THE MODERN FUNERAL

The educated embalmer, with full knowledge of advanced sanitary requirements and fully equipped, gives assurance to the bereaved family that the loved form, cold in death, will be preserved from corruption, and if infection has stamped its foul stain upon the loved child that the apartments will be purified and be freed from danger to those left, and that by his skill as an anatomist he can embalm the dead without mutilation or disfigurement, that all legal requirements can be fulfilled, so that the body can be transported, remote from the place of death, and that by his special skill he can be relied upon to carry out all requirements of local and State boards of health.

Such is the mission of the educated embalmer. He is a coadjutor of the health officer; he is a sanitarian and a public benefactor.

THE JONES' SERVICE
 Embalmer, Funeral Director and Sanitarian

IMPORTANT NOTICE
 In compliance with the New Jersey State Constitution School law, which requires all boys and girls between the ages of fourteen and sixteen not regularly enrolled in public schools to attend a continuation school, the day of Wednesday, September 29, has been set aside as a registration day for all such boys and girls in the Hammoncton district.

The place of registration is in the vocational school room, on the second floor of Ranere's Garage, Bellevue avenue, Hammoncton. Boys and girls employed in local factories on September 18 need not report for registration, but all not so employed, at home or working on farms, should report at the vocational school room between the hours of 9 and 12 in the morning, 2 and 6 in the afternoon, and 7:30 to 9 in the evening.

LOCAL NOTES.

The reports of the local financial institutions, which have just been issued, show assets of two and a half million dollars, an increase of fully one hundred per cent. during the past year. Jack Frost has made an early visit to this section, nipping tomato, sweet potato, pepper and other plants, but not to an extent to seriously damage those crops. Thin ice was formed at low spots at Da Costa and other nearby places. Fear of a killing frost at an early date is worrying growers.

B. L. MacDonald, chief inspector at the arsenal, is spending the week-end with friends in Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, Pa.

THIEVES ENTER LENDIN STORE
 Thieves early Thursday morning entered the store of Frank Lendin, robbing it of hundreds of dollars' worth of ties, shirts, sweaters, etc. On the shutter, piled open to effect an entrance, they wrote, "We did not get you this time. Look out next time. S. S. S." They left no clue behind them.

REPUBLICAN COUNCIL CANDIDATES
 Edward H. White, Peter Tell and E. Leroy Jackson won the Republican nomination for Council on Tuesday. Peter Cost was a strong fourth. Chas. Davenport, a sticker candidate, polled over 100 votes at the Republican primary, winning a place on the Democratic ticket.

THE FREEHOLDER FIGHT
 Dr. Frederick C. Burt was re-nominated by the Republicans Tuesday, as their candidate for Chosen Freeholder. William J. Slack was the choice of the Democrats.

BERNSHOUSE DEFEATS PIEZ
 Edward C. Bernshouse won the nomination on both tickets for the office of Overseer of Highways, having a good sized majority over Anton Piez, former member of Council.

DEMOCRATIC COUNCIL CANDIDATES
 Rufus Hurley, H. C. Driscoll and Chas. Davenport were nominated by the Democrats on Tuesday as their candidates for Council. Davenport won on stickers, but won third place on the ticket.

SAFETY FIRST!
 A third accident to a child occurred at this place this week. Particulars not at hand, but in this instance it appears the child was largely to blame. Usually the motorist—a speed fiend—is at fault.

STEADY THERE, MY BOY
 Charged by Officer Cassetta with two offenses, Justice E. A. Burdick found E. L. Jackson guilty of disorderly conduct and fined him $10 and costs. The other charge fell through, due to a technicality.

SPECIAL NOTICE
 Due to mechanical difficulties, which we hope soon to overcome, we are compelled to go to press with less than half our news set in type. Kindly pardon. We will make amends.

THE DANSEY CASE IN DANSEY CASE MEN'S VOTERS' SUPPORT
 "Did the Dansey case lose the first precinct for the Organization?" is the question some citizens of Hammoncton are discussing.

In that precinct, Edward M. White, father of Charles S. White, the accused man, lives. For the first time in years, a regular Republican candidate for Assembly was beaten. The election returns showed that both Koffer and Harcourt had a larger vote than Corio in the first precinct, each of the first named having 92 votes to 90 for Corio.

Edward M. White was head and shoulders above all his companions on the Republican Councilmanic ticket, having 622 votes to 411 for his nearest running mate. This is regarded by many as an expression of faith in White and as a rebuke to the county authorities.

