev. Robert Sergi, pastor of St. Joseph's R. C. Church; Dr. Anthony Esposito, who was elected Coroner at the November election; Matteo Rubba, Girard Ruberton, Nicholas Casnan, Joseph Fizzi and other leading Italian-American residents will give the new bankers a banquet.

Good work that on the Parker case. Give all credit due to Mrs. Elvina, Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. Bobet and Mr. Bu-dick.

MR. MAYOR, SPEAK OUT IN FAIRNESS TO ALL

We dislike to have to report such controversy as is now raging because of the charges made in Mayor Cunningham's address. But manhood re-volets to allow such things to pass un-noticed. Not only is it untrue that "the mouths of local newspapers have been sewn up"—as witness the open stand of the "Star"—but we are un-able to verify a number of the state-ments made in the Mayor's letter. We still offer him space aplenty to tell what he means.

THE ANSWER!!!

Council has decided that it will not publish the 1921 bud-gets in the "Star." We knew we faced the loss of Council print- ing when we dared speak the truth, but had a faint hope—a very faint one—that there might be four out of seven members who would not resort to the unjust, un-American weapon of the boycott. We were entirely too optimistic, it appears.

DOES NOT ANSWER FORMER OFFICIALS

No reply has yet been made by Mayor Charles Cunningham to the re-quest made by ten former officials, three of them predecessors of his in the office of Mayor, regarding his statement that "a former official had collected $300 annually without au- thorization." This was only one of a number of charges contained in the Mayor's address to the new Council, most of which are so clouded in gen-eralities as to make a reply on the part of supposed culprits practically impos- sible.

A GOOD MOVE

That a property owner must plant another tree at some convenient spot in close proximity to the one removed is the gist of the feeling of Council at the present time regarding the re- moval of shade trees.

This developed at last night's ses- sion of Council, when one of the nu- merous requests for permission to re- move a shade tree to make way for a driveway was up for action. Mayor Charles Cunningham took the posi- tion that such trees were in possession of the spot occupied long before the driveways were thought of, and should have due consideration.

Many fine trees have been cut down here in recent years on one pretext or another to make room for drive- ways or some other improvement, and unless a step is put to the practice this place, long so proud of its ma- jestic shade trees, will soon have few of them left. The Highway Commit- tee will hereafter insist upon the de- position of another tree if you take one out. And this can only be done after the Highway Committee has placed its O. K. upon the tree's re- moval.

The Chamber of Commerce meets on Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock. Be sure to attend.

WHEELER SAYS CLOSED SA- LOONS HAVE CHECKED CRIME

"The tide is turning toward law and order, and the crime wave is being checked."
"It is more encouraging when we realize that the crime wave is the backwash of the war. Other nations that are well are hit by it than this country. In December, 10, Police President Schuber in Vienna said that crime has increased there five fold this year. If saloons had been open during this period of un- usual financial stress, the crime wave would have been infinitely worse."
"It is a most hopeful sign of the time that the Governors of New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and the speaker of the House of New Jersey have recently urged the legislatures of these States to adopt law enforcement acts. These States were considered the black belt against prohibition. We expect New York, New Jersey, Con- necticut, Vermont and California to enact prohibition codes this year."—Gazette-Record.

WHO IS THE "BOOZE KING?"

For months past there have been many indications that liquor was being sold here in liberal amount. One of the places have been frequently men- tioned as disposing of the same, but the identity of the person who has been bringing the "hooch" into town has not been made public.
Since prohibition has been made of the arrest of a man near Camden as being the head of a booze ring, and that many sides of his were working in towns in this section of the State, it has been developed that a man well known throughout this town is under suspicion of being the local head of a most profitable branch of the big man's game.

Officers and members of the Ham- monton Chamber of Commerce are congratulating each other on the splendid record made by that body last year, when 40 out of 40 members paid their dues of $10 each. When the chamber was organized to succeed the old Board of Trade many looked askance when the dues were raised from $1 per year to $10. The new or- ganization collected $400 in dues from a membership of 42, compared to about $100 per year collected from 100 members of the former body.

