BIG GAME COLUMBUS DAY

The greatest gathering of baseball fans this place has ever known is expected here on Wednesday next, Columbus Day, when the crack Hammonton team faces the Philadelphia A's.

LET'S ACT NOW
The Fifth ward of Philadelphia has little on our local "machine." It will be a sorry day for Hammington if its voters, men and women, swallow machine candidates and machine methods.
The time to improve conditions is NOW. They should never have been permitted to reach present status.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Having been nominated for Council on the Democratic ticket, without my knowledge or solicitation, I wish to thank those who considered me worthy of the honor and I accept the nomination and, if elected, will try and do my little for the best interests of all.
—ALONZO E. DAVIS.

OUR "LET" VS. CHIEF BENDER Chief Bender, of the Athletics, will be opposed in the pitcher's box by Leslie Montgomery, Hammington's greatest twirler, in the game to be played here on the afternoon of Columbus Day, Wednesday, October 12, when a big celebration will be held in honor of Columbus, and the Hammington and Athletic teams will clash on the diamond.

PLEASE GET GARMENTS IN ON TIME
The annual meeting of the Hammington Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will be held here in Civic Club Hall, on November 3.
A record-breaking number of garments is expected to be turned in this year by members of the organization.

THE REV. KELLAR COMES TO HAMMINGTON
The vacancy in the pulpit of the First M. E. Church of Hammington, caused by the death of the former pastor, the Rev. Benjamin Corson, has been filled by the assignment here of the Rev. George H. Kellar, formerly with the Troy, N. Y., Conference, but lately in charge of the Methodist churches at Elm and Tabernacle.

M. L. JACKSON VERY ILL
Hon. Macellian L. Jackson, President of the People's Bank, and a former member of the Assembly, Postmaster and Mayor here, who has been ill for a year past, has had a relapse, and is in a serious condition, at the home of his son, Councilman E. Leroy Jackson, on Cherry street.

REVIVAL SERVICES
Evangelistic services will be held in the Old Church, at Lower Bank, from October 17 to 20, inclusive. The services will be under the direction of Miss Kathryn Roth, well known as a Shakespearean interpreter.

FOR RENT
Five rooms to rent, electric lights; all conveniences; very reasonable, 123 Fairview avenue.

ANOTHER BIG GAME
Come out on Saturday and give "Let" Montgomery and the entire Hammington team a hand. They deserve it. A big game at 2 o'clock.

SHAME ON OUR COUNTY OFFICIAL

Saturday will mark the second anniversary of the disappearance of little Billy Dansey, who was kidnapped, or murdered, on October 8.
This tragic mystery has never been solved, much to the regret of thousands of Hammingtonians. A fearful tragedy unavenged.

BIG TIME HALLOWE'EN
Posters are out for the big Halloween celebration, to be held here on the evening of October 31.
Cash and other prizes will be awarded.
Music, electrical illuminations and a owned by Mrs. Rose Russo, is being improved by painters.

GOOD EATS HERE
The "Rainbow Restaurant," latest of Hammington's eating places, is according to an instantaneous success. It is owned and operated by John Machisi, who, during the late war, acted as cook for some of the big officers of the American forces "over there."

A LINE ON THE SITUATION According to the wishes of many voters of this place, Thomas B. Delker, editor of the "South Jersey Star," has announced his candidacy for the office of Chosen Freeholder. He will run on stickers, having as his opponent, Harry L. Murphy, Republican, and William B. Phillips, Democrat. Murphy is the present incumbent of that office, and was renoma-inated at the primary, but was opposed for the nomination by Frank Tomazsello. Delker will run as an independent, and is assured of hundreds of votes here, a large part of the citizens being opposed to Murphy, and feeling that Phillips cannot command the support necessary to win out Delker, at the recent primary, energetically supported former Assemblyman Thomas C. Elvins, who won a most creditable victory at the polls for the Republican nomination for Mayor. The local machine fought El-vins tooth and nail, resorting to various tactics to beat him out, but Elvins came through with 232 majority over his opponent. Murphy adherents fought the nomination of Elvins.