CELLAR NO PLACE TO VOTE, EXCLAIMS FAIR VOTERS
 Hammoncton voters are regarding themselves with tales of the doings of the fair vote on primary election day. Some of these were unblushingly ridiculous, others had a bit of the pathetic in them.

In front of one of the two basement cellars, familiarly designated "dog-outs," two women voters passed. One had evidently lived in a State where women were accustomed to voting. She opened the "dog-out" with a bang. The other woman replied, "I never voted in a cellar, and I never will." The other woman replied, "I never voted at all, cellar or anywhere, and I'm going to now." And down she went and cast her ballot, to the chagrin of her companion and the joy of onlookers.

In a store a woman voter was heard discussing another "dog-out" she said, "she ran the Democrats down awful before election. And today she voted the Democratic ticket. The show was one kind of a dirty thing she is, don't it?"

HALLOWE'EN ASSOCIATION
 The Town Council has granted the Halloween Association permission to hold their annual parade, which will be held Monday evening, November 1st. They also appropriated enough money to furnish extra colored street lighting. It is now up to the business men and various organizations to turn in and co-operate with the committee and make this the biggest and most elaborate celebration of its kind ever held in Hammoncton.

WE NEED YOU!
 The Chamber of Commerce meets on Tuesday evening next, on the top floor of Odd Fellows Hall. Come out and help make it a live organization, thus helping boost our town.

MAY HEAR DANSEY CASE
 Hammonctonians are gratified at the selection of five citizens of this place for Grand Jury during the October term of court.

Thomas C. Elvins, one of the men drawn, served Atlantic county in the New Jersey Legislature for seven terms. Albert L. Jackson is a well-known business man, son of former Assemblyman Marcellus L. Jackson, and for years assistant postmaster here; Swain T. Godfrey is a successful druggist, and a former member of Council, as was Elvins, who served two years as Mayor of Hammoncton; Dr. J. A. Was is the dean of local dentists, for many years a member of the Board of Education; M. O. Packard is an extensive poultry raiser and active in local matters. Packard has felt all along, and openly expressed such opinion, that there was unnecessary delay in the presentation of the Dansey case to the Grand Jury, and has expressed his firm conviction that the county authorities have been guilty of a band wagon in their handling of the matter. With Mr. Packard on the Grand Jury he will have ample opportunity for weighing the case that the State may present.

WILL PROSECUTE SIXTY
 Summons are now being issued for the prosecution of sixty growers in Atlantic, Cumberland and Gloucester counties who have persisted in violating the law passed by the late Legislature to the effect that the receptacles in which products are shipped for sale must be properly marked with the name and address of the shipper. The penalty for violating this law is $50 fine and costs for each offense. The prosecution of these delinquents was decided upon after a meeting held at three corners of the four, presided over by Elliot Molton, assistant State Superintendent of Weights and Measures, accompanied by the county superintendents.

ACCIDENT PRODUCERS
 Bitter complaint is heard here regarding the unwarranted blocking of much used crossings by freight trains. In one recent case recently after the crossing had been blocked fully twenty minutes a taxpayer tired crossing for an additional convenient minute. This blocking of crossings results in a bad congestion of traffic and is practically certain to result in accidents if continued. At one point it is a common thing for freight cars to be held at three corners of the four, making the passage of vehicles at this point extremely hazardous.

LOCAL RED CROSS WINS HONOR

Law Should Protect Alaskan Big Game Against Pot Hunters and Wolves.

By DR. W. T. HORNADAY, New York Zoological Gardens.

It is perfectly clear that there are today several conditions in the game situation that stand in need of radical improvement. I think that those conditions and improvements may be listed, in the order of their importance, as follows:

There should now be a complete stoppage of the sale of game.

There now is necessary a legal system of regulated hunting by proxy, by which persons living in remote regions, and who procure their rights in the usual proportion of game.

It being the bounden duty of the federal government and the territory of Alaska jointly to protect the game of Alaska, an adequate establishment of a game commissioner and a larger force of game wardens has become necessary. There should be a paid deputy game warden in every settlement large enough to have a postoffice.

The destruction of game by wolves should be checked by a relentless war of extermination on the latter. The proper utilization of poison should be provided for by regulation.

It being the bounden duty of the federal government and the territory of Alaska jointly to protect the game of Alaska, an adequate establishment of a game commissioner and a larger force of game wardens has become necessary. There should be a paid deputy game warden in every settlement large enough to have a postoffice.