THE MODERN FUNERAL

The anxious visits of the physician have ended. The pulse which so often responded with alternate hope or fear to his gentle touch has ceased to beat. The watch of the faithful nurse has come to a close. The suspended hope of loved ones is wrecked in a hopeless sea of woe. The orderly home has been suddenly dis-organized. Songs of joy have changed to wails of woe. Reason itself is sometimes dethroned, and at such an hour is the funeral director called to the household, and while he must organize order out of confusion he must do it in a way to avoid all semblance of commercialism, and at the same time, as far as possible, lift the pall that presses so heavily on the moaning hearts about him. Could any duty in life at the same time call for more judgment, patience, gentleness, humane and manly fortitude and self-pos- session? And in view of such duties can we over-estimate what should be the high character of one who properly and success- fully discharges the high office of funeral director?

FORDSON

The Ford Motor Company have just issued a book called "The Fordson at Work." This book is given free. Call in and get one. If you cannot call, write and we will mail you one without charge. It is not what the Ford Motor Company says about the Fordson Tractor but what the army of users have to say. This book voices the hardest kind of practical experience. It shows in illustration the Fordson Tractor at actual work along some ninety different lines of activity. It shows in these illustrations the wonder- ful versatility and utility of the Fordson Tractor. Shows it to be, beyond all question, the one bit of machinery that in a pecuniary, not only on the farm but along many lines of commercial business; especially does it show up the Fordson as a valuable servant on the farm. With it the farmer is relieved of the hard work; because he can take advantage of the weather in preparing his seed bed; he can do it at the right time; the same is true when it comes to harvesting. It solves, to a great extent, the problem of scarcity of labor.

With its wonderful, reliable power, it brings to the farm home all the conveniences, in the way of running water in the house, electric lights, operation of the washing machine, churning, separating the cream from the milk; it assumes and takes to itself the drudgery of farm life both in the field and in the house and it is only a matter of a few years until it will be as universal in its service on the farm as is the farmer himself. It will become a part of farm life; a beneficial part; a profitable part. Get order in for there's a rush coming.

The Man Nobody Knows

By HOLWORTHY HALL

"I suppose that has to be the answer. Well—no, I don't expect you didn't accept." Hilliard reached for his hat. "Add I mention whether you are more interested in the prize or the news and your agent and your father, but I don't think you should be set off to a fight with a prize of $100,000 and a job for you in the States. I only wanted to see you a moment and tell you the news and get your check. But when I saw you and your father—well, that was another matter. You were shaking hands at the door of the apartment."
"That'll be before the holidays, won't it?" She expected you to take Christmas dinner with us, of course. Mrs. Durant and I would have given up the news and get your check. But when I saw you and your father—well, that was another matter. You were shaking hands at the door of the apartment."

"I don't know about that," replied the father. "My daughter isn't going to marry any man but what is worth at least $100,000. When you get it, you come around and I'll talk with you."
White read of the hint to the Klondike. Gold, the paper said, was to be found only in Alaska. It would be easy, White agreed, to pick up $100,000 and hurry back to the States. So he packed up his grip and departed. It took him two and a half years, beginning in 1898, to gather a pile sufficient to meet the requirements.
Born in Elmira, N. Y., reared at Titusville, Pa., educated at Princeton, N. J., residing in Manhattan, O. White's chief business interests are in oil and gas. He has been the owner of the Southern Oil and Gas Co., and has done so—not, on the whole, he makes it pay.

Willard on New Railroad Rates

Desert Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, thinks that the new proposed railroad law will eventually lower the cost of interstate commerce. He pointed out that it is not the rates themselves but the fact that they are being fixed by law. "The new law will eventually lower the cost of interstate commerce," he said. "It is not the rates themselves but the fact that they are being fixed by law. The new law will eventually lower the cost of interstate commerce," he said. "It is not the rates themselves but the fact that they are being fixed by law."

Helen Hamilton Gardener's Job

A gray-haired woman now occupies the chair once held by Theodore Roosevelt on the United States civil service commission in Washington. Literally she doesn't fill the chair, but in spirit and ability she thoroughly fills it. Her name is Helen Hamilton Gardener. She holds the highest place over half a century ago in our government. Her place is now occupied by Miss Hamilton Gardener. She holds the highest place over half a century ago in our government. Her place is now occupied by Miss Hamilton Gardener.

Ludendorf Warns All the World

"Pointed out that it is not the rates themselves but the fact that they are being fixed by law. The new law will eventually lower the cost of interstate commerce," he said. "It is not the rates themselves but the fact that they are being fixed by law."