COUNTY POULTRY TOUR
Over six-score persons were given luncheon yesterday on the lawn of H.
O. Packard, of First road. They were participating in the big poultry tour party. Poultry farms at Hammonton, Mays Landing, Dorothy, Elwood and Lauredale were visited.

ditions we announce substantial reductions in rates, to take effect Octo-

Fordson
FOR THIRTY-FIVE YEARS Henry Ford, a farmer's boy, has been working on the problem of a successful tractor for the farm, and for the past fourteen years has devoted much time and a vast amount of money to the development of the present Ford-son Tractor. Today that Tractor is in use on nearly 200,000 farms and if you have any doubt as to the satisfaction it gives to those who are using it, call in and get the booklet, just issued by the Ford Motor Company, and called "The Fordson at Work" and read the testimony which is there given by the multitude of owners of Fordson Tractors. No evidence can be more conclusive than that of the man who actually knows by personal experience and this is the line of testimony carried in this little booklet.
There is no cost for this booklet. If you cannot call for it, write, drop us a postal, and we will mail it to you without charge. It is so valuable you ought to have it because it is the open door through which the farmer will pass from the hard working drudge to the comparative comfort of the manufacturer. The Fordson makes it possible for the farmer to plan and direct, while the machine will do the work. It presents the widest lattitude for the farmer to exercise his brain power and plan how he can get the most from the soil, knowing that the Tractor will do the hard work, do it better, do it quicker, and therefore do it more profitably. This means not alone in the cultivation of the soil, in the harvesting of the crops, but in a hundred and one different demands that are made of labor, cutting of ensilage and the filling of the silo; cutting of wood; operation of the washing machine; in the lighting of the house with electricity; supplying the house with running water; bringing to the farmer's wife and daughters the conveniences of the city

INDEXED

The hundreds of baseball fans present at the great West-Berlin-Hamonton game, when the locals won by a score of 1 to 0, pronounced it the best game ever played here. Berlin made out two hits off Montgomery, late of the Syracuse Stars, and Hamonton's greatest pitcher, only 23 of the visitors facing Montgomery. Charles Piez, formerly on the New York Giants, and Laurence Dewalt, left fielder and center fielder respectively, played magnificently in their positions. So well pleased were the spectators that they presented a handsome purse to Montgomery, Piez and Dewalt, to be divided equally between them.

LINE-UP OF THE TWO TEAMS

Leahie Montgomery, Hamonton's great twirler, who just closed a successful season as the champion pitcher of the Syracuse Stars, of the International League, will be opposed by Chief Bender, of the Athletics, in the great game to be played here on Columbus Day, October 12.

Exposito, second base
Bathcher, third base
Piez, center field

L. Montgomery, pitcher
Robla, right field

The Athletics line-up will be taken from the following players: Bender, Welch, Griffin, McCann, Myatt, Rummer, Maylor, Buzel, Collins, Johnson, Witt, Eckert, Marmack and Barrett.

Miss Kasper, who was driving a White Horse Pike with Miss Frieda Watkins, when a car suddenly appeared in front of them out of the woods of that playhouse, and she stepped out of the way of this car, that of the County Agent struck Miss Kasper, hurled her to the concrete roadways, fracturing her skull.

INDEXED

The hundreds of baseball fans present at the great West-Berlin-Hamonton game, when the locals won by a score of 1 to 0, pronounced it the best game ever played here. Berlin made out two hits off Montgomery, late of the Syracuse Stars, and Hamonton's greatest pitcher, only 23 of the visitors facing Montgomery. Charles Piez, formerly on the New York Giants, and Laurence Dewalt, left fielder and center fielder respectively, played magnificently in their positions. So well pleased were the spectators that they presented a handsome purse to Montgomery, Piez and Dewalt, to be divided equally between them.

LINE-UP OF THE TWO TEAMS

Leahie Montgomery, Hamonton's great twirler, who just closed a successful season as the champion pitcher of the Syracuse Stars, of the International League, will be opposed by Chief Bender, of the Athletics, in the great game to be played here on Columbus Day, October 12.

Exposito, second base
Bathcher, third base
Piez, center field

L. Montgomery, pitcher
Robla, right field

LYRIC THEATER

"Spanish Love," the novel and picturesque drama by Avery Hopwood and Mary Roberts Rhinehart, that ran all last season at the Maxine Elliott Theater, New York, is now being presented at the Lyric Theater, Philadelphia. The production, which is most unusual in the manner of its staging, is precisely the same as during the long metropolitan engagement. Double stage is employed, which gives a new aspect to the interior of the theater, and a Spanish string orchestra provides music for the dances by Los Carols, the noted dancers from the Royal Opera House, Madrid, who were brought to America especially for this production. The drama itself is a vivid and thrilling presentation of passion life in the province of Murcia, Spain, from whence have been brought all the costumes and accessories used in the performance. On account of the peculiar manner of the presentation, which involves the use of parts of the auditorium as well as the stage, patrons are requested to be in their seats at 8:20 and the matinee performance on Wednesdays and Saturdays, at 2:20.