The territory of Alaska should be empowered to charge a license fee, to be paid by the hunter, and to employ a deputy game warden in every settlement large enough to have a postoffice.

The federal government should retain its authority to close any area to hunting whenever the decrease of game therein seems to threaten the local extinction of a valuable species.

THE INNOCENTS

Now Mr. Rat was rather young and he did not know that he should look westward before he ran out of his home under the barn door in the daytime.

One morning when Mr. Rat was asleep on the floor of the barn near the door, he happened to open one eye, and there in the corner of the barn was Mr. Young Rat, nibbling corn.

Mr. Young Rat got a good scolding from his mother when he tumbled into the house for letting his dog see where he lived, and Mr. Young Rat was well scolded by his mother for barking and playing when he should have caught Mr. Rat.

The next day when Mr. Young Rat poked his nose out just to take a look around, he found that he was not the big dog in the cap of water or stock, a mixed bunch, a transparent of all sorts, but a very young rat.

Mr. Young Rat was very much surprised to find that he was not the big dog in the cap of water or stock, a mixed bunch, a transparent of all sorts, but a very young rat.

National League of Women Voters Has Opportunity and Responsibility.

By MRS. CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT, Suffrage Leader.

What are the women going to do with the vote? Are they going to draw back their skirts in disdain from all interest in politics on the ground that it is corrupt, or are they going to be of those who will help America's army of non-voting citizens, and apply to close any area to hunting whenever the decrease of game therein seems to threaten the local extinction of a valuable species.

The women are ready for the vote before them, but the National League of Women Voters, by state branches formed from the old enfranchisement and non-voting citizens, and apply to close any area to hunting whenever the decrease of game therein seems to threaten the local extinction of a valuable species.

What the Sphinx Says

By Newton Hewitt.

So on a day when the Sphinx was sitting on the top of the Great Pyramid, he saw a man coming towards him.

The man was a young man, and he was very handsome. He was wearing a long coat and a hat, and he was carrying a bag.

The Sphinx looked at the man for a long time, and then he spoke. He said: "What is your name, and what do you want?"

The man answered: "My name is John, and I want to know the answer to your riddle."

The Sphinx said: "Very well, John. My riddle is: 'I am not alive, but I grow; I don't have lungs, but I breathe; I don't have a mouth, but I eat.' What am I?'"

John thought for a long time, and then he said: "I think I know the answer, Sphinx. I think you are a fire hydrant."

The Sphinx said: "No, John, that is not the answer. Think again."

John thought for a long time, and then he said: "I think I know the answer, Sphinx. I think you are a fire hydrant."

The Sphinx said: "No, John, that is not the answer. Think again."

STRAINING THE SKIN. Can you tell me a riddle? Before He's Hurt

The little fellow who sets up a howl when he only thinks that something is about to befall him, isn't so much different from some grown people. For instance, those who buy out of town simply because they think that our local stores do not have what they want—these folks are very much like him.

It isn't fair to accuse our local merchants of not having up to date goods if you only think it. Neither is it fair to them or to yourself for you to go elsewhere when they do have, or can get, what you want.

Make it a habit to go to your local dealer first. When he finds that you are going to give him a chance, he'll make every effort always to have the goods you like.

The high-powered, sure-working Buick Valve-in-Head Motor is a feature of each of the new models.

Added to their great service value are a beauty of contour and appointment and a comfort of movement and seating arrangement that appeal to the most particular.

Buick primarily, however, is a car of action. Built for business—built to stand up—is a well known Buick feature. Business men will find the new five passenger touring car a happy selection.

Nobody thinks anything now of going away on a trip

THE railroads were partly responsible. But it wasn't until the automobile reached its present state of development that the old barriers against travel were finally broken down.

More people own automobiles today than ever thought of owning a horse and buggy in the old days.

That's because the cost of motoring has been brought within reach of the average citizen's pocketbook.

We look upon it as part of our job to keep it there. If it weren't for the trade of the man with the medium priced car there wouldn't be much in this tire business for us.

The less a man has to spend on motoring, the more important it is that his tires should be of first quality.

Any tire is not good enough for the small car owner. He wants a tire that will give him just as much for his money in the small size as the big car man gets for his money in the large size.

In thinking over what kind of tires we would represent in this community we tried to put ourselves in the place of the car owner. And we believe we hit it exactly when we selected U. S. Tires.

United States Tires Hammonton AUTO Station

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:
In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.
For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Uaco.
For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.
For best results—except where—U. S. Royal Cord.