ADOLPHUS THEATER

"The Bat" has literally taken Philadelphia by storm. The outstanding performance at the Adolphus Theater was witnessed by the largest assembly within the walls of that playhouse, and the advance sale exceeded all previous records. "The Bat" has come to stay, and as THE PUBLIC LEADER says, "It will go on forever." As to the artistic qualities of this remarkable play, the entire Philadelphia press pronounces "The Bat" a thriller that leaves the audience breathless. There is sufficient mystery and romance to satisfy the most insatiable palate. The authors, Mrs. Mary Roberts Rhinehart and Avery Hopwood, have constructed one of the most thrilling, fascinating and hilariously funny plays that the stage has ever known. There is nothing signally in the ingenious way in which mystery is piled on mystery, thrill on thrill and when the nerves of the spectator are wrought up to the highest and tensest pitch of excitement, the pressure is relieved by some episode that creates rollicking laughter. An exceptionally fine company has been engaged to interpret "The Bat," including Helen Dauray, Marguerite and Jessie Ralph, Malines Thursday and Janette.

SHUBERT VAUDEVILLE

AT CHESTNUT STREET OPERA HOUSE

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

With the opening of Shubert vaudeville in the historic old Chestnut Street Opera House, this famous and beloved theater of tender memories completes a circle. Persons still living may recall when this amusement place was known as Fox's Theater of Varieties. In these days a system of program was presented that might in some manner be likened to vaudeville of today, even though the bills contained many museum features and the acts were crude, compared with the modern style of this form of entertainment.

Shubert vaudeville, which has been inaugurated in Philadelphia at the Chestnut Street Opera House and later at the Forest, is to be something distinctly different and better than the usual run of theatrical entertainment that have been heretofore presented under the classification "vaudeville," according to the Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert, who personally will direct the policy of the big circuit they are now establishing.

Speaking of the new Shubert venture, Mr. J. J. Shubert said: "It is our aim to make the Shubert vaudeville superior to any form of similar entertainment. For months a creative staff has been steadily at work preparing materials and acts, and this staff will remain a feature of the organization. Producers, writers, composers and directors, many of them internationally famous, are included in the personnel of the staff."

OBED THE LAW UNTIL REPEALED

When a law has been enacted as has the Volstead law, after substantial ratification by 45 States out of 48, and by an overwhelming majority of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, that a great mass of the people are back of the basic principles of the same, if not to the minutest detail of the act itself. And when New Jersey adopts the Van Ness act AFTER an election that cleaned the deck of the so-called "liberal" element, there must be a demand for such legislation for the men and women who adopted that act, by a tremendously overwhelming majority are not fools. These laws have not had a fair test, nor will they when Governor's blarney about making their State "as wet as the Atlantic ocean," and judges withhold imposing the full penalties thereof "until the act is declared unconstitutional." I am sure that we believe that a law was to be implicitly obeyed until it was declared unconstitutional, not to be looked at as unconstitutional until declared unconstitutional.

OSBORN

"HAPPY GO LUCKY" IS A BIG HIT

AT THE WALNUT STREET THEATER, PHILADELPHIA

All the people who attend theaters in Philadelphia are talking about the new play at the Walnut Street Theater entitled "Happy Go Lucky." While this delicious comedy is new to Philadelphia it is not new to New York or London where it attained a success of emotional proportions by remaining in these two cities for more than two years. Its coming to the Walnut was therefore awaited with keen expectation. A capacity audience gathered to welcome it and the reception which it received will live long in the memory of all those present. Every seat was filled and by the time the middle of the second act was reached every seat of the sixteen hundred present was holding his or her sides which were beginning to ache from laughter. It is doubtful if a funnier scene has ever been written into a play than that of the tea party of "Happy Go Lucky." No attempt will be made to describe it for all such attempts would fall far short of adequacy.

Shubert to say that it pleases everyone and will make the most chronic crank forget his pessimism. Appearing in the company is Mr. O. Hargie who created the role of the interesting and laughable Samuel Hill, bottle in the London production and who shared in the long New York run of the play. Critics have run out of adjectives trying to word-paint this actor's comic talents. His make-up as that of a higher level in order that their laughter fully may marry the wit of the writer's parents, is worth the price of admission alone. And that their laughter fully may marry the wit of the writer's parents, is worth the price of admission alone. And that their laughter fully may marry the wit of the writer's parents, is worth the price of admission alone.

"Happy Go Lucky" will remain at the Walnut Street Theater for a short time only and it is suggested that all who care for the best playhouse have had to offer would do well to see this play in making their seats for out-of-town patrons a
